Chapter 1

Vis, Ater, and Anias then engage, all 3 of them in conflict with each other.

* * *

Vis then remembers a lovers' quarrel with Aura back in those times

Vis: Wait, what did you mean by what I said

Aura: Whatever a despicable person would say, you said my kind was like a mutt

Vis: THAT wasn't what I meant

Aura: whatever, bye

* * *

Vis remembering those times is then barraged against anias

Anias: Aww, you good fam

Vis is silent, then passes the ticket to Ater, knowing that this will be a mission he has to go through to understand

Anias: Wasn't it easy for you to get the message?

Vis: Ater back then, for every time I tried to fulfill that reason that wasn't my own, this guy Anias always tried to goof up all kinds of stuff.

Anias: Come on, I was only trying to be the best friend. Come on, you even improved

Vis: What improved was your lame takes, it got too easy to read for every time you tested me, you slipped

Anias:.....go on, we have the time, you're getting to what I wanted

Vis: I really was the puppet for not knowing how not to get set up by you to the distinct plays of words by you.....I freaken hate it, the fights, the accusations, even the events happening.....

Anias: ohhhh yeah, theres way more much more than that

Vis: Stop

Ater: You definitely changed, the 1st time I met you were innocent yet human like a sheep.....and now you ravage your way like a true K9

Anias: Hah, he definitely aimed you right.....you see I was wanting you to become as powerful as me

Vis: shut up.....

Anias then pats Vis on the back with the most amused and high look amongst many,

Vis shoves off anias knowing the annoyance at hand.

Ater then gives the notion that the king is watching them 3 on what is currently going on.

Ater: You're already getting the notion that you're not alone... feels creepy, doesn't it, that someone is watching your every move at any given point.

Vis: Let's get this done. I don't want to keep getting stuck in this.

Anias : dont you ever wanted to know why aura always tries to take you seriously

Vis: what

Anias: from the very moment you talked to her, did she ever had a true reason to like you , wasnt it way to easy?

Vis: why would I have to answer that

Anias : Oh maybe look around you , maybe you'll find the answers the azure king was planning to feed you.

Vis: She cared Because she loves those who understand themselves or what she reaches

Anias: then why would she keep yearning for a man that no longer exist , dont tell me you forgotten already, how you moved on from a girl because you had your own goals would that make you a harassing factor.

Vis:.....you just make no sense at all

Ater: were getting close

Ater and the group then enchanted themselves using the ether sigil and allow themselves to be in a deconstructed form . They then access the ether leveled plane to access the specific location

Anias : well look at that we have ourselves a vacation spot in the works.

Ater then passes the ether chain bracelets for vis to use in the chamber

Ater: those bracelets are gonna help you go through this.

Vis: yeah

Vis then goes to the chambers' doors of Ether and looks back, knowing what he needs to do in order to clear up the dust.

Ater: when you feel it , youll then see how deep this actually goes, many challenges are going to come into being.

Vis then gives the sign and enters the ether chamber of remorse. He then starts to reminisce about the beginning times when almost all of this started. The door then locks with multiple locks, unlike what was seen to that ether-like element .

He starts to feel the same feeling and sensations Beck in the azure chambers .

Vis: old times, so it does go back into a circle,

Vis looks around and sees how dark it is yet also how bright it is to see the area around him as his own eyes start to change,

Vis then starts to remember what he's done

Vis: all of those times, was i really at fault for challenging those that were forcing the ego on to me. What was my own worth,..... am I really that predictable. Where was the importance in the 1st place.

I really did pretty calculate it its so dark and evil,...
..... I wanted a reason i wanted revenge tch why why.....

Vis then remembers Aura all of those good times and hence he's stuck here in this plane by his own choice controlled by them

Vis: why didn't I see it, all she wanted was Shadow Vis: was him back your nothing as what anias said a puppet a pathetic retarded dog.....

they were what they implied would it seem

Vis: tch i thought i took you off

Shadow vis: im always dormant in any cycle all you agreed to do as tone me down in sleep mode.

Shadow vis then gives the most real eyes to focus vis to how he is just that flawed.

Shadow Vis: she always wanted endo back yet you have his soul but lacked of memories... doesn't that make her feel agitated loss and made her justify why she couldn't forgive you for being brainless.

You were crazy , angry , dense , focused like a neourdivergant that couldn't save his own skin.....

you were so aware on being the most aimless thing. How could she respect that, she saw you as a man child someone that didn't move on someone that everyone hated , makes sense how anias who you saw as a opposition was in disguise trying to help you.

Vis: WRONG HE WASNT TRYING TO HELP ME

Shadow vis: oh really now tell me if he really hated you or all of those things why did he let you survive, every attack every battle, he boosted you up like a true friend.

Vis: NO THAT DOESNT impossible

Vis then starts to remember every time he tried to challenge anias when anias was many steps ahead how could he outclass almost as if he was a donkey to not realize it stubborn as a mule one might say.

Shadow vis: you took the right call for entering this ether time chamber of remorse as the king will start to respect you more for feeling the suffering.

The Shadow Vis then engages the field and time states the arena, while its happening, Vextor and the Azure king then play their next acts a field of instant ko all abilities disabled when loss in a state.

Vextor: alr king my brother let's see who's the opp now

Azure king: the next act will prove why many are crazy without them realizing it.

Vextor/Azure King: Ether Arena , summon release

The whole verse of ether and the dream field of the castle now enhanced now with damage outputs than can disable the person abilities if dealt enough damage.

Vis in the sync state now knows as he hates all of it knowing his hatred is his own worst enemy

Vis: DAMN IT WHY , ...

Vis then feels the aura , soul , and ether at a extreme strong rate knowing all of that hatred was the reason that started all of it. He then phases

Vis: free will of that peace of mind, tch or was it self sacrifice, attachment , betrayal, and loss

Damn it what is it

Shadow Vis: now you got to choose, do you keep your free will or do you self sacrifice it, your call BOSS.

Vis: what do I actually keep..... whats the point

Vis ether flow then resonates his own eyes in the evo process

Shadow Vis: do you want to be selfish or selfless your time taken?

Vis: Aura was someone who had a will that was important, and there was me trying to act higher than her, who was I to say things that respected her but never respected myself.

For me to say she's pure was me trying to have an excuse to move on, but in reality, it was me seeing her more beautiful than her looks,

Vis then slowly feels the pain he then lets it hit.

Vis: For her to say things like, You'll never learn, annoying , dumb, was me in reality someone who knew too much for my own good. It's like someone who wins by using the same lame techniques in such a low-level, thinking way. Who was I not to listen to her.....

That's why

I wanted to challenge the status,

Shadow Vis: then go read

Vis: tch its no wonder

Vis then looks and senses his own flow in resonance,

Vis: from the external to the internal phases of change

Vis shadow then calls out every act vis had done

Vis Shadow: Couldn't you tell, how every time you were confused, you were actually proving you wanted power. You screwed the rules, you speak in a way that is hidden because your afraid afraid that you would look like the loser that everyone knew you were. You were in a state of denial, you're just as pathetic as they said.

The room then changes as the room shows all of Vis's flaws and actions that he knew didn't make sense until he felt the judgment

Vis Shadow: You did it , all of it, you just wanted to be king, just like a villain that calculates almost everything around you, it's no wonder you don't talk, your fear was your warlord's habits. Sad isn't it.

Vis: no.....NO..... I wanted a reason to get them back

Vis shadow : with those that saw you as a burden remember ive said this before. no look at your blade now

Vis then sees his blade and starts to feel the remorse of it to.

Vis Shadow: like the king of the pirates, rebelling like the rest..... the same cycle over and over again. greeding for a reason, an item, something to justify your existence.

Vis then sees the shadows embedded from the blade, and yet its azure king's signature wasn't in sync.

Vis Shadow: You have that choice you can change it like anyone wouldve , and when you die , your body resets, the flesh and human elements no longer there in the after life. You wanna clean it up.....

Vis:tch.....I dont know.....its her its who she wanted me to Vis then remembers all of the memories.....he then sees it.....Aura true reason to be along.

Vis Shadow: You have the ability, go inside of it remember your other life , the past

Vis then feels the aura enraged in a high output

Vis: DAMN IT KEEPS HURTING AGAIN WHY

Vis shadow: shadow force it no pain no gain.

Vis then uses his psych blade and uses the blade on himself to remember the past of endo his past self.

Vis : it begins..... It's so muddy, im trying to remember

Vis then remembers what skills he actually had,...
..every element, every reasoning, every time he tried to control the situation and action, when he shouldn't have.....was the pure opposite of endo

Vis Shadow: If she was saying things like that when you didn't know yourself, then surely she knew you almost as fast as a reader of sorts, yet you didn't use the right rhetoric to make sense to your sense, YOU ARE THE DONKEY, YOU SEE IT, WASN'T IT OBVIOUS

Vis:.....

Vis then starts to recall memories from endo.....

Vis: tch, what is this

Vis Shadow: you really wanted to punch all of them, even those you thought were not worth your time, those that annoyed you, and your high agitated, shallow mess of a goofy ego.....heh, no wonder

Vis then remembers the endo times, and then sees an aura in her younger times.

VisShadow: You saw them as monkeys, like some kind of funny butt baboon..... you're just like a monkey yourself.....hah

Vis: SHUT IT

Vis Shadow: See it?, You wanted to prove her right; in that way, you were trying to change her through your own power... you wanted to be right about your actions... thinking you're a saint when you're not. Wasn't the saying you presumed she was right just an excuse, a spacegoat to further escalate the reason to be cool...? You cared so much about playing cards when your denial was a construct to control... pathetic.

Vis: That shit doesn't make any sense. She's who she wants to be, someone with Vis shadow: your calculations on accountability make you a man of many values, so many in fact that make you someone with restrictions, like a person that disabled as a teacher.....ooops, did I catch a nerve. You wanted a justification for all the hate and loss. Wasnt that loss needed for you to get to this point.

Vis then starts to ignore and uses other reframing mentality techniques to clear off the noise that even an infant can take out.

Vis Shadow: Alr King, remember she has other reasons and her own goals, she knows your not that important.....anyone knows that and so should you too

Vis then starts to see in the focused state why, in the memories' aura, she was who she was.

Aura force, her strengths, her reasons, and clean will, someone that goes straight towards the battle-field and yet breezes through and succeeds, rather than a man like vis that blazes through the opposition

Vis sees Endos and Aura's fun times, and how Endo, to some extent, has better values, and sees Aura as someone who is fine the way she is. He doesn't force and allows things to happen. He sees conflict and understands that putting your expectations on someone can cause stupidity. Vis then feels the loss; every time he tries to talk, he's always thinking his own values and virtues were the right mindset he needed, yet he doesn't see her values that way.

vis then kneels, seeing his past self in such a cool and powerful state... yet he himself, even with Endo's soul, was a shallow version of Endo.

Vis then fell into a defeated pose, as if he himself were the loser, the one who never wanted to improve with guidance, someone who was too powerful yet didn't know how to use that power.

Vis doesn't understand how cool his past self was... ..and then saw himself as someone who damages things around him because of the loss of trust he sees in his lack of change, and sees why Aura was always trying to help him. In reality, it was her pity for vis as vis was someone who was the problem, and people in some form would move on from.

* * *

Endo: Hey Aura , Thanks.....when we finish this, you can always choose.....tbh I got a lot to learn, like so much.

Aura: Sigh.....you talk yet you don't act.....what would I actually see

Endo: nah you'll see it when you do.

vis then sees a foresight,.....he sees an imaginary event where he was the one that allows his rage and hate from the calculations to end it all,

He then becomes a being in this imaginary event, the most feared thing in existence... for that is also a possibility. vis then realizes that those times with aura, for how beautiful they were... would have been too good.

He then sees that he needs to change not by the job, or materials, but by himself; he has to see how dark he would've gotten, how the trauma made him so blank, how he played with him even knowing it.

He knows that he was always the problem, even from the very start; he didn't even want any of it, and finally accepts it. He knew even from the very start of all his actions, his own control and pride... and the envy he had. the jealousy of many that were stronger.....

For hence that then builds his Determination.....

The jester sees this in the hidden verse, and the Azure King understands that the Man Vis has now seen a will and a future that scares many.

Vis then sees himself.

Vis Shadows: Before I go, everyone was right, you really were crazy for doing it, so then who created the idea of hatred vis knows the answer but doesn't say it because he knows it's way more than words can explain.

Vis Shadow: You always acted how you were because of what?

Vis: I don't know, every time I tried to play it calm it ended with more conflict,.....it was so stuck up

I didn't talk or act like a loser because I just didn't see any point in proving it. I didn't have a drive I was silent because I never cared about other people's feelings, I was just slow..... it was an attitude that I had to use

Vis Shadow: Because you were handling almost all of that stress from family, opposition, and even yourself, that confusion was caused by you... Yet your identity was not the problem; it's how you create your identity that was the catalyst to start.

Vis: I just bored everyone. Sogo was right about me being lame; Aura just didn't want to deal with it, but still cared enough about me to endure it all because of my past self. Damn, what did I do back then?

My ego was just low and disrespected, i was just a used thing from the king himself

Vis Shadow: You actually really cared about how others said things, and those simple words gave you that drive... You saw weakness in a form you had to see on the other side.

You're always tired, man. Anyone would've gotten agitated, so then was that a reason for you to stick to your guns

Vis: I just never wanted this or even the stupid pain.

In the dream, the castle phased out, Aura, Aneria, Malik, and Sogo then see the verse change, unlike what was seen.

Aura: I sense Vis is in a lot of pain... I know I taught him.....

Sogo: He can take it... amongst anyone I know, he has the balls to adapt...

Malik: he's about to elevate the form-up phase... alr.

Aura: I really hope he actually changes for the better this time.....so lame

Vis in the ether time chamber of remorse then has a new realization and drive, he knows how to change his path within the time and events he has in the phases.

vis monologues

Vis: I just have to prep and allocate my time here;

I have to use it all before I return...

Vis knows now what he needs, every element and technique needed to confront the orchestrator...
.....The King of Azure knows that he's also being watched as he looks behind him in the 6th kingdom floor,

The Orchestrator and the Jester then rest with their tools and control, knowing what is all happening in tandem and in flow in the control state:

Orchestrator: This Pawn that I have Vis and the Azure King, they both are so pleasing to me.....

He's finally realizing the other purpose that he's forgotten..... he's finally understanding what he denied, and thus he must have known.....
.sigh.....so his own actions confirm it, the words were only the tools for him to wake the resonance.

Jester: Ah and he sees all of the abusive event we planned as cards in the timeline of fate, he knew it ...
.....that none of it made sense even from the start.....

* * *

Both Ater and Anias then chill for a bit as they feel Vis go through a high cold like transformation of those kinds of flowsets thou

Ater: He has to see it through for himself

Anias: Always wanted to know what he really's been hiding in his own mindsets thou.....oh bet

reading books might've been the answer lol hah

Both of them then take a break and leave the locked-up ether chamber of remorse,

Ater: Wonder who got the keys though

Anias: . Lol, I really hope im wrong about how he can't unlock the simplest thing in the book.

* * *

Vis in the ether time chamber of remorse then starts to feel the ether and the basic infant levels of the azure king resonate , for what its worth the kings abilities then respect Vis control and understand and thus the azure king abilities then submit to a new concept an ability system that no longer relates to the kings signature . The abilities are then redesigned to Vis own control as vis then feels the better mindset gained within his soul.

* * *

The Azure King now knows its right about time to bring Aura Aer his own daughter back to his keeping as now He has the reason.

The Azure King then teleports to Sogo, Malik, Aneria, and Auras Location

He then controls the aura with an enhanced version of aura blocks from the team

Aura: Father, why now? I never wanted you to put me into this mess

Azure King: It's time for us to go, the man vis has already made too many mistakes, how can I trust anyone when even the one I trusted came to the death door.

Aura: Sniff, why do I just want my life for the better? I made friends, please don't let me go now

The AzureKing then takes Aura's hands and puts her into a limited-like state. There, he chains and locks the Soul of Aura, and thus Aura can only walk and listen

Azureking: Now, be good for me, we have to return to our healing area of azure light.

