Chapter 1

Narrator: vis then begins to recall all of the memories repressed from the hidden past and acknowledges a truth and the lies seen.

Vis: so this is why i was cursed everything was planned out why did i get this , i just wanted to be in peace.

Ater: we all wanted our peace but the beyond elements made us become who we are, because in order to keep your peace you have to get the strength to protect the peace,

Crimson King: both me and the azure king are kind beings in other ways we give yet we seek, in my own case I needed something from the king yet he never budged like a strong man of stubbornness

Vis:.....theres somethings that are beyond me, this past I had the king knew something inside of me that will. I had to accept it , I just didn't see that my ignorance led to it now i know, I was given and had other gifts so i need to use it to the ultimate potential

Narrator: the ether blade of an artifact then resonates and emits the light once more, and now the blade then resonates with the blade from the shadow and formulates to a evolution of a tool, the blade of ether like magi.

Crimson King: I knew it from the start that you never faltered from the path and yet how you quickly skilled and tacts im now aware.

Vis: my name it means.....

Ater: the one who knows all

Crimson King: you want your life or catch back that time don't you.

Vis:.... if i have to change my path ill do it even it it seems preplanned of plans , there's someone i gotta help out

Crimson King: doing it for her

Vis:.....true

Crimson King: you finally saw through our facades didn't you, its no wonder your name was call the one who knows all.

Vis: I think I know now , If i want to get myself back ill have to do it

Crimson king: very aware indeed,

Suddenly the Crimson King mercenaries come from the outside giving a message that something is going to change.

Crimson Mercenaries: Sire its beginning the King of Azure is starting the offensive infiltration

Crimson king: and the effect goes around, alright vis , what ever you need to do or create find your path, you had that kindness in you its that you never wanted to fight to your fullest, So ill fight along or against you in many times in the future, so ill be waiting when your will classes in equal form, alright vis now go.

Ater: alright its beginning, lets go

Vis: gotcha.

Narrator: The attack of the azure now begins and many start to protect the vicinity there vis, pendant then resonates from the cloaked figure,

Ater: that pendant , where did you get it!

Vis: one of your Crimson pals gave it to me,

Vis then gives a stern vibe but strong enough to get aters attention

Ater: the only one i know who has this type of pendant.... Tartus\

Vis: yeah he was there watching the whole duel his aura was so lowkey, why does he even exist in your kingdom

Ater:.....because he has to repay something to us..... now im not even sure whats hes doing now

Vis: that kind of Merc something, ... hes the one that gave me that restrictor,

Ater:.....well times changed , he not part of our faction anymore,

The pendant then reveals a soul like element and thus resonates with hidden paths.

Vis:!!!!

Ater: So this pendant is what tartus was keeping away from me..... no wonder.

Vis: Ill have to go on my own now?,

Ater: Of course but by doing so you'll have to see what these planned paths lead, that pendant might give you those answers to find the possibility.

Vis: Thanks but ill do my own thing now, this king that gave me this curse ill have to do it.

Ater: your path is really being forged.....

Vis then sees the path lead to a perculair spot in the crimson forest and emits a azure light to some extent.

Vis:..... i gotta go

Ater: it begins.

Vis then dashes in a caisa like state to the leading point from the pendant

Scene:

Vis speeds through the forest in a aura like dash like stance and sees where the path leads , Tartus after image then hidden gives a gesture a mysterious gesture, this drives vis to see what it is.

Vis monolouges

Vis: so he's the one that was hiding in hindsight

Tarsus after image then leads to a chamber of a teleport that shows a Caisa like sigil.

Vis:.....the same aura and flow so why is this.....

Vis then activates the caisa aura gate

And waits in a meditative state hence the doors unlocks.

Vis then walks and goes into the Caisa like verse. There he meets the once crimson assassin now missing

Tartus

Vis then strengths the ether infused blade and tries to trap tartus.

Tartus knowing this uses a ether like edit to reflect
Vis Trap

VIS: damn

Tartus : well well you did learn , looks like that restrictor worked

Vis: shut up, I'm here to know what's your aim at this.

Tartus: demand me like that and let's see how much air you can grasp

Tartus then ether edits the air elements to a sinister air in the molecules about to confirm then...

Vis: then ill stop,

Tartus: like a good boy he thinks

Vis not in the mood then asks some forms of truths.

Vis: A restrictor like this , having those properties your from another organization weren't you.

Tartus:.....you tell me man of caisa what would you know about me Or any of this. Would you need any assistance for the lies you put in your head.

Vis: nice trick but I'm done playing games, your entertainment is so pathetic,

Vis then looks at the air and how dense it is.

Vis then starts to channel the caisa flow of aura and shields in a caisa aura force.

Tartus: You know your times clicking, and these forces are antagonizing many even those who don't deserve it. So why put all of that time on me. Like a lanterns in the sun so useless.

Vis then controls the rage and uses a caisa like slash of aura built in. Flowed the aura flows into caisa aura orbs infused .

Vis: the only thing useless here is your waste of space , so tell me who the actually bull are you.

Tartus: just a wanderer

Vis: pointless

Vis then intensifies the caisa aura spheres into electric flows of orbs .

Then vis controls with calm rage once more and traps tartus. Tartus then stops and elevates his stance and takes the hit.

Vis: this dumbass what's he.....thinking alright you got my attention what do you want.

Tartus: and now you learn and listen just like they say and the king of Azure was right about this. The records were right

Vis:!!!!..... how did you

Vis questioning this then starts to see the gray elements in this so called situation.

Vis:..... you're

Tartus: a man of both sides or some would call a watcher someone who neither lament for the living or the dead. Now tell me what's my alignment.

Vis: coming from your mouth why would I answer. What you did I want answers why the attack.

Tartus: don't have all the time but if you want anything from me devour this darkness and beyond elements and make it the light one or many need.

Vis then unlocks and takes his blade and stances himself preparing for what event this is.

Tartus: alright your not as a puppet as what they say , don't waste or disappoint me .

A duel of magicite begins.

Scene.

Tartus and Vis then hold both strong stances in a duel like nature knowing outcomes both use their abilities to a certain skill.

Vis then slowly walks in a calm manner knowing what the tartus is planning, As Tartus watches he then emits his axe like ether tool, and drops it with an ether void, hence the ground turns to axes,

Vis Surprises by this then falls to the ground or so it seems, Vis then enables a ether like plane to stand knowing what tartus is doing, Both are in a stand like still, both in a eased like nature.

Vis: you were planning something way ahead of the planes.

Tartus: you could say that but what i am , is of no concern unless you can outpace me ,

Vis then strengths his blade in a both caisa and elevated azure like form ,

Vis: then let me progress this to the next phase.

Vis then emits an aura fang and forms into blade beams of trap like nature and this allows vis to start playing different foresights to know the outcome.

Tartus: enticing indeed I'm intrigued by this

During the azurekings controlled battle both aura and rai try and adapt the playing field to some extent in the field.

Aura:huff huff father why cant you listen even for once for how dense you are your making me hurt,

Rai: Aura..... My liege why do this now when your daughter is in this devastated form .

Anias: then you'll all never learn to truly know true pain is to bring it to one to another to relate the pain and empathy in that sense.

Aura: how dare you try and manipulate this , don't bring others down from your own anger or hatred where does that lead.

Anias: if only you knew what the circumstance was , or how i feel, the torment and all of that training and allegiance for what . Ill tell you why,

AUra:.....

Anias: the direction of power and my reasons are what counts , that why we exist to some extent,

Rai: then you've become something we cant.....

The Azure king then enables a array of restrictor like plane of fields to quicken the traps

Aura: I wont lend anyone my prowess unless they know the meaning of trust ,

Anias: then ill take everything ill do anything i can to get the potential, I deserved it , and yet That degenerate vis took it away from me, I worked so hard isnt that unfair.

Aura then releases a specter like lance and swipes at anias emitting azure like aura to a elevated pace.

Aura: Then ill do everything i can to protect the things I love and not let anyone like you from destroying

Scene:

Both tartus and vis then reach a standstill once more both combatants then create ruckus in the caisa like area of a field that resonates with others in the field of verses.

Tartus: Well well you reached a elevated point and oh my you just gained some bravery amongst your self.

Vis:.....

Vis then releases some forms of aura like fangs into the area like caisa like field making pathways to combat tartus , in the sharp axes being formulated Vis then Channels and Glides in Aura like form to Restrict Tartus skill and grasp.

Tartus: your really that easy to read look like your stubbornness is so close to the king of azure itself.

Vis: Not gonna fall for that or what you lie,

Vis: Facade Release !!!!!!!! ,

Vis then finally unrestricts his azure curse in the caisa like aura arena, vis then remembers all the skills and taught philosophy learned, it then elevates vis skill and stature to its original yet evolved state.

Tartus: impossible! that curse was supposed to be unlocked by me , that was a high grade locked restrict only those knowing the elements can advert this.

Vis: Then you read your opponent wrong like a mindless puppet.

Vis in the released state then forms a azure and caisa like prowess in the form of a forms of a cloak within it the ether blade then enables in sync with the unlocked flow.

