Chapter 1

Anias then begins channelling the field into its own custom plane. There, he summons Aura's wife, Aura's mother, Soula, in an imperfect form in souls.

Anias: Alright, chief, is that what you wanted my guy

Aura and Vis are Confused, then see the fields change in session form.

Soula: Why would you bring me here when I was just so busy? Sigh, why hate me like you use the rest of your lovers' eyes?

Augen:.....

Vis starts to realise he's in a state that wasn't what he sought.

Anias: You might be wondering how predictable this whole situation was, even to the last drop of this existence, my guy, and how im still in this state. Oh, vis, how come you haven't called back your girls, and

I thought I was the traitor.r

Vis: Is this guy high? Who is he trying to.....

Suddenly, Aneria gets right back into the plane with Sogo's assistance during the teleport, and she helps Vis just in time for the climax.

Aneria: right on time

Aura, Aneria, and Vis then engage in the offensive ahead.

Vis: Alright, you both were hiding something. The Azure king knew the situation. Tch, I know it's pointless.

Vis then shoves the etherblade into the ground and then uses the azure mechanics to see, and then realises

Augen: You're wondering why I didn't deliver the final blow to you when I had the chance to end all of this. As king, I have all of the practical means to end you already. You already knew since I've told you, the successors' paths.

Vis: You can't mean im being trained to

Aura: Father, don't..... I know what you're going to do, and why why try and do this from that past after time in that reality. WHERE'S THE HEART IN YOU

Augen:.....

Scene

Augen then holds his blades in different strokes, making each stroke differ in force as well.

Augen: You were never clean from all of those events before, I surely remember. You have to remember that is why I've carved you up to this potential.

Vis: Then why care to even start this in the 1st place? Tch, I grew into who I am; I did what you told me to do... I am someone who has the will of that identity.

Vis for a young man he is, feels all of the conflict and wanting for his life to return, His family, His own life back to change for the better.

Vis: why.....tch

Vis then shows his tears, trying to hold it in, he lets it flow, for what it shows is his humanity flowing in

Aura and Aneria come into the place and hug Vis to comfort his soul.

Aneria: It's fine

Aura: were here vis

Aura then stands up and fights her own fathers with the most skill and stature in any form; she combats Augen with speed unlike the stars have seen.

Both Malik and Sogo see the situation and look at Tartus to make him feel accountable.

Sogo: Just let us go in! We're running out of time!

Tartus: For this moment, I want to get the time back. Alright, my brother Augen, it's time; our team needs to return. We've been waiting.

Tartus then calls out Augen for what is about to happen; the time is at the highest point.

Tartus: Augen wake them up. You were the one forcing them into this. WAKE UP

* * *

Vextor then returns to the upper colo plane and sees the resting meu, asa, and balen

Vextor: Vis, please save Augen from what he is about to do.

Vextor then starts the recovery waking process of meu, asa, and balen

* * *

In the crimson kingdom, the rest of the mercenaries and assassins then play their parts to determine what needs to be done.

Adonis: The sky is actually turning to colours I haven't seen, yo, Ater. Is this it...

Ater: Alright, looks like vis is about to test the limits and break to the heavens.

* * *

scene

Augen then starts to use the situation to his own ways

Augen: You want to make your own harem vis, ahh, he's just like the rest vis is confused by this, then comes to the waking and doesn't phase out from a situation like this

Vis: im not gonna fall for that, they got their own reason, not desperate even to use

Augen: You really took your time, long enough to think like that, so freaken slow, sigh was slow thinking, even a skill or an actualisation to begin with.

Vis: That's all you gotta say!!! I'll force it!!!

Vis then does the dances of blades against Augen

Augen then starts to dance with Aura and Aneria at the same time

Aura: You're actually doing this to us

Aneria: Im not gonna fall for this charade, king or whatever, sigh STOP

Aura then slashes Augen's grasp away from her to regain control of her stance

Vis then comes to a clashing standstill with Augen, both blades in tandem, and their emotional forces and mentalities are brought into confrontation. Both are now even in both skills of blades, and combat form- sets

Augen: Ah twin, we are in the same form-set, so he wants many of that selection, wanna play the prince that saves the girl, or the champion that will sacrifice it. Your time clicking

Vis and Augen then enter their ether stances. Aura goes behind vis and helps Vis control the ether deconstruction

Aura: Hun im here

Vis: Aura.....

Augen then controls all the aura particles in the barrier, and thus Augen gets the power back.

Suddenly, Vis and Aura then emit the aura in harmony and thus switch all of the aura particles away from Augen's control.

Vis then holds Aura's hand and lets go, knowing what he's about to do

Aura:

Vis then swats his stance, putting him and Augen into an Ether standstill time stance.

Both Aura and Aneria couldn't believe what had happened, as Vis and Augen were in an Ether time paradox, still in time.

Aura: He actually Please don't lose.

Scene:

Vis an augen are then entered into an ether-like plane in session

Augen: amongst anyone I've ever seen do these stupid things, you had to manoeuvre it and play this part of fate into this area. Tch, and now im in this space. Vis, what are you crafting up? Oh boy, you never seem to amaze me on this.

Vis then slowly puts the blade out from his hand.

He then uses the Caisa form and purifies the Augens-crafted ether force.

Vis realises that the field like this doesn't last, then challenges Augen, knowing something is technically off with his form.

Vis: You never really changed, so stuck in that belief, thinking you are the most stylish and cool, yet you're taking it like you're frantic, you're actually slipping, I can sense it

Vis then overcomes the augens' control over the ether field in the play at hand and cures that part of himself that cursed that built his reason all from the start. Using an ether ability to edit the curse, he then sees how Augen was constructed to be who he is.

Augen is no longer so pleased or annoyed and then sees him in a different space. Augen, feeling the remorse and conflict of his own past, his righteous ideology and reasoning that broke him and ended him, with all that loss from his past. His own friends and teammates, and what he thought to be the strongest and a champion, how he lost all of it.

Augen: You knew it, you knew when you activated the ether flow, you had to change your attitude and stop faking it, damn you're him, the one that actually changed.

Vis then emits the purification force, and Augen is phased out of the ether timefield; however, Vis realises that this being, a force Augen was planning this test for, was just an illusion from the king of Azure.

At the moment, on the colosseum plane, the team is relieved of the chaos as Augen's illusion state dissipates.

Malik: dang, so he was actually a facade this whole time, He's that strong to combat at this pace,

Aura then sees Vis return from the time paradox, now cleansed from the azure curse.

Aura: Vis, you look..... gasp

Vis then holds the blades and channels his flow state

Vis: feels so cool like a summer breeze

Vis then slowly turns to Aura and finishes holding Aura's Hand. He then feels his self-esteem. He then kneels, knowing who he is.

Vis: You have all of the reasons to get what you need. Hence, even a person like me, even if a combatant like me is in that force, is not as important as someone who has the burdens of many, the ones you cherish. I'll do whatever it takes to protect you as you wish.

Aura feels the air of how vis proposed, then blushes, knowing this was the 1st time vis has ever done this. She wouldn't think he could or even have the bravery to act.

Aura: Really! Gasp

Vis: wait, something is going.....

Malik and Sogo then try to confront Anias and stop him and the barrier

Vis then lets his hands go again and does an Aura-like teleportation behind Tartus and puts the blade to his neck

Vis: Friend, huh? Alright, Tartus, you were one of them, the hidden ones, to do this at this stage. A soft reset was already a given. What's your aim

Tartus is in a deep situation, but sees his team back then

Tartus: You all are just over your heads... alright, tell me what I'm actually hiding.

Scene:

Vis behind the Tartus back to get him to actually spill it, then sees what Tartus is doing.

Tartus: I'm definitely in a situation where I won't be able to cut my way out, alright, what's your catch, Vis the boy Vis: The other plane, Vextor, was aiming at finding the right moment to go there, did he?

Tartus: You're lacking words, my guy, you're trying to act intellectually disabled

Vis then puts the blade closer to the neck.

Vis: You already know it couldn't be any easier to spill it, even a kid can do it.

Tartus: You mean Vextor, that mess of a man, cough, alright, so-called master child ding, Vis then lowers the blade and makes Tartus explain himself.

Tartus: Alright, so angsty, so the team I have or was part of was organised by Augen, the so-called king you were listening to. I was the one who processed the soul and aura elements in the kingdoms to be accessed.

Vis: That doesn't explain what he said by playing god and talking in ways to slander whatever I did.

Tartus: You forgot one thing,

Vis: What else

Tartus then passes a card to vis and forces his mind to realise the image

Vis: what, why am I,... no that doesn't make any sense, why am I

Tartus: I already knew what you were going to react to, remember us, this wouldn't be the light of the gasses,I would think

The image then shows the whole team from a verse told before,

Sophos, Azen, Alex, Ater, Anias, Augen, Balena, Asa, and Meu, Soula, and VIS

Vis: what.....

Tartus: Aura, my lady, what else do you want?

Aura:.....

Vis: tch, im not that kind, this kind of gaslighting is pathetic,

Tartus: heh, your speaking patterns are even predictable now,

Tartus then looks at everyone at the moment and says this,

Tartus: Alright, you all know how pre-crafted this situation is, and how I, as a servant to reality, got screwed for just giving my trust to a lead who couldn't save himself for jackshit.

Vis: this is what's going on

Malik: This isn't making any sense, so this poser or whatever he's trying to cook is lacking so much, especially in how he talks. Tch, I don't even respect this, I im not going to trust it.

Vis, in that feeling of resolute, then sees the form of control change in the area. He then considers aura for who she is, someone with so much pain coming from her eyes, that want and reason that she had, her ideals not shown a reason to the world, and was used to be an heir, she had nothing to control, she did have a life but all because of protection, Vis then stops Malik and realizes this he then sees aura.

Vis: You wanna see Endo again

Aura:..... no ..

Vis:.....

Suddenly, a hidden door, crystal white and pure, with a smell of white flowers and scented candles, opens into the area.

Soula, in her soul form, then talks to Aura and Vis.

Soula: Whatever that man was doing, he's somewhere only I would know. You both have reached a point where even skill won't tell who you are.

Vis: Seriously

Aura: wow

Vis and Aura then feel the door is only a door they can enter

Scene:

Vis remembers all the times and confrontations he endured to reach this point in time and reality. From that perspective, he sees and wants the reason from the one who brought this to him.

Vis: There's a chance that I can get my family back, it's so close Vis's own monologue about the situations makes him want the goal he's been pursuing deep inside him, to find a chance to bring them back. And then he remembers what the azure king did, suddenly, he goes into a dream coma stance.

Aura: No VIS!.....

Vis then returns to the dreams in the minds of a plane and encounters something he didn't pursue.

Everyone sees what just happened and tries to wake Vis up from the mess that is the reality.

Both Anias and Tartus then retreat from the area at hand, knowing they gained a particular insight into the matter.

Vis then tries to wake up and says:

Vis: I won't let it curse me again, NOOOO!