Malik then tries to combat the King, yet the King simply, in the most effortless way, cancels the aura field of Malik, pushing him out of the zone

Malik: That's strong, thats freaken hard as iron.

The Azure King then leaves with his daughter in a teleport phase away from the area at hand.

In the ether time chamber of remorse he starts to grow, his hair more formed and dense, his face grows wiser, he then sees his time change as he self trains in a ether like state and sense, he uses the abilties he adapted in that copy and now the signature has now changed, he then takes as many tries to understand his own personality and mentality to activate the previous abilities he lost. He then flows his hair back to a normal styled hair style no longer built on the act of clean but more of a calm and content flow.

vis monologues

Vis: So I wasn't happy because I expected too much from peace, and from my lack of worth, I was quiet because I was annoyed by everyone around me. I saw aura as someone but not as the one who has her will. Who was I.....

Every time he thinks, he waves the blade of re-frames, and thus the blade becomes more tangible to hold as the abilities are then returned by Vis, remembering how it is channeled and designed. He then understands there's more to him. One of the abilities starts to mature as he sees the flaws behind his acts

Vis: I just didn't think.....I was so based on action...
..... I knew some but not a lot, yet I acted \

Vis then learns something about himself and knows why he's just as pathetic as a dog

Vis: I just don't keep myself still, I walk like a maniac, like someone who cares too much, I fight, yet I justify to cause a ruckus without even knowing it.

For every time he sees this, he sees why some resort to doing the most annoying things

Vis: Tch of course im impatient,
Vis then starts to question why space exists,
Vis: Its just me ,
Vis looks at the books he carried and realizes something

Vis: only someone autistic creates new research like this its all the same.....

He then realizes why Vextor sent him to see Ater and Anias.

Vis: Both of them are probably going to stall me down and block the access teleport form on my own end by their aura and soul control.....sigh what to do.

Vis, knowing that his time with Aura was, to some extent, like a true friendship, feels conflicted and has attitudes that spark... he knows that, in his current condition, it would be pretty fatal.

Vis then remembers Tartus and, knowing the battle he had with him, tries to find the signature to teleport. Knowing this, he has to unlock the ether time chamber by himself. So he then sees his own abilities. He uses the abilities to see if Ater and Anias are still there. By the luck of the gods, they are away. Vis, using his skill, then uses an ether spell to modify the locks within each door, each needing an amount of realization to activate.

Vis Unlocks each door, the 1st one acknowledged by his ignorance and acting of justification of fairness as the flaw as he realizes that walking in a way focused and trying to justify that he himself is someone with the most respected or tormented by those that couldn't care less, makes him envy and angry on what he wanted wasn't what he got..... that feeling has now made Vis unlock the 1st door for hence he knows why the extreme was the worst to do, the second a door of other thoughts is then challenged as he has to unlock this door by witnessing a scary and traumatic event in his childhood, the feeling of being blamed and punished for not even being taught at all in the 1st place, he feels that he wanted to be taught he felt that it wasn't justified, he was punished for the lack of caring from those that he needed, The parent he had wanted nothing but herself. He felt that the mother was the one who had many facades, yet to some degree he felt he was cared for and then abused to the highest extreme..... The dad is always off on a mission. Vis remembers why Adonis was the way he was..... Vis feels it, he sees his own mother, someone who was so damaged, almost as damaged as Her Aura.

Vis remembers that he understands why his anger is extreme and calm at the same time. All of that confusion then dissipates. The Second Door then unlocks,

He opens the ether time chamber of remorse and sees everything has changed he senses he doesn't have a lot of time.... as the time itself went by so fast.

Vis looks around and scans the area to secure his escape, then ether teleports to where Sogo and Malik are.

Vis then returns only to see his own team damaged and aura gone

Vis: The hell what happened , no AURA

Sogo: Man, your old man or king is something else. He freaken knew this was gonna happen; he let it happen, all of us to find him, and allowed his own reason to take. Dude Aura's GONE now because you chose to do whatever you wanted

Malik: Chill

Malik, Aneria, and Sogo look at Vis and see a change, a change that can't be defined by the elements of this time

Malik: Your're, dang you body, it just got tough, slim yet your muscles be Aneria then can't help herself as she sees vis not as a guy or a boy's child, but as a man who has seen the phases of senses.

Aneria: I can't recognize you, your attitude.....

Vis then looks around and sees the azureking trace. He tries to sense where the king is, but to no avail; he can't sense it

Vis: Ah, no wonder, the king is trying to do this,...

.....the king of crimson was right.....trust

Sogo: I don't believe it's actually you, from one moment to the next, you change, that's kinda bipolar if you ask me.

Sogo then stops and sees Vis isn't phased or concerned by his words

Sogo: Hey, you still there im trying to talk

Vis: Yo, Sogo, you see what's going on, yeah, you were right about this and about who I am, but what's the point in being right when how long you're right might not last.

Sogo: Yeah im still right about you, ya think you changed, im not buying it, it's a look that nothing on the inside.

Vis: Pfft, yeah, obviously, even if someone is right, are they actually truly right with the context of what they know, though?

Sogo then gets silent, knowing he said something that he can't argue against Sogo: How did you know that?

Malik: Where you went something changed, you actually took the right call who did you meet?

Malik looks into Vis's eyes, then realizes he has to confront them...

Malik: Man, for you to actually deal with them, Ater and Anias, like that, you would've been stuck... by lucky timing, you got out... Fate was in your hand luck

Vis then sees them and contemplates

Vis: It's kinda sad, though... how you all had to deal with this from the start, and how, as what I was... my problems never had to be your problems...Thanks

Sogo: Who are you thanking me for.....I didn't do anything

Malik: No problem, boss.....im finally relieved you actually chose to see it.....glad im not the only one.

The team looks at the area and sees the melancholic time. This is

Vis: Alright, guess we gotta go now..... Ater and Anias will probably be trying to chase us down since im not in the area now.

Malik: yeah we gotta move now.....

Everyone then leaves the area and leaves.....
..before they go.....sogo puts a note on the door

Sogo, knowing what's happening now, senses what he has to do in that current timeframe

sogo then monlouges

Sogo: Just a little longer.....

Vis then senses the right teleportation form set to use with the team and thus can challenge him once more.

Vis: You know, Tartus, that whatever guy might have something we need

Malik: alr chief, do the work to cook it up

Sogo: man, this better not be a fluke you're in charge.....so ya better not miss it

Aneria: Can ya both quiet down

Vis and the team then sync up and teleport to where tartus is in the current time stance.

Vis then also notes on something he's about to plan

Vis: ill be dealing with some , stuff on the Azure king , and when it has to happen, ill know what to do

Malik: alr , you can believe in whatever you want to believe,

Vis: Let's begin it

* * *

In the Azure Healing Field gateway, both the Azure King and Aura Aer then walk, Aura Aer hating how she had to be forced out, then says.

Aura: Couldn't you see their will, they really are kind

AzureKing: None of that would matter if you lost yourself or were damaged. I don't want you to suffer like that.

Aura: wrong, vis knew this whole time, sure he cared about his own mission and the want to get his will back, but he also took the time to be selfless, I haven't seen that before, only Endo knows.

Azure King:.....

Aura: He isn't as low, he wasn't baggage, he wasn't a tool, he has a soul, I have a soul too, even your father. He listened and chose to learn.

AzureKing: In a mindset of a stubborn fool.....heh don't make me laugh, he's as restless and aimless.....
... he has no goals, he only wants to survive..... that wouldn't be a goal, it's a person that doesn't feel it..... never wanted to grow like how I wanted him to grow.

Aura: It's free will, haven't you heard about that?

AzureKing:.....

Aura: From the moment we sparred, he still wanted to keep it up. He knew he needed to gain. He truly learned what I wanted him to know. Even at the time he chose to attack, yet he understood defense on other levels. From the allowing of actions to even the charms, he may seem aloof and on his mind, but those times he cherished.....YOU CAN'T DENY ANY OF THAT. You only cherish status, yet you put me in this..... sigh

AzureKing:..... say what is

Aura: You're always like that, Father. If you cared so much about how you look or presented with those around you, then you wouldn't be putting your men in this. There's no point even talking about this in the 1st place.

* * *

As Vis leaves with the team, he starts to remember the decade's feeling and the time spent in the ether time chamber, or remorse. He then sees things he should've known.

During that time

Shadow Vis: So you do see now, you thought Aura was trying to blame you and misinterpret you, thinking she was trying to win.

Vis: What would I know about this

Shadow Vis: A lot more. She was trying to help you, yet you antagonized her because you thought almost everyone was against you. You were trying to defend yourself and spike away.

Vis: Then why would she get so agitated about doing things for her? What did I do?

Shadow Vis: Because you fear, she wanted it to be fair, and yet she sees you instead, someone lost and an eye sore to see low leveled.....

Vis: So I hate

Shadow Vis, you tell me. Who was the one really abusing you should know the answer by now.

Vis:.....from the very beginning, how I rebelled and engaged in aura flow that powerful, I made the kingdom into.....a ruckus, and made those fear.....I don't understand tch why I did it

Vis blade in that time in the chamber, then resonates as it feels the flow of azure and ether in the calmer state.

* * *

Aura and the AzureKing then walk in the azure healing fields into the certain point where auras mothers that the azure king was holding would be commenced to start of a process

Ater, Anias, and Tartus await the team to get close to the hidden 6th floor of the dream castle only this time every attack and swing damaged can be fatal.

Ater: Whatever the boss is thinking we have to stay low on this

Tartus: I've been hearing that both kings are trying to play stupid to get the orchestrator to re-check the acts and change the narrative of this timeline

Anias then looks at them, knowing what's currently happening. He smirks and then turns into the most specific smile

Anias: Once Vis gets to that current level, as in the level of a "king", then the playing of this act can close, as all I have to do is "play" along on this

Ater and Tartus get to what he's implying

Tartus: A soul-catastrophic event can only happen when 2 gods with the exact same elements at an equal high degree challenge each other, hence there is no victor in that situation.

Ater: Unless the other one tricks the system by which either the king or Vis has to cancel the attacks, like 2 mirrors being shown the sides to themselves.

Anias: Ah, so im not the only one that know this, yeah, there has to be a 3rd element in the area to delete or destroy both of them in tandem

Tartus: So who is it then, or is it,

Anias: Only time will tell, once they enter this part of the area needed to access the azure kings hidden plane, then we can commence.

Ater looks at both of them, knowing that the situation has changed, and thus sees Anias as someone who has many eyes from different zones.

Anias: If I were to guess, Vis would certainly take whatever chance he has and eliminate the opposition

Adonis then pops in, knowing the next act is about to start, everyone in their focused states, everyone in sync.

Adonis: Man I missed out on this.....the ether arena is in

* * *

Vis and the team enter the room, and they then encounter Divu and Lucy waiting for them.

Divu: Been a while, we were waiting for this long to see these events happen.

Vis and his team then stand, knowing they don't want to carry out the act of elimination.

Lucy: Hey, Hun, it's been some time, my dearest

Malik.

Lucy then tries to get close to Malik, but he rejects her comfort, knowing what has happened.

Malik: Even after that event, you tried to play this act with Anias,

Malik looks at Divu and is just disappointed and in shock to see what he has done,

Malik: Divu, among anyone I've tried to trust as a brother, you broke the trust ,..... and now you're aligning with him, Anias.....

Divu:.....I know, I don't know what to do I was just led to being ordered

Malik: Tch, DON'T GIVE ME THAT CRAP BECAUSE OF THE EVENTS happening back in the academy, you hurt her aura and put me and vis in an accusative state in legalities.....I had to cover up your mess.....

Divu then tries to reason and make a justification.

Divu: Then WHAT ELSE DID I HAVE I keep getting orders from the Azure King, and I couldn't take it.....If I didn't listen to the rules, my loved ones they wouldve.....I DIDN'T want to do any of it.....why

Lucy: Divu.....

Divu: All because of hierarchies that made no sense, who's poor, who's rich, who has the control, and people's power over others because of their skill or providence, their own stupid goof lies.....ITS FREAKEN STUPID ITS CRAZY!

Vis then comes into the area and walks past Malik, and looks at Divu dead straight

Vis: Blade it up, Divu, you said back then you wanted me to keep the promise, that I can do the duty for your brother to respect how you had to handle the mess.

Divu then tries to keep it in, how every time he tried to help those around him, even his family, how he had to join organizations to pay for his family's food and living expenses, how they needed him... That Burden of many things.

Divu: Tch Shit.....FINE

Both Combatants then Blade up and fight it, each attack built with deep, rich anguish, the loss of so many things.

* * *

As where the crimson king resides, he reads his notes and is visited by a peculiar person

CrimsonKing: Never would've thought you'd visit me.

LoveGoddess: you defiantly made a fool of yourself , and by all the hands you've obtained a epic saga of a character oooooo now im interested how did you figure it.

CrimsonKing: Some wont see it but there is another prophecy happening,

My lady , you already know

LoveGoddess: the persons or humanity's own free will, respects of many to the judgement of laws themselves.

Both of them know the reality feels old

Love goddess: its sad that it has to change to this point of the events timeline wouldn't you want the goodntimes back

CrimsonKing: anyone wouldve have , but with what we all have done we have to repay our debts, especially him

LoveGoddess: Ah so the boss the orchestrator.....

CrimsonKing: even the judges in the afterlife also know this predicament

They know their acts and understanding can be manipulated in such a way where their own records couldn't be deciphered . Falsified Interpretations.

LoveGoddess: no worries hun we'll allow our time to show, free will was what that being created its meant to exist ,

Crimson King: took the words out of my own mouth, yes., however moderation is always a tricky thing.

Both of them look at the skies as vextor and the azureking combat with the arena of ether in stage.

Both Divu and Vis are then combating in a equal intensity, each blade flow built with different motions the soul and aura filled with strong reasons of what they lost.

Vis: Remember

Divu: why why am I forced to do these broken things

Malik then sees both Vis and Divu realizing their roles and goals

Malik: you both saw it, alr relax it

Malik then passes the notes to Divu

Malik: Everyone knew it, its fine, you just had no control over it and seeing you like this, Sorry

Vis: was about to say that as well, yo Divu, you didn't have to doubt yourself like that ,even then you told me those reasons and tips, someone like you wouldnt be that low

Divu: but I did, anias forced me to do those act I was freaken obligated to that chaos, puppeted into a freaken scapegoat .

Vis: Aneria you told me this back then, that divu had some problems with doubt and paranoia , that's kinda something anias used to play with him

Aneria: you actually took my advice , yes i do remember that

Vis then forgives as for what has happened.

Vis: I know you you're not that type of person,

Malik then feels the remorse as he knew it as well,

Malik: there wouldn't be any point in fighting like this, its so old to do.

Divu then feels the resolution and understanding, he then smiles

Divu: Thanks, but before it happens I want to pay off this debt to you guys, ill stay on guard and go from the other side

Malik: if you gotta man up and change your acts, then go on dude

Vis then fist pumps Divu

Vis: thanks for handeling my messes

Divu: I could definelty tell you got a higher goal than this.

Vis then looks at his pic of the team and sees Aura,

Vis: yo Malik, Sogo, you think i need the support to confront the team near the 6th hidden gate,

Sogo: lol why ask us you should know more than any of us

Vis: just asking because , at some point the events can change and depending on the outcome it will change the fate it self.

Malik : your eyes finally gotten the next level, if i were to guess, we'll need to split up on different angles of the floors

Vis: which means the hidden door locked kepted by Ater, Anias , and Tartus will be challenging .

Malik: the overall door field has one lock to activate it,

Vis: so we gotta separate all 3 of them one on one.

Sogo: dude your tactics just be like that, alr then what happened when we miss the mark.

Malik: then we stall, if needed we'll have to retreat

Aneria: ill be on guard as well

Lucy: you're defienlty going to need someone whos understand the queen's and Kings well.