Vis: its over, im ending this now!!!!

Vis then forms a technique once taught from ludo, a tech like skill that restricts the opponent through the once restriction energy flowed in one self. THEN it releases like ether and caisa like chains in unison and restricts tartus in its place, the area returns to normal and thus tartus is now trapped . Vis then walks waiting to get the anwsers needed.

* * *

In the azure chambers Alex then unsheates his arms form the azure kings chains that are not elevated right in the area, Alex then dashes in a aura and soul like form to the azure kings battle field .

Both Aura and Rai then Start to Attack Anias in a flow like state, Anias knowing this then summons the now complete S tier summon of the depths of the ether and azure.

Anias: You all will never learn what I had to do to keep this kingdom in check, I am the justice that needs to be used .

Rai: then your mixed up ideals will push you back to your most sorrow state you need to wake up.

Anias: wake up , hahhahhh you really think I need to wake up, look at me and everything ive accomplished getting this beast and controlling it is my awakening, you fooled your self , still im your low slumber states.

Aura: THEN SHUT UP YOUR nothing more than a Liar and a rat.

Anias: TCH , foul words like that and ill do it

Anias then uses the string of azure to control the azure kings aura and mixed ideals to a elevated chaos

Azure King: hnng!!!!

Scene

Vis then restricts the ether like user Tartus and controls the area to an calmer form to know what the answers are from him.

Vis: the skills ive learned are what was needed to confront this , My use in ether like abilities allows me to edit the curse and flip it hence i now have the control and option to negate on my own control in ether ability.

Tartus: Tch then how come i cant get out when I have the same abilities, your oh so something, My ether abilities should be able to counteract you at a much better pace in fact ill do it as of this moment.

Tartus then tries to edit the ether like skill of chained release from the shackles but cant because of a single factor

Vis: Its how im able to control the caisa like prowess in a form im able to read and control a varied element of my own. That caisa light acts like a purifications thought you already knew that by now.

Tartus:.....you saw right through me didn't you knew , this was an act don't by me..... that why you wont attack completely

Vis: because if I did I would've already done so already, but I knew this was preplanned, Your from a origin of light organization something beyond good and evil.

Tartus: well played you knew i was testing you from the start a play of some sort and you knew my tricks, so the old man alex knew what to do when the time was right

Vis then takes his emblem of perception and tosses into his other hand.

Vis: this emblem was probably what kept me alive this whole time along side a charm I have everything combined . I guess I couldn't have done it with out them.

Tartus: You are a kind man who lost all but kept going despite what was. Restricted by me and controlled by the azure you wanted your answers and wanted your life for hence you have reached it.

Vis:.....so why this place the pendant shouldn't have resonated in that area unless

Tartus: There's many things going on Ive only wanted to test you by the rules to know who the successor will be

Vis:.....that door your keeping it as a secret because it leads to a elevated verse doesn't it

Tartus: Precisely the reason why I wanted to lend a hand despite not knowing you , I know overall your morality is there. Alright take the access point ill stay in guard.

Vis: how about your self

Tartus: Ill keep in guard when the times right , there's more to uncover....

Vis:.....thanks

Vis then traverses into the portal there a hidden gate is activated into the azure force of the kingdom.

Vis: Gotta help her this time.....

Scene:

Vis then goes into the accessed teleport and is versed into the azure chambers and at the same time he sees his old mentor again after the verse shift in time.

Vis: Mentor!

Alex: !! glad your back no time to explain

Vis: got you lets go

Both ALex and Vis then dash in aura like flows and work and traverse in keen speed into the Azure Kings courtyard there Alex tells VIs

ALex: Right now im aiming to stop both of them from destroying the protection like dumbasses you need to use what you know and counter

Vis: Thats why ive been skilling up with new skills to counter, Let me handle this.

Vis then slowly enters the courtyard and sees the a moment of intensity, The Azure king in a conflicted feel and controlled like stance then emits and mystifies the whole Courtyard , Many beams of Specter like Auras are emitted then aimed to Aura . Out of the blue , vis goes into a soul like dash and unhides, there he deflects the mist like blast from the king.

Azure King:.....

Anias: the brats here now, oh how lovely you learned something in a betrayed like stance, And now whos the traitor.

Aura: Vis Gasp you're back !!!!!

Vis: Anias ,..... I know your intent now , that king told me about it..... you're sick , I makes me question this verse and how low you really are.

Anias then give a decrypted like smile and remembers those times ago.

Anias: oh how would you know, I helped you out in the invasion so would that make me in allegiance to

* * *

During Anias time as a Crimson Assassin.

Anias: I've found some records to confirm our choices to advance the field of play in the verse control output

CrimsonKing: Have you ever tried to see you self in this goal you have you also have a keen almost like prince like nature.

Anias: my liege I am only doing it for your own sake, If anything potential is all that count and in order for those reasons of goals and dreams to be true . Other must know true ranks amongst all ranks in nature so that way the never ending levels of creativity can be.

CrimsonKing: your turning into a leader that aims yet want things of sort to be in place , your becoming many leaders themselves so I hope you understand the stance on this

Anias: I want to obtain perceive the dreams of all live to that very moment and be supreme when the wins are in place some would call it righteous in my ideals.

CrimsonKing: your aim is to

* * *

present time

Anias then unleashes abilities in the most darkened forms covering all of the courtyard and restricts all access points to retreat

Anias: that alliance to whom I should care less, because no one would understand that pain of dreams themselves .

Vis then monologues

Vis: Anias now i can tell hes hiding his.....

Hence Vis then switches his blade like stature and forms a sphere like field into the ground and cover aura and rai from the degradation

Scene

Both Vis and Anias give each other stares of confrontation and control knowing any of the outcomes are possible in context

Vis: if I have to duel both you and the Azure King like this then that will be what is.

Anias: spoken from a degen and a lying person who lacks what do you have that would count.

Vis then unsheates the evolution of the Azure Blade infused with the ether aura like artifact

Vis: then your probably way over and to late to save.

Anias: tch alright have it that way, oh my liege Azure King let's defy this tyrant.

Vis then sees anias dwindle his fingers almost in a subtle way tricking the king.

Azure King then forces a dash in Azure like aura and dupes Vis.

Vis: tch damn not this,

Vis then stand on ground and stances in a flow like state then enables one of the blades abilities

The blade then resonates both blue and emerald like aura and causes a mixture of some prowess.

Anias: this

Vis then slowly controls the blades flow and blows a silent like hit to anias emerald like yet finesse

Anias: ppfft hah what's this your baby like attack , that's all you got

Vis: check your self before you say check

Vis blades like ability and activates and counters all of the Azure essences and switches the aura

Vis then holds the blade like a wand and shoots an ether like ability to anias.

Anias: what

Vis: looks like your were lacking lots of things to put your self in that place.

Anias: no..... why am I out of my body, tch you could've attacked me already so why do this.

Vis: because that outcome was not the worth , I'm going to know why your intents this

Anias: tch so you knew

Vis: by using this ether ability I'm able to edit your soul out of your being of a form, that means I'll be able to see all of it including your selfishness

Anias: HAH looks who talking you don't even know your self or anyone your filled with so much pride and thinking your good shit. Your just like the rest . Merely nothing but a dog a degen.

Vis: then at least im able to know what to do .

Anias: fine then defy me with that lacking skill, I can always control.my form in so many ways.

Vis then monolouges

Vis: he's bluffing and stalling he know his operation is complete

Gotta quicken up.

Vis then starts one of the ether like blade skills given from the crimson kings artifact.

Vis: Rising Restrict Activate

Anias: I can't.....you'll see what your doing will never work you hear me scum

Vis: Go to Sleep, Restrictions of all of beings of Azure enable this time of cancelation and end his time.

Anias is then edited in time to a close of a pause

there Vis then cancels the Azure King ability like puppetry on the king.

Aura: Vis how did you know? No one would've predicted

Vis: when I was given that test to activate that ether artifact everything came in motion everything I was able to read , including what happened to me. The blade I'm now using uses a variant of the ether flow of all , since it in this blade its slowly taking all of my Azure like curses out, almost like a chamber to suck all curses.

Aura: that means you can

Vis: not exactly I'm able to use the Azure and ether like blade but is limited, there has to be some negative aura or souls to be used

Vis ,Aura, Alex, and Rai then look at the Azure kings and Anias like state

Vis: Aura please let me confront this,

There's something in anias that is causing something ,

Aura: you don't mean

Vis: there's a dark force in anias that the crimson king was trying to monitor and seeing it , I'm given no other choice.

Alex: I'm glad that perception emblem helped you In seeing this I was hoping someone like you could make some sense to this mess.

Vis: Aura your pain it's so old you really want him back.

Aura: please don't do it , if anything bring me with you , I don't want to lose you.

Vis: Alex your right I do resemble Endo , that fearless nature everything , so why am I here in this form.....

Alex : I don't know, and for you to find your answers you'll have to do it for yourself

Vis: Create a Ether like spell , I know I was taught by someone on this

Alex: so you knew ,..... that's why they king chose you

Vis:.....no he chose anyone with the curse it's us we have that ability to forge .