Vis then strengthens and gets up, controlling the curse into a blade of embedded chaos, in the most controlled form.

The rest couldn't believe what just happened and realised who Vis is.

Aura: You're not thinking of Vis..... I hate having this. I never wanted this to begin with,

Vis then throws the blade with his strongest might, with regret, remorse, and hate for being someone he didn't want to be.

Vis:.....why

Vis then thinks for a bit and sees his power as his own to some form,

Aura: I won't let you become like my father, even if I have to take your blows, do you hear me?

Vis:.....

Sogo then talks to VIs about his aim for what he knows to do or plans to do

Sogo: You're finally opening up to yourself, man took you long enough.

Sogo then sees that the situation has become something that can't be easily explained.

Sogo: Even from the start, I knew your reason was gonna be intense, kinda too strong, almost like a martyr turned god complex of a ruler, Sogo then forces his blade form, as it was all those years ago.

Sogo: Rip this situation, even though our clan had to be separated from the agreement and conflict, I wasn't lying around doing jack shit.

Sogo then stances his blade and forms a controlled ether field in play; all the others couldn't believe Sogo had the skill, as Sogo then forces vis ego and reason to be tested.

Sogo: This time we finish it.

Vis is in a reluctant mood, then forms his blade in control skill as well.

Vis: You never moved on from this.... sigh

Sogo: go ask yourself, you're the one that needs a reality check, freaken hard ass!

Both vis and Sogo then brawl it out like old times, back then

Aura: Both of you stop.

Vis and Sogo can't hear her as they both fight it

Aura, in her own controlled voice, in resonance, then says

Aura: STOP!

Both Vis and Sogo, then, for a second, realise what they were doing, their own feeling of conflict, almost as if someone were puppeteering them from the start.

Sogo: The hell, why did I

Vis: can't believe I fell for what that king did, ...tch

Aura then shows her calm strength to get the vis act together in the ideal form.

Aura: Are you really that stuck up? Are you constantly thinking you're the righteous?

Vis: tch im not trying to, im just trying to make sense about all of this,

Both Vis and Aura then realise that fighting doesn't fix the issue in the first place.

Vis: just let me be gotta check up on something

Aura: always doing whatever you want, so annoying

Vis then uses the ability-creation technique to create an ether teleport skill form. Vis then says to the group.

Vis: Don't follow, I'll find out why

Aurais is in so much conflict that she punches Vis and hugs him,

Aura: Just be quick, we don't have that time.

Vis then teleports to where Vextor is, alongside the others, in a soul-like, eternal sleep.

Vextor: Something's up, I would foresee

Vis: It's kinda off, I can't tell what's happening, and who's.....

Vis then sees the three girls sleeping in an eternal state of rest, and then Vextor tries to heal them and break the curse placed on them.

Vextor: Too many times I've tried to destroy this, and it never faltered. It's a never-ending end of nothing to gain.

Vis: Was this really a curse, or am I seeing it as Vis sees either form of a mark, then resonates within him, and then he sees into one of the ones sleeping in the chambers.

Vextor: Remember the blades I've shown you and the ones you hold,

Vis: Yeah, of course, I got them

Vextor then sees each of the sleeping girls and realises that each compartment of the curse has a subtle link to the blades, almost like a key.

Vis: The key and the curse, it's almost like a

Vextor: a keyhole to unlock the curse and take it away from their slumber,

Vis: And that king has all of the pieces in his arsenal and chamber. What do I need to heal them

Vextor: Aura, amongst anyone, has those answers; her blood and connection to the azure king are what make her sensitive among anyone. You should know that already, she's the one who can unlock the door to what is,

Vis: Being played and used, maybe it's time.

Narrator: vis then returns to the coliseum plane within the time limit, the verse is then encased into limited, capsule-like rooms.

There, Aura is waiting, and her own emotions are flowing through her, strengthening her to keep moving on.

Vis then monologues

Vis: This is gonna be kinda hard for me to do...

Vis then says

Vis: Aura, you don't have a reason to hate, I guess.
It's my turn to help,

Vis then sees the other door that was created when Soula was shown into the field

Vis: Hey, Aura, follow me. I'll find out what to do in this case.

Aura: He told it didn't, he, what I im actually feeling deep inside. You think I im so like a stereotype to use because you pity me to all the ends of the earth.

Vis: But it's endo that you want back, is it,

Vis then shows his arm, and his aura could tell what is going on

Aura: I thought you moved on, ...

Vis: tbh your yearning is what's been there.

Sogo and Aneria then come in to calm the argument and say.

Sogo: Man, Vis, I didn't think you had it in you, actually, to care for other people, man, that's empathy, bro

Vis: lol never wanted your lecture

Sogo: Well, we're all in a stupid situation, bruh, oh come on, bro, you need a breather

Aneria then talks to Aura about what's been going on

Aneria: You know what's going to happen.

Aura:.....

Sogo is trying to keep his cool, then gets serious for a moment

Sogo: What's happening right now is shitting my pants, this is scary, tch like how is this possible

Vis then looks into the field and realises the doors are starting to open Vis: its.....

The staircase that leads to both possibilities and infinite steps of many doors and forces.

Vis then holds Aura's hand and gives her his confident smile.

Vis: I know you don't want to do this right now, but we don't have time.

Aura: What did you

Vis then holds her hand and runs to the door, where Soula is waiting at that time being

Soula: Sigh, Vis, you're making the right choice even though you have so much to improve on Soula then lets and helps secure the door pathway needed to access the specific area for changing some form in formulation.

Vis: Aura, thanks

Sogo and the rest see what's going on and see how vis changed where he sees what's done,

Aneria then comes alongside Sogo and tells him, while running to where Malik is Aneria: Why did you never take that chance, huh?

Sogo: I don't know, me being stupid or whatever, alright, we gotta go.

In the Azure Kings hidden alliance spot of legion

Azure King: He's actually at a percentage I wouldn't have expected, and it all comes down to my own daughter's reasoning, sigh.

Snow Queen: They never would've thought my own daughter has her own "fulfilment to reach"

The Azure King is then also shown who would be Aura's Mother, someone in an enchanted flow of emotions and restrictions-the mother's own raw emotions of wanting her own soul back.

* * *

Both Vis and Aura enter the door, and the rest of the team is then placed in different paths in the coliseum points in the planes.

Aura: This is why he would do

Vis: I can sorta read what's going on, strange

Hence, a set of battles is then challenged to the combatants by the lieges of powers in the higher power of life, The ??? GOD and the Azure King then enter into some form of collaboration.

Along the traversal pathlines in time, Soula leads the team into separate rooms of ether and souls, where Vis sees certain people he wouldn't be able to meet in this time. Soula then shows Vis and Aura parts of many souls and beings, such as past lives.

Vis: so much pain im seeing,

Aura: gasp, my aunt, uncle, everyone, they are all

Vis then unsheathes his formed blade, now turned psychblade form, and then confronts Soula

Vis: I don't understand why you're saving us at this most intense point. I can't even see myself knowing what to do now.

Soula: Saving oneself would be the bane of one's existence. Surely you had to know it.

Vis: Tch, it hurts. Why is this curse still he—

Vis, Aura, and Soula then begin to be transferred into the next plane, in the form of a ticket to the higher planes.

Vis: what

Anias then comes into the pictures in soul-like starts and meteor-like sessions.

He then uses the Azurekings' gauntlets and soul-like prowess to take over aura control over her aura.

Aura: gasp, huff, I can't breathe.

Vis realises what is going on and then tries to dispatch Anias over what he's been doing this whole time.

Vis: Tch Damn

Anias: Every single time, tsk tsk, every single time, oh poor vis, where has the plot gotten itself into?

Anias uses Tartus's previous ether technique, only this time he uses the lack of air as a tool to his own bidding.

Anias: Man, you asked for that stupid scenario to be stanced up, and now I have her within my grasp, all thanks to Tartus. You thought he was your dad, man, that makes you a good family, pfft.

Aura: Gasp Vis

Vis: Crap, who said you had any stature AGAINST ME! ANIAS!

Vis and Anias are then at a standstill, vis's own ego and prowess tested; he slowly unguards his stance; he knows the trick has cornered him. Anias, knowing what is happening, also knows that another possibility can compensate for this. Vis then uses his own caisa force to handle the aura, stopping it from weakening under Anias's etheric control of the air in that verse.

Anias: Hands tied

Vis: tch

Anias: You try to attack me now, while giving her air like that, and oops, you lose the grasp.

Anias then amplifies the ether air control in the area in the verse of a plane.

Anias: Gotta take time, or what should you do? And pfft, you keep falling for it every single time, like did I even need to bother bullying you on it, bruh.

Vis, in controlled angst, then slowly makes an ether copy of himself and holds that form with an aura to buy him some time. He then dashes in an elevated caisa and aura-like dash up to his face.

Vis: A guy that keeps doing the same shit over and over again is pretty mentally lacking.

Vis then aura cancels Anias' form in that verse, and the Anias in that form cancels itself.

Anias: Well, well, the dog started to bite, alright, I'll be waiting like the rest, try and not get your pretty magic girls' hopes up when that particular event happens, bye bye, pretty VIS

Vis: what.....

Anias in that clone form then dissipates and slowly turns into a soul door for aura and vis to go into

Meanwhile, the rest of the team then goes into the door and meets up with Aura and vis, but on different door levels.

Vis then looks at the stairwells and sees something is going on.

Aura: Finally, I got myself back. Are you

Vis: Aura, you're kinda being hesitant,

Vis looks at the aura in that way and knows the aura was trying to see something, unlike what was seen.

Aura:..... Vextor also told you something else about me, didn't he Vis: The past of what was, what happened?

Aura:..... what happened in the kingdom back then with him? Hmm, why now? Why do I need to answer any of it?

Vis then looks at the sky's verses, how each part of the sky changes colour as the moon fills. Suddenly, the moon sparks an aura; her hair to a colour calm and cool as blade umber wood.

Vis: Aura, your hair.

Aura then shows her scars; she had been holding back all those years for those times of yearning. Her ears then start to change.

Aura: I can't stand this, all of it

Vis then tries to help Aura with her lack of power and her hair turning black, like the night sky.

Aura: LEAVE ME ALONE

Vis: Why now, damn, we don't have the time.

Vis realises the lack of options he doesn't have, and feeling a sense of pain within herself allows a specific form of action to be shown.

Vis: Then say it like last time, say everything that you hated putting it in a jar doesn't help anyone, PLEASE I BEG YOU

Aura hates what is transpiring, then yells all of her hatred to the ends of the earth,

Aura: WHY DO I HAVE TO PUT UP WITH ALL OF THIS? WHY DID I HAVE TO WAIT? I WASTED SO MUCH OF MY TIME. LOSS OF EVERYTHING, MY FAMILY, MY LOVER, ALL OF IT. I DON'T UNDERSTAND IT.