Malik: oh yeah ,your here because the azure king organized to stall us, so why stop

Lucy: well yes im obligated, it doesn't mean im not doing it now, however the king forgot that , my reasons come from the actions of Anias.

Everyone looks at Lucy realizing she know something that the team doesn't.

Vis: no wonder he's so lax and calm, he intending for something else to be played out.

Lucy : you almost fell for it when trying to combat divu, but by your instinct you became more aware of how deep this situation does get.

Everyone then thinks for just a bit.

Vis: wait,..... he's wanting an am I that predictable..... to take out someone

Lucy: anyone wouldve guessed you would done so just by your purest additude .

Vis: then its just you your what You just said!

Lucy: no , you're the one doing all of those acts, see you even spoke it ,

Vis: I never wanted to

Lucy: your harassing me like everyone said , who are you to do this

Vis: im just trying to understand what your talking about.

Lucy: you use me all the time like those times, gasp did you touch me

Everyone looks at vis and Lucy and starts to laugh even thou they dont want to.....

Vis: I never touched you what?

Malik: this shit is

Sogo: that feeling of some kind of broken record how did she.

Malik then tells vis to wake up

Malik: dude its not worth it.

Vis: tch what just

Lucy: ahh now he finally gets it.

Everyone looks at Lucy and starts to tell whats up.

Vis: crazy how did she?

Lucy: and that's why no one respects you , especially aura, your just that easy to bait talk in whatever ways you act.....am I correct?

Sogo: dude she's roasting you

Malik then calms the area,

Malik: ill stay on guard here , Divu, Sogo , and you will go,

Divu: wait you still trust me after all of this.

Malik: Lucy hanging knows she needs to be here, she also knows that you being with the team is part of the plan, I go in with the team, they will trap me out from the sphere. They're planning something of a restriction to happen.

Lucy: saying your plan like that , is so good, you need to go back to prek boy.

Wait maybe your already taking kindergarten classes , thank you smelly baby.....uwu

Sogo: tch so we have to go now

Vis: alr, yo sogo, divu let's go

The 3 man team then goes into

Aneria and Malik stay, as the witch then starts her magic.

Lucy: oh no no we wont get anywhere after me, I choose to switch up like a lady of many poses and dances come on dance with me My love malik.

Malik : just like a girl with all the guys messing with her.....pathetic,

Lucy: boo boo don't say that, I mean you want it right

The team then goes .

There ater, anias and tartus then are waiting for the game like team to elevate.

Tartus: right on time, was about to get bored with this ball

Sogo: Tch its them.....

Divu: Just keep it to yourself

Vis then looks around and does a test on the aura flow using an aura bait technique

he swings the sword, and sure enough, the aura is then dissipated

Vis:.....alr theres no point trying to fight using this current style since they already placed the traps

Sogo: Dude, how do you keep guessing

Divu: Were combating against some very distinct ether-level users in order to combat them

Anias: You gotta play by our own terms, you are your game, or are you just good ole characters from the barbie show , tutus and all lol.

Divu, Vis, and Sogo then stand their ground, knowing they have to use their own capacity for ether-like movesets in the mix.

Tartus: so it will be a tri battle of a sort, cowboys of the seekers time

Sogo: Nah its gonna be ME COME AT ME

Divu: What the dont do it....tch this dumbass be

Sogo then speed blitz using his soul control and blasts using all of his emotions and over fields Ater

Ater: This is pretty good i gotta hand itn to ya dude, however

Sogo knows by a foresight skill he's trained on then says

Sogo: Negate soul step

Sogo then disappears with no trace, making everyone try to find him.

Tartus:sigh hes trying to use a skill like that.....

Vis then senses Sogo steps from the ether foresight

Vis then stances

Anias: Alr.....your all playing to passive, you all knew by trying to attack in a aggressivew way, we would trap all of your attacks.....so how will you then get the damage done.

Divu then uses an ability to enhance the ether playing field

Divu: Yo, Vis, the area at hand is in an Ether-like field.....the king has chosen to make it an instant damage situation in the command form.....

Vis: So that's why they're not attacking..... they know each side's touch of hurt could destroy them.

Divu: just watch and see

Divu then gets his form back and tries to attack without the aura intact.

Tartus: A blunt attack.....where would the damage go thou.

Divu: You tell me chief

Divu then puts a blade alchemist like touch to the blade as the blade touches Tartus , something of some sort Tartus wouldnt think would be foreseen

Sogo then reappears from the negate soul step as his soul gauge is then recharged , hence he grapples Anias.

Anias: Damn it thought it was from behind

Sogo: THIS IS PAYBACK FOR MAKING Me DO THOSE STUPID ACTS ,

Vis doesn't believe what's going on and tries to attack, knowing the aura flow can be dissipated from the opponents

Sogo: Tch VIS DONT WORRY ABOUT ME , I GOT THIS , DIVU KNOWS IT TOO.

Divu then waits and uses a aura like mark debuff on Tartus, Divu: Perfect.....

Tartus: sigh

Divu: Ether Debuff modification active.....try me boss

Vis then sees how Divu can blaze it out by the stance and timing of the space and zone

Tartus:.....the blunt attack was Divu: Even a kid would've known what this was...

.....how I spaced allows me with this blunted tool to touch, hence now I can debuff you.

Tartus:

Divu: Ether Debuff Chamber active....

Tartus is then chained into the Chamber of Ether as Tartus is limited for a moment in time.

Divu: Vis now you gotta

Sogo then does a Soul Destruction Attack and thus intensely damages Sogo and Anias forcing a recharge state.

Anias: DAMN THIS tch I can't move

Sogo: heh, that should buy us some time on this...

Vis and Ater are now the only ones left in the battle

Vis and ater knowing whats currently going on

Ater: You know that one strike from both of us can desinigrate any of us in that moment.....you amongst anyone has seen it

Vis:.....no wonder you work like this ,.....being to chill and playing along is anyones excuse.

Vis then uses a evo skill.

Vis: Azure emission Release

Ater:.....thats it huh, oh

Ater is then cornered with all of the azure missiles cornered to him from the aura concealed within the room.

Ater: What to do now.....oh yeah its this crimson detachment of souls...

Vis: what.....

Ater then recharges his soul attack and for a moments shows his true emotions in a hidden way.

Vis: this is

Ater: Wouldnt be any easier to let myself out now would it.....heh lets win LOSER

Ater then quickens, his negate soul steps and disappears, no trace of him, and then he

Ater: crimson mindful arks of sensed blast RELEASE.....time to BITE MY DUST

Vis, in pure reaction terms, then stances himself and blocks the attack, and from it, Vis is then

Damaged in a low soul level

Vis Monologues

Vis: Damn, my soul level is too low.....and I can't use my Aura skills either, what can I do

Vis then starts to recall the abilities of the purification formset as he remembers how he awakened them..... he then uses the reactionary ability

Vis: Caisa purification sense elevation release

Vis, in tandem with the ability, gives Vis a temporary recharge of the soul and aura within a time-limited capacity....

Ater: Huff Huff so he remembered it.....impossible looks like

As Ater starts to do a soul-destruct technique , Vis then uses his limited time gauge to activate the next ability

Vis: Azure chains of restriction

Vis commands the ability and sends the azure chains of restriction to Ater as the chain restricts him for just a limited time. Vis then blitzes through the area to find the right door to unlock Vis: Tch, where is the door.....

Suddenly, Vis Aura then changes as his eye sees the right door to see. The aura coming from the door then confirms where the king is.

Vis then looks around and sees the levels of damage done and then unlocks the door.

Vis then opens to see another room, where he sees a note from Adonis, amongst all people.

Adonis: Yo whats up brother, so your guessing by accessing this door you would see and encounter the king himself, some would say so to.... but for your circumstance, the king prepared a specific thing for you to uncover before you even try and combat him, You would know your capacity at your range... the room itself is embedded with both ether and spirit like elements.....the spirit element would be something to look an eye on, if you get the chance.

You're getting close,..... There are other paths waiting to be used so get ready

From

Adonis

Vis looks at the room by himself and thus senses the room is now separated from the other planes the only door left with the signature is in front of him, yet the locks don't allow any opening of sorts unless he learns.

Vis: So I'm separated from the team now.....
..what did Adonis imply.....

Vis thinks for a bit and senses more to come as the room starts to add spiritual spaces. The room then becomes more of a maze, and as vis sees the rooms, he feels the ether and caisa flow within.

Vis then foresaw the room and calmed his senses to a controlled form and state.

Vis: Vextor must have known,.....is it a dead end

Vis then sees the spiritual layout and starts to see himself.....there he remembers he needs to talk to Vextor

Vis: Monologues

Vis: Vextor why would he allow me to go to ater and anias like that, like he knew that I would be the pacifist and wouldnt fight,.....just because of my own justification of respecting myself. And this recent fight, Ater and Anias, its to calculated was to , planned, they were just chilling

Vis looks around and starts to see Adonis ' old but memorable equipment, there he starts to see himself.

Vis: He used to wear these things back then, just like father and mother's times.

Vis looks around and starts to see the room change, how Vis remembers

Vis: The king changed this room, so it's vextor that has the answer.....

The king and vextor wouldn't be.....

In the 6th highest plane that is hidden, the azure king talks about Aura Aer's mother in a particular way

AzureKing: She wants us to return. Please let go off all of that suffering

Aura: Why

Azureking: Once you meet your mother again, ill be sure to bring a momentous party of all kinds , please... .. all you need to do is sync with her, let your soul

heal her soul

Aura:sniff.....

Aura feels so much of that conflict for being with her friends, being with vis, or bringing her mother back, yet she knows her own soul is the key to it.....so much conflict and yet she wants her own free will

Aura: I have my own dreams and wills, my friends, who are the ones that truly went with thought about me. Why let them in suffering, why let them in torment,..... You, as a king, know that pain doesn't want to be in that state. It's hedonism for those who run away from pain or even problems. What becomes of them? TELL ME, FATHER,

Azureking: Sigh lets take time.

Vis within the room then tries to find the signature of the king of azure, surely enough, he knows where he is, the door its self however is another plane to access.

Vis monolouges

Vis: he'll trap me from the moment I enter the door itself , ...so the door has to be accessed through an ability, which one is it.

Vis tries to recall the abilities.....as the time allows him to realize he's on a time at hand.

He monolouges again

Vis: the abilities if they are mine also have the past skill trees from him, I just have to gain them by learning what he did back then.

Vis thinks as he also knows the Azure King's abilities have parts of memories he placed in the abilities

Vis: I gotta jog up the memory on this.

Vis then meditates in a prayer-like stance both skills coming from the Crimson King of enlightenment and the King of Azure the belief of what is the stars like King the King that sees God, the protection and boundaries,

Vis: I think I understand now, why all the trouble, the problems,

Vis then sees a vision from the once King abilities, and sees a part of the past of the Azure King, young Augen a righteous man filled with rules and allegiance to harmony.

In the Azure King memories

In the plane of Caerleum, he butt heads with one of the higher ranks in a conversation about who did what or calls out to some capacity.

Augen Aer: A simple person doesn't have to backtrack their answer on what they did at fault, so who was it that framed the bystander on this?

The guy in question is a peculiar man, part of the ranks and an annoying one at hand.

Indicum foe: Frame, you mean how you frame a nice picture? I don't know what you mean by that. Are you trying to think im the one framing bad pictures on a wall? Are you trying to sketch me in this badly?

Augen Aer: Just answer the question, it's not hard to follow what this is.

Indicum foe: What's that? Oh, you want me to report you for harassment? That's what you truly want me to do? I mean, you said I paint pictures or framing, or is it you framing the picture? You wanted to paint me as a guy attacking.

Augen: Tch predictable

The angst argument then starts to a point where a beige-haired maiden of a goddess comes to calm, for her name is Lasena.

Lasena: Both of you need to pace yourself. Sigh, such a chore.

Augen then moves on, following the lasena queues.

Lasena: Hun, you keep being soooo stuck up like this, like im up to my limit when it comes to this.

Augen: I was so freaken close I just wanted him to spill it, he had the info, and while we were here on patrol, we need the most leverage of control in our estate.

Both Lasena and Augen then enter the records management hall and talk to the operations managers about the problem at hand

Augen: Looks like we got some certain bystanders seeing what is currently going on to some extent.

Lasena: Sigh, you want to finish it,

Augen: fine go at it

Lasensa: one of your cadets from your field was trying to make a fuss over the points being added to the ethics records being stated.....in other words they were trying to falsify the evidence

Augen then looks at Lasena and monooouges

Augen: This queen is dangerous, dang, she's good.

Narrator: Many years ago, before the time of the Azure Kings, a humble being of light lived in the sector. A peaceful yet strong mercenary that is trying to get into the ranks of the blue light kingdom..

Augen: Alright, I'm getting the hang of it, boss, thanks.

Blue Light Mercenary Boss: Good, now keep at it were almost at the rendezvous point.

Augen: understood.

Narrator: 5 high-ranking mercenaries then join the sector of blue light, and thus a delivery is undertaken.

Blue light Mercenary Boss: Alright, we gave you the package. Now you must agree on these terms to not mess with our sector.

Indicum Mercenary Boss: Why of course we wouldn't want to take over your land and destroy it, that might be impossible to do, plus your so-called king is a smart one, we will abide by that king's rules for the time being.

Augen: okay

Blue light Mercenary: Alright then, you must keep those words. If you don't, we will do what we must.

Indicum mercenary: Indeed, we will keep that typical promise.

Narrator: Both parties then leave the rendezvous point. The Blue light mercenaries then leave the sector and record the events that have just unfolded.

Blue light mercenary: Alright, we got the info from the other sector of the Inducum Kingdom.

Narrator: Silvestris then remembers the package given to the Indicum mercenaries.

Silvestris: the blade, its sorta strong to be given to them, the fact that the blacksmith who created that tech must have learned its purpose.

Narrator: The Blue light mercenary then says this verse:

Blue Light Mercenary: Whenever you see a Group of Individuals that are beyond light and dark, you must respect their values and the light they emit.

Augen: So that's why you gave the package to give respect and make good grounds with that sector of light.

Blue Light mercenary: very smart, looks like your ideas are keen with ideals.

Narrators: The mercenaries then go to their blue light vehicles in the shape of a train. And thus the mercenaries drive back to their own base.

Narrator: Hours later, the mercenaries then prep for the next mission.

Blue light mercenary Boss: Alright, we got some intel from the higher-ups. It seems now there might be a stalemate.

Augen: what, that doesn't make any sense now!

Blue Light mercenary Boss: Why of course it doesn't make sense, and that's why this intel we're going to ignore.

Augen: wait

BLue light mercenary: that right the intel we got is a hoax but i got a feeling the higher ups wants us to infiltrate once more only this time we need to prepare enough times to get near some of the locations in time.

Augen: You mean the Inducum Kingdom of some sort. Okay, you do know that the kingdom is almost as advanced as ours. In this principle, we do this im not sure I'm up for the task.

The Blue-light mercenary boss then gives Silvestris a hidden paper.

Bluelight mercenary: reads this on your own, alright.

Augen then looks at the hidden paper and says.

"Meet up at the rooftop at midnight."

Narrator: Augen meets the blue light mercenary boss:

AUGen: came , now what?

Blue Light Boss: well there you are well come have a look at our place.

Narrator: both of them look at the horizons and look at each of the places they have made a base .

Blues light Boss: When you look at this what do you see.

Augen: I see a lot of building that's for sure but there's something else.

Blue Light BOss: Correct theres alot of things going along to if you can sense it then you can see how things can play out.

Augen: wait you mean aura

Blue light Boss: foresight, the concept of using your aura prowess to determine the opponents ideals and concentration. Now let me demonstrate now.

Narrator: He then activates the aura deep within and causes an uproar in the cycle of himself to demonstrate aura foresight.

Blue light boss: hmmm, now i see whats going on.

Augen: meaning.

Blue Light boss: Sorrow all over and not jsut only this sector of light but others to somuch pain and sorrow i feel and thats how i resonsate with it. DO you know what my main mission is young man .