Alex: alright there's a tool I kept hidden in aura form from the others .

Alex then unlocks an item like ether element that shows many barriers

Alex: this here was what I was keeping away and waiting for the right time to use, it will allow you to go In to someone's mind and soul if done right will lead to the origin of the person.

Vis: this thing ,..... your a never mind.

Alex: it's your choice if you want to use it and find out what is

Aura: no wonder you kept it, having that would've been destructive

Vis:..... hey Alex what can you recall from my blade

Alex: oh I forgot your blade In this form is an embodiment of your true self .

Vis: that means I have to start the change

Alex: now you know alright use it, I'll keep both the Azure King and Anias in watch. Now you both of you

Vis:.....you sure Aura

Aura:.....you know already I trust you.

Vis then hugs Aura in a gentle way.

Vis: Sure

Suddenly the force of aura in the courtyard then emits a beyond dark aura.

Alex : it's changing alright you have to go to anias mind and see what's going on. Both of you go we have to fix this.

Vis and Aura: Right

Both Vis and Aura then use the ether emblem and opens a force like portal , hence both Aura and Vis go into the mind of anias.

In the colosseum verse, there lies vextor in a azure cursed like state there he engages with some of the rogues congregating in the area.

Vextor: You all want to fight me a once typical young like fatherless behavior you dont know your stance on me ya fools.

Rogue1: oh so hes the one that combated the crimsonking wow

Rogue 2 I heard this sus man's bounty is pretty highly valuable

The rogue mercs of the colosseum then attack the vextor in different ranges and angles forcing a move.

Vextor : typical alright aura facade release

Vextor then releases his facade breaking the limit of his aura wolves in command for a times limited

Vextor: wolves of beyond auras of time, rise,

The wolves then rise form into different attacks for vextor to manifest.

Rogue: oh he's wanting it let's give it to him

All the rogues then emit souls like attacks to agro the plays to some extent . Vextor then uses the aura wolves and manipulate the form to form aura like fangs behind the rogues attackers .

Rogue impossible arrrgh

The attack then dissipates the rogues soul attacks negating the offensive leaving marks of negative flow

Rogue we can't move what's going on

Vextor: all of the aura fangs I did are marked in aura form restrictions. So anyone who gets hit is then restricted for sometime next time play a better tact

* * *

In the court yard Alex then ask Vis on thing before they leave

Alex: Vis was this life worth your time do you want to keep it.

Vis: Teach what's the point after all that happened I'll never let go of what is true to my ideals or

Vis then looks at Aura in a dream and goal like feel.

Vis: those I love the most even if it's not my family I've given up on reminiscing on my past , my parents would've have not wanted that, I guess now growing I want be with

Vis then hugs stronger to Aura,

Vis: you

Aura in the most blushed state is then in bliss crying

Aura: then I wouldn't be with anyone else, even if I lost him your souls resonates like him. I'm glad

Alex: that's all I got to say I'm glad your chemistry with one another gotten better you both tend to be funny.

Vis: pfft you can say that again

Aura: vis.....

Vis: my bad lol alright Mentor we gotta fix this mess now time to find out what's going on.

Alex: Alright I'll use an old-school other ability that allows that item to activate when it happens the Aura of Azure will dissipate which will force me to control the levels of Aura of immense shadows from stopping the kings and anias stubborn flow.

Vis: gotcha let's begin it.

Alex: alright it begins the Arc of change shall commence.

Scene:

Both Vis and Aura then wait for Alex to start the Ether Verse like portal in which all parts come into place, The perception emblem of aura like azure, Aura Charm of Specter like charm, and The Ether infused sword of Azure from Vis, All in combination then allows access to the mind gate to Anias, All of a sudden the whole arua begins to degrade and deepned with an intense aura of negative and sorrow.

Vis:..... this dense pain what is this..... Aura you sure you want to go with me

Aura: I dont want you to go and me being lost please lend me your strength ill lend my light

Vis:..... Thanks Aura, Lets go

Both Vis and Aura then go into the dense hate like verse and try to traverse into the mind of anias .

Alex: They will have to quicken up before its time, man my body really is degrading

Alex then looks at his body knowing its cracking like a rock. Alex then sees how much time he needs before its begins

Alex: Im glad he able to let go of the confictions if only i had done so as well right augen, brother....

augen then comes into a damaged like state from anias and seeing then becomes enraged with out a conscious's the shadow.

Alex: if only i hadnt been so naieve or ignorant to let you take reign in your dreams, I failed

Alex then in a strong yet time like stance then strands strong knowing what he lost those times he wanted and the regret of losing a dear one

Alex: no matter what ill have to stall you even it it takes my soul with you down to where it belongs, Im sorry Augen

* * *

In the colosseum arena: Vextor then encounters Ludo and Kai, both surprised that Vextor came to see them, Both Ludo and Kai in a confused state Vextor then takes his helmet of .

Ludo:..... you did come back your right this whole time..... old friend

Kai: sup didnt expect you to return after what happened

Vextor: Theres something i need to finish before the azure invasion starts to begin, i need your help to find these 2 beings.

Ludo and Kai then look at the Pendant Vextor is holding Ludo sees it and remebers what vextor had to leave

Ludo: I couldnt remeber you at 1st but im begin-ning to rememeber you..... no worries old friend we can find them we met them before after you left .

Vextor: thank you I was trying to search who it is but my memory is turning foggy from being drunk over this wretched curse .

Kai: We all have ,

Vextor: then please forgive me on what i didnt see...

Ludo: it wasnt your intent to do it , I cant blame you nor myself we were ignorant back then built and failed..... ill follow whatever happens .

Vextor: thanks.

Scene

During the colosseum chambers Vextor , Ludo , and Kai all meet up for a meet up there they plan out a resolve to see how it plans out.

Ludo: You cant be serious , trying to reason with both of those kings is like talking to 2 ducks sitting its pointless they will never budge .

Kai: were better off protecting our own zones if that were to be the case, unless there's a contingency plan you have.

Vextor: well think about it for a second what was the true reason the crimson king did the invasion from his end during that time.

Kai: guess more land territory or something's I guess

Vextor: Its the feeling of payment the crimson king wants. the vengeance or that will to know what the era of disconnect happened.

Ludo: your talking about a long gone era where the systems of planes were disconnected , wars of chaos were made in those areas, your guessing that both of them were place in a predicament during that state like period

Vextor: Precisely everything I knew I had saw and was part of from the disconnect war. Do you wanna know why I have these marks of beyond curses

Ludo: your testing my limits , just say it before you go

Vextor: I chose to be in the hidden to help those sides , even it i was seen to be on the other side. And was forced to bear both of the kings curses ,

Kai:.....vis mustve known this, You talked to him didnt you ,

Vextor:.... I almost see him as my own that I lost those many years ago.... I wanted someone like him to fulfilled what i couldnt and stop this madness from going any further, Seeing his eyes i can see many arcs hes been and will go into.

kai: your talking like hes some kind of messiah or chosen one, if anything that could all be a fluke if he not given the chance

Ludo:..... Your in a double alliance with both kings arent you its no wonder both of those curses allows you to traverse in many areas. Vis instincts were right this is pre planned ,

Vextor: The crimson king from what i heard had to give the ether like test to confirm if he had the soul or an incarnation form of that one old god .

Kai:.....Blue Flames and Thunder, Foresight and Judgement..... alright you dont have to say more on this.

Ludo: so it begins a change in an arc

* * *

In the Azure Court yard both vis and aura are placed in the trance like magi sleep like skill allowing Alex to flow the conscious into the mind of Anias

Alex: It begins , now ill have to stay on guard before anything's happens ,

Both Aura and VIs then dives deep into the mentality of Anias hence the deep sharp pain is surfaced in the mental form.

Scene

Hence the war of arcs of many now start with the azure kingdom in a darkened feel and many phases of invasions then start to happen., There the crimson king then looks at the foresight in the plane like realms to some extent. Looking he knows that time is almost running out knowing there needs to be a safety net to control what madenning chaos there is.

CrimsonKing: Just a little longer ,

Crimson Assassin: My liege we need to count the timing of the azure kings offensive,

CrimsonKing: im sensing some form of a deeper battle going on in the azure kings place of choice

Ater: Were going on the defensive for now , we dont have alot of time to keep this up,

CrimsonKing: Then Ater go to where you must theres some spots I know that can help you traverse

Ater: you sure about this what about you and adonis?

CrimsonKing: Adonis will be fine , I led to a specific point in the mission I gave him, I also gave some orders that he knows and understands the other objective.

Ater:..... alright i understand , whatever happens we have to force on.

CrimsonKing: Alright commence the counter tacts

* * *

In the verse of Azure both Vis and Aura are in the sleep like trance and with the 3 items placed it give some limited time to allow the access to Anias own mind and soul .

Vis and Aura then wake up into the Mind like gate and see many negative aura like fragments in the mind and sees fragments of something tortured .