She then slashes VIS out of spite and suddenly realises what VIS has done

Aura: VIS gasp oh on no

Vis feels the pain and then understands his own reasoning

Vis spills some blood from his mouth, not too much, but enough to imply

Vis: It's fine, tell me

Aura then tells her part of what she's kept in control of her memories, the things that made her forget yet remember.

At one time, Anias and some of the other cadets eyed Aura like hawks, wanting their prey. Aura, knowing that feeling, then moves away from them and talks to Endo, a friend and someone she trusts. However, the abuse then begins, but not in the way expected. Aura Blood Mother comes ill from the azure king's own valid reason for what he does for a mission, Aura: Father, Mom is in pain. Please help her; she needs help.

Azureking: She was never in pain when she's just acting it like she always does

Aura: She needs to rest. Look at her, you're making her suffer like she doesn't have a mind of her own.

Aura, in the most emotional rage, looks at him,

Aura: like how you act, you're the one acting it all when you never had the pain to begin with Both Aura and the Azure King fought during that time, with flaring arguments, unlike what was seen.

Aura is then labeled for her lack of control and banned from her room, leaving her with nowhere to go.

AzureKing: Accuse me like that, and your mother's wishes will never be granted. Now, be a good girl.

Aura: Sniff

Endo then sees what has happened and tries to bring the azure king to his senses, to disarm the azure king's aura movement, but to no avail. The king then aura pushes Endo away, giving Endo that distinct scar.

Endo: WHY, where's her reason for what happened to your will Azure King: Leave me be, young novice, don't get on my bad side.

Endo then comes to Aura, who is blocked in the room, trying his best to go through it.

Aura: Please, my mother is going to.

Endo: You're not alone

In the past, other cadets and questionable knights tried to plan a joke to make Aura do something she shouldn't be doing, and it led to a situation where she thought she was trying to help but ended up hurting someone in the process.

Tricky Knight 1: shes definetly going to fall for it, im definitely know this

Anias: yeee boi we gonna mess it up bruh

Anias then tells some of the maidens of azure to ask Aura for a favor and make her do an act,

Anias then plans to mock her by claiming she was trying to dance like that girl, without respect, to anger the king.

Aura has seen this before, and knowing this, she allows her to understand, yet she does not respect them for what they care nothing about.

Aura then allows herself to be tricked and plays along, knowing that if she revolted against them, it would be a bad sign.

Anias then laughs as a jackal with the most dog smile, unlike one the realm has seen.

Aura:

Anias: And there she goes, doing whatever she wants. Pfft, see, she did it, does that make her scandalous?

Aura then gets close, trying to trick Anias into something, and she then punches him harder to make him barf.

Anias: OH, NOW YOU DEFINITELY WANT IT, alr come here

Endo then blocks Anias' frantic grab of Aura and deflects the chaos-like aura punch from Anias.

Endo: She got tricked. She wouldn't want to do that. I know her.

Aura: Thanks

Anias: OH, REALLY, MAIN CHARACTER, then why did she get so freakn close to me, bruh? That means she wanted me so bad. Come on, if she got tricked, then why did she allow herself in such a way to get close? Anyone with a brain would know, Pathetic excuse from a wanna be

Endo: Alright, you wanna throw hands, that kind of stupidity is too easy,

Endo then throws the evidence to Anias, hence Anias then gets silent

Anias: How did you

Endo: A dog shouldn't be letting his tracks get spotted, your backup dancers should've got the curtains closed,

The Azure King then comes into the fray.

Azure King: I've come into a pitiful mockery of a clown's escape.

Both Endo and Anias then stop for a bit, both shove off, and then listen.

Azure King: Any of you should've realized what is truly in your priority in that space and time.

Anias: tch, like I have any reason to agree with anyone who doesn't have goals at all, he freaken started this to begin with, all of it.

Endo: The King of Azure im only trying to help your daughter im not trying to do those things.

Anias: Nah, you're a liar,

Azure King: I'll have both of you be in suspension for dealing with things in a lacking way, now begone

Anias: man again

Endo: sigh

Aura in the resting nighttime of azure then comes to the endos' room in the suspension to relate to him.

Aura: I dont know why I did that , Im really sorry, I just wanted to.

Endo: I already know, I guess anyone who had a will of their own would've handled that guy like that.

Aura feels that Endo doesn't want any of this, then gets close to Endo's suspension room and sits with him, blocked from his room, but trying to resonate.

Aura: sniff i just dont know what to do, I just couldnt.....

Endo: You are yourself, princess. You gotta have a better temperament

Aura: As you would know, you think im so basic to attack like a dog.

Endo: no just stop twisting your words like that, I hate that, you know that, princess

Endo then sits close to her, blocked but close to her.

Endo: Your Hurt has more power than me, all of that responsibility that burden within that,

Aura is then silent

Endo then starts to cheer her up

Endo: pfft come on Aura, Your too sweet to be bitter like this , you still got that bubble gum style .

Aura laughs, knowing he switched it up without her noticing.

In the present time, he realizes what has become of the verse he is in, so many complexities, so much confusion, and pain, all coming from her soul.

Vis: You're too sweet for this.

Vis then uses an aura calming spell to help her despite what he has done

Aura: You really are

Vis: I guess we don't have all the time to do this, let's settle this

Aura: Thanks

Both Vis and Aura then enter the door to what is shown a ballroom turned into a battle field, a ball filled with the loved one passion but devastated by outcomes of deception and control.

There, Soula, the Azure King and the Aura's mothers encapsulated into mirror like orb in a time stasis, there the Azure King then opens his mask to show his face clear, damaged, and a face wanting so much

Vis and Aura then sees what's has happened and realize what they are up against,

Azure: So you both have come, and my beloved daughter here to delight us in this dance

Aura so tired of it then stops and says something to calm her self down.

Aura: You no longer have control over me for what you do, what i hold is mine alone no one that has a tainted heart shall hold me anymore, you betrayed me

Vis then sees her resolve and understand what's she's doing,

AZURE King: your blood is my blood and you will always be with me hence you are my love also

Vis : Never was a valid thing to even justify king, even what you did to me you wanted power and never said or acted you wanted it. So tell me this,

Vis then puts the blade in his stance and points it at him,

Vis: Who are you

Azure King:: then go ask yourself that , like i said, this happened before didn't it.

Vis: what

Azure King : then look for yourself, look at this specific area, every inch and feel of it.

Vis without him even knowing it then looks around, he then sees the forgotten people within the area of a delightful ballroom , everyone in the memories so happy and gleeful,

He then sees his parents in the ballroom dancing along side the king as a prince and aura mother as the hier of another kingdom.

Vis: this doesn't make any, tch im not falling for these illusions

Azure King: But you and Aura definitely feel it you must have looked around,

Aura: Stop using me

Within the memories in the ballroom of a dream

then see what vis couldn't believe, Aura and Vis also come into the ballroom but a little older to what is, suddenly vis body then starts to change the force within the ballroom and himself makes him stalled.

Vis: how is my body

Azureking : you're slowly getting what I was aiming at,

Vis then sees another figure pop out from the dance and the shadows appear.

Vis awareness then starts to tingle as he's seeing someone he shouldn't be encountering.

Vis: i can't believe i,t my memories are they starting to Vis then starts to fear, unlike what was seen before. Seeing that being something way too strong , a japer of some sort.

Azureking: What happened to me and my loved one has also put me in this predicament, for hence I was forced to wear this wretched armour to protect myself from that specific being.

Aura: So why am I my mother's key to this?

The Azure King stops for a bit and makes a specific point to the puzzle.

Azureking: The 3 maidens that my old friend Vextor holds a certain form of a door, and Vextor or his name vexes shall lead to that answer if you can find it.

Vis then realises that the weapons he has also have a key lock within the 3 weapons

The technical shuriken, the azure blade, and the solar knife,

Vis then gets silent

Vis:..... This is why you're not attacking now: you're waiting for the time to turn. There's someone else behind the doors.

Azureking: congrats your being seen

The azure king then stands before the worn-out but strong technical vis in its other form.

Azure King: You see, we're both the same. Why, even from the 1st place, I've given you that ability and power, and how you reached your highest yet, that ability wasn't truly your own. Yet it's a gift I've given, because the one who sees this has to engage their abilities to an even higher level.

Vis: tch,.....

Aura: Then why father did you torture him like this? He never wanted any of this, and we saw his own family taken by the wraiths. Isn't that any reason to show your empathy, please Vis: I was never the same. I was fine with what I had in the simple times, and all of this happened. What gives you the right to control?

Azure King: Your absent mind is the answer to that. Why haven't you seen the signs, the sensation that dwells in you? Why hold yourself back?

Vis:.....what

vis looks at himself and finds a resolution to himself in a forgotten piece not complete

Vis: I just never wanted to hurt anyone. I was just weak,

Vis then enhances the blade he holds to an even stronger light level within the blades beyond the element

Vis: But so what? There's a chance I can get them all back. I won't let anyone stand in my way at this.

Azure King: So then, do you call me the villain in this shifted reality we are in, for everything ive struck against you, we're here keeping ourselves restricted,

Vis then sees an opening and then sees edits the phase of the azure king into the dream strike

Vis: Aura, tell the others, I got a memo to send back.

Aura: Promise me you won't go away.

Vis:.....

Vis then holds an aura-blessed charm he was given and embeds the blade within the charm's purification force. The blade then tells the wielder to master the field. Vis then stands himself as he watches the azureking walk in tandem to foresee.

Vis: Blade of Ether, heed the flowset of forms, facade release

Azureking: It's right about time. I was waiting for this part of the prophecy to happen.

Vis then slashes the king of azure, but it doesn't hurt the king himself, but instead puts both Vis and the AzureKing into the dream stance. All of a sudden, Aura then activates the Blessed charm she gave to Vis and then joins vis into the dreamscape of the AzureKing's traumatised past.

Vis:! Aura wait

Aura: Just follow, promise me

* * *

Both Vis and Aura then enter the dream-like mind of the king of azure psyche.

The rest of the team sees aura, vis, and the king of azure in the dream state in flowing motion.

Sogo: dude, why

Malik: This is their story, let them finish it, we gotta handle the chaos coming in from our side

* * *

In the same colosseum, are in form both ludo and kai are then instructed by the colosseum boss to prepare for the "event" to happen.

Kai: it starts

* * *

In the sleeping chamber vextor sees the maidens' souls, then light in the flared state

Vextor: Vis, now end this game. You have the power and control, and now you have something else that is beyond words.

As Vextor sends the message needed to boost the element on the phased battlefield.

* * *

The Azure King then sets the stage,

AzureKing: Vextor must be at the final step to awaken them, cough cough, ive done this charade to many times

Soula: I know just please hang on for me for just a little longer, Ill be at yoursides

* * *

Aura and Vis then enter the inner verse of the azure king, within the exact requirements, the azure king then manifests a field and playing arc to be tested, within it a simple chair is placed,

Azure King: go on ahead, take the seat if you want, I wouldn't want to hurry anything up, would I

Vis then sees the chair and sees an alternative motive in the form of him.