Augen: if this is rhetorical ill be wrong thou if i were to guess, could be a sign to change

Blue boss mercenary: the rules themselves.

Augen:!!!!

BLue boss mercenary: ahh i got your attention it would seem we are both in the same shoes you too indeed want to change something for yourself.

Augen:.....

Blue boss mercenary: im guessing you fear the unknown possibilites so variant it might break the system it self.

Augen: how did you.

Blue boss mercenary: like i said aura foresight, and another thing only kings of aura can do this with a calm state they use a combination of soul based pressure and aura based prowess to manifest the aura foresight.

Augen: and you just felt it through my eyes
dang

BLue boss: now back to the question at hand, if you fear so much of the unknown then try and conquer that feeling.

Augen: you gotta be kidding me i refuse to seek the unknown its so stupid and weird what's the point.

Blue Light boss: the fact that your saying that means you fear so much the unknown parts are controlling you from the inside.

Augen: what the!

Narrator: the BLue light boss mercenary then nods and shows his battle marks.

BLue light boss: as you can tell i've been through alot but look at my demanor its calm isnt it.

Augen:.....yeah

Blue light Boss: now ill tell you this, in order to know the unknown your light must be strong as diamond and indestructible meaning to train constantly and not idling. But to seek or to protect others in your own perception you need to know the unknown. In order to have the most strongest branches to the ultimate prowess of light you need to have those that root to the unknown.

Augen: then i have to confront.

BLue light boss: your ultimate shadow that comes from within , learn how to conquire it and you strength shall become tenfold.

Augen: why are you telling me this?

Blue Light Boss: I am very old truly i am, and to be clear the King of Blues light: caeruleum is alot older than me . we both have seen to much there must be a new successor in the end.

BLue Light boss: and now i look at you as my son so does the king. I want you to help us in the process of truth and how all of these event are made.

AUgen: your talking nonsense why would I want to do that, im not even that strong yet, heck everything seems peaceful why.

Blue light boss: when you think about it there's more to the story than what meets the eye in the end. That's for you to decide whenever you want to be my successor and so too he blue light king himself.

Narrator: Augen suddenly starts to feel dizzy,
Augen: my body its feeling weird now.

BLue light boss: its because its almost time now.
there's a very good reason I chose you and these other mercenaries in this mission.

Augen: including my.....

Blue light boss: Brother of course and theres a reason why i keep restricting him on his works and missions.

Augen: oh

BLue Light boss: tbh your fates might be intertwined for the rest of history unless you help out in this hidden mission.

Augen:.....im listening.

BLue light boss: without telling anyone, leave this place and mercenary base alone for hence i will give you an element item of raw thunder and mist.

Augen: this is to easy why give it to me now.

BLue light boss: its because deep inside i know your a good person

Augen:.....then what about my brother.

BLue light boss: i've already given him the elements already however he is very clever and want more for himself he's to ambitious.

Augen: which mean i need to help him out stop that.....then wait now im seeing something else.
when you gave me this offer of the element of thunder and mist, you were trying to give a clue.

Blue Light Boss: very insightful you understand now. So ill give 2 options. You take my sacred gifts and never return so you can create your own zone and protect those and guide them too the strongest version of themselves. Make them the knight they need to be at the same time force them to become the judges and punishers when the times needed.

Augen: what's the second option?

Blue light boss: the second one is to confront me and fight.

Augen: why this.

BlueLight boss: there's something hidden inside of you that you must face and in order for it to awaken ill have to confront you and your unknown prowess.

Augen: no you couldn't be...

Blue light Boss: now you see do you. I was once a shadow being that turned to the light and became this version of my self. Not even the king could do this because the prowess is pure. mine goes in between a twilight of some sort.

Augen: i really dont know anymore what option should i chose, i really want to be with you guys and help out at the same time you gave an option that's based on separation. This hurt so much.

Blues light Boss: there are those who are hurting also and this pain we all feel isn't normal if anything it reside in that realm.

Narrator: suddenly the sirens are activated.

BLue light Boss: looks like it has started, you must chose quickly if you don't then you might not survive.

Augen: Shit alright ill take it your gifts.

Blue Light boss: very smart you knew you weren't ready to awaken your prowess yet because your still young, I'm glad now because I've chosen the right successor to fulfill my longest dream. If you had taken the other path, i would have known you to be a even darker shadow that feeds on ambition just like your brother.

Augen: so peace is the right answer.

Narrator: the BLue light mercenary boss then starts to cry,

Blue light boss: you are a very kind and loving young man, i know these event are bound to happen and now i know that you can change things beyond comprehension. So be careful once you do this ill give you a escape route to the other realms depending on what place you chose will determine who you will become in due time.

narrator: Augen feeling the loss then says.

Augen: As my solemn vow, I will protect and guide those who need help, even when they are at the darkest point in their own existence. I will guide them and heal them . I know im young but at the same time i want to seek.

Bluelight Boss: Now I know you were once "that" being godsend. Now hurry you dont have alot of time.

The wraith masters are about to infect this place,

Augen : sob damn I just wanted peace

Blue Light boss: Now go leave now before it goes corrupt.

Narrator: the young man Silvestris: now leaves thought that door the mercenary has made. The young man leaves:

Blue light boss: now ill have to confront these beings and see what they want.

Narrator: Augen then emerges from the teleport to a destination unlike any other. There, he sees multiple paths that can be taken. 3 of some sort, one based on the path of society, another one based on the path to change, and the other one the path to ascend.

Augen: Strange, so this is where this leads me in the end,

Narrator: Augen then looks at the paths he can take there he tries to see those possibilities.

Augen: since i have these prowesses from the boss ill have to use them according to what i need to do. I really miss my friends thou ultimate power please guide me in this mission.

Narrator: The young man then takes the path to change there the possibilities are now opened.

Augen: alright now i need to know what the old man was trying to tell me my boss.

Augen then enters the path, which leads to a zone of monsters waiting for him on the other side.

Augen: Something tells me the old boss is trying to test on the other elements. I'll have to improvise.

Narrator: The young man then uses the element items, and all of a sudden it activates, turning into a blade of mist and thunder in a halo form.

Augen: now i know i took the right choice by not awakening my prowess yet, first i need to confront these demons and see what is happening.

The monsters then start attacking the young man, but the young man then uses the thunder and mist within the mystic halo and enables the young man's light.

Narrator: The monster run away from the light fearing light it self and the monster tool is fear itself.

Augen: my old man my boss was giving me this to..... looks like im a natural at this indeed i am self and my old man, a wise being.

Augen then enables the power given to him, and also his blue light, to resonate with him. There, the young man now creates the first interpretation of azure prowess unlike any other.

Augen: Alright, I'll call this the Azure Beam of Mysticism.

Narrator: Augen then attacks the running monsters and sees a peculiar reaction.

Augen: wait.....oh, sick, looks like my old man gifted me with his ideals of control, nice.

The young man then attacks through his aura, and a mystic power emerges, forcing the monsters to obey.

Monster: rawr please kill me I cant take it.

Augen: tbh you're too rare to kill, so I'll make you my tool now, or friend if you want monsters of this path.

Narrator: The young man then uses his power to help control the monsters through a leash.

Monsters: dang

Augen: Now obey, you are now in my own control, you beings in this awakened path of the divine.

Monsters: how?! did you?

Augen: The prowess that was given to me enabled me to understand how you beings felt. The mist and thunder elements allowed me to resonate with the frequency of you beings and understand the concepts through the mist factor, thereby clouding the corruption given to you beings.

Monsters: You really are the one to prophesy the beginning and the never-ending journey. Thank you, we have been cursed on this path for far too long.

Augen: i understand you beings never wanted to hurt you all wanted was payback i understand.

But payback isn't the answer; only change can fix it in the end.

Monster: How can we respect you, your from the other side of the kind, you're yourself is highly different from us hiss

Augen: Then how is it that im able to understand the pain of feeling lost in identity? If I do know, I can give that reason for fulfillment. I know the pain of that uncertainty.

Hence, the young man unleashes the monsters, and their light emerges, making them pure.

Monsters: I don't know who you are, or heck, who we are, but we are happy that you are here to guide us in the end. We will follow.

Augen: Well, you can follow or not, that's your own choice to do, it's alright.

Narrator: The monsters, hearing this, then agree to join the trail and help him when the time is needed.

Augen: Alright, let's begin this journey, you fellow being of purity beyond dark and light, let's go.

Narrator:And thus the second phase of the trial begins.

As the monsters follow the now formed azure being, he goes through the system of the unknown. There, an enormous snake being connected in a cycle in a circle blocks the path.

Augen:.....ths is.....

Cycle Snake: so it would seem a challenger has now arrived this time. What brings you here to this gate of realms and possibilities?

Augen: to protect and love , and to find a zone that I can rest.

Cycle Snake: but in order for that to happen, we must test you to see if you can out class me in all possibilities. Are you ready or are you not.

Augen: to be honest I'm not sure but when i am i will confront the ideals of myself and others.

Cycle snake: hiss well said i wont attack yet but im itching to eat you up if your not up the the challenge.

Narrator: the body of silverstris then starts to change in visability and becomes almost azure like.

Augen:! whoa

Cycle snake: well well you just figured out the test, by saying what you have said yua re acknowledging your ideals and where it comes from in some terms indeed. you passed the 1st test.

Augen:.....then the next one is.

Cycle snake: a game of patience and riddles. What has all the knowledge and looks like a connection of all lines and dividing paths in unison. Is it a principle, a foundation, or a possibility

Augen:..... hmm now im not so sure those anwsers show different meanings but at least i know this concept.

Augen: but if I were to guess, it might be every answer combined. So all of the above.

CycleSnake: very smart you getting good, because everything is connected to some extent and that allows the concepts of fighting and wars to come about and that is how causations happens from the elements of beyond good and evil.

Augen:..... looks like im going into the unknown now and looks like the old man was right about this like wow.

Cycle Snake: good now for the final test

Narrtor: Augen's aura then resonates into a visible light of blue azure aura that allows him to heal along with he monsters that have joined him. Those emonsters resonagte with the azure aura and start to purify the right way to some extent.

Monsters:.....our auras thank you master.

Augen: you beings of daimon once you leave my zone , help those in need or stay if you need to.

Monster: as you wish master.

Cycle Snake: now the test of patience will now start, time shall become fragmented and all zones shall be restricted to test your patience and understand where your true power resides.

Now you must stay in this zone until i know your strong enough to let go of the attachments you kept in the end.

And thus the final test of ultimate patience has now started and now the beginning of the system has now started to change in theory.

Augen:.....alright im ready im ready to take this burden and task head on i will stick in this zone and figure out what is going on with me to some extent.

Cycle Snake: now it begins young man of azure it shall commence.

Vis then gets locked out from the vision as the abilities are limited from the disconnection of the king of azure form.

Vis monologues

Vis: Guess I'm not there yet at the capacity to see the memories, tch, I gotta,

Vis then looks around and starts to tell why the king planned this part to be the hardest.

Vis: He's so in control now.

Vis then remembers the azure kings reasons and his own justification,

Vis: Maybe i just have to listen to everything around me, bring the noise in.....

vis then feels the spirit heal of a link as he is able to feel the force, he stops chasing and waits for a moment, realizing that time has no control over the area.

Vis: Breathe in and out, just like at the beginning of this journey.

The ability Spirit Link and the Spirit Heal then resonate with the user vis as he starts to feel the positivity of the area around him..... he chooses to understand, yet he also has a determination to make things fair within the ones he cherishes

he then forgets about the time and forgets about the past itself, he sees the world around him , his own abilities from his own mind itself.....his own personality, his regret,.....longer the time he thinks, he then feels the consequence, and feels.....

...he misses everyone.....friends, cousins, even his own teachers,.....but by seeing all of that, he sees aura,..... And how he wants it to be justified, his own expectations.....for hence that is why determination exists

Vis: Im gonna open this door, I wanna know why now, why did it have to be me to get placed in this mess,.....I'll see it to it, I'll find the path.

But the more he chases the more he sees that he hasn't truly changed completely, he then understands that his shadow self was always there to puncture him, yet get him to see it..... the shadow version is a power hungry state, yet also is the other side of vis,....all of those thoughts, the love, the handling, how he feels, And remembering how aura felt..... and the regret of letting himself loose..... he understands that in order to confront the king of azure, he needs to see in himself, and slowly the internal change then happens, he forgets about the looks and sees through his presumptions and sees something in that reality, the power that the king holds as what he holds as well. Two ultimate beings, built on reasons, yet kindness flows.

Vis then slowly meditates again remembering what he thought and then understands what the crimson king was aiming to begin with.

Vis: He mustve had been through it, an event that made him get betrayed by so many of the comrades ,.....even his original lover,.....Augen hes

Vis then starts to remember as the memories of one of the abilities the aura azure like mist then tells a different tale.

In the memory like dream state, vis sees augen , and lasena running, as they are pursued by a mercenary like foe.

Merc: You forgot to pay us your bills, ooooo your maiden definetly looks like someone we could, play for our selves

Augen then uses the Aura Azure Mist to Cover up Lasena to keep her hidden for a moment as Augen tries to attack the merc, but without knowing it he falls for the most simplest trick in the book.

Merc: ah....boss we got him what he just did was confirmed in the records of that time....

The Indicum Officers then take Augen to be judged from the actions of an accomplice in the area of the Indicum kingdom.

Augen is then visited by all of his teammates, everyone was disappointed by how he was played into doing missions and favors for a kingdom, yet he wasn't aware of the other expectations at hand

Indicum Judge: From what has happened, you were doing double acts to gain an upper advantage for your own organization at hand , where would that lead ,

Augen: Im not obligated to ask that

The Indicum judge then sends the info and evidence of what he has done

Augens evidences shows how he talked , messaged, yet couldve ask for learn more about himself yet he didnt choose to learn at all.

Augen then remembers what he said to his team mates and the connctions for his will is pure yet is judged for the error at hand

Augen: I could propose a redirection of the mission, If I were to be judged for not know my current status or disposition then please give time.

The judge does not pass this, and his own teammates then give the most disappointed face,

Asa: Why would you do these things for just an advantage

Meu: I knew you so well..... I loved you for your kindness, I still do, but how can I respect this

Everyone laughs, but the team realizes they will be then punished because the young azure meister was planning things way too ahead of time and never knew how to understand his peers at a level that would've made them feel respected. For hence if only Augen knew by giving orders like that with out realizing his words or lack of deepening his reason with others, he shoulve been much more approachable, someone that couldve use better kindness to guide those even his team, but his determination and focus, his face, walking like hes the hero yet so blind that even the most wolves would have left..... They had to pity the king of azure because the king tried to be the kindest yet never knew how to respect others in a deeper way. His goals and determination were what led him to be called the boss.

His own determination and superiority led him into a person that would take any chance to get what he needs, and in the time he is then exiled and banned from the locations, He looks around and sees him self, the catastrophe after the judgement where his own team was seperated and Locked, He looks up at the sky looking around , regret, hatred from the justification and goals, what he was trying to understand

Augen: I DID EVERYTHING FOR THAT BEING, WHY IS IT THAT IVE LOST ALL OF IT, ALL OF THE ACTS, WHAT WAS THE POINT! WHY

* * *

Vis then remembers Aura, seeing this memory, he then starts to understand why Aura was always left like that, all she wanted was peace to just be understood for who she was.....

Vis:.....heh, I guess I was just as bossy as Augen too.....

Vis looks around the area and starts to feel more of himself, knowing he can move on..... his own acts

Vis then sees and feels pity for whats really going on.

Vis then starts to remember, how he acted like the boss because of the lack of control, asserting of the control over the environment, he sees a fate to which he could become a judgemental foe that dictates others actions yet doesn't see other known skill and input, he sees that and thus understands why the azure king wore the black armor, he wore it because to embrace the control he needs to defend the ones he was able to save, the attachment and the fear or chaos and loss of someone truly dear to him.

Vis sees this and finds his own resolution ,and finally understands aura ,levels of stress her own problems her pain so sharp like a blade

Vis then uncovers his abilties as his own hair changes the hair from light blond to both beige hair and deep azure accents of blue, his own form finally realizing why he was close to a boss, and finding out why he was so bossy.....it all came from the loss for hence his own reason is true.