Vis: What is this Anias wouldn't have or is he

Aura: Vis please be on guard , we need to ...

Vis: of course I just needed some time to see this.

Vis and Aura then walk like plane like steps into the mind of Anias and see many shadow like fragments hence some destructive forces then blockade and emit immense beyond aura like control.

Vis: this pain its hurts in that feeling what happened.....

Shadow of ANias 1: Pain is everywhere and chaos is conflicted in many forms of nature.

Vis: theres more to it aura stay away I think this is.

Aura: gasp his memories what is this why is he

Vis then starts to feel all of Anias memories and starts seeing it from the start.

Vis looking then sees a young anias trying his hardest to keep his mother from dying but to no avail he couldn't've stop her death from happening . And looks at the tenebris like monster's attacking the family he had. The conflictions and fragile kid is then left in the dust the tenebris causing a monstrous laughter mocking and shoves . Then he sees the azure king and another sinister foe the azure king in a feared state talks to the other hidden king and gives a sorrowful look a defeated look making anias enraged in the most hatred form in nature. something that cant be cured unless the action is done. And the events get more sinister hence he sees the Azure king give a curse same as those in the allegiance to anias. A fate so lost it destroys the final hopes of anias.

Vis:.....

Aura:.....

Vis: theres more

Vis then controls the Anias like shadow and uses the caisa like prowess in a spirit like form within the controlled technical form he heals that part of anias.

Anias shadow: your seeing it , it goes deep and deepened into the sinking flow of what is.

Vis: I need to keep going I wanna know why all of this maddening messes is.

Aura: Its so deep, why is this.....

Scene

As vis and aura traverse deeper into the maddening chaos of what anias was holding back there vis then comes to a certain point and sees both the hidden like king and the Azure King holding anias and placing him to a chamber like repose

Azure king: you sure this is what you wanted of king of ?????

???? : if the world stagnated from what we didn't see then why would everything exist including the other forces

Azureking: the things beyond our own control the unlimited pacing and legions of beyond.

The azureking looking at the boy in the most sorrowful state

Azureking:.....if it ever has to happen I'll try to cancel even it It takes my own existence out of the box.

????: anias shall be called the arbiter of causation for hence his true self is known to be the stars of morning

Azureking:.....then the other predestined of blue flames and judgment beyond is

Vis:.....what

Vis then looks at himself for once as so does aura
. Looking at his hand he sees the aura of like blue inside

Vis: my facades Eubouleus

Aura: gasp your mouth!?!

Vis:.....anias what happened to you.....

Anias shadow: I'll be awaiting if your what they say then I hope you don't mistaken those burden with others.

Vis: Aura thanks

Vis then souls steps close to Aura and puts her in a Aura like sleep and uses his 3 items to flow her back into the real plane.

Aura: vis why I wanna help why are you so stubborn, why keep doing by yourself, it hurts everytime,
I don't want to lose you.

Vis: please I don't want to keep burdening others all around me, it's not a goodbye if I'm not walking around in aimless form unlike anias.

He better so not destroy I might actually have to goof him.

Vis then uses a skill to teleport aura in a ether like manner.

Aura: vis dont!!!!

As aura is teleported in the real body of aura, vis then looks at the gate like pressure that hardness true fear.

Vis:.....

Suddenly the shadow of vis then forms into an original form the once called blue flames like God, Eubouleus

Vis:.....so it's you your the one that helped me out in those transformation.

Eubouleus: your catching on, I was always there when that king cursed you I had to be hidden to help you in those times .

Vis: that shadow I have if it wasn't you but you came from my flow of aura like second nature. Your the one that skilled me to obtain the flames of aura like blue .

Eubouleus: your judgment is correct in that nature I as a once a old god from an old time. For hence I've seen those who couldn't learn and then saw you.

Vis:.....so the shadow i have or should I say 2 shadow like forms.

Eubouleus: go on your getting close.

Vis: which means , this path will lead me to those answers by confronting

Eubouleus: or not depending on what you seek you need to check yourself before it is.

Vis:.....

Scene

Vis and the shown form of the guider then follow the stair well there other manifestation of anias broken form and soul is then emitted testing and then eviscerated

Vis: the deeper it goes I'm starting to feel the sharpness of it.

Eubouleus: there's a door I'm sensing but it's a door to the being of Vis: star like false.

Eubouleus: that names was once known to be affiliated with a bright being but it's own. Flaw led a path to Sorrow.

Vis: that path made him an arbiter someone that did it and had a vision

Eubouleus: some say it was meant for the purpose and identity so why would other books explain the opposite of what he did.

Vis: because everything had to exist in order for the world to keep moving if not then.

Eubouleus: many infinite worse beings would've reign and chaos and mass destruction would've been meant for the victors of judgeless

Vis: it just keeps happening every single time, a system where we did it to ourselves.

As both being walk lower and lower into the purest core of anias chaos a Door of immense fear like aura then stricken vis.

Vis: now I'm glad I didn't want aura to keep going with me. This is beyond me

Eubouleus: we all have our own roles we have to do in order for fate to do It's course. I'll assist you when we open it that being of immense chaos and trickery will be there .

Vis: this madness , it's endless its going to re appear over and over again. So i have to find a way or a will to know .

Eubouleus:I'll be hidden but watching I'll know what to strengthen you with.

Vis: you're awfully kind for being a string being Like that , if I were to use your skills given I might just not lose or even awaken. So what your aiming thou.....

Eubouleus: that overthrowing of thinking like patterns will break you. Better to adapt and let go of that ignorance if you ever want to.

Vis and Eubouleus then look at the door what immense aura of chaotic aura and enraged souls like flow making both aware of what's to come.

Vis:.....why do I have a feeling that

This won't be typical..... then

Eubouleus: only yourself can find that , I'm only here to monitor what is about to happen.

Vis: all part of the plan they all say,
.....then so be it.

Scene

Aura then wakes up from the traversed point and is in shock that vis did it to her

Aura: gasp what!

Alex: your awake the process shouldn't be finished now what happened

Aura: Vis litterely sent me back here how did he do it!?!

Alex:.....Hes changing , hes not the same boy as before im starting to see alot more from him ,

Aura: I dont want to lose him again just like endo, sniff its gonna make me burdened

Alex:.....he didnt want you to feel burdened he already knows that already from the start, If you had stayed you wouldn't've have succeeded,..... He did the right thing

Aura: why im strong as him so why is he so stubborn for not allowing help.

Suddenly the Aura of Anias in the courtyard exasperated high immense chaotic energy as Vis azure like curse then flows deeper into the other parts of the skin.

Alex: careful the whole aura compsition of the area is changing stay in guard, theres a war going on.

Aura:.....

Thus many battles start to commence and many arcs change even to some that don't seem

Adonis then listen to the orders from the crimson king and searches for the one that destroyed the crimson kings wife and travels to the verse implied in that meets there he rendezvous with ater and talks about the situation at hand.

Adonis: Yo Ater what's with the situation at hand im not able to decipher where this amulet leads Ater: presumably the war like arcs are starting , it's best to control where you are and wait .

Adonis: after what happened to me and my identity I have no other choice but to listen.

Adonis then shows his own mark he bears with the alliance,

Adonis: you already know I don't have alot of time this mark was meant to heal me in that limitation if the curse of that once tenebris controls me I won't be .

Ater: calm yourself there's going to be infiltration going on so take that time to recover, there's forces beyond us.

Adonis:.....vis what's he doing

Ater: finding truth

Scene

Vis looks at the gate of immense chaos and manipulative energy flowing through.

Vis: am I really ready

Eubouleus: to judge oneself you have to recheck what you have become o young successor of Caisa like light.

Vis: like I wasn't one, ... I wanna know why did I get this, all I wanted was to be in peace

Eubouleus: search for yourself what your really aiming for , the deeper it goes the more you'll have to judge for yourself what is worth or what is there.

Vis all of these manifested memories in anias head , ...wait

Vis as he remembers each manifested anias shadow he sees every memory from the very start.

Vis:.....there's another organized foe that ordered the azureking to create all of the madness.

Eubouleus:

If a being Like that were to be judged , a being that created both good and evil , light and dark, spirit and ether.

Vis: I got nothing else to lose now, I'll have to force through even if it make me acknowledge that other form of myself.

Eubouleus: your judgment if finally waking you up , your other shadows relies in a more of a.

Vis: a judgement like dog like..... anubis that shadow or something so beyond me .

Vis then holds his blade of ether like judgement

Vis: And if all beyond that won't stop me from finding that possibility,

Vis azure and caisa like marks then flow and resonate emitting a controlled flow.

Vis: all of this is my will to know and that allows me to control this ether like magi.

Eubouleus: when controlling and changing perceptions so does your aura and soul like prowess, the act to flow.

Vis: I won't need this bias , alright

Vis then opens the door to a intense and chaotic black and red door of tricks.

Vis:.....

As Vis opens the door many sorrowful and angry souls then release from the door almost as it trapped in the door of a mess

Vis:.....so it's you

Vis then walks into the door and enters a ether and soul lies territory

And a tricky like man in a throne,

????: ah so we have a man of such providence what shall you bring to the table

Vis: let's box you up , false like star

????: or whatever there is you came a little to late. What could be boxed a man of no words or a man of many dreams.