Vis: I have the Blades that were made and given to me. A guy like me wouldn't need these if there were no exchanges acknowledged

AzureKing: wise you're starting to use your leverage to an exceptional level, my daughter is definitely supplying a reason you have profited from

Vis then throws the blades close to the azurekings face, and yet the king allows it ,

Vis: Im done doing this circus act. Now, where are the maidens' souls at

Aura: right

AzureKing: Your crazy mind should already know where the maidens are.

Vis: Makes sense how you never actually explain anything to begin with, you play with people to use for your wants and self-liking.

AzureKing: an understatement that was, the exact same applies to you

Aura: Wrong, he's not like that

Vis: But at the same time, you allowed me to travel, gain skills, defend myself, you gave not only choice but something that isnt explained by words

Azureking: Then why has the sigil manifested with a will and reason coming from your Aura

Aura: its because.....

Azureking: now let me guess you're thinking this will all be over when you finish this, being that I am, was I right

Vis:tch..... me trying to end you would be stupid, no it would be a mockery to any level. That's why I'm starting to tell now

Vis then uses his own aura and soul embedded and reads the king without his attachment to the blades

Vis: You trying to destroy me wouldn't make sense, how you fought it's almost too tired out, so I knew it didn't make any sense.

Aura: Vis, please

Vis: I don't need an answer from you, king, and if I tried to end this, then I'll never forgive myself for stooping to such a low level to kill something. I just hate it.

AzureKing: So the pacifist is trying to play the brute, oh, is it

Vis: The maidens, you want them to return so you can bring back your will.

Azureking:

Vis then regains his own strength and confidence and sees the king for what he is.

Vis: Those that are watching also have the keys to this; they always had them, and yet you wanted to control the field like it's an act, yet people were being treated in pain

Aura: Humanity doesn't need to be treated to be in chaos, so why would you do it, Father?

AzureKing: Then how does someone change or find the beauty of that pain or of the need, As what I am, my tired soul needs to be put into a rest, you have to answer this correctly or they will come out, you all know what I'm talking about

Vis: the power doesn't come from objects of destruction, it comes from those we cherish and within ourselves, an ego of a blade in this time has degraded.

Azureking: Now you know what to do, all you have to do is purify me, and yourself, bring back the form you once were, the power in you. Hence that is why I gave that blessing to you

Vis: You did so much that is good, yet also made those pains around you, yet at the same time, it boosted everyone who joined your cause. That pain it wasn't meant to be for the faint of heart, you wanted to lead the successors, the children of the storm

The Azureking and Vis are then phased in a calm sense and strong stance.

Azureking: Then remember, you chose to do what you did; you had the options, you had a reason and a choice to make those changes; you had something that many others would have wanted. It is you who has that will; no one else has that control but yourself.

Vis: from the very start I knew fighting you would not work, it's impossible, but then seeing and learning from those I've seen, now I can do it

Vis then looks at Aura and sees her within her beauty

Vis: Its time ill start the process, king

Azureking: Finally, I can now take away this armor , thank you, but once you do this, more combatants and challengers will take you on. By seeing you from the very beginning, I knew I could lend my legacy back to you.

Vis then creates a blade of light within his soul and allows the king to transfer his own skills and soul, in a healing state, into vis. AUra then plays along and does her part in the intent of the part at hand.

Azureking: The memories will be more open, and thus, I'll guide you back. There's a whole different scope of levels to see once you do this.

The azureking then turns into a form in healing yet its vision glows there, he rests with VIs.

Azureking: Vextor shall give you and the rest the other part of this illusion, there will be a surprise that ill wait to give when the "event" commences.

Vis realises the amount of importance that is placed on them and himself, then returns from the dreamscape.

In the Azureking Versed Ballroom, he then looks at Aura and tries to look, yet he shows his reasoning

Vis: Ever since the very beginning, your conflicts, everything you hated about me, and even how blind I was, you still chose to be alongside me because you knew that I wasnt caring enough about you, yet you still chose me, and I guess I chose the one I needed to be with.

Vis then hugs Aura close to him,

Aura: You were never mean from the start; you just cared as anyone would. Thank you, you really have a kind heart that shows your soul.

Vis: Yeah

Vis: I guess there's something I need to do to calm this field down.

Sogo, Malik, and Aneria then come into the fray and see Aura and Vis embracing each other

Sogo: pfft, lucky, always getting what he wants lol

Aneria: Sigh

Malik: Vis you're now a man of your word

Vis realizes there here now and feels the change within himself

Vis: Thanks, everything that's happening is all meant for us to reach that level.

Sogo then feels the empathy and respect vis for the 1st time realizing how cool he's become

Sogo: Nah, that's why it had to be you, tch despise me having my own story, your reason definitely outclasses mine, you're good dude

Vis: likewise bro

Sogo: But I mean, we got a whole different mess to deal with now, and Im glad to tell you that I can take charge whenever it's needed.

Sogo shows his blade, which he used constantly and fought with many times during the era.

Sogo: It's kinda cold that I im able to be cured by this blade, and I gotta hand it to ya, you inspired me to get better, and now I im free from this blade. Dude, you're definitely him.

Vis: Cool

Everyone then looks at the verse that was changed and sees that they now need to reach Vextor's position in the field to play.

Sogo: Yo VIS, how did you defeat an OPP like the Azure King Vis: We got time, but we gotta speed up , so let's go now, I'll tell you later on, dude.

Sogo: alr, nice you finally stopped caring about things that are just wack bro

Aura blushes for a bit, seeing how vis is just in a calm state.

Aura: You understand now or did you remember

Vis: Forget about it, we can do this.

Vis then realises that the king is beyond what he thought; a sense of fear lingers as he realises that the form he has and the king has isn't the only one around.

Vis: this

AzureKing: I wouldn't let you leash-free now, there's way more messes being made, so by me alongside, you shouldn't have to worry about not obeying

Vis: damn

Everyone sees Vis and checks to see if he's there Malik: The king chose to do this, so just keep your head high up

Aura: He knows

Vis then sees his mind to be his best element.

AzureKing: throwing away those blades never left your soul. Are you still attached?

Vis then stops for a bit,

Sogo: Vis, what's the hold up.....wait?

Vis: Where did those blades go to....?

The azure king then pops up, and everyone tenses up and is stanced

Azureking: In this form, I can't attack, nor can you attack me in this state; however, I've sent the blades to a plane where the "event" is

Malik: So an omen

The Azureking then give Aura his sight, Aura then remembers how she felt, how she was gated by others in that scene, like time

AzureKing: And now you must obey Aura,

Vis then sees the king and has a clear resolution, standing calmly in the field, in his own control.

Vis: There's another way to calm the waters,

AzureKing: Wasn't it obvious, even during that time, my words flow like water yet streams to other currents, perhaps to some ways,
I could so attack any of you right now, however

The king then hands the abilities back to vis in a copied manner.

AzureKing: Even a god that reigned without ego or an identity also knows the volatility of expectations

Aura: For all of those times you caged me and gated me, you saying that is just so bad, you have no heart or even a will I can justify. I never wanted to be treated as a treasure; I wanted my own will, yet you had no sense or empathy.

Malik then senses the blade he carries with Alex's soul, and Will forms a force to control the king's field in constant control.

AzureKing: So he hasn't left at all, ah.....

The Azureking then looks at Vis and shows a true distaste for how his own daughter put herself with that man.

Azureking: Why Vis would I try to let you have Aura when you never knew your etiquette, are you just a slave to your own desires?

Vis:no..... I wanted to be with her because.....

Azureking: You never had anything to care about. You never had a goal or a distinct reason to even like anything, yet she and herself allured you with how she simply looked, making you so low for that

Vis: Shut UP, she has her own feelings, her own reason, she isn't just her looks, it's who she is, her soul

AzureKing: I've kept her so close to me because of the many things I've seen from your kind, everything in torment, all because I allow her to be with those she deems to like. And now look what's happened, you're only a grain of sand in this verse of many, what makes you have any right?

Vis: YOU DON'T NEED A RIGHT TO RESPECT OTHERS, AND YOU DON'T NEED TO BE THE HIGHEST IN A HEIRARCHY TO KNOW YOUR SOULMATE

Aura was astonished by how vis has the will to express that reason.

Azureking: I've kept her always in the kingdom because no one I would trust would ravage her. It's no one's right to prove her right.

Aura: Then why make me with no free aspirations why, I almost felt like some kind of a play thing what kind of father does that to their own daughter.

AzureKing: I led you to be in charge of your own area, you had subjects, you were the highest alongside me, surely you should know how privileged you were

Aura: LIAR

Everyone looks at Vis and sees his own resolve in his form

Vis: I know im just a simple commoner that got lucky to be in the presense of a highest lord in the verse, I know who i am was all from you as the king, and I know how much ive lost because of it. That isnt fair, for reasons to be subjugated to be gated with no will.

The Azureking then remarks a specific saying Vis has said to the King that proved his disposition right

AzureKing: I have recalled that, you by your words that she is just a princess, that means shes nothing more than a person to just be protected, Then it shows that by your own true words thats shes nothing more than a crystal never to be troubled by the likes of you. Wouldnt that be harsh for someone to just box up a girl like that especially if shes my own.

Vis: YOU'RE WRONG, my meanings never recollected to something as biased or demeaning as that. I wouldn't want anything but for her to choose what she wants, what you do , it just makes her blind without any guidance, who deserves that. I hate how it demoralises a person.

Aura feels Vis words and blushes even more

Vis suddenly feels a sensation coming from his hand and sees a version of a blade built inside the flow. He then summons that blade built from the reason of the soul

Azureking:.....I would have to congratulate you for actually having the balls to speak what you say, If I were to be in another form, I would've tested you, but in this case ive chosen to follow.

Vis: At any time, you can choose to switch forms; any one of us knows that. You could've taken all of my abilities anytime now.

Azureking:.....keen eye

Maliks Blade then activates and then stalemates the Azurekings ' form into a chained restriction

Malik: Nah, Alex, what are you

Alex then forms a soul-like form in tandem with the Azurekings ' form

Sogo: Unreal, he's trying to stall the AzureKing in like some kind of pause

Alex's soul form then flows and passes the blade to Vis

Vis: Teach you actually

Malik: ah yo Vis, guess you're the boss now. Alex chose you to lead this, and now he's put the AzureKing on temporary hold. He's given his will to you.

They all realise that time is, in essence, in form,

Sogo: Im not so sure im fearing how easy this is, dude, why would Alex try to do this

Aura:.....Aneria

Aneria: right its almost time.

The path and verse of the sky turns very dark and pops a path to a destined kingdom, a dream perhaps to what the king wanted so many moon to the skies of eons ago,

Vis: Something telling me ill be meeting some long-ago friends

Sogo: Yeah, something's up there cooking some crafts, it's way too sketchy for us not to read this dude.

Aura then looks at the dreamscape in that area and sees specific points. She sees the true fear popping up

Aura: Mother im so close.....