Vis looks at all the symbols of the religion of righteousness and the religions of enlightenment, he holds both his soul and flow of aura with the care.

For hence all what vis wanted was to help, he never really thought about himself, but for that moment he understood

Vis then stays in the room and changes his form and tries to confront it his own personality and change his acts.

For hence he has to feel it once more like anyone would.

Vis: was I really the a hole.....

Vis then sees that none of it matters as he know the words are just terms in the end, but knowing this he knows himself way more as of that moment

Vis: alien , human , dog , cat , wizard , crazy , monster, autistic these words ,

He then sees those words are what makes the world go around ,

Vis monologues

Vis: heh I wouldnt be surprised if some called me all kinds of stuff alien, defienetly be me or even anyone else especially if I just dont choose to learn.

Lol but I guess anyone can be anything especially in the afterlife and even outer space

But vis thinking about all of these things then feels and sees it like a children words in a book.

Vis then feels the loss of a will to fight as he sees himself in many forms

Vis then understand the oath he gave to the King and sees it now as why some change.

Vis then sees the other memories of the abilities and then sees aura aers memories something that he wouldn't want to see yet he has too.

Vis: crazy.....wait

He then sees Aura Aer filled with so much joy from the father and their own times, and moments where the father knew how to appreciate aura his own pride and joy, even through the moments of pain and loss of the mother they both have a will they cherish..... vis then realizes why would he try and take that away, who was he to play the hero.

Aura: dad please can we play some more that was so much fun

Augen: maybe some more later on remember you have to rest , another new day.

But in the current moment he understand that the king of azure is planning something else something that might make him regret for not coming in right on time.

Vis monoluges

Vis: even if Augen loved her daughter that dearly, that doesn't stop me from giving her back the free will,

Vis is self phased and changed , he understands that his new goal is something higher than this.

Vis: alr

The door then becomes less loose on the locks as vis changed determination changed , he then sees the doors and surely enough the door leads to a hallway to the 6th floor

* * *

Anias recharged from the scramble then pierces Sogo.

Sogo: dang it

Anias then teleports right back to the floor where the azure king

Anias: alright king both of you were planning something really really good tch argg man this pain be something. Tch only a monke would agree to this

AzureKing: silence

The azure king then sees Vis open the doors and sees him in a different mindset

AzureKing: are you listening Vis

Vis then stances up knowing he'll have to maneuver in this situation

* * *

Malik and Aneria then start to understand the intensity of the situation and thus stall the opposition

Sogo in the predicament then recharges and goes to the door to where vis was at previously.

There sogo goes and sees the door almost closing and thus meets up with ViS

Vis: alr your here,

Sogo: sup fam , didn't want to miss out on this dude.

Everyone is then stanced as Aura's soul is about to be synced with her mothers soul

Azureking: Remember, she has a duty to commence into

Vis: I couldn't forgive myself for being this blind, nor letting my comrades be used like that.

Azure King: So then, let's commence this like we have to do ,

Sogo: Heh, no wonder he's the boss.

The combatants then stance themselves in form and within the sense, the azure king knows

Aura, in the sync up state, with auras mother, then tries with her might to pass her blade lance to Vis, allowing a duality blade and lance form to be used from vis.

Aura: Vis , please stop him, I beg you!

Vis then holds both the lance blade and the blade of reframes into a formed controlled state....his vision clear, his mind focused

Sogo then sees Vis resolve and determination shifted yet more power in that alternative form and shape

Sogo: heh

Vis: ITS Over Im gonna get my life back my path,

and My family

Azure King: tsk tsk what happened to your will and compassion for those around you all I tried to do was help you crazy mind, and now you rebel who are you whats your righteous mind telling

Vis ignores the words and goes against The Azure King with brute force, unlike what was seen as a gutsy character with the will of a reaper of the souls themselves.

Vis Over dominates the Azureking and tacts the field as he does it he puts aura blade traps using aura Lance of a blade, and Vis formed blade of reframes to combat the King

Augen then counters the attacks through the azure mist technique only this time he has no time or the speed to do it

Vis then does something in particular with his abilities that cant be explained by words, he then does massive restrictions like damage on the Azure king and forces a timeout

Anias: tch owie alr timeout , how are both of you dealing damage where the ether arena is summoned both of you should've wait.

Vis then forces his blade of reframes into auras blade to transform it into the blade of dignity the psychblade needed to force his mind to see it.

Vis: ITS TIME TO MAKE IT FAIR ITS DONE AUGEN!!!!!!!!!!

The azureking with a keen mind and eye on vis then changes his plan and uses the lazur mist to put aura into a dream like state and takes the soul before he goes to complete the next part of the path

AzureKing: I would advise for you to give it up but you have your own arrogant levels of a boss to deal with would you

Vis: tch NO why do it to aura, give her soul back DAMN IT.....

Vis then looks and sees what's happening and tries to boomerang the aura blade to attack,

Vis: COME BACK, COWARD YOU WONT FIGHT , WHO DOES THAT , WHY TAKE HER WILL AWAY , GET BACK HERE.

AzureKing: good riddance

Vis, knowing the circumstance, then takes both the blades and chases for the first time not for himself but to help someone in dire need

Vis then dashes, and by bad timing, he misses

Sogo: dude you okay?.....aura

Vis then couches down , defeated he feels like he failed

Vis: why WHY did he do it , i lost her,.....no not again.....I want to get them back,

Sogo then sees his strong will for the 1st time something that he finally respects to a pure reason

Sogo: just chill , take the L

Vis , and sogo , then confront Anias as the Mister

Joker. Anias is then cornered in what is called karma

Anias: Oh come on, what did I do? Come on, it was just fun and games

Sogo then shoves anias into the wall as he wants a true payback on what has happened in the field in play.

Sogo: Oh NAH NAH WE're gonna revisit every fraudulent goof but action ya did, and im here to reason in it.....

Vis then looks and says.

Vis: Alr anias just tell us how the other maidens can be healed up, or in a case woken up

Sogo: Yeah like he said....

Vis then thinks for a bit about this and says.

Vis: You're already knowing this, you wouldn't even need help or the idea to spill it though.

Sogo looks at vis in a question-like way

Sogo: Pfft, he does have the answers, couldn't you tell?

Vis: Yeah but hes also aware of how much power that info has he wouldnt give it for free in that sense. unless we try and

Anias: Im too damaged up, what would i do,

Vis then Ether Chains Anias in a certain way where every abilitiy he tries to do after the recovery will be then edited.

Anias: What is this

Vis: This abilitiy I was crafting on my own as seeing a guy like you spam , impairs on people would make my life a heavy load to carry. so you know what im gonna leash this

Anias:.....so then how will you win, isnt that what you were wanting , to be the victor of many outcomes .

Vis looks at him and just pities,

Vis: Just look at yourself, using spam, aggravating people, and jokes of a 12-year-old, you just didn't move on. Who were you for seeing people like cartoons? Who does that

Vis then imposes strict ether restrictions on Anias.

Anias: Lol, you forgot that this can only stay for so long, as it has a limit to... you're not the only one doing the homework.

Vis:.....Nah, I can manage.....for someone like you to mess up.... wouldn't be worth caring about

The team then returns to the previous doors and sees the rest of the team, all in the same battle-like situations.

Sogo: Bet you dont need to know more of me and whats actually happenening now

Vis: Dude consider the time we have i still freaken hate how close I was to getting that

Sogo then feels somber to a calm extent, knowing he has to explain his own circumstance

Sogo: Then let me help explain something that this azure kingdom was putting up in the works, it's definitely gonna be something to know.....you wouldn't wanna be blind now, would you?

Vis: Go on talk it, were still entering the other areas
Sogo ALr:

Narrator : in the higher planes of existence within the terra plains resides a rare plane where corridors of azure and crimson travel to, There a young man named Sogo Jenso a average Hunter in the field , There his clan hunts the astral ghost infesting areas and livestock .

Sogo: huff huff man I'm freaken tired of doing this is this gonna be it thou

Snow clan Brother: thought you had better endurance man don't be a woos boi keep up

Sogo: man in trying , sigh man

The clans then traverse into an location very close to the corridors where the azure officers and azure clan reside in the area

Snow Clan brother 2: Alright there we hunted the astral ghost now like we asked our rations for the agreement,

Narrator : both parties then retrieve the items from food to the astral ghost items to the party.

Azure Officer: offer is now complete we will deliver some rations equally to your village , please now leave

Sogo then sees some vision of a shadow flowing through the azure officers hand, he sense and feels the aura and yet it doesn't seem hostile to an degree.

Sogo: they really be using our location like its their own like do they own it !.

Clan Brother 1: you really don't know when to shut your mouth do you just relax, Sogo: pfft do you or any of you know what's going on.

Clan Brother: maybe you should grow up we got a order to do.

The Winter clan Soldiers then return to the camp with the foods needed for the village There Diara Jenso waits for her brothers return Sogo.

Diara Jenso: Sogo omg I'm so glad you still here!,

Sogo looking in a defeated and yearning mood , ignores her sister and goes to his quarters

Diara Jenso: brother wait .

CLan brother then comes in to relax on the mood feels.

Diara Jenso: Xedo did something happen why is Sogo acting so cold?

Xedo Jenso: something happened during the hunt mission that took him for a surprise,

Diara Jenso: what what really happened

Diara knowing Xedo is acting up and she can sniff out the errors

Diara:..... its the ceremony isn't it

Xedo: ... he's going to have to accept it he's given i mean the Winter Elder knew from the eyes Sogo gave.

Sogo in his quarters contemplating about his own existence on why has given such a role lacking of freedom

Sogo: tch i don't want to do this , I wanna travel , do so many things and I'm stuck here as some leader

Sogo looking at the pictures of his friends and loved ones , and remissness all of his memories of those times.

Sogo: why am this important , i just wanna hang with them.....

Suddenly a Blast explodes from the village ,

Scene

Within the azure gates with the snow planes of nix, Someone then tricks the azure officers sense and causes a Aura conflict,

Azure Officers: what am I feel.....rawr,

The azure officers then flow an unseal aura formulation to some extent. The Berskered Officers then Wreak the Havoks of a century

Meanwhile in the Village of the Snow Nix, Sogo sees the attacks happen there he takes those choices.

Sogo: how in the Xedo bro whats going on.

Xedo: Typical they be doing this at this time , rest in piece our peace, Yo Sogo we gotta equip meet at the center to confront.

Narrator: Both Sogo and Xedo then Prep and being the defense from the foes being confronted. Sogo equipped with the basic blades while his brother using a spear of souls.

All the clan members then go to the nearest clan evacuation and then all the clan mercs all centered in the center .

Clan member : this is odd to the bone like now at this time

Xedo: Guess Our agreement didn't go as planned and Seeing this fiasco im not sure whats going on with the kings or whatever.

Clan Member : you're going way to far into this thou

Xedo: if only you guys did your history work you would know our sector is a neutral village .

Suddenly the azure officers come in but in a different and yet off mood,

Sogo: What the something's off you see it?

Xedo: Careful their going for an different objective, keep your guard up ill talk to them.

Xedo then comes forth and talks in a gesture of knowing the situation at hand,

Xedo: Your Truce mustn't have been broken from what our elder and the azure king was signed, seeing this what's your call.

Xedo gives a look that something is sketchy, and an aura of shadows flows, making the area more intense and rigid.

Azure Officer: Well, our orders were to control the area to help benefit your village and help secure safety for your area, and the gate transports were secured.

Xedo looks skeptical, then sees the azure officers holding something ominous, then Xedo gives the Clan and Sogo the queue to counter when ready.

All of a sudden, one of the azure wolves then attacks one of their own azure officers.

Xedo is in shock, then reacts in a typical way. The aura conflicted officers then use the situation to cause the battle .

Xedo and the controlled azure officers then clash in battle. There, the clan mercs then circle around themselves and are cornered in the middle. Sogo, Xedo, and other Snow mercenaries then emit a Snow Aura-like stature, allowing control over the battle.

Sogo: Xedo what are you???

Xedo: just watch your seeing how they are not themselves looks even their eyes changed,

Sogo: you're kidding me !

Hence the Invasion like Attack commences.

Scene

The dark infused azure officers in a trance state then attack the snow knights

Swings over swings the Clans defend the remaining parts of the village as the azure officers in a controlled state emit an aura field there the clans

are stuck in a uneasing feeling

Clan Member 1: why am i feeling so slow

Xedo: Damn right at this moment.....! Vis get to dia and the others you gotta take them somewhere away from here

Sogo: No, I can't, brother. I leave then....

Xedo: Just go, we can take care of this. You gotta warn them before it's too late!

Sogo unwillingly listens and leaves to the safety area there he runs in speed to reach the shrine of snow like astral statues,

Diara sees Sogo and runs to Sogo worried of what is going on to some extent

Diara: What happened!

Sogo: we gotta run tell our family to leave we cant stay here

Diara; We cant the area is already infested already , what should we.

Sogo:..... crap

Sogo then looks at the blade enshrined in the temple and sense a flow of snow like aura covered in onyx like color

Diara: Are you dense ! you cant control that ! are you

Sogo: At this points I got no other chance if I can control It Ill be able to defuse what going on over there Alright tell The others and family to go

Diara: that's suicide please don't do it!!!!

Sogo being innate stubborn to an extent, then takes the sword and the immense regret and will flows , the blade manifests a aura so strong sogo hand and arm almost in a quick manifestation becomes fused with sogo as the wielder

Sogo: arrgh damn of astral beings of snow lend me this one time please!

The blade then slowly chains the wielder with the seals of nix into the user.

Diara:

Sogo: I can do this tch this pain,....

Hence Sogo then returns back to the Battlefield in a controlled cursed state.

Scene

Meanwhile in the Village battle ground

Xedo: damn they just keep hitting us, damn

Azure Officer: release the master beasts of azure.

The azure beast then summon from the corrupt azure officers hands then manifest from the azure aura flow in controlled form.

Xedo: you cant be serious oh shiz

The azure beast then goes full frontal into the field and attacks some of the clan warriors

Immensely attacked the beast chains up the clans in a aura restriction, damaging the morale leaving only Xedo in the field to attack

Xedo : Tch i got no other choice,

Narrator: all of a sudden Sogo and the rest of the mercenaries clan come in to help defend the area, With Sogo running with the blade like a surfboard and jumping swinging the blade like a brave boy.

Sogo in a eclectic jump somersaults the azure foes and denigrates one of the azure beasts intimidating the foes, Sogos infused blade is then resonating with the Sogo allowing the fieldsw morality to change , Xedo and many of the other clan members are awed and astonished, Sogo then quickly converses with his brother.

Xedo: you are a dumbass thought i told you to be put,

Sogo: like i had no other choice bro, at least i got this thou

Xedo looking at the blade infused in Xedo couldnt believe sogo took the chance to do.

Xedo: You gotta be kidding me tch alr if you got the skill lets beat them.

Sogo: right behind you my brother in soul.

Both Sogo , Xedo and the other members all calmly use a stance , hence the azure controlled officers then walk menacingly not even in control.

Sogo and Xedo then walk calmly waiting for the moment to strike, suddenly the azure officers take the strike to the next level.

Sogo and Xedo Block the attacks and uses the snow aura like force to engage the blade.

Sogo: Man i didn't think it would be this easy to control dang im unstoppable

Xedo: Don't let the cockiness over confidence lose you , watch.

Xedo then unleashes a aura ability to form a aura restrict on the azure officers, In a quick furry , xedo then flashes the blade and aura steps in quick form to take the aura form in a aura like burst run, The azure officers flinched not reacting in time are restricted in control's

Sogo: Alright my time to take the stakes , Blade of Chained Devastation lend me the flow of power

Scene:

The battle then intensifies to an element of degrees to an extent of leveled comprehension,

There in the battle of snow, Sogo then releases the blade devastation point for hence he saw.

Sogo: Blade of Nido lend me this chance, rising strike haaaah!