Vis: anias no in the older books your known as

False Star: your catching on and I'm glad to enlighten you if only you knew yourself well

The being then flows in nature and changes the aura field to a infinite verse like area.

Vis then unsheates the controlled ether formed blade in the verse

Vis: whatever it takes

Scene

The Dark False like star then emerges from its mind like pedestal and king like chamber ,there he restricts the opening paths and gates , vis is given no other option but to confront the one pulling the strings of anias mind and personality.

Vis: So your the one that screwed the system over even in the times of old.

False Star: I wouldn't've say screw more like turn and place what needs to be in the world there is.

Vis:..... this guy's a.....

False Star: nyess I'll stupidity almost anything I see including your girl like pride boi nyess, can you guess what facade im about to fool you on,

Vis then soul dashes towards Dark False Star and Slashes in a controlled manner in aura after the dash The Morning Star knowing that then uses illusions to control the state and makes vis mis the attack.

Vis:Tch Damn it missed

False Star: you really are an ingrate for using your non sensical thinking to attack me like that anyone would've done that out of spite, lol typical.

The False Star then toys with the area in a controlled manner to trick many forms to vis. Vis then waits and holds his blade in a calm yet aware mode.

Vis then monologues to himself.

Vis: this ether blade in this form is just a mind like variant so ill have to be in a controlled pace to break his mental and spirital barrier or whatever needs to be. This ability i gotta use when his mental state is conflicted.

False Star: Your defiantly thinking, such sour taste im getting from you and your stature, come one just give it up, what weak weakness your emitting ,

Vis: A being that toys and predicts is someone or something i tend to detach, you burden so many and just dont care, doing it for your self, and yet you were created from that being

False Star: well well this ingrate isnt as illerate and he seems, alright so called man like azure .

The False Star then holds many blades in his stool and thus makes the whole are into a chess like are in a game format.

False Star: since your in this mind like verse, we both have to throw hands or the idling will be. If only you werent that naieve sigh your predictable

Vis: Then ill play your game, what other choice i have left, and my time tch

False Star:..... ah

The dark like false star then uses the playing field and makes many memories appears from both vis and anias mind in concept hence the plays of denial and acknowledgement starts.

Scene

An game of illusions and memories then manifest and controlled, The False Star makes the areas of constructs elevate to a tactics like arena,

Vis: You're something to use these tact's , so whos' the one being the desperate one,

False Star: you tell me , gasp see all of these cards of memories , it must be true everything coming from you oh who would you dare do all of those despicable acts

Vis: You really think i couldn't tell, typical and looks who's talking,

Vis then flow his blade and denigrates all the false card like memories hence the playing field goes to an elevated state.

Vis then monologues

Vis: this trick

False Star: oh look is that pride am i seeing you able to withstand all of my cards or how desperate you must be to overclock yourself like a machine with no soul

Vis: Sad you never had anything to cherish you only had your self and love of no one but your self. you Lie

Vis while in the stance his prowess of both caisa and azure then resonate with the ether spirited blade manifested allowing VI the channel the ether form of a blade in the mind plane.

False Star : you could have already used that skill even from the start, and what will it do maybe its telling you that closed minded form of yourself is such as sad identity , lacking identity yet you don't have, your pride when there's nothing to show, you're a sad taste of a boy no less that of a man, ah oh how many pity you.

VI : shut it , looks whos the one crying like a man child.

Vis then uses the ether blade and dissipates each of the memories that he know aren't what is, then he does something that not even some would do.

False Star: pffft that all you got , your identity or ego makes you a creepy and ignorant person your stubborn as a mule.

Vis: speak for your self and check yourself.

False Star: almost every thing you try even your childish and man boy swings will never subside you cant ever learn, a hit like that is only a dumb degenerate would swing , the morning star then Un restricts dark like forms of dark soul like prowess in the classification

False Star: It all makes sense for a mentally un ablest man can never achieve a prowess like mine i am the only being to go beyond

VI then holds his ether like blade and form and soul stabs his soul in the heart. All the memories all cleared up and filtered from the tricks of what is, the card like memories then sync into a array of mirrors

False Star:..... well played never thought you would sacrifice your soul like state like this. what else could you do that suicide like attempt.

Vis: You talk like a chatter box looks who's the one facade like a greed of kings.

VI then holds the etherblade from his then regenerates the ether form like blade from the soul flow filtered he swings the ether version of the soul fang

Vis: Check! Soul Fang Release!!!!!! No matter what you keep tricking in this endless mess , Ill do whatever it takes to get my life my friends all of it from despicable beings like you, Ill end it!

False Star: That determination is filled with stubbornness alr have it your way ill do the same donkey like man of caisa vis senryuu , release the beast, Youll never accept any kind of growth, just grow up and give it up, A false hope you are.

Both Combatants then emit both SOul and Aura like attacks , Vis then releases the blade blast like souls showing all of the fallen clan members of his family, ANias soul puppeteer Morning Star then releases the attack of illusions and black like souls trapped.

Both blast then Curse both Anias and Vis in the Azure Astral Plane.

* * *

Alex , Malik Rai , and Aura then feels the intense control of dark soul like chaos,

Alex: its starting, ...

Both ANias and Vis sleeping bodies then emit the azure curse a such a high rate emitting a destructive force of chaos.

Aura: Vis no..... why does he keep being stubborn i could've helped him why sniff, he cant take this any longer

Maliik Rai: Damn hes just like him, Endo.....

Aura: what do you mean , every time i lose things and ones i cherish,

Alex:..... I believe, that all I know just believe

Alex then feels his body degrading into a flow of azure, Alex knowing this then passes his blade to malik rai,

Alex: you're gonna need it my friend in arms , Help him.

Malik Rai: Im in your debt , let me do this

Aura: what are you doing,

Malik Rai: let me control this.

* * *

In the blade like duels clashing in mentality and emotionally war of blades then reaches the point of blast of astral, The Blast from both sides then emit a chaotic energy allowing dents of pain in form unlike any other,

Moments later both combatants are loss of energy , however the morning star seems damages or is so it seems.

Vis:.....is he.....tch

False Star: and now your out of soul flow what else you got are you that desperate to destroy me oh how petty you didn't even see me play around you at all , after all you dumb as a mule and such low terra like qualities.

Vis:.....why can't i destroy you arrrrrrrgh damn it

Vis now in a closed defeated state then sees his whole mind like body in the most burned soul like state.

False Star: You really are aimless, ah such challenger has failed me once more pitiful

Vis not wanting to give up from the damage then limps and gets up with one last skill he learned from that time ago.

* * *

Ludo: alright you ready now i can tell you can control your rage in a technical form now, And this Deep tech

i have taught will elevate you

Vis: This feeling its weird but its flow within me what is this.

Ludo: Its the ether that flows in you and now that question is fulfilled, This skill is essentially a last resort only when a foe as powerful or even infinite you can counter

Vis: meaning when the times right ill find a foe so powerful that I can use this skill to Vis then looking at his hand sees the emerald like flow of energy and then touches the brick

Vis:..... its deconstructs no it also

Ludo: Files this skill is the limited Ether form of Deconstruction , your soul scarf that you trained with allowed you to change your mental and physical hence this limited form of old flow of magi , When it happens , let it

* * *

Vis: Flow..... Huff Huff, False like star , I'm aint done yet , not yet i wont fall victim and become pointless,
If it have to ill use it

False Star: Out of all the things you say , is that all you have to say, look at your ragged state your ignorance like donkey like nature you'll never learn.

Vis:.....then i guess all of that swings to your body is you down fall, I can now use it finally

Vis then take his hand and puts it on his chest and releases a mystic like vortex

Vis: Ether of origins of flow of energy, Ether control state of Deconstruction Activate,

Scene

IN the azure courtyard, Alex is then turned to azure like stone leaving his soul and flow into the blade given to Malik Rai,

Aura: sniffff ALex not you why,

Malik Rai: hes still here, Alex you knew this whole time.....

Aura then looks Both at VIs and Anias Both of the curses embedded into curses beyond what is.

Malik: Aura whenever Vis wakes up, Ill guide a path to return to a safer point in the verse,

Aura: But we don't have enough time to do this..... unless

Aura looking at her father then sees the curse being filtered in a never-ending loop to an extent.

Malik Rai: Its making sense now that why Alex was trying his hardest to stall this predicament, ... Looks like the Azure King is in a different form

Aura: Then that isn't him why would he

Malik Rai: even before you were born, i knew sometime he was going to turn the trisection , VIs hang in there.....

Inside the mind of Anias, the false like star and the enchaind Anias mind like form is then emitted and the field now set for a climax of duels and controlled tact's.

Vis now able to release the ether deconstruction activation then holds a form blade of ether and souls of fallen clans and the blade pointing towards the heart of the dark false star.

False Star: Your predictable , i already have all of the guards up so what could you do try and do take away everything that i have,

Vis then monloutes on the tacts on play.