* * *

The team then walks the preplanned road to the dream castle and sees how dark the area is, only seeing the castle in 6 different layers. They all sense the elements all around them, and realise they no longer have any control over the realm or verse they are in.

Within the 1st layers, the gate is then opened, and thus a long-ago friend meets up

Adonis: Sup, it's been a hot minute since you skilled up

Vis: You on the other side, I guess

Everyone looks at the castle built from the remnants of the other realms in a fixation unlike anything seen.

Sogo: I can't believe the old fool actually built so many layers from the control of aura, dude. That's why I can't say words.....

Adonis: Alright, Vis im just here to tell your crew that the kingdom you see is just the start, there's way more to come. They all should know by now how deep the rabbit hole goes.

Vis then senses the intense soul and aura pressure coming from the kingdom, almost realising how intense the root of those hidden elements is.

Vis: Guess my Boss the King of supposed Azure, resides in the highest point of that area of the plane in essence.

Adonis: took my words out of my mouth, so yeah, remember what I've told you, I'll meet you and the rest at the other plane in the kingdom of destined dreams. It's gonna be a heavy hitter when you see me, we're awaiting Adonis then passes the gate cards needed to access points into the levelled kingdom of mourning wants.

Vis: We go in

Sogo: We're gonna blaze it

Aura: Im counting on it

Narrator: And in the hidden higher level, The AzureKing's stronger form rests alongside his Lover, The mother of Aura, as she is truly resting with her soul sleeping, almost as if Aura's calling was yearning to be reached so many times. The alternative, stronger form of the AzureKing waits as he yearns for the family he was robbed of.

The 1st gate opens, and a planned session of a mall shop then appears, and an event pops up waiting to be announced, there vis senses something's off

Vis: what is

The people laugh and are in joy for the team to see, and thus the crowd then holds a person; they celebrate, having seen the presumed donkeys in the picture. Vis is not phased by this, then says

Vis: So that's what they try to do,..... so the king planned this.....no its the Sogo: Dude, something's off, they still keep clapping, almost as if we won or.....shit?

Malik then senses the whole are form into a charade of laughs and fake hatred mixed in so much chaos, and there the young audience rest, played by those around them, and labelled the donkey the dunce, the jack for being so true to a goal that you forgot how right one was in a mind of blind, low thinking.

Malik: Yo, Boss, hand the blade back to me,

Vis, knowing this, hands over the blade without hesitation

Malik then plays the blades form and messes with the audience's talk, and presumptuously appreciates

Malik: Why are we so grateful if the dog wasn't blind enough to smell out the back door?

The audience, with their belief-like items, then grows silent. Aura feels maddening chaos, then prays. She is now afraid of those things around them, Aneria knowing what this is, then helps her out.

Aneria: It's gonna be okay.

A certain woman then comes into the fray and presents herself as Umbra, with black, woven hair, and an attitude that is way too intentional, self-antagonising, and antagonistic toward those around her

Umbra: See, gals, I was right about them.

She then gets her magic tablet and shows mystic photos of what vis and the others were doing,

Umbra: You see, we had to do rock, paper, scissors to see how they acted. They're crazy

She shows the images to her crowd, explaining how she's right for proving the lack of respect.

Umbra: Vis just looks like a lame guy with a pig's face, always wanting in greed, how he sleeps in his own mud aww Heh hah hah, He loves to mess around and be a person with so many aims that an autistic kid would have been a better word for him.

Umbra then plays her cards to make vis turn into a hollow object.

Umbra: He even needs a daycare to help him. His hyper fixation on a single action, looking around with no aim at all, isn't that right? Should I be a special ed teacher and help you?

Everyone then stands back away from her , but vis knowing what she was trying to pull then looks in a formed way Vis then actiavtes a spell to keep him grounded in the area.

Umbra: You see gals he or actually hes a she that might be a blue alien, not to mention a gasp a split personality of a generic retarded sponge.

Vis then looks at that woman, seeing her hair, her actions, her constant need to be proven right, her desire for other people's validation of what she says, all disguised as confidence in her own way. She says things, and yet she is right, but deep inside, she wants more; she hates people for doing what they want or for being different. Her hate of all classes comes from a person's simple looks.

Hence, if she wanted to be truly happy, she would have never cared about any of it to begin with. Her Aura so blackened, and how she tries to bring a group as the leader to mess up her words on purpose to make others wrong and wrong for good.

Her reasons were blank; she plans intentional acts and talks to make herself seem to have all the power, and, sadly, she knows it's not enough. In some cases, it's her being hollow. She hangs with younger people with an attitude so masked that kids fall for it, when in reality, it's surely fit for a sea witch of some sort.

Deep inside her soul, there was someone damaged and given no help, but maybe that was meant to happen, a sense of evil that wasn't what it seemed, lingers as vis tells the others. Scary in a way that a woman tries to be friendly with an attitude wanting to aggress and cause, making others fear, yet the kids sense none of that.

Vis: I've known this before; it's getting old.

Umbra: sigh.....being so direct was proving anyone right, and you always like being wrong, hah hah hah, you're just like Anias said, a retarded mule and just so stubborn to not see it.

Vis then tells the others to guard up, and thus, Vis uses his controlled flow to gain time.

Umbra: crazy.....always those days siiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiii gh hah.....

Vis: Who cares if you're right? You're just messed up and low thinking for even saying things that just don't matter.

Both Vis and Umbra then start a fight, so much a fight that it irritates both combatants.

Vis: so your just wrong, because I don't need to prove it

Umbra:.....

Vis then enhances his bladed skills into the ether form and azure form

Vis: Even if people use words to be right, it doesn't mean they aren't stupid. So what's the point in that research

Vis then phases into different blade stances as Umbra attacks with multiple ether manipulations of illusions.

Vis then holds his blade suddenly, so he loosens and restricts Umbra's attacks as she does it, and he then capsulates the abilities into a pause.

Vis: Im over it now

Umbra: uh uh uh not yet, you forgot to eliminate me from the inside out

Vis then defends against all of her barrages and sees an opening within the attack, he waves the blade and then changes umbra into a mist of shadows as he then uses the azurekings abilities from the inside out.

Umbra: No

Vis: Was a waste to do this

Umbra is then stuck in a mist-like form, with a lack of abilities to use them

Umbras: my attacks I can't use.....how

Vis: The ether edit phase allows me to temporarily take your abilities away from you until I choose to release them. As for your life,

Vis then slashes the mist and puts her in the place

Vis: What a waste, kinda disappointing. RIP, your life has already been forfeited due to your lack of seeing Umbra: Sigh, was I really that predictable, how.....

Vis then moves on as he doesn't attack or end the being, instead he gives a hollowing message, an internal suffering to those that push people lower by using words to be correct, yet what was the point of being correct.....

Vis: You have a lot of time, Looks like im done.....

Everyone looks at vis for not trying to end the opposition

Sogo: Dude, you could have ended it.

Vis: If I couldn't control it, I might mess up. I don't want to lose any of you.

Aura: gasp

Malik: We're getting close. That was just the 1st act

Vis: Yeah, I could tell.

Sogo: so like how does this ability swing like that?

Vis then shows the blades form and sends his hands with it

Vis: the blade with the ether formset has a threshold, a limit, those limits come from the connection of a person or their justification,

Malik: Yeah its a psychological state in the gauge, you can only activate those abilities depending on the person's levels of the mental state.

Sogo: way too much to read lol.

Vis: words be just words who even cares anymore.

In the Azure King's highest plane, he then sees a foresight as now he knows he can control the vis other abilities to his own path

Azureking: he has the order or hence he is the king, like many.

However if he's thinking I cant take his abilities away so soon he will be surely mistaken, So he knew that from the very start he set foot in this.

He'll have to do it

As the team walks and unlocks each door using the key gates of cards vis then looks and blazes through the opps or opposition,

Vis then monolouges: at any moment he can take it all away i know it.

Vis then looks at his blade and for a moment he sees a aura like form that doesn't represents the king's signature. He sees that same aura coming from him
As well

Vis: just in case.....

Malik: yo you good

Sogo: nah he's blazing, he doesn't need the layouts

Vis: just let me go in

They then enter the second layer of the dream-like state of the kingdom, and he then sees that this door is phased, unlike what was seen before.

Aura then starts to feel pain coming through her soul and body, and Aneria then tries to help and thus alarms vis on what's happening to some capacity in detail.

Vis:..... this is.....

Aura's own childhood area is then formed and phased by the king's wishes, and shows Aura's memories as a child.

Aura: why I don't want to remember this

Vis then sees the room's dimension and phases the blade to a healing form. Within Aura's memories, she cries

Aura: I hate it, all of those problems for reasons I couldn't care less!

Vis then unlocks the room and cures the room from the shadows.

Sogo: Dude, it's too easy for you

Malik: Focus

Vis: Her memories,

Vis then comes close to Aura and sees her in a conflict

Vis: Aura your hurting

Aura: I know that it's too strong what he's doing, it's unfair

Vis then uses his blade and tries to think about a way to cure this

Vis: Damn, I gotta think what was the cure for this?
Come on, I know this

Sogo: OH shit

Malik: Dude, don't do it by yourself, here catch

Vis then grabs an item, Alex gave Malik those moments ago.

Vis: This?

Malik: Its whats I got , he told me that when that time happens you can hold this and learn a way to fix it.

Vis then looks at the item and realises

Vis: The chant, OF COURSE!

Vis then tries to chant out the message like how aura did it those times ago but to no avail it does not work

Vis: Why cant it work, Ive tried Aura still in pain sees Vis Try his hardest to heal her.

Malik: Wait

Malik then sees Vis mark reappear only this time its shaped different

Malik: So it didn't fully dissipate, yo vis, I think you gotta stop

Vis: Can't you tell im trying to cure

Malik: Look at yourself you almost turned into a black dog all of a sudden

Sogo sees it and then realises he saw it for a blink of a second

Sogo: Dude, holy he's right, you almost turned into

Vis then sees himself and gets up,

Vis: I thought I cured that part of myself already

Malik: looks at the blade Alex used and sees an aura coming from what the Azure King used

Malik: tch..... I thought so, okay yo team, I think we have a situation where If we keep blazing the way we did it we'll turn into what we fear.

Vis looks at himself and starts to see the consequences for using a power like this.

Vis: Was I really hiding it? Why did my body

Malik then passes a hidden dagger to Vis. Vis holds the dagger, but it repels against him

Malik: So the aura doesn't connect with him anymore, Alr

Malik then changes the field and puts him and Vis in a versus duel scene

Aura: Malik, what's going on? Cough, cough

Aneria: Girl, please don't talk

Malik then confronts Vis and tries to use his time to help vis go through this "phase in form"

Malik: You were doing it so well in phasing with that blade that you almost used a god play like a black dog..... I know you, you wouldn't resort to blazing oppositions like that its crazed

Vis: WHAT DO YOU MEAN, cant you tell we gotta go through the castle, we dont have the time at all look at her

Malik: AS A MAN, shut yourself up,....sigh yeah we dont have the time, however the time given is way more than expected, Me knowing this king has led me to seeing this. WAKE YOUR SELF UP , a guy like you should not be using abilities with a psyche in that array.