Sogo within Flow then enables the pact of the nido chained blade to resurrect the blade of devastations original form in the state of limitation,

Sogo then swings the blade towards the controlled azure officers and controls the playing field

Sogo: Yes got my chance, alright gotta beat them for what they did , I wont let my clan fall like this to them.

Xedo: focus dumbass

Both Xedo and Sogo then stances their planes and attack slowly knowing the azure officers are watching's like hawks.

Sogo then feels the blade infused and allows a controlled flow of immense aura

Sogo: Wha im feeling it alright ill do it , i got no other choice

Xedo: wait !!!!!!!

Sogo: HAAAAAAAAAH

Sogo then jumps with the infused aura blade and rides the blade and surfs and thus he swings the blade and a essence of limited aura destroys the azure officers actions,

Sogo: hufff hufff , ah yea im feel supreme like holy shizzz

Xedo: sigh , you never learn do you ,

Both sogo and Xedo then attack on both sides with swift aura and flows like the surfs of knight they be.

The Azure officers then slowly return back to their senses, but in the state they are disabled from the field.

The azure aura then manifests an flow that stick into Sogos armed blade of chained devastation

Sogo: wait what gahhh!!!!

Sogo then feels the un controllable flow azure aura stuck in the nido chained blade aura grasp

Xedo: its happening

Sogo: what is this i cant even gah

The azure curse is then seeped into the enchained blade and hence the blade is limited to its basic form raised the blade weight strengthen

Sogo: what's going on

Xedo: damn not now..... Sogo

Xedo then uses a temporary aura barrier that blocks Sogo from the field in play, there Sogo can't interfere

Sogo: no..... Xedo!?!?!?!?

Xedo: you gotta live, now go

Xedo then uses a elite item of the one time verse
teleports and teleports Xedo back to the village

Xedo: Guess that my only one left tch!

Sogo is then teleported back to the village in a cursed up state the blade restricted and curse burning,

Scene

Sogo is then transported back from the limited spell back to the area, there he meets the last remaining members of the Sogos snow clan,

Sogo: crap why did he do that,

Narrator: confused he then tries to feel his skin holding the blade

Sogo: what is this, i thought,

Daira: What Happened to them and what's going on

Sogo: this can't be happening i can't go back to the field,

Daira: Xedo why,..... he must've have known

Sogo: oh how do you know that he really brought me here out of spite, crap

Daira: Your arm its

Sogo: crap I cant take it off what kind of blade is this.

Snowclan Elder: its an blade you shoudnt have activated,

Sogo: at this situation , who else wouldve done it.

SnowClan Elder , the blade its self was enshrined to that temple to control the aura field around this village, I wasnt meant to choose its next successor , yet you have took it to this extent.

Sogo:..... so im cursed i have to keep this with me .

Daira: Ive heard a tale about this predicament, Xedo told me about how a man reckless yet brave enough to hardness the prowess ,

Sogo: no you dont mean.

Daira: its technically a prophecy in some form im not sure what it is but xedo knew that was going to happen thats why he wanted you safe.

Sogo:..... the prophecy of mass destruction or the path of forged fates, I remember thats the tale of 2 branches,

Daira: sniff im going to miss you,

SnowClan Elder: its been done , Sogo for what has happened in this predicament youll have to chose what to do next,

Sogo: what about this village and us

Snowclan elder: we'll have to see to it that those options are available, now go Sogo of the controller of devastation,

Sogo: no..... why!

Suddenly the other snowclan members then kindly give the brightest smiles and now tell sogo to leave,

Snow clan member: you got this, we can take care of it from here, Sogo its been awesome hanging with you but its time,

Sogo:.....sniff alright ill go, i guess im old enough to do so.

narrator: hence sogo then leaves the snowclan in confidence that things should go to what is.

Narrator: Sogo now forced out from the village for taking the sword in embedded cause is then placed into the full wild zone of terra. there he thinks for a moment on quick adaptation

Sogo: damn i just broke myself, ... im all alone now..... fine

Sogo then looks at the blade like artifact knowing he did to himself knowing he has to carry's the mental weight of harnessing this.

Sogo:..... its those azure men..... i dont know oh being of snow what should I do, I plea but im not strong enough to understand.

Narrator: the plea doesn't work and given the silence, Sogo then realizes this is something he has to do for himself. Sogo then seeing the azure like explosions outside the area of the village then has to move on knowing his brother was trying to save him from it.

Sogo: what should I do

Sogo then realizes and starts to go into a survival like state and then monologues

Sogo: The azure forces gotta pay back for their own arrogance ill force it ,

Sogo trying to walk in the snow then goes to a tired state from the winter like coldness falling and then goes into a sleep like state.

3 days later he is then awoken into a small little cabin of some sort.

Sogo: I feel warm , ... where am i thou

?????: letting yourself there wouldve killed you in frost your lucky ive kepted you warm thou.

Sogo: You could introduce yourself , because im not takin flack from those who dont.

?????: typical im a sole cabin hermit that sees the world of snow in a much different sense, Your in no good shape to confront any of the mistakes that are happening

Sogo:.....tch i know its this thing I chose to keep, I regret not knowing what I did. Might be the reason why my brother saved me thou, damn

?????: dont hurt yourself over what happened, take time on it.

Sogo: So Old Fart , Im given no guidelines or options on what to do and im stuck with a black brick that doesnt do what I wants me to do.

????: Would make sense since this kind of blade aura tend to choose stubborn fools like you

Sogo: Tch ya think im that iron headed ive been through things with my clan members and experienced enough to counter what makes me stubborn,

????: your ego for one , 2 you ignorance of holding an artifact like a jackass, 3 your predictiment, young fool oh how you are.

Sogo:.....damn

????: Do you need an answer or can my words tell what it is.

Sogo: freaken mysterious old fart you tell me, what would i know , and why take me in your cabin , it makes no sense.

????: Quiet its Turning into Night time , You should already know that by now ,

Sogo:.....yeah I know, I keep forgetting im already outside the zone now.

The ???? then send over the letter of the azurekings alliance with the snow clan.

Sogo:.....this? No, that part of the clan doesn't deal with these kinds of things, my elders told me

????: Look around you, the mind was playing a trick, and you fell. The ice kingdom has now changed and uses specific things to control your so-called village. The ice kingdom has now become a part of the azure kingdoms reign your clann has been blinded with the news,

Sogo: tch, then what am I supposed to do now.....
.....im stuck here what could i do.

?????: Then learn.....what self worth or value do you have Sogo:.....i dont know.....what did you mean by that.

?????: theres another village with some like known people you can talk to , that Is all i can do for you once you heal up you can go.

Sogo: Why would I freaken believe you on this,.....
.....never mind like i have any other choice

* * *

The night time goes and Sogo then goes into the snow plains and travels by his own , clothed and with his soul like blade of a partner, stuck with this, he ignores his own stupidity for now and walks.

Sogo then sees the village and sees one of the Azure Mercenaries in the village for hence his name is called Alex

ALex: oh

Sogo: out of the way im trying to find the one that tried to mess up my village

ALex then stops sogo from going any further as the area is currently restricted for only the azure mercs to enter.

Alex: Hold your horses, this field is only meant for those who are engaged in a meeting of some sort.

Sogo: Whatever... your officers did this, and I want an answer behind this.

Alex then aura fields in a force to stop Sogo's stubbornness in the field.

Alex: sigh, this is definitely a hot, heated one built with a fire cracker on his eyes though

Sogo: GET OUT OF MY WAY

Alex : then aura tames sogo and tells him to calm it.

Alex: Theres a meeting going on, and you wouldnt want to mess up with them..... what value would you present to them.....

Sogo:.....this again who cares,

Alex: There are 2 specific high elites from both kingdoms trying to make an agreement on the moderation of the locations and castles at hand.

Alex then sees the area change as 2 strong forces are in an interesting engagement to some capacity.

Sogo: Whatever im better than that.....

Alex then sees his wounded state and a blade that is powerful yet cursed like a lantern.

Alex: The ice kingdom is looking for those who have your specific style, why not join.....

Sogo: Hmmpf why would I , they always try and bring people who are stupid enough people with such high egos that they think they can challenge the world, they think they are god, then they enlist and pay

Alex: Just like how you're talking, you're attitude definitely display what you just said.

Sogo: That was never the point I wasnt.....wait was it.....no that cant be it thats

Alex: The combat operations forces in the ice kingdom always eye out people like you, because of the defiance in some tangible extent., that rebellious state is what they want to control and abuse to make you feel the loss of value to that extent, for me to say this you should be glad I told this.....

alex then calmly tones the combat

Alex: the more you do this the more ill have to report this to the higher ups, do what you wish...

Sogo annoyed and angst up then tries to strike and thus hes taught a lesson

Alex: Calm it.....ill be bringing you to the ice kingdoms officers to give you a lesson

* * *

In the dream castle, planes in the present time

Vis: Dude, seriously?

Sogo: Lol it's always like that,.....i had to face it

Both Vis and Sogo bring Anias in an Ether-like chained state, and work with Divu on what's currently going on Divu: You let him go?

Vis: It's nothing, where's the guy Tartus

Divu: The dude just disappeared without a trace in my part, I couldn't hold him that long

Vis looks and tell the team to go back

Vis: I guess we dont have alot of time on this lets go to the other floor.

Divu: Is Aura

Vis:.....just move on

They then encounter Malik, ANeria, and Lucy, all combating and in a stalling stance Vis then cancels Lucy's attacks as he can now see the abilities from that side.

Lucy: sigh and there he is

* * *

The Azure King then holds the aura's soul and body with him in separate ways. He starts to see a faint image of vis close to them, but the king brushes it off as nothing of importance

AzureKing: Must be a faint of my imagination.....

The Azure King then starts to plan out the stage as he commences the rebirth process to bring his lover back in the sync.

AzureKing: I will do my duty to make this right.....

..to bring back the original time,

The azure kings armor then transforms into its original form an ultimate form of some sort. His armor clear and white as snow, his mask changed to a king of magicite of a dog.

* * *

The team then thinks for a bit on what is currently happening in the system at hand.

Vis: Why would this witch be here thou, she got alot of nerve

Malik: Just relax it, was just thinking about this

Malik then hands over the notes hes gotten from anias , lucy , and the azure king

Lucy still in a Azure like trapped situation from maliks aura capsule form skill then looks

Lucy: Gasp how

Malik: Whenever the king was doing his work , I was able to get some evidence on whats been processed funny enough my own records were placed in such a predicament

Sogo: Wait during the academic training,.....oh shiz I remember that too..... you mean the deans decisions

Vis: Whatever,.....dude our times kinda being taken like tokens , we need to gain some points.

Sogo: Dude just take a breather, thought you could joke for a bit

Vis: Alr

Malik: The reports seem to make sense , but when I searched up the audit, it was a completely different story, dude. Let me tell it

* * *

Malik then tells his point of the views as a proctor in the academic setting

Malik hangs with sido , anias, and alex, as they hang around finishing the academic essay prompts for the blade cadets to read on, sido to also to be known as the Azure King in disguise then commences

Anias: dude you replaced that term for that term dude. nah thats kinda cold

Sido: for lights sake, Malik, i said to talk about the current event and specific battle sports not this gibberish chicken scratch about surfing with the sharks

Anias: Yo Malik , you gonna take that from the proctors?

Malik then looks at the Proctors and Sido to make him fully aware of the situation they are all in.

Malik: So what boss?

Sido: What do you mean, so what? It needs to be detailed and concise on the events for the academic calendar. Each event has to be specific to the classes sports skills on combat. Surf Sharking aint one of them, It has to be..... Blades spor.....

Malik: Chief, you said it was to be very descriptive, couldn't you tell, I was trying not to make it boring so that the kids don't end up sleeping their eyes out on this. Come on there wouldnt be a difference if there it was just about beaches and surfing , didnt you remember the kids looking up dazed like they be smoking.....

Sido: God dang, it always you trying to do it your own way , its so freaken upside down!.... No wonder you're gonna keep this limited rank of yours,..... what a waste.....

Malik: Its either keep the kids engaged, or we look like the joke on the azure side..... you call of turns boss

Sido: sigh, let me take it.....

Alex: just cool it , the prompts from us needs to be developed with precise understanding, arguing puts us in a space where we dont go any where.

Anias: And here we go again

* * *

Sogo: So that's why all of the academic reports were being revised on their part.....lol the surf essays were kind of the best to vibe out to.

Vis: You being a reader? You always looked like the guy who just did whatever,

Sogo: Lol, I know how to read, dude.

Malik then shows the parts where Lucy was planning

Lucy looks at them

Malik: It turns out there are more than 3 maidens that are needed to complete the king's reset or to bring back his will

Vis: What!

Sogo: Nah

Everyone looks at the records and starts to see a pattern happening

Sogo: this cant be real

Malik: Theres another opposition force that doesnt reside with good or evil, yo vis , i know you got that

Vis looks at them and then sees what's happening. Vis then looks at lucy and starts to tell shes the one who knew the other being's plans

Vis: If someone were to guess, She might be someone of interest who has read enough on simple children's books

Sogo: Bro what are you

Malik: So a person that understands a tale like prophecy.....so she does know

The team looks at Lucy and starts to tell why she hasn't done the final blow on the team at hand

Vis: So it wasn't stalling she was doing, it was research she was planning, didn't even need a book because she knew it would be tracked

Lucy: Well, well, so the mentally inept thinking mutt does know some trick, I never would've guessed

Malik: So it does confirm it,.....the king must have had other records on other higher ups in the system

Sogo: scary

Vis : then looks at lucy and tries to understand the situation that is currently going on

Vis: Its almost as if she was expecting us to get answers by obligating ourselves to her game of plays,... ..wait or even an agreement to attend a battle like a colosseum event

Lucy looks and feels silent her face blank, shes knows she cant hold the truth much longer

Lucy: Oh so thats how it is , go on , move alongside me , ill just leave like anyone else would.....

Malik: then changes the plan knowing the area they are at isnt actually secured in security

Malik: Nah , Go on Lucy tell us

Lucy: Why thank you,.....theres a reason why I didnt go all out on my such dreamy attacks, your king is expecting us to attend and fight in a "higher " version of the colooseum

Sogo: you mean theres an even higher plane than this

Vis: Make sense since the ether like watchers

also understand this is an act from a corrlative standpoint

Malik: Good were both on the same page.....
....we dont have alot of time or choices now, vis

Vis: Lucy.....If we agree to do this you have to guareentee that we will be visited by the kings themselves

Lucy: aww gladly,..... You “definitely” have a lot in store for us

Lucy giving such a face where even vis knows ,its facteted to a funny way.

Lucy: Let me guide you to the door at hand. Many are expecting to see an experience you won't forget.

The team then enters the door lucy is accessing into the system at hand, alongside a ether chained up anias giving the most goofy faces like a city joker of many intents.

The team then enter the verser into the higher ranks system

* * *

The team is then engaged in the verse of the upper colosseum, a version of the higher ranks' ideal take on entertainment. Everyone is then given a questionnaire about each person's take on ideal concepts and ideas about the events and elements of the colosseum. In a separate room, they are then assessed on how to make the combat have a distinct reason to meet the expectations of the higher-ups in the planes themselves.

* * *

In the dream castle plane

Ater in the ether debuff chamber is then unlocked by the crimson king

Ater : I have delivered the right elements to vis now. Could we consider allocating more time to develop the collaborator Vis? He has considered some new abilities acquired from the exchanges.

CrimsonKing: In due time....., he's already forcing a fate only one knows from his soul

Ater: you could've stopped this situation from happening, if you wanted another possibility, and thus im glad to play along, this drives the potential to that level, is what you were informing? My king

CrimsonKing: All will come and see, and I'll see my reasons,

Ater: we get our own dreams, boss, our own reasons and wants, it begins the next session of acts in the form of plays.