Vis: hes bluffing were both at on our last knees , and I know hes itching to use something to abuse, Thats my chance if he does it so can I

Vis then confronts and says

Vis: By using this skill on the right time, im able to do what i can do, you actually do have an identity What could make me as strong as you,

False Star:..... oh am i seeing some change in you, your finally breaking that putrid ego of little proportion.

Vis: you could say that were both at a situation that may bite us in the feet, Your something so old and beyond control

As Vis Talks in a Negotiation based feel, the other form of Eubouleus then gives an insight to what is

Eubouleus: This Being the Dark False Star is different for unlike the other foes you have went against, The skill you possess the ether form of deconstruction can only be used and worked when your minds like or physical form is at a burned or depleted point and when his body is at a capacity of recharge, Using the ether skill will allow one to vortex all of the forms of the being and filter the soul in check.

Vis: you not a ordinary being even from the beginning i met Anias his mind and how he talked had some inconsistencies which led me to believe these a being beyond who I am,

Vis then points the soul like ether ability turning from a blade to a point of light in his mind like finger and thrust the ether flow into the morning star.

False star:.....is that all you have this flimsy.....no

Vis: your being in form is just a vessel within a soul that always needs to be recharged up, by allowing my desperation to show you let your guard down and recharged , what you did i can control it , this form you have is not the version of origin.

Vis at his knee completing the 2 conditions to use the deconstruction spell then vortex all of the form like false stars force and flow into Vis mark of azure and circumvents into vis azure stream of force.

FalseStar:.....i should've have known that you would figure this out, tch and I let my guard down should've known that your act of desperation was a ploy,..... and I thought i was the crafted one

The morning star knowing what plays were set in this vessel in the soul the being uses then says.

FalseStar: Well then If you know this then allow me to be vortexed in for as if i am part of you then many will come and put you in what is for hence the trials will come in all shapes and sizes, Hope you don't get your self falling off King.

Vis then feels the flow of aura compensated into a intense flow of aura and questions the reality he put himself in.

Vis then sees his whole form of himself emitted with a unique form hence his curse is now evolved to a ether controlled form.

Vis:..... this is.....

Scene

*Vis filters and flows the morning like star like aura and form into his mind and soul like form and changes the advent of changes within vis , VIs feeling all of the chaos then sees a subtle form of the truth
he didn't expect to see.*

Morning Star: If only you could've gotten me in at its peak or even where the root its, You did something only a selfless yet dumb man of what is to do. Oh how you should've known what to use. Ill always be watching you even from the start remember to know you lack of all.

Vis Feeling the shadow then in the limited mind space sees the morning star right next to him , always holding a symbolic grasp in his mind. And then Vis sees the infant like minded anias loss of action nor memories , Vis seeing his state starts to look at the sky and in a realization question the point of his journey . Vis then sees the mind like plane

Vis: What was the point

Vis then uses the last of the ether and aura flowing thought him to activate the perception emblem in its astral form back to the plane of azure in the physical.

* * *

Moments as Alex Body turns into azure rock and Anias Body returning to a younger state , Vis form of hair changes and his body more in sync with the origin of mystic. Alas Vis Rises from his posture and wakes up

Aura: gasp Vis!

Aura then comes towards Vis and Slaps him hard enough to scrape vis

Vis feeling the force then takes it.

Vis:.....I know , deserved it even to what i didnt know

Aura: dont you ever make me worry about you ever again, I hate that .

Malik Rai: took you long enough what happened,

Im seeing you and your not what is you bodys changed.

Vis: so did you what happened to you arm and why hold.....\

Vis looks behind Malik and starts to regret

Vis: I should've known tch mentor

Malik Rai: Im Holding the BLade he Has because he knows what to guide, ... He wanted to tell you before that Your not to blame or for your circumstance, Dont blame yourself,

Aura then looks at the Anias now turning into an infant like form yet flowing in a azure like aura.

Aura: was this Anias in its purest form,..... what was going on.

Suddenly the Azure Kingdom then start to Formulate into a degrading state for hence the Azure King has now forsaken the area at hand.

Malik : alright the area is about to go into havoc mode we need to get out i already used some of the prowess's form in alexs blade to traverse ,

Aura: what about the rest.....

Malik Rai: I think the King did something only a prideful being would do .

Vis:.....

Aura then looks at Vis and sees a different hair like structure almost as if it happened

Aura:.....who are you , are you still the same or are

Vis: Ill tell more about it we gotta go now lets traverse!

Scene

Malik Rai: Alright times clicking we'll have to get out before the composition is then dissipated,

Vis then carries the ether tools and holds Aura in a new strength created from the experience,

Aura: your body what is.....

Vis: Malik Rai let me Force through , I got the strength to withstand,

Malik Rai: pfft where did ya get this confidence from, man talk about a change

Vis: Alright Brother lead the path out to this

Malik Rai using the Soul Infused Blade then filters the dense azure and chaos flow hence sending a path out from the verse.

Malik Rai: Alright he have around 1 minute to get out before the whole azure field becomes a shadow cess pool , lets begin

Vis: Right

Aura, Vis , And Malik Rai then Use Soul Step taboo in the azure kingdom but given no choice is then done. The Combatants then enter the flow the blade is emitting allowing a rare chance to get out the souls steps active in the team then speeds them out of the azure plain and into the Colosseum Plain,

* * *

Vis: Huff huff did we make it

Malik Rai: of course we did my guy, Aura you still kicking

Aura: Such a Abrupt way to transport me Malik i thought you knew better

Malik Rai: neverminded looks like were here

Vis: This Place, Man its been ages since i've been here, And looking back at it , that feeling from going from nothing to what is now .

Malik: Whoa am I seeing some mad confidence i see man you did change from the last time we went.

Aura then looks at Vis and Starts to see her memories and loved

Aura: You so look like him to the last aura of him

Vis looking at the colosseum horizon then sees the possibilities and knowing the circumstance

Vis: Sometimes I gotta be considerate of other peoples feels , sometimes I just go at it and win, its just by luck i succeeded, Now I know my skill is up to that level,

Aura: Glad to Be with someone who can rival and be him.

Malik Rai then looks at the area at hand and sees some Adversaries fighting in the scene knowing the limited time, Suddenly Alex soul embedded Blade then resonates flowing the path to the Colosseum .

Malik Rai: Looks like your old man is trying to show you a surprise

Vis: bets its something that I would read well, Malik Rai: Vextors there , Your Old man knows whats going to come .

Aura: This time im joining and you better not leave me .

Vis: Sure at least that what i can do for now.

Hence Aura ,Malik, and Vis then travel back to the colosseum verse and find the reason of the predicament at hand.

Scene.

Vis , Aura and Rai are sent to the colosseum plane
there many other mercenaries and knights are in confusions of what is going in with the random battles happening for an apparent reason to see.

Aura: Here too!

Rai: Somethings up I cant tell

Vis: Its the higher planes cries that im feeling its happening in both the shadows and highest planes .

Rai: you actually said that , what happened to your

Vis: Im trying to control it that faint trace of that blasted being,

Rai:.....

Aura: Just dont let your self loose please

Vis: Gotta Keep that trace and see what going on.

The Group then Run towards the area and then the plane shakes , Forms of astral beings then pop up with chains embedded of ether

suddenly tartus denigrates the monsters at play and control where they are put.

Aura: who is

Vis: Your back Tartus thought you would be here,

Tartus: never had lost the paths, you 3 seemed to saw what predicament the azure kingdom has become

Rai: I had my limit I couldnt please that king for how so long Tartus: ah....

Tartus then glances at Vis knowing a fast paced leveling of him has commenced

Tartus: you already seeing whats going on are you.

Vis: That's the only option I had and probably the only way for me to decipher where he could be at.

Aura: gasp so you actually!

Rai: relax he didnt fuse some would say that but I have a faint feeling Tartus was going to say.

Tartus: Ah so you do know

Vis: theres other organizations pulling some form of a plan or even a string isnt it. your the one im supposed to meet in order to clear any of this up.

Tartus: that your wrong , I can guide you to those doors, but i cant do it for you. Can you tell you have been using a power like its your own when youre not maturing.

Vis: tch I thought i did!

Tartus: anyone with a brain wouldve already known to learn by which to do.

Aura: hes young let him be

Vis: No hes right, I was just using the mark of azure are a scape goat for power i didnt even see myself, I was so.....

Rai: I know that, dont call yourself that .

Tartus: correct , negative flow doesnt resonate well with anyone nor oneself.

Vis:.....yeah

All 4 combatants are looking at the colosseum and then seeing what is happening

Refugees from others planes in the verse then all are ported into the single area

Tartus: you 3 are gonna be in a time limit from what intel i have you all better brace it

Rai:.....Alright team we gotta head to a safe zone

Aura: VIs when this is over

Vis: just forget about it we gotta keep moving

Scene

As the mercenaries of both sun and moon traverse into the levels of layers of colosseum like verses, the hidden mages talks with the many hidden mercenaries many of which areconnected to bretheren to the layers of scenes.