Everyone Looks at VIs and for a moment they realize the words used to put him like that , words of all kinds of mental realization to research could no longer work.

Malik: I've seen this you just woke up.....
...only a dark champion of your caliber can do this...
..... your name Vis, no, you're the one, Impetus Caeruleus, ... it's no wonder you were within this Man, But guessing how this played, Vis was then matured into who you are now

Vis: WHAT DO YOU MEAN, It couldn't have been my fault.....wait what

Malik then sees the phased form coming from the Vis form.

Malik: I thought so, Your no longer Vis senryu, Your now the archetype known as Impetus Caeruleus the dark champion that resides at the after seekers time, within the greeks knowing this is who you are, the smartest and phased out. Pure yet Dark, Bright yet embedded in moon like onyx.

Vis then realises and starts to feel the regret

Vis:.....I don't want to do this, I was only trying to protect you guys

Malik, knowing that Vis is still here, but his name can no longer be used, he now has to face him in a way to jog and level Him

Malik: Stance yourself,

Aura: Malik please dont go that far I BEG YOU.

Malik then senses Vis aura transform, and thus he is now ranked no longer a hero but the dark champion that will enhance the field

The azure king looks at the field in the hidden highest room and sees it

Azureking: So he actually phased out his aura, he no longer uses mine sigh an annoyance.....

The Azureking then sees the Caeruleus of a man, He then sees what he must do, as he looks at Auras mothers still in a sleeping statis.

The Duel then starts.

Malik: Whatever Happens im gonna jog you up and level your mental state, I hate doing this but if you gotta be put down ill have to, Caeruleus you not that kid anymore, A path easy a butter wouldve blackened you..... Ill have to challenge that high up personality.....

Caeruleus:..... Vis was a good name I used and for a moment I actually was fooled into believing I was Vis. I mean anyone wouldve lied and believed they were that person.....Until I woke up.....

Malik then speeds phases against Vis and cancels his abilities to stalemate Caerulues into a high-level blade fest

Caeruleus: Alr just like you said those times long ago, lets crazy it up chief.

Both combatants are then stances up now are now equal in skill and strength the known man vis is now leveled into the elevation form his name known as Caeruleus Impetus a name known in a class hard and almost impossible to get a path and class only the dark champion can reach. For if many this would be the path many would've failed or couldn't even see. All the right ingredients all in the right place.

Malik Realizing that Caeruleus couldve ended the fight a long time ago then stops and sees him

Malik: Now do you see yourself now, you wouldve already gained time by ending it but you knew me as a friend , However you were aiming for something else in this

Caeruleus then stances his blade to a much more laxed form.

Caeruleus: heh you knew that swaying your blade you could tell my emotions coming through it. Yeah, I would've closed the chapter, but in this case, I have a reason to fulfill

He then drops his blade and passes the blade to Malik,

Malik: You had all the options even from the start, the ether abilities were dormant in you, But you never used them even from the very beginning. You then used them when the time was right.....

Aura body is then healed from the area disipatted from the shadows

Aura: VIs are you still

Malik then holds off aura as Malik sees Vis or Caeruleus resolution coming from his eyes, a plan is shown through Caeruleus' eyes.

Malik: You gonna take a detour VIs, or Caeruleus , whatever you wanna call it

Caeruleus: I guess I'll use this name for now, Kinda foolish for me to keep the older one.

Everyone looks at Caeruleus in a much more different way, a phase changed and aura sees his resolution turn into a calm yet strong man.

Aura: I see, go on then, you have your ways ,
Caeruleus then looks at the team and says

Caeruleus: The Azureking was expecting all of us to turn ourselves into our worst versions , like a person on a television trying to help people like a therapist, yet they downplay those seeking that help in disguise. Seems Positive on the outside, but inside, they couldn't care less.

Caeruleus then shows the blade of reframes a psychological blade that allows the user to reframe encounters or engagements that could be conflicting to the user. A true blade that constructs healing

Caeruleus: Even the most stupid or blackened-souled people can abuse their intellect and books, and try to undermine those who also have their own power in some ways.

Caeruleus then forms the blade, swings to uncover the hidden door, an alternative path that only the king and Caeruleus know.

Sogo: Wait, you're going alone, tch, you can't handle that king all by yourself, remember his aura is also within you, couldn't you get the message?

Malik stops Sogo and allows an agreement to commence

Malik: Yo promise you and Aura to come out alive from all of this.

Caeruleus then acknowledges the promise.

Caeruleus: Gotcha.

Aura: I'll be on the other side, when that time comes, we both have to do it.

Caeruleus then sends the message and leaves, but before he goes, he says a humbling message.

Caeruleus: In the end, we don't keep any of it, these blades, for when I die, I won't need them

Caeruleus then walk like the champion of dark light , power unimaginable, yet the soul pure as snow.

After Caeruleus goes to that hidden door that is red, Aura feels his power and blushes knowing that Endo is still there.

Aneria: Girl your so lucky, Aura your

Aura then realizes shes showed tears without realizing it for hence her joy came back for a moment

Aura: hes really back

Caeruleus then enters the door by himself, confident, calm, and a force to be reckoned with.

Caeruleus then encounters Anias

Anias then places the traps and within the traps memory pools to force vis to realize it

Anias: You really did return, heh

Caeruleus then stances yet holds the blade indifferent from the opposition.

Caeruleus: Go ahead, do the 1st handshake, or try it. Send me the check Anias: hah you think your matured hah dont make me regret it.

Caeruleus then phases his blade with the reframe technique as Anias blast memory like blade traps against Caeruleus , All of a sudden, Caeruleus then switches his phased form to Vis and tricks Anias on where hes hit, Anias: How!

Caeruleus then phases his Blade Meister Form of Vis and Reframes Anias Attacks into aura and soul flow, hence it comes back to him.

Anias is now powerless for the time being, then says.

Anias: Tch that Ether ability that gave you that crutch made you, That's the best you can do, you won't last longer than that.....tch

Caeruleus: You were definitely slacking on those grinds, Predictable

He then cancels the field and tries to see the other door needed to access Vextor's Plane

Caeruleus: Getting answers from you would be stupid since you know it all so well...

Anias: Nah, you definitely want it, I'll sure give it, it's around your.....

Anias then resorts to a ether ability where he impairs Caeruleus and tries to grapple him , He tries to edit Caeruleus Abilities and Aura form, yet it does not affect the way it should. Anias then starts to get the notion and the idea that Caeruleus has done steps even he couldn't figure out

Anias: THIS THIS.....how are you still being this good.....it cant be possible theres more Caeruleus then Stops Anias hand knowing it pointless to attack.

Caeruleus: Its kinda stupid how you resort to using acts to define you lack of caring yet you still wanted to be desperate enough to do it. Sad your just jaded and washed up, Acting careless yet you wanted all of that emphereal like states.

Anias: How about get me a page from your nerdy stupid poo notes tch

Caeruleus then Ether timestops Anias and gets the item needed to access the Vextor Phased plane. he then finally give him the punch he deserves ..

Caeruleus : this guy hid this in such a girly purse rip

Caeruleus then switches his form right back into the Vis Senryu form, knowing he will need to be recognized in this form.

Caeruleus then sees the door and access it using the prowess.

* * *

In the 2nd plane of the dream-like castle, Sogo, Malik, Aneria, and Aura then talk about how the situation

Malik: he actually took my advice after those times.... His attitude was always so aloof.....but kinda tiring to handle sometimes.

Sogo: Yeah, man, I've been slacking compared to what he actually pulled off, like how dude.....man, and im just a sitting duck

Aneria then comforts Aura, for that kind of hope does not appear that well in the current sense

Aura then remembers how much vis tries to break his own chaos and blindness, the realization that her soul still heals even when vis goes through the most extreme cases .

Aura: He was heavy to deal with but also endearing , he has reasons for what he does.... I feel that no matter the time, he understands himself.....he knew that people wouldn't want to respect him for what he tries to help.

Aura:Many just see all of his bad things when he may not be as bad as what they say. They may even understand whats hes doing, yet they dont have the peace of mind to clear themselves.

Aura: Those kinds of people are stuck in turmoil for saying people like him are bad when everyone else has so many problems. He knew words are kinda childish to use when some don't see themselves for who they are.

Aura: He knows that the words that he means have more meaning than a person blindly saying it with no context.

Everyone looks at Aura for her realization.....

Aura: He really did understand..... I feel that im not alone Vis or Caeruleus no wonder he cherished my time.....he always did something yet never cared about the outcome.... he just helps people without thinking.....is it so pure?

Malik: You spoke like a true heir of a kingdom..... You saw the Vis resolution and what he sees and goes to.

Sogo then sees the sky within the window.

Sogo: Vis now he's kinda being "him" like he knows it

Aneria then tells Sogo

Aneria: You know it

* * *

In the hidden Dream kingdom plane, the Azureking then sees Vis or Caeruleus phasing to the Vextors area, Azureking:.....very keen, he's smart or playing out his change in construction.....now I can take away some of his abilities connect to him, He Should knowing that to an extent.....

What are you planning boy?

Caeruleus then phases back to his Vis form in the persona

Vis: Alright im back

Vextor Sees Him and sees he's in a changed form to some extent.

Vextor: You're finally getting at what Alex and I were trying to play.

Vis: Yeah

Vis then shows the blade of reframes that he unlocked during the dream castle session in the phased paths.

Vextor: You were acknowledging yourself, yet you moved on from simple words; those are the conditions needed to access this blade. Smart.....you gained one of the rare archetypes of blades in the book.

Vis then calmly swings the blade, and within it, he sees the phased paths

Vis: The blade itself was acknowledged when I took pity of simple objects that harm.....and I guess I found a blade in that ability that changes me for what I am

Vextor: You have some high mindsets, many wouldve failed because most just dont want to deconstruct the ego.....crazy isnt it.

Vis then looks at the maidens still asleep and locked up to some extent.

Vis: The blade I had before were passed to the azureking.....Im already starting to feel that hes taking my abilities away from me.

Vextor then puts a ether and aura type of disruption in the field to make the azureking watch in a unstable state.

Azureking: sigh I can't access the area since he put the disruption at a high capacity.....arrh only he knows that level of aura and ether disruption type of skill.

Vextor then talks to the young man in a calm yet serious mood

Vextor: Your Mindset Changed Alright, tell me What's a form of an aim that could only be formed when you're in the most stressful situation

Vis:..... either a focused goal, or a wait a curve ball?

Vextor: An aim that you can't see on the visible form, it ranges depending on the eyesight or the person's mental or internal understanding.

Vextor then passes a gauntlet for vis to use that can be accessed

Vis: This?

Vextor: Couldn't you tell the Azureking was phasing in and out and doing things your group couldn't see... The king knows that he can take away those abilities if he chooses, and he can also taint or change the abilities if he's wise

Vis then fears more of what he implies

Vextor: You were kinda smart to let the king flow, because you know more than what you think.....