Anias in the ether chains then thinks within his goofy and crafty mind

Anias monologues

Anias: ill use a term like detector, or artistic, to put power over that person when im gonna make them feel either powerful or spooked, as in a way to make them play to my hands, for hence it's a compliment, but I'll say it to Make them feel misinterpreted and make them feel changed, like they feel like an object or have power to make them feel it, get them high from it... and they become too aware and transform all according to my goof as plan, big boi times

In the upper colosseum, vis is then interviewed about the fighting event and is asked questions about his well-being and adaptive understandings.

Ether Interviewer: Tell us a little about yourself and how you feel

Vis: just kinda tired of it, I just want the things to get better to that capacity

Ether: so you see it as a translation

Vis: of course not, ...I wanna see this happen where the truth resides.

Ether: ooo juicy details indeed, so so sure have an element of surprise, and you also deliver You Care?

Vis: I just wanna clean this situation.....

The other team members are then interviewed on their viewpoints

Malik: I believe that there will be justification on why we were all placed in this suffering, we just don't deserve it, it's gotta be fair

Aneria: Deep inside, I was jealous of Aura, her time with Vis, sigh, I wanted that, it makes me want more of him, yet he's who he is

Sogo: I just wanna get my family back from the king himself

Lucy: Im so wanting the fun to return but I guess I could wait, I just feel a want for a yearning time with my old husband.

Divu: Just wanted to read the book my entire life, but that's what a loser would do,

The team is then placed into the prep hall, where Kai, Ludo, and the colosseum master all reside, allowing a time of skill and practice to happen before they go into the arena at hand.

Kai: Been a while, fam

Vis: Sup

Both Vis and Kai fist pump each other, knowing the bro vibes are still there.

Kai : Dang dude, you definitely got the change, who taught you this calm confidence

Vis: never mind

Kai senses the dudes seriousness from afar and sees his team.

Kai: The organizer of the event is waiting for you guys to get here.

Malik: So this is where the Azure King, and the other kings and elite beings did their practice and combat

Sogo: Dude im sensing all the strength here, its freaken intimidating from all sides.

Ludo: Boss Masta Vis, you got a force unrecognizable in the system. You did see it

Vis: The abilities I got were for a transactional way, the agreement with the Azure King. It was a masterful play by him to justify and take away things that he deems one doesn't deserve

Ludo: You were smart, you planned yourself as well, knowing he can take it, sly as a fox, your attitude and personality have a bigger mindset, something that isn't explained by words, you saved yourself by copying it... skill

Vis then enhances his stance and holds his blade in the horizontal format

Vis: I messed up the last time, whatever the azure king is planning, ill force it....

Aneria: Oh

ANeria then monolouges

ANeria: You're hiding something vis, you know something else is going on

Malik: What are the regulations looking like for the event and processed events

Kai: The events will be held and taken to a considerable form; the kings are here to witness the combat and power being told.

Vis: Wait, the Azure King is here

Ludo: Sherlock, look around you. He's been planning an event to test your actions to his will,

Vis then thinks and says

Vis: I'll listen. I would like to know the situation

Everyone looks as vis then expresses a specific point

Vis: Some have to align to fight our foes, those who have their own decision and will to that capacity.

.....Even Friends

Ludo: they will be fighting in a state of mind, Ive heard that the Azure King is watching and currently doing a process to fullfill something of a sort.

Vis: Unless I awaken the other maidens from their slumber in time

Sogo: Wait, then that could mean

Ludo: the man or agent, Vextor has a secret tool only me and kai knows that can change the system of the Azure Kings' control.

Sogo: shiz,

Malik: So the reset was true, Vextor only worked with the Azure King to make a tool specific to control the Azure King from the other side.....no its meant to Vis: it's meant to calm the king down,.....

.people want their free will back and not to be stuck in an eternal cycle.....

Malik: Who told you this

Vis: another king is also in the plays of time.....

Ludo: You catch on quickly.....the king of crimson is also watching

Colosseum Master: The field we are in is a very neutral zone, many kings expect passive and non-fights for the spectators..... they have agreed to do so, to see the potential unfold

Lucy: I was waiting for you to say that,.....Vis, you sure have so much tact and never say.....what are you thinking

Vis: it's none of your business,.....

Vis sees and thinks, realizing for who he is, he hates ego, and more importantly, having to use one himself.

* * *

The azure king waits as he sees the boy or the man vis very determined, all because of his own belief

AzureKing: The "wild" card does know,.....and so does Gautama, many will stay away from vis as he has become someone that is truly powerful, some don't want to be around him all because of his own chaos,...
..... for those that read the prophetic book, some will see that vis subjective reasoning and encentric knowings of god, will vary his skill, he is who he is some that believe will stay away from someone that was crazy enough to push this.

For hence he's the one that must see it. For this moment of time, my own successor, Vis, has challenged the status, and maybe he wasn't so aimless after all; truly deep inside, he is kind with layers of angst and moods.

* * *

Vis is then chosen to take the 1st challenge in the upper colosseum. There, he phases his blade and trains with the limited time and date given,

Ludo: You ready

Vis: Never late than ever, im locked in.....

Kai: Nice, your team will be placed into a combat bracket in the system at hand, by the way.

Vis: Like they have any other choice,

Vis is then placed into the system, and there the arena changes into a leveled-like system. There, he does not believe his eyes.

Vis:.....the hell.....no this cant be it

Alex: Looks like im back i have no control over my will or even my existence cycle,.....the ultimate will he must save us from what is about to commence.....just stand yourself

Vis:.....tch again I don't want to do this.....

The playing field is then engaged as Alex is reincarnated and returned to the system, and as the azure king sees his fulfillment reached, he starts to see vis

AzureKing: So he's woken up to a different percentage, ah, just like the beginning.

* * *

Sogo is then engaged in the colosseum battle with other levels in the plane, and there he meets his long-older brother Xedo.

Sogo: What, you're here?

Xedo: time be a blistering comet in the nighttime
Its about to begin

* * *

Vis then questions why he would have to fight Alex in his limited resurrected form , he becomes skeptical and conforms to the rules again.

Alex: You almost there, all of your abilities, your sly skill, he knows it and does your friends, everyone

Vis then phases the blade and knows it

Vis: I know that ,

Vis then puts Alex into a forced sleep and puts him to rest, and thus he uses the blade of reframes to calm Alex from the psych mindset.

Vis then looks at the coliseum master and the Azure King

Vis: ALRIGHT, AUGEN IS THIS WHAT YOU WANTED

The king looks and sees Vis's clean mindset, logic, and a will even he is aware of

He then looks at his own daughter, knowing what's going on Azureking: It's so very close, Aura were almost there.

The second phase of the coliseum act is then commenced as vis is then confronted by Tartus

Tartus: Well, well, look what we have here, we have ourselves a rematch from last time. Dont let yourself be fooled by such determination,

Vis: was never a reason to care about,

Vis and Tartus then phase the blades and battle it out, only this time, Vis uses his will with an aura blade like a lance, his reasons now no longer only his but also hers. His grip is stern yet wise; he holds loose yet critical. He is clear-minded in his form.

Tartus:.....I dont believe it,.....you proved me right yet your will say something else.....Dont you want to prove me wrong, PROVE ME WRONG

Vis: Gonna ignore that

Vis then overpowers Tartus into a cornred phase and azure chains the opponent and phases the blades' true skill with auras blades help

Vis: Blade Cleanse Release

Tartus: what are you.....no you wouldn't know...

Vis then for the 1st time uses the blade to puncture the hand of tartus the hand of tartus that has played the events at hand.

Vis: Calm yourself

Tartus: My own allegiance, has no connection over your acts, RESPECT IT!

Vis: heh, talking about stupid allegiance and legalities in a fight its so sorry some ,

it's just a rank, and the age just is what it is.....

Vis then uses the aura cleanse technique that he has trained from the Ether Time Chamber of Remorse

Vis: Thanks, Tartus the boss, for hiddenly intending to allow me to realize it

Tartus: What are you.....its aura... its always her... its always coming about in your own way. She really is your only goal

Vis: Nah..... I just like girls like any average dude in this reality.....Ill finish it in one strike,

Tartus: sigh , and now I cant attack.....im glad you figured me out

Vis: You taught me to give up on breaking that fate.....and in due term I was able to forge my own.....I just couldn't do it on my own.

Vis then shows his blade.....

Vis: The moment you fought against me, to even the intense moments, you allowed a fight and leniency to challenge me, yet train me.....The Azure king knows this, does he

Tartus:.....Just like he said.....The boy who can see visions, or the one who knew it from the start.....

I forefit.....you win

Tartus then defeats himself, knowing that Vis has learned the lesson both he and Alex were aiming to teach, even from the very start.

Vis: It's time,

Vis then enters the next level of the colosseum, and suddenly Aura's blades show a memory of both Vis and Aura in a time when youth is as impressive as a summer child.

* * *

Aura: I hate waiting this long

Alex: Just take time, vis has some issues he needs to take care of before we process this

The Young Vis then comes from the assessment he did to acquire his fighting abilities in that concept Vis: Im here.....

Aura: hmp.....sigh were so much out of time we have to quicken this

Alex: Alright, just take time to prep your recording sheets.

Both Vis and Aura then test their own skill against each other, both with special, specific elements within each other.

Aura: 1,2,3

Vis then deflects the basic attacks, sees Aura and her youth, and reasons in that goal mindset.

Vis: Tch ow,

Aura: sigh boring,..... Alex, we need some more training dummys for me and this dunce to fight

Vis: Im not a dunce,.....who says

Aura: Im talking. Alex, please?

Alex: As you wish.....

Alex then gets the Practice dummies for both vis and Aura to practice to gain their skills of emotional blades.

Vis: This many?

Aura then ignores Vis and Attacks Vis without him realizing the finesse and contrubutiona nd dedica-tion to fighting

Aura: My comprehension of this blade-like fencing is in my own form and pristine elements,..... you're just a illiterate, what words would you ever know

Vis then stances and blades up trying to phase the attacks and then says.

Vis: What are you trying to say, we're fighting, can't you tell already

Aura, with her precision and skill, then uses her talk to distract him and gets him cornered

Aura: Oh my what a surprise , and now who's talking, I've cornreded you and you can't swing your sword because you slipped your handling,.....rushing it.....so mediocre

Vis: Shut.....

Aura: Alex..... he's about to do it, can I get a break now

Vis: The sparring just started. Are you

Aura then puts the blade close to his chest

Aura: Try me....

Vis: Alr fine.....im just beginning.....tch

* * *

The blade session starts the next day , and Aura questions vis in such a way where she calls it.

Aura: your just a guy that thinks your soo good at everything your at ,

Vis: thats freaken dumb, why

Aura: Just your obvious additude, you dont even filter out your talking , couldn't you even know how to treats others right. You never knew good actions

Vis: implying im a gentlemen in this same sparring match, what would you think

Aura: see Alex he's the one that tries to predict whatever im doing by bearing around the bush, its so dumb and annoying, sigh why am still doing this

Vis then blades up and uses his own angst to force his space on to hers.

Vis: gotta be more specific when you wanna focus, that what you trying to imply.

Aura: Shut UP

Aura then flares up and aura blades against the form of vis , over dominating on to vis.

Aura: your a freaken moron for letting me get aggravated like this.

Vis: likewise , was just getting my angst up in the level.

Alex: alr timeout, you both need a breather

Vis: sigh finally

Aura: good

* * *

In the mess hall or break room, Vis is given a lesson on a particular thing she knows he'll need to listen to make her life alot easier in the sparring

Aura : would a person need to learn about toning ones actions of words, or that filter that almost anyone can do.

Vis: i really dont know why you're just that cryptic

Aura: im talking about your lame like loser talking , let me teach you on something

Vis: but why thou

Aura: Why would you say, but why thou or fight me, or im better , or you suck, sigh why not try say "I would consider giving me a test that can enhance both me and you" or say "my progression in this skill is nothing compared to the rest of the teams highly prestigious elements. YOU'RE JUST A CRAZY DOG

Vis: thats just a bunch of jargin, when someone fights or is in a sparring match, talking isn't the use to attack , only the Victor wins when they know the elements.

Aura: always mansplaining , that's all you ever do

Vis then moves and walks to gets some air from what was going on

Aura: sigh.....he's always his ownself acting such in a superior way.

Vis then takes a breather and then thinks

Vis monologues

Vis: wouldnt be surprised if she wanted to punch me, for what im just doing is being simple.

Vis thinks and tries to.be determined in his own way.

Vis: I gotta my own skills she isn't the only one.

The next blade session them starts.

Alex then turns the intensity to a higher level ,

Alex: well ill now heat up the oven for you youngsters to play with the dough

Vis: really?

Aura then blades herself and test her skills on Vis.

Aura: obey, ill be using you as my tool and dummy

Vis : its a match, all there is to it.

Alex: for this session ,well be doing an practice of telling each other's flaws

Vis: wait like insults, we're actually doing this

Alex: its up to you both if you want to do it

Vis: alr, she's full of it , doesn't take jokes, and doesn't want to be messed with

Aura: oh how would you know anything about me , stop harassing me its abuse

Vis: okay how is that abuse when the proctor allowed this

Aura: youre so full of it, nothing going into your mind and messing up when you intend to prove points, your so Egotistical

Vis: oh yeah, then who's the one always asking for retries and corrections on the context of sparring ,you freaken act like a teacher that control the tone and wants to proves everything.

Aura: oh haha like your not also doing it you also teach it yet your not a teacher ,your just a donkey like boss that have control issues from his past and fear the lack of security , you had no control and that makes you desire for power and dominance that's so LAME

Vis: tch you dont freaken know me at all

Aura: dictating others actions to your own freaken will, and disregarding even what im trying to say...
... your a waste of FREAKEN SPACE, where will you ever take input

Vis: STOP, your just mad or something that wasnt even important at all, im just confused.....

Alex then monologues

Alex: I thought so both of them have incompatible

aura emotions and soul waves enraged if they keep this up, it might be damage

Alex then stops both of them knowing they need to start acting a little better

Alex: sessions over give yourselves some space.

Both vis and Aura walk out in different ways.

Aura: arrogant

Aura then monologues: what is making me irritated about him, what did he do

He's so shitty.....

Months after both vis and Aura try and spar again only this time they are both acting awkward, both silent ,Aura , and Vis feeling all flustered

Vis: Alex do we have to do this

Alex: where would your road take if no one teaches the obstacles needed to handle it now think for a bit

Vis thinks and sees Aura,

Vis: She's thinks im crazy dog, who says such a low and derogatory slur like that its slander

Alex: you sure now tell me, and just think for a bit, does she really hate you

Vis: i dont know, I just dont understand , I was trying to help but this happened , who was I

Alex: Aura are you listening, Vis has learned something crazy in his way, wouldn't you think he's just confused

Aura: this is embarrassing why do I have to do this

Alex: i want both of you to acknowledge the mistake of what you both blindly presumed can you both do that,

Vis: why

Alex: Just part of the practice , this wouldn't be hard to do, vis I know you

You wouldn't chicken out over such a simple thing.

Vis grows silent and tells his reasoning

Vis: the reason she called me a crazy dog was because I bit the hand by talking and disobeying, I disregarded what she said and implied my point as right, when I was just stupid.

.. alright Alex is that what you wanted me to say.

Alex: you forgot you were wanting to fulfill your will to make things fair, so how can you be fair if you give her a chance to express what she says

Aura: that's right loser

Vis then looks at both of them and then himself

Vis: i really took every situation as serious as a grown up when it's so childish to care about

Alex: so then how do you change,

Vis: I have to handle it, but what would I know, what's my own self value or self respect.....wait

Alex: your subconscious was trying to cry for you to wake that part up, what you did before was just you being stubborn, being determined will make their reason the highest and block all kind of clear reasoning from other hence a boss dictates others actions yet never sees inputs from people, are you blind.

Aura: im so right about this, what did I do you, uugh does my father have to teach you another lesson.....

Vis then sees and realizes the actions but for how young he is at a teen age he know his angst and determination, and trying to act to let it go is a layer of many complexities

Vis: I just don't really know,

Alex: your actions will determine that, hence I've asked both of you to determine the levels

Vis : for what

Alex: You'll eventually understand

Alex monologues

Alex: Vis you have the soul of endo the smartest user amongst anyone I've known, if I want you to get back your memories , it will be a time way after I die, before that happens im gonna job you hard and understand why the azure king chose you amongst anyone.