Hidden Mage: oh what a predictiment this is to a will. Well my beloved I'll be waiting as the time of advance was phased in.

* * *

In the merges of the colosseum realm, tarts asses what was begun then passes a gauntlet to vis.

Vis: pfft your doing what my teacher does , you already know me?

Tartus then sways the gauntlet to an enhanced level . He then says

Tarts: I would seem a mere being like soul like me wouldn't dare attack the civilians or gasp

Tartus then holds an emblem only vis would know from his child memories

Vis: what!!! no you wouldn't do it

Tartus: but I'm merely doing nothing as a knight of a beyond plane , nothing would stop you from going to a distinct place only a man of azure hero of moon would know.

Vis:..... freaking cryptic alright I got it , Malik, and...

As Vis passes the gauntlet to aura , as she gets the gauntlet she's astonished expecting a completely different reaction.

Aura: your not the type to pass over something this strong,

Vis: guess it not worth it if I lose that piece of myself and pay that price.

Vis then hugs Aura

Aura blushes

Malik: alright lead , your call

Vis: Kai and someone's there , that's the place

Malik rai then uses the blade used by Alex and swing at a aura flow like force

Clearing the sign to the place.

Vis: this time I'll find a way to settle this

What trace I got means I can do it.

Aura: please don't do it alone , that why I'm here.

Vis: yeah

Tartus: well no one's here to stop..... yet

So you gotta

Vis then realizes his body that's changing in form then realizes the time limit.

Vis:.....tch we gotta go

Malik and Aura: Right

The team then start to aura in flow dash to the center of the colloseum verse of the layer.

Tartus as he looks then smiles

Tartus: if only I had enough flow of aura or soul in me but I guess I'm running out.

Tartus then looks at his magi books of photos and sees his whole crew

Sophos,Azen, Alex ,Ater, Anias,Augen, Balena, Asa, and Meu

Tartus then starts to cough alot.

Tartus: whatever the beings of ether are doing in the levels are testing my patience

Vis, Malik , and Aura with Anna's in a soul like young orb form then traverse quickly, Vis looking at the area and the sky seeing the verse forming into a whole unique level of a plane.

Vis: The king of Azure really be aiming higher than what he can't reign on .

Malik: the limit is about to be breached so we have to find vextor and that Kai.

Vis: when I was on my own I tried to master the aura art of control as that happened Kai was able to teach me how my azure form of a curse worked.

Aura: he did! Like is that even possible

Vis: any mercenary that goes to these levels of verse was likely to get trapped or cursed , what he taught me along with ludo allowed me to see this.

Malik: no wonder the king couldn't read most of your actions. You were relying different patterns

Vis: tartus the one that restricted my aura flow in azure knew that principle and forced me to master limitation and

Aura: the mental state, you were learning .

Vis and the team then reach the access point there they suddenly meet Sogo put out all of the combatants sucked in the plane. Vextor also taps in waiting for the right moment.

Vextor: look like the planned team is here.

Sogo: what the actually Fook is happening

Vis: been awhile agent.

Sogo: Boi you better not ignore man you didn't even change look at this shit

VIS: sigh

Vextor: alright the teams now in session.

The verses then change in trajectory

Scene

Within the colosseum arc many verses of realms then converge slowly into a different level of intensity.

Aura: gasp what is this

Malik: vis you know what about to be cooked up from this

Vis: from what i can tell its gonna be a massive tests of hurdles

Malik: gotta read this like a book of plays,

Malik looking at vis and the changed color then sees something else appear, malik knowing that it was not what it seems then reply's.

Malik: Looks like the captive is no longer the slave, hes now the fanged being that over flows

Vis: What that being did was a fluke , but funny

Aura: Wait your not then you must be

Vextor: there a 3rd being within Vis thats has a strong protection within vis, hes the one thats healing the poor kids souls from before.

Aura gasp as she starts to see a familiar face in vis stature

Malik: Vis your drunk from the kings ability i know you can hear me bro.

Vis:..... no wonder im feeling this ability overcon-

sume me

Aura: you looks like my father, augen aer..... but the third being is.....

Malik: Eubouleus , your no longer unseen the realms are all jacked up, so just answer this , where the hidden road to that being, the star of fallen.

Eubouleus in a facade state then resonate into the plane in a intricate way, in this verse hes now seen as a level archtype of a soul.

Eubouleus: I have not heard that name in a very long time, oh how the realms changed since the last time i was here. Chained up i only help to guide some to their truthful potential

Sogo: your kidding me is this how VIs actually got all of his powers, the dude doesnt even deserve it, I mean I had to channel this cursed blade , Its not fair,

Malik: says the guy that took the chased the chance to get power like a dog man.

Sogo: oh now you wanna say all you want because of my lousy mistake,

Malik: move on

Sogo: Tch

Everyone then looks at Vis as the boy hair then changes back to normal, however the color of that being then comes out of the hairs aura.

Vextor: Now I see , VIs I know you can hear me, your not that being,

Vextor then comes towards VIs and takes his hand and takes the hidden aura away from vis, waking up Vis in a sense.

Vis: gasp! damn am I still

Mailk: alright now your back , whatever you did was pure stupid , you gambled your self to just get back at that being.

Vis:..... of course i just wanted them back all of them, I knew it, that being has all of my loved ones captive.

Vextor: You keep trying to do this all by yourself,
you think your strong enough to handle the chaos,
then look at us, we all had to handle it,

vextor then looks at vis in the eye and says.

Vextor: a dumb donkey cant never do what you did,
nor a dog of many skills, your paced up and you need a reality check.

Vis: what do you mean.

Vextor: your self stubbornness and justifications is what a donkey would do, If your so stuck doing what you do, you'll become what you fear the most.

Vis then realized what he did and then comes to a content resolve

Vis : I should've taken the old mans advice.

Scene

In the colosseum plane the world seems to be in a convergence where the planes are all aligned into a stair like levels in zone and form. Vis and the others then see The Azure king finally showing himself and now taken off of the azure kings armor, he then uses his hidden form to return to his youth, his name is known as Augen.

Augen: now its time, I must return to the plane of what was justified .

Everyone cant believe the azure king is there, and are all in their stances,

Aura: Vis don't

Vis: I wont let this happen again, for someone to do that kind of madness, needs to be crossed out

Suddenly anias in a baby state then forms into a teenage stage there he blocks the gates from both the otherworldly augen and vis

Vis: what how did

The anias infused body in the teenage form then waits,

Anias: just doing my part

Augen: looks like im back to the homecoming like they all said,

Augen then takes his blades hes covered up and does his stance in bladed form

Augen: however in order for me to complete this and walk the steps to this light, ill need a vessel and a kind soul to join me into this revelation from this genesis that I was once in

Vis then changes stances and tries to combat the youth version of the azure king known as Augen Aer

Vextor: you cant do this alone

Tartus: This is why we are all here,
Aura then comes in front of all of the players in the realm and challenges her own dad.

Aura: out of anyone ive had to dealt the cards , you as my father had to be the hardest to do and yet , sniff,

Augen: For how many times i cared , you were the one ive cherished most

Aura: Liar, LIAR , ITS ALL LIES, you cage me up, tell me everything is going to be alright, organized me and the rest to be the next heir to a cause that hurts everyone else, their reason, will even your kingdom, WHAT HAPPENED TO YOUR REASON, for things to be in peace, unison, potential, AND NOW YOU WANT TO WASH IT ALL AWAY,

Aura then unsheathes her specter lance and throws it with all her might and damages parts of the collosum plane in the area.

Vextor: Aura.....

Malik: Holy shi.....

Tartus: Aura lay your emotions to rest

Aura then rebels and lashes out

Aura: NO ill end this even if it

Vis then stops Aura from lashing her attacks out and holds her not wanting her to handle it by her self.

Vis: it makes sense, that kind of hurt, Just stop

Vis: then Blocks the field with his embedded light of ether and caisa he then makes the playing field in a duel for him and the azure king.

Vis: This time we end this charade King

Augen: alright then I shall do the same, Rage it UP,
NOW

Aura: NOOOOO stop sniff stop this please

Sogo then comes to aura aid and helps her handle the crying, he then throws his blade to Vis,

Sogo: tch always trying to do it your way huh, alright just take this , whatever happens..., remember you did this to her also , she wants you to survive all of us do.

Vis grabs the blade at hand from sogo and then he comes to a content mood and flow

Vis: thanks, guess your right,

Scene

Both vis and augen are in controlled youth stances and show their bladed aggression in compensated form in design.

Sogo then monologues,

Sogo: this guys thinks he's the main character in whatever scenario he's in, he was always like that even from when I knew him.

Sogo then embedded more soul form in essence to the blade given to vis.

Sogo then tells himself

Sogo: I'm not gonna let him take the spot light , just incase his ego miscalculates him

Both Vis and Augen then share blows of both azure and caisa forms in abilities in construct both in the even playing field, both in the exact same level in form and control.

Augen: I thought you knew already even from the start what my reason were ,

Vis: go ask yourself and that playbook you keep adding in your hands.