Vis in a calm stance then sees himself, and the blade goes into form.

Vextor: . The King has the blades you threw..... Now you seem to have a better reason and understanding of what an item is. Even if the item itself can be used for different reasons. It doesn't mean those items are useless. You have a will, so I guess it's your turn or choice to see

Vis in the stance then sees his blade and calmly finds the resolution.

Vextor: Knowing he also has a different aura-like form in sync, then tells Vextor: Your friends are definitely making a party out of your tricks You know yourself more than anyone else, hence you have a choice.

Vis then phases the other door from the wandering of a blade and says

Vis: Guess I gotta go.

Vextor: Remember, the gauntlet will guide you on how to access the other "psyche blade" abilities..... ... you're already a man enough to know.

Vis: Nice

Vextor: Before you go to Vis , the king of crimson might be in a place you wouldn't expect. a 1st of many levels to be, just remember don't go too quickly to the sun, you might get blinded and burn like Icarus.

Vis: Him..... whatever, I gotta go.

* * *

Vis enters the door as he enters the 3rd alternate plane of the dream-like kingdom; the other team then enters the 3rd phase kingdom plane, and thus he meets his long-time brother.

Vis: Yo

Adonis: Sup, thanks for handling that mess that just happened, you already know the combatants' use of dialects and words of play can be kinda jank sometimes.

Vis: Yeah, that sea witch's words kinda were jam-packed, kinda like a soul gummy

Adonis: pffft, really, dude, it's more like those warheads, her skill in that way of talking makes anyone fight it up. You gotta stop saying lame stuff like that.

Adonis: You're just fishing using the most common baits, use idk better insects next time.

Vis: lol, please, if I'm saying these wack words and stuff, then what that sea witch did made her almost as hyperfixated as well. I bet she didn't see herself or was aware of what she was doing, just like a neurodivergent person.

Adonis: She definitely was hammering the fact that you say basic words with no control or a lack of good use of dispositions within her rhetoric

Vis: So yeah, it's always good to gain words; she's not the only one lacking in vocabulary constructs.

Adonis: I was so right, for you to mansplain like that lol

Vis and Adonis then assume a stance in motion and form.

Adonis: Vis, but you did feel it right, that feeling from just simple words, words that should've made you feel the questioning of existing. You know that, right?

Vis then thinks about what he heard and fought back then; those moments and those realisations made him feel wiser for championing a time when it was just the beginning.

Vis: Never mind, but I mean, im glad to be myself and doing what is in the phase, feel, it wasn't a waste to experience any of it.

Adonis: Okay.....

Adonis then holds his blade of mental construction and deconstruction

Adonis: No wonder the crimson king chose to give the artifact to you, did ya notice that im here now in this current layer of the kingdom?

Vis realises that Adonis wasn't supposed to be in this section of the kingdom

Vis: So, both of them just

Adonis: Check.....you finally are getting on what im trying to play all of those years ago.

Both Adonis and VIs then engage in combat against each other, from times long past to the present.

Adonis: Just like old times, remember we gotta play our parts as well

Vis looks at him and sees his mindset change

Vis: Well, guess we gotta get started and change it up when needed.

Adonis: Likewise, I won't hold myself back now. Let's grunge it up, spooks Adonis then deconstructs the area at hand and phases the room into a gothic battlefield in the snow. He then constructs the mental conditions to get out of the room at hand.

Vis: this.....

Adonis: Your girl definitely likes that taste, considering how you are developing yourself

Vis: She would have, but she's more pure than that, thats way too pure for me im nothing but a being simple

Adonis: No wonder,

Both Combatants then clash, all equal in blade forms.

Vis then remembers what Vextor said,

Vextor: If one were to be smart, they would prepare multiple times before they try and "calm the waters"; sometimes you need to look around, sometimes the highest powers are placed in the most innocent levels of the low states.

* * *

Anias is in the 5th highest plane in the dream kingdom, then plans out more phases to use

Alternate Anias: He is actually getting there, my playing of the pieces actually worked, he is reaching the level I've wanted.

Anias then brings back the Anias form placed on the 2nd floor and takes the abilities from the wounds in Anias into him. He then returns

Anias: Just like an episode.

The crimson king then sees what has happened and then rest on the opposite floor of the Azureking Dream Like State of a Kingdom.

* * *

In the 3rd plane of the kingdom, Aura , Sogo, Aneria , and Malik then enter and see a memory revisit of the academic chambers in the kingdom.

Sogo: Oh crap, I remember this, what's going on

Malik: The area

Aura: why is Vis talking to

The team then sees Vis talk to the Azureking in a private meeting about the progress and an alternative motive that needs to be assessed and provided in that execution

Vis in the memory then talk to the azure king like in a corporate office setting the king assessing his record of vis and vis being as professional as possible then plays his understandings.

Vis: Im glad to be obliged in your presence

Azureking: Yes, now for your records statements, your Karma Points have increased tremendously throughout the past 3 to 4 months in blade and academic testing, as I see it. Now here.

The Azureking then shows Vis reports on the vis records and aims to see Vis's weakness within the reports

Azureking: There was a sudden increase in Karma Points listed in your reports. Do you have anything to say about that way

Vis: Im just doing simple practices from blade procedures to book assessments, that's all

The Azure King then gets Anias' reports about the boy, and tries to make the rumour either confirmed to be true or a guess to an extent.

Azureking: The reports confirm that your engagement with your peers allowed you to gain multiple pools of karma points within the school years. That would be considered external forces to your academic records, would it

Vis: No, every time I was hanging with them I was only trying to assess myself in the matter and gain skills to fulfil the academic process needs. There wouldn't be a bias happening when they were just friends I hung out with.

The Azureking then Passes a Academic Test Bank that Anias found or seems to be etched with similar writing, like Vis,Him, knowing this, then waits for the Azureking to assess the matter

Azureking: Would these test banks for the Aura and Soul Control Word Assessment be of any use to you at all, and the handwriting, surely someone would've seen this right

Vis sees the king and does not believe what is being done in slander or even a narrative created by someone

Vis monologues

Vis: Anias only knows how to copy handwriting like that.....

Vis then says

Vis: My humble king, with such power, you would know that a person like me would not resort to an abusive skill like that. Why would I, as a person, be low and stoop to that weak level to gain that kind of advantage? You would already know what kind of a person I am in that mentality.

Azureking:.....keen mindset.....okay ill let the other proctors do a better analysis on what happened we will meet again on this matter if there are updates, if not then the meeting is now over.

The team sees that memory and sees Vis, will, and heart flowing through a heart that doesn't drop themselves or their flow of ethics

Malik: hes really like that

Sogo: Never would've thought he would try and save himself or his friends from stupid misinterpretations.

* * *

Adonis and Vis then clash, without vis realizing it, he feels and sees Adonis ' blade get longer and stronger from just pure perception

Vis: The hell is this, what!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Adonis then monologues:

Adonis: Alright, Vis, now I wanna know if dad was right about you from the start... he knew it, so I im gonna stress-test this until I know you actually had the balls to do any of this. Hope you don't disappoint me, bro.

The fight then starts to phase up

Adonis: Keep guarding like that and you lose your aura protection within your gauge, your options thou

Vis: Damn

Vis then aura dodges by a blink of a second and gets scrapped from the battle.

Vis: Huff Huff

Adonis then changes the mental perception of the blade right back to its norm of a form

Adonis: Crazy isn't it that my blade is able to form out like that? Whatever I put my mental construction into, I can also deconstruct the mental state of the blade into a physical form.

Vis then looks at the options and uses a blade skill where he drops the blade and does a peculiar thing against it

Adonis: this

Vis then aura phases himself and dashes in tandem , He then Uses the blade like a rope and reframes the attack adonis is about to do.

Vis reframes the situation and calms his emotions down, and strikes with a powerful strike that is beyond damage, a skill that cancels the opponent's attack from his own. As vis encases his body in different layers of aura, like defences. Each is given a different level that guards the true aura. Adonis attack then strikes but is defelcted from what was seen.

Adonis: Was about to strike, heh, so you did improve. You were able to see through my levels of blades.

Vis: The crimson king, so he's here.....then that means

Adonis: Bingo, couldnt you tell that they are both in an alliance now.....in secret, they were trying to pull your strings for being able to survive this long.

Vis:.....Vextor.....wait

Adonis: If I were you... going against a True Boss right now like that would make you a crazy person who doesn't even know what he's doing... Just like they all say.....see it can you.

Vis then realises what he has to go through, and says

Vis: Whatever it takes

Vis then phases out from the room using the ether teleport skill, with some limitations

Adonis:..... Anias.....and Augen.....
Its almost time.

Vis then returns to the 1st floor realizing that he missed something about what has happened.

Vis: So he had the answer.....no wonder..

Vis then sees an unchecked crack that is lighting up..... he sees the opposite door

Vis then phases the blade and goes with the aura guards in place, he phases and sees the Crimson King in a calm and sense that was waiting for him to see it

CrimsonKing: The Realm Mercenary has now entered the field in motion.....welcome

Vis then sees the crimson king and understands both the kings reasoning

Vis: Your methodologies in mental and belief construction,..... You knew people themselves could wake up.....

CrimsonKing: It's just a saying, to some extent, the king of azure should know already how to pursue you, even from the beginning.

Vis then looks at his state in flow.....

CrimsonKing: The Azure King is waiting for the right moment to take it all away, even the aura and ether abilities you so cherished and used..... Even if you think your own aura is different from his....he has the options to change it and make it all his.....

Vis looks and feels a sensation as his older abilities from the azure curse is then returned back to the King of loyal blue light the Caeruleum King of Light

Vis: I feel it , my abilities and my curse is being taken away tch i feel so loose

Vis then tries to get up and stands with his body almost in a dizzy state.

CrimsonKing: sigh.....there he goes always treating his principle to be the law and order yet , may others are then placed like actors to make those law and orders true its a system that builds hate..... Those people who are tormented wouldnt want to be treated or placed in their own circumstance. You as a man would know that.....NOW CHOOOSE.....
... DO YOU FORGIVE AND HELP THEM OR DO YOU LEAD WITH THE KINGDOM HE CHOOSE TO MAKE AND MAKE THOSE THAT DIDNT DESERVE THE SUFFERING INTO INTERNAL SINKING.

Vis then gets up finding his own aura deep inside and gets up..... phased hes still there hes no longer trapped by the azurekings grasp as the king of azure has moved on from the kid or is known as the man.

Crimsonking: You knew, by allowing him to take your form and body under that agreement, that this would happen... The AzureKing and I are brothers yet have different aspirations

Vis: Just STOP TALKING I freaken hate it.....my family those encounters everything about it.....

Vis then angst then calms back down to his alternate aura state.....

CrimsonKing: You just passed the test... You now have the abilities of the AzureKing and the Ether still within you...

Vis: I know.....when the azureking allowed me to agree in connection, I planned an ether ability that can gain his abilities.....all I had to do was just use them..... he didnt notice because it was a ether skill that allows the abilities to be gained by forming a facade to lead the king to see the abilities used yet didnt. A copy in pure disguise.....

Crimsonking: The one that knows all.....Vis your name in latin is known as the force the one that can see

Vis then gains his abilities at the limited beginning level.

Vis: Im gonna be in a limited state tch I cant go into the field to challenge him again....unless CrimsonKing: You change the time within you...

...the ether standstill time skill you used also has another ability

Vis:.....wait the reversal of time no thats

CrimsonKing: Your ability was meant to change the construction of time.....why not change the concept of time to your will?

Vis: The king of Azure is he trying to Aura
Aer is going to be taken by him, isn't it

Crimsonking: it's probably the wisest decision he will do..... he implies a prophecy, yet he himself doesn't realise the alternative decision..... Now what would you think the azure king would do to Aura
Aer

Vis:.....think..... her soul.....no that can't be it...
... she's gonna

CrimsonKing: Finally you noticed how the planes of this kingdom were built from the construction of her soul as well.

Vis: Her mother.....that isn't fair, none of it is...

Crimsonking: You took a wise choice for not falling into his basic trap... if you hadn't gotten the social queue, you would be trapped for an eternity..... the king allowed you to hang with Aura Aer to test and make a legitimate excuse to banish or execute you for doing it.

CrimsonKing: And I mean the books do say it, however, who's the one actually pulling the strings? What did he mean by those pulling the strings?

Vis:.....a being that is not classified yet has both light and dark elements the roots are...

CrimsonKing:..... Your team is currently about to get barraged by some memorable people..... Do you wait or do you be an aggressive dog and save them? You have a choice

Vis:..... Tch, I can only wait.....because the Azure King is the light within dark... Hes Trying to make me a better person for not chasing CrimsonKing: I agreed to do this..... because he's trying to help you.....but since you got too aware of yourself..... he's now using something else, an anger that is not shown in the book.

Vis: He's justified to do so..... So you were the one who had the answers to find the keys this whole time.

CrimsonKing: The wisest will keep the secret until the time is right..... The keys I have will guide you to healing the maidens alongside Vextors ' understanding.....

Vis then sees his team.....knowing he wants to be with them but cant because he has to do this job on the other side.

The crimsonking then hands an agreement alongside the keys, and thus both Vis and the crimsonking agree to completing the phased answers.

Crimsonking: the angels cheer on.....

Vis: But anyone that's human has that answer.....

.....

Vis then leaves, knowing the other party.

The CrimsonKing then sends the message to Tartus and Ater after the mission's elevation in the process.

Crimsonking: do it before it's too late, Vis.....
Aura Aer might be in that situation; you wouldn't know.

* * *

Vis then forces himself to teleport into Vextor's plane as Vextor sees him, he forms 100 ether-like soldiers to prepare him for what is about to come.

Vextor: Your return of the tri or 3rd like visit of a birthday... before we go and commence, I'll have to duel you with my 200 soldiers of ether...Hope you can read how not to miss the mark.....STAND NOW

Vis then engages the 200 soldiers, all of whom are swinging and attacking, one at a time. Vis Phases and Attacks. In clean mind and motion, he uses the angst and outclasses the foes, but in tandem, he gets damaged in return.

Time then comes to a standstill; the soldiers fight, allowing Vis, the Blade Meister, or the Dark Champion to Berserk through the plane... The soldiers rage as they execute vis then gets scratched and punctured many times from the fights

Vis : Heh, this is actually amping up the stakes. I don't want it to end yet..... Send me the payload Vextor: He's in the formed zone. There is only one person in this field with my army, I can see to it... if he is who he is.

Vis then Blades through the opposition and cancels and neutralises the foes from the field until they are only 10 left

Vis then monologues

Vis: What's the freaken point to this? Was this fight even worth doing at all.....damn

The last 10 are heavy hitters, the ones that can one-shot and designate the foe in its entirety

One Shot Soldier: I am here let's break the tides

The one-shotter then overfields Vis Stance and agros the Blade Meister to its limit... for one strike from the Soldier can almost desinigrate the Vis of a Man.

Vis: Damn.....

Vis in the control stance then phases the oneshotter by aura deflecting its aura capacity, hence the one-shot combatant is vulnerable to the attack. The 1st condition is done.

Vis: Nice, just gotta, wave out the heat from this...

Vis then calms the fight by phasing the blade strike into the reframed mind of the soldier

The rest of the soldiers, in shock, are returned to Vextors Grasp Vextor: Well done, well done, you were what the king of azure was implying from just the start.....

Vextor and Vis then talk, only now the older, wiser Vextor describes the mind of a once young man back in his time.

Vextor, I'll make the area and aura concealed so we can talk in private...

Vis: yeah

Vextor: If I had a nickel for ever telling this to a kid, I would be poor as a poor soul from the afterlife, or maybe that plane of light

Vextor: The Azureking and I were good pals back in the original times, hanging at the ball court playing hoops and vibing with the fam. He was definitely the twin I needed to phase our plays back in those times, it was fun.....nothing to worry about, an average day like what they call a sunset, good ole afternoon.

Vis: I can't tell what you're on about. "Basketball" is that some kind of dish we eat?

Vextor: Man your a baby for not knowing this... .. new gen or whatever.....anyways me and the homie the azure king also had a group Your Dad was hanging with us as well. we sang.....fought...

....made goofy jokes.....broke and made up a funny group it was thou. Man, I always remember what your dad said, Azen, about just living simple, not wanting that much at all, and loving to hang with someone... heh, guess I im looking at his joy or whatever aftermath...

Vis: What tch man im not that

Vextor: Relax, it's just a joke.....eventually the world changed. A specific event, a magi catastrophe, broke the world and forced me to enroll in a magic-like job where im stuck.....

Vis looks at the maidens and see whats hes implying

Vis: Like a purgatory, I guess

Vextor: We choose to make those choices in life, even when we don't want to Sometimes we have to be forced or force ourselves to do it..... It's the pain of a reality we call causation.....

Vextor then passes the maiden's pictures

Vextors: these were the girls that the group and we used to hang with as well..... your mother was also here, man, she looked fine as fine wine, your dad got so freaken lucky for having her like that.

Vis: Man, as I asked my parents never were like that cool or Vextor: Oh, you call yourself cool. Does a cool guy actually have to try and be cool? Guess, dude.

Vis:.....pft nah cool guys never have to prove it.....they do it without even trying....

Vextor: So it's good he taught you, alright

Vextor then shows the maidens and shows that each maiden has to be unlocked carefully, hence the keys are sensitive based on the maiden's emotions and the user's mental realization.

Vextor: You have to see them not for what they look like but for what's deep inside their heart; that's how you can break the nightmares.

Vis: yeah

vis then uses the blade of reframes and unlocks the keys to the 1st maidens waking.....

He then phases the blade and sees her memories within the time frame of the ability done.

The maiden's childhood and the family she had

Vis: That's deep.

The maiden's name is named meu

Meu as she plays with her siblings and does chores, having the joy of her life like a summer child of many sorts. She was blamed for being abusive when she wasn't trying to in the 1st place.

Meu: WHY I didn't mean to do that, I was trying to help. Why would you say that

Sibling: She never learns , why does she always try to help when we dont need the help like does she know the time already

Meu: Sniff ii HATE THIS, IM JUST BEING USED

Vis: Seeing her memories humbles him by how others suffer, yet he thought he was suffering with no one

Vis: I sorta knew it; I wasn't struggling alone... who was I to judge them for what they were when the circumstances were just...

Vextor sees Vis finally returning to his original state, the champion from a long-ago era.

Vextor: Time Vis,

* * *

Anias then meets up with Ater on the matters at hand.

Anias: What a crazy situation this whole comedic tales this be

After moving on from a person who contradicts his own craziness and calls others crazy, then presents the session's phased events at hand.

Ater: I got the call that Vis, amongst any dark champion I've perceived, will be collaborating with us at this time

Anias: Hah.....always knew the dude would cave in to that ...

Ater: The jester now folds his cards; he knows the next roulette is about to be presented

Anias: Whoever is trying to hand out the cards had better give me the ace of hands

Ater: Or die trying, knowing what this reality is.

Anias: Tch

Ater: He should be rendezvousing with us shortly.
Vextor will have the call and time set for the next act to be fulfilled

Anias: Brother ole vis, the lonesome..... nah, I'll let fate keep what's in store for us.

* * *

Aura and the rest of the team then chat for a bit, knowing the area has calmed down.

Aura:.....my father is about to do it

Aneria: sigh..... free will is always a chore to represent with others sometimes.

Malik and Sogo look at the area, knowing the next event is about to start.

Malik: Its almost hitting the clock's strike

Sogo: Ayy Aura whatever you need,..... I'll try and do whatever it takes..... You got that Aura: Just stop... I im just tired of this...

Aura looks at her photos of vis and them back then she remembers that there was some hope

Aura: Endo

* * *

Vis then sees the maidens meu memories in form and construction and thus reframes with the slash of reframes, there he helps meu understand and thus says.

Vis/Endo: Meu always know that you yourself will always be kind, but time and true timing can sometimes be confusing. We all have our own faults to deal with your not alone. So just know the queue when your loved ones don't want it.

Vis puts the reframe technique into action and unlocks meu the maiden from the slumber.

Vextor: You really were the only one that knew that answer..... the other 2 will be harder to unlock, at your pace, you'll need to find your roots of how you get tested by those that mess around.

Vis: yeah..... the only one that tried to antagonize was him

Vextor: Anias and Ater have the ticket for you to confront those specific things , you'll need to nurture the copies of the kings abilities within you.

Vis: damn i have to wait now

Vextor: catch

Vis then gets the ticket marked with the ether sigil and element mark.

Vextor: This will guide you into the verse of ether, and will help explain those causative elements of life.

Vis then gives the okay sign and says

Vis: I got it, ... now I know

Vis then teleports using the ticket to the location of Ater and Anias, two people who, in a hidden disguise, could guide. Vis now realizes how he was the one being pathetic. He now accepts the loss and joins them, knowing that fighting a being of that ultimate strength would be the most painful form to experience.

Vis then joins Ater and Anias, knowing that his own self was not as mature as he thought... He'll then see why he is acting as a main character, or why the main character is the most laughed-at thing in existence. Hence, many say he's crazy, but in that reality, he's gotten too old to be with those who are too pure for him; he then has to phase within himself. He's now at a loss for words.

But even so, for those that undermine, the man Vis or caereleus to some or many others, he may not be the joke that some would have thought, as in, Vis is much more than what some see him to be superiority or angst in disguise as kindness. When who he really is only scratches the surface. For many, what would they know of the man, when not all was shown?

Aura, then, in due time will have to wait, as the king will do his will and duty to put a person like vis in his place. However, in the face of what's to come, some events may not be expected to have their own outcomes.

Vis will then man up

The seeker swims

The Next Saga now commences