Augen then gets crafty with the words in construct and says,

Augen :Oh my Endo, well what if i saw another people chase the abilities like he's the one and yet he gets that power, he succeeds and then he looks like a circus of a man. He wouldn't have had to act as this would've been a intent given from the start, surely you were right about this Endo.

Vis: what, of course not, I mean I wanted to force on tch how did I

Augen: I thought so you resemble endo to the exact details of him, man and I thought I was the wandering fool for having these answers.

Vis then questions and stops, he then phases around augen to fight

Augen: ah this whole charade you imply is making you look like the bait waiting to be taken, you fooled like a true fools men.

Both combatants blade are in a stand still clashing and in form control both using both azure and caisa like elements of formation.

Aura then watches grasping the every level of luck and will she has to see vis succeed

Aura: Vis please dont ,

All of a sudden Sogos blade that vis uses with the Ether blade in stance then merge,

Sogo monolouges and says

Sogo: alright,

Scene

Vis in a controlled stance then slowly changes the attributes of the ether blade used in control form. Augen then stops and waits for Vis to attack like one is waiting for the storm to come, Sogo flowing the soul flow-set to vis within the blade , he then prepares to do a soul like ghost phase into the blocked battle field

Vis: what!

Sogo: Cant let you get all of the spotlight ,

Vis Looking at sogo behind realizes sogo is still in the out plane but soon realizes that sogo can manifest both physically and soul wise to an extent.

Sogo: we gotta beat this guy knowing what he did to my clan , Vis you remember what I told you right?

Vis realizing the feeling of resolution from both him and sogo then says,

Vis: likewise,

Then in a matter of mintues the sparks of aura and soul blade like clashes start, each within the field, the speed then turns into after images, and the attacks quicken into flashes of lights, Augen not so phased then says,

Augen: you both always had it your way, how I treated you all, your wills, even my skill as well, what have I done that would've caused this outburst or prematurity

Sogo then monologues

Sogo: this dude never seems to amaze me on how much of an embarrassing use of words are.

Sogo then says,

Sogo: An Opp wouldn't have a mind of its own if you tried to control them for what cause you have

Augen: then how will the vicinity and kingdom be united,

Suddenly Vis controls the blade given by Sogo and enables the ether element embedded to make an Aura Copy of the blade, He then Throws the blade back

Sogo: that's the best you can do bro

Vis: he's about to

Augen suddenly covers the field and embeds with an alternate form of azure light the lazur style, and within it he teleports aura into the field and puts her in a situation and plane where he controls the aura, caisa, and ether elements.

Vis: tch is this the extent you'll go to stop me from doing this,

Augen: looks like you're talking mimic, all of those abilities, concepts, skills, even the aura form all came from me even that so called lighting and caisa form was already created by me.

Augen then showcases and strongly forms the lazur ability, Aura conversion to illusion

Aura: DAD WHY!

Augen: Alright

Vis: NO!?

Sogo: NO hes actually doing this

Vis engages and strengthens his abilities to attack , Sogo tries to get close to Augen but to no avail the king then tells his reason and incentive

Augen: alright so called strugglers, you take one step against me in this and ill accidently will have to take extra measure with this lazur like mist skill.

Augen then takes aura by the hand and uses her as a token to control the areas situation

Aura : let me go Let me go!

Sogo: tch you would resort to a weak ass tact like this, no wonder you had your time , you dont even even use the belief of caeruleus , Your not the originator of this at all!

Everyone looks and realizes sogo was right,

Vis not surprised then takes his own ether blade and does an unusual stance

Vis: Augen there's a distinct reason you want me to be the vessel of whatever your doing, from what I can tell, you weren't expecting me to negotiate on this were you

Sogo: Dude the heck nah dont fall for it hes using aura to get you to plead to him and join, you dense

Vis stops Sogo and then says,

Vis: If you let aura go, then ill see to it that I can see what paths your wanting this to lead into, there had to be a reason you would be in a young state and without that armor your aura capacity and style changed.

Augen: reading me huh

Vis: that lazur ability form what ive read in your azure playbooks, is an ability to make a beings soul turned into alternate imaginative ideas, however

Vis then slashes using his ether blade and test augens field in disguise, the ether force then reject the ether slash as its both the same.

Vis: your ether abilities can only control the existence for a limited time, so does mine, you were trying to buy time for me to wake up were you.

Augen then starts to clap with its form and blade intact

Augen: well done you knew even if i tried to use her as a hostage to make you go with me your aura like foresight was able to see what I did. Sigh

Augen then holds Aura

Aura tries to reject and handle whats going on

Vis then rejects the ether force coming from Augen and disables one of augens hands using the blade of ether hes gotten.

Sogo doesn't believe what just happened but follows suit getting the blade back and making a massive crater fueled and formed with aura chains to thus chain the azure king for a limited time.

Sogo: smart , the chains should restrict him for a bit

Vis and the rest then see anias with the most intentional smirk of all and says what is meant to be said

Anias: Not so fast, Shes Still has the chains as well and so do you Vis

Aura: No,.....

Vis: damn

the field then starts to change in a different flow and set.

Scene

Vis, and Aura are all then chained into the situation as the king of renounced azure then rises, The changed anias waiting for the moment then double locks in a ether like controlled sense to put all 4 into the situation at hand.

Augen: And now you don't have a choice left my good man

Vis: tch at this rate

all 4 are in the situation in the form of a special reveal,

Anias then forces tartus to force the order that tartus was in disguise was planning

Anias: oh am I in shock tartus you also know what to do right, or do I have to call up my bad chads to take your loved one hostage.

Sogo: wait ,,, oh shit

Malik: Nah not now Tartus what are you

Tartus:.....Its time Im tired of all of this

Tartus then emits and makes a duality of souls and Aura in the field to block anyone from entering , making 2 force blockades one done by tartus and one done by Anias

Meanwhile in the snow clans area,

Aneria: Its started , sogo, vis, aura, malik, please wait for me

In the colosseum field is then emphasized with 2 strong barricades of force, only allowing the current situation

Vextor knowing this then preps up the timing of his other plan,

Vextor: so they actually did this time,..... I have to get them back especially her meu , Vextor then looking at the field at play then summon a portal in a specific moment needs a artifact in the requirement .

Vextor: nows the time VIS, you have the keystone to this, you my OLD FRIEND from the past reset, ACT it now VIS the one who knew all of this.

In the anias field in the force, Vis is then able to hear what vextor said, without him knowing it, vis

then in instinct activates the azure emission state

Vis: this flow state,..... looks like im amped up , its starts

Vextor then goes into the portal and enters the realm of forces of that organization

In the Anias Force blockade , Vis and Aura are chained in the same zone and augen then handles is recovery.

Augen: Its no wonder you were him back then Vis so one should say your other past, Vis Senryu or it was, Vis Caeruleum,

Vis: what that doesn't make no

Augen cuts the conversation and says this to its will and reason

Augen: Sigh I want her back , my beloved all of it and that little girl i had to take care has switched with her or has haunted me so many times, its pathetic i had to handle all of this . And that time ohhhh i remember is so well. Alright Aura its time to pay your mother a visit or

Augen then emits the Lazur ability to high density control,

Her my beloved Queen, SOULA

Augen then emits the lazur ability and condenses his aura to control the aura field in the anias protected field.

Vis: What!?

Aura: How could you

Scene

Aura get a hand on the reality and enhances for force and control limiting her dad's overall aura control over the field,

Aura: im done dad, IM done will all of this

Vis realizing she has leveled her skill to even a form vis can reach vis then assists

Vis: she's has her reason to get what she wants as do I, why do this plan what happened to your cause as king.

Aura enraged but at the same tame in the most calm like forces unlike what was seen for, she then controls all of the aura properties against augen with her most might and control

Aura: I want to be free and yet I have your blood within me , almost all of it was taken for granted because of your egotistical crazy mind god complex, you think you control it all,

Augen then controls his field in play and tries to control the movement of aura deep wihtin her soul burn aura soul and aura flow-set rejects Augen grasp

Augen: sigh you never obey , I gave you all the freedom in the kingdom and this is what you defy

Aura then in a calm form set slashes augens faces giving a brooding mark to make Augen remember her angst and all the pain she felt . Augen feels the brutal and ensnaring pain, then

Aura: I used to trust you , and now you betrayed me , by doing all of this for just your own moral judgement of others, sniff , Im strong for who I am, im not your tool, im someone with a heart like the rest of humanity, why cant you understand my beliefs.

Vis seeing the 1st auras resolution then sees aura about to blast a massive attack, vis then reacts and counters Augens hidden moves

Aura: what !.... Vis just dont ,

Vis: hes about to use that attack against you just follow my lead on this, You gave me all your time and strength to me all those times, Its time for me to play my part, Ill assist just follow

Aura then blushes and follow what vis is planning in the field

Anias realizing what is happening knows the next stage is about to happen.

Anias: what a romance saga of a dream this is, sigh Augens its your call.

Both fields then engage in a higher intensity of confliction in the stage.

Scene.