The months go by and vis and aura then engage in higher states of combat both of them within sync of their own abilities in skill.

Aura: Huff Huff, where's the precise control of your use

Vis: Im trying to get back to it, its freaken hard to keep this up

Alex then sees the progression and starts to remember Vis's skills in similarity to Endo's blade control

Alex: Crazy, he's already gaining back one of Endo's previous moves from last time.

* * *

In the break room, both aura and vis then talk for a bit, both quiet and kinda conflicted from the lack of controlling themselves,

Vis: Sorry.....about that.....even from the beginning, when I was trying to spar, I just had a clear direction but just didn't see things....

Aura: Moron..... its fine

Vis: That necklace thou, its glimmering, so ancient yet so pristine.....

Aura:.....oh this..... its one of my mothers amulets, I wear it to keep her memories alive.....

Vis: so shes..... never mind I dont want to but in to something that too intense

Aura: whatever.....why are you trying to get close to me

Vis: wasnt trying to.....just wanted to be a friend that can take account

Aura:.....oh

Vis: Its kinda my fault, me trying to take a situation like this so lightly or even that chasing element its pathetic, So thanks for ffixing me up.....

Aura: What would you kno.....

Vis: You're brighter than me, that's for sure,.....
...im always kinda low in that pity state

Vis then looks at his blade and phrases his words into

Vis: A kid like me to use this blade like that, it's so lame..... but even me saying now im just that young

Aura: Stop embarrassing yourself.....sigh, do you know how to shut your trap

Vis: Couldn't help myself.

* * *

Vis then enters the next layer of the upper colosseum, there he meets Adonis, as both Vis and Adonis do an intense magicite-bladed match for the 3rd time in a row.

Vis: Again?

Adonis: Guess Again..... our own reasons you got yours?

Vis: Wasn't needed to fight, my own goals aren't my own completely,

Adonis: Heh, so you lost your ego, you're doing for her.....

Vis then stands up and blades up

Vis: Wasn't it obvious

Adonis: Lol, the last time you tried to flail your neurodivergent hands, you almost fell for it. If you had gone and defeated me, going in blind, the king of azure would've locked you up for good

Vis: brother, the time's almost up.

Adonis: So, are you game? , or are you just the main tutorial for this reality

Vis and Adonis then clash as the elements get intensified to a level beyond.

Adonis: Just like last time

* * *

The Azureking then intensifies the damage of the scene of the upper colosseum the phases changes.

Adonis: yo Vis you feel it

Vis: now?

Adonis: just act it out the king is gonna spook something up

Vis then senses the field isn't going to be as easy as last time to handle.

Both Vis and Adonis both understand that one of them has to fulfill the wish from their father, knowing that Adonis knows what he has to do

Adonis: Thanks

Vis not realizing that he's about to put Adonis into an eternal sleep of some sort.

Vis: NO BROTHER!

Adonis: You definitely make a good other archetype.

The battle is then finished as Vis is the victor, yet Adonis

Vis: TCH

Vis then enters the next gate as the rest of the team joins

Malik: Nice

Vis: The next gate will probably be a lot harder to go through with all of us,

Sogo: You gonna do it alone

Vis: What else is there or the option I got to do this

Lucy: The king of azure is awaiting for you to foresee this,

Vis then looks around and sees that he needs to return to a certain place

Vis: Vextor, so he has the answers this whole time

Malik: Really thou

Vis then looks at his blades and starts to sense it out.

Vis:.....Alright ill go on Vis then teleports into the formed sense and thus sees vextor waiting for him in such a expecting way... very intentional.

Vextor: There he is, always obedient like they all say

Vis : Never worth caring about

Vis then stands up and blades against Vextor in that high capacity,

Vis: So you're the one that has the other maidens, its to obivious, and the king's mind, you actually had his reasoning of purity from the start, your concealing all of the kings will, its no wonder you did this

Vextor then monologues

Vextor: How does he know this.....extreme

Vextor then counters Vis abilities by phasing the attacking with more control, both Vis and Vextor are in a neutral standstill.

Vextor: Forgot your language, boy?

Vis: its no wonder you and Augen were pals

Vextor: You also forgot Augen had another name, Sido was it ?, You already know if you try to break fate at this point in time, It will not work to that extent.

Vis: Whatever the cost , im willing to take it, I live in my own reality, not yours

Vis then changes the planes field to his own control, vextor also does the same, only in this case he sees something else from vis that isnt typical Vextor:.....so you did know....

Vis then over fields vextor and to ones dismay vextor then stops the battle and disables all of the abilities from the field in play.

Vis: What why cant I use any of my abilities

Vextor: Because your not dealing with the person you thought it was.....I have many skill and abilities, and withing my plane and field ive taken all of the abilities including mine, This archaic ether deactivation ability is a skill that allows me to restrict without tampering with my aura or soul capacity

Vis: not wanting this, what kind of lecture is that.

Vextor: Im gonna wait and see what you can do now.....I know you can do alot

Vis then thinks and sees the abilities are turned off not taken , he then sees a new way to make new abilities away from the vextor current turning of the abilities

Vextor: What are you crafting.....

Vis: Ill use this one skill, the Aura Reset ability.

Vextor:.....

Vis then resets his aura including all of his aura abilities in the controlled stance, and thus he embedded the skill to vextor as well resetting the current aura levels and abilities status vextor: I so knew , you had a mindset as smart as endo, for even I couldnt even read him nor even yourself.....

Vis: God is a term, but beyond that ,.....were only human or beings to that extent. Words are just Words.

Vis then uses his reframe blade and Aura Lance like blade to cancel and chain up vextor for a limited time.

Vextor: Its always getting easy for you isnt it.

Vis: Go Ask YOUR SELF THAT, vextor is then put to sleep as vextors current abilities are restricted so does vis own abilities,

Vis: THERE should be a time limit on my abilities being turned off for the moment, I just gotta wait.

Vextor: an Asian Christian, or is he a Norse warrior from before

Vis then senses the connection
And uses the ability to trace his aura phase ghost that was formed with the Azure King's space

Vis: I won't fail

Vis then teleports and uses his phase state to go over the Azure King's boundaries

In the upper colosseum, the Azure King in his highly protected area and zone is then aware of a illusion he's seeing

Augen:.....this

Vis then phases into the illusion phase ghost of vis and thus vis is in the vicinity of the Azure King

Augen: that's impossible,.....

Vis: What's up boss, you forgot the paycheck you gonna write me up.

Both the Azure King and Vis then clash both combatants now equal in strength

Augen: Defiant...

Tch how did you

Vis: Pace it up, like you always said

Both clash their blades and yet both are still calm

Augen: have you ever changed

Vis: Whatever, Let's crazy it up chief aura disable

Augen: not so fast.....

Vis then engages a secondary ability to add

Vis: Aura deflect extention,

Augen in shock does not realize that Vis added another ability to confirm the attack

Vis: your limited you thought I was thinking on a based way..... thats what a Chinese guy would do,

Now your auras limited

Augen: always easy for anyone to do

Vis: you dont know me!

Vis then phases the blade of reframes and slashes the dream slash into augen using the secondary ability the ability that alex showed

Vis: alr

Vis then looks at Auras sleep like state and the Azure Kings grasp of her soul thus he enters the mind of the azure king.

He then enters

He sees all of the memories and this he sees a vision of the azureking waiting for him on the otherside

Augen: I was waiting so long for you to wake up, you know all of these events happen because you let your actions play along

Vis then sees and reminisces his thoughts and emotions almost all of it from what he had to see

Vis: I wanna make a proposition, I want to take your role in this system,

Augen: then wouldn't that be nonsense, its all half baked if you tried to take my role as the king,

Vis: those ideals if given to the right person could heal many moons ,

Augen: so you think your god?

Vis: Never! Thats stupid why would I try to act like that, its just high ego

Augen: in your mindset of a ruler, you'll need alot of more power to overcome the burdens of being a king, why has it that I've done all of these actions

Vis: its was to recalculate even my own battles, I had no control over what I wanted to do. I want my life back, seeing everything like this it makes me sick.

Augen : sigh your only way is to make the choice, its always choice in this illusional like state. You leave or you join

Vis: then ill make my own choice, engage king

Both the Azure king and Vis then enter multiple combative phases in the mind of the azure king.

The moment the king tries to restrict vis from own skills, Vis now a man then plans multile phases of the self to negate the kings attacks, both combatants are in a standstill Vis knowing what he has to do and for what he has learned now creates a new ability to calm the conflict

tions like of alternative realities.

Vis then uses an ability called, The All attributes sacrifice and overall ability that uses the aura ,soul, spirit , and ether capacity to put the users own abilities and the azurekings abilities in a reset like manner, once done the abilities are then sacrificed to negate or rest the opponents abilities all the way to zero. The only ability the user keeps is the ether like edit ability.

The azureking sensing this then tries to stall the playing field, Vis to his own will and calling then puts both of them in to the abilities agreement sense of flow.

Azureking:.....

Vis: you slipped , the moment you left your guard down, and took the break, I was practicing

Azureking: your mind said nothing yet your actions meant way more than that ,

Vis: by doing this, ill end our own abilities and thus our abilities will be rest to the most common flow

Azureking: why not delete me , isn't that what you wanted , all of that justification wanting things to be fair that hate makes sense right?

Vis: for me to relate to that, why use hate its so pathetic, your better off like this,

As Vis is about to rest the abilities, the Azure king then chains auras soul into a risky state, vis seeing this then stalls

AzureKing: remember she's also part of the project, the moment you try and do this there will be no way to bring her soul back,

Vis: theres always a way, when I use this ability, it will rest mine as well

AzureKing: then how will you fight

Vis ignores and does the ability thus the ability puts and agreement in the ability to rest and put into a shutdown of the senses the king is then calmed down and thus vis sees, suddenly auras soul is sensed only this time the king has put a barrier on auras body hence it makes it hard to unlock auras body unless.

Vis: gotta return,

Vis then returns into the upper colosseum and thus his team meets up right on time.

All of the Abilities Vis has is then rested no longer able to be used except one ability, the ether edit, which in some cases is the only ability to survive because of the choice the ability give for hence anyone that masters it sees the origin or abilities use.

Malik: yo you survived

Sogo: Vis being the best boss dude lol

Everyone tries to cheer but realize that somethings off

Malik: I cant sense your flow your skills and abilities, ...did you

Vis: I sacrificed it, in order to put the king into the calmed phase, I had to do it

Lucy sees Aura and Her Soul seperated and sees something peculiar,

Lucy: your lover is trying to tell you something Vis

Vis then scans the place and perceived the area knowing aura is trying to guide him to a plane in levels

Vis: Lucy, what would be a person that control the puppet that controls the puppeteer

Lucy: I dont know what your talking about

Vis: nice anwser , most puppeters end to play basic and naive to deceive the area, you do know who the orchestrator is

Everyone is in shock as this is happening

Vis: the orchestrator was planning this wasnt it

Lucy then stops and slowly smiles and claps her smile very beyond dark and mixed

Lucy: well well the dog finally got hos ears back , he's finally talking like a real human being. What else do you expect from me.

Vis then looks and says.

Vis: why not make a festivities, ask the orchestra- tor whats he's gain from the progress, that what he plans , he doesn't take control away he allows it to happen to use it to its own will

Lucy is then silent and summons a construction door a door that will lead to the soul developer region

Lucy: it is all yours once again, he's expecting you to wake up.

Lucy, Vis , and Aura, and the azure kings slept body then are transfered to the soul developers area and office

Vis : So this is where it all began

Lucy: Just be patient, the orchestrator is waiting for you to handle the session

The door opens, and thus, Vis is given a seat with the orchestrator, someone who is in the most sophisticated suit, yet his face is ever-changing in a digital-like sense

Orchestrator: Please, Please Take A seat. I would like to settle some matters with you on this predicament.

Vis: yeah, there wouldn't be any point fighting, that's what some would say

Orchestrator: Go on tell me more of it

Vis then stops and hands over all of the evidence from , anias , ater , tartus, sogo, aura, lucy, and augen

Vis: Go ahead and look at each part of the pictures , that would be needed for you to access,

The orchestrator stops and looks at each part of the photos, knowing vis didnt took the photos , his other friend must have.

Orchestrator: Ah so you want a justified reason for why you have been placed in such turmoil , that pain and suffering, things that you didnt want to a mess into.....

Vis: Now you have , tell me whats was the point.....

Orchestrator: You amongst anyone mustve known, the moment you got the photos , your friends mustve.....

Vis then thinks for a bit and starts to see his own self and starts to realize the pity of him lacking the understanding of his own psychological self.

Vis: your the one that built up my soul like, this you wanted a test subject that had the potential

Orchestrator: Obvious but stubborn none the less, theres way more than that.....I use my free will, and give free will, yet if they abuse it, I take it away because the betrayl of that trust or reasoning,..... ...is what someone would say, if they werent being watched all the time.

Vis: What are you

Orchestrator: The final chapter is about to be closed and supposedly you want to challenge me to a gambling aspect to gain what you want. Your troubled past, having no control over your circumsatance, so you take control to defy others because you fear, you fear the lack of trust and never saw peace from those they knew it.... You feel you want to be justified, so now you want to roll the dices

Vis: I was insecure, especially on my will, my actions, and my determination was from the insecurity of pain, loss from family, being misinterrpreted and treated and looked around like a pup.

Ill Hand over, myself in that alliegence, if you can return my family and have aura return to her body

The orchestrator knows this and undermines his options

Orchestrator: You think of me as a charity isn't it boy? What time do you actually have?

Vis: If I have to ill surrender my soul to your liking,

The orchestrator then thinks but denies the offer

Orchestrator: No need,.....you seem to have it all figured out you'll have to challenge me to get the role however..... wouldn't that be antagonistic, it's always choice that you want?

The orchestrator suddenly swing and throws a blade to Vis, and thus the blade is then handled and changed with vis ether edit phase of a arm.

Orchestrator: I was so right on the mark, You adapted a old ability and used it on yourseelf, now you can change your ability not in yourself but outside with the items that are used or cherished,.....sigh, all because you had the sight

Vis: Im gonna get all of them back, you hear me,

Orchestrar; my jester, and Lucy come into the area, we have a play session we need to process

A true fight then starts as Vis goes against the orchestrator with his different skill range and set.

Vis then edits the field using his arm infued ether edit ability and clashes with the orchestrators field

Vis and the orchestrator then field their blades and challenge who gets what Orchestrator: Times clicking, All I have to do is just reset all of.....

Vis: SHut UP

Vis then enables protection layers to his soul and aura in the controlled state, from the ether edit abilities, he creates adaptive construction layers to keep his body from being reset

Orchestrator: How did you know.....alr NOW

Lucy and the Jester is then surrendered to their Astral Tool forms and forces the orchestrator to develop a field where almost everything can be blocked , negated , or deleted

Orchestrator: YOUR TURN MY GUY

Vis then senses all of his long lost friends, team, true friends, and Aura, will flowing , Eurlblouleus then joins and so does Alex soul, they stand knowing that being fair in the world of a system means more than the subjection of control, Vis force and control becomes much more powerful

The orchestrator then forces all of its or his own ether deletion abilities all towards Vis forceing a struggle in force and power, the fields then increase

Sogo: What the

Xedo: Dang

Sogo: Brother your still here. What happened, I thought you

Xedo: Theatrics is always a fun thing to do lol

Malik: Damn its so intense , the force coming from both of them.

Aneria: Vis dont lose , Please Promise me

Vis and all of his friends and close ones powers force him to counter , and with Eurobloueus help he then forces the blades he has to transform, aura blade is now the blade of emptathy and truth

Vis: ITS FINISHED,

Vis then dashes and blades through all of the orchestrator's traps and skill, he goes behind the orchestrator's field and just when he does the attack, the orchestrator then does a massive soul destruct

Vis: TCH DAMN

Both the orchestrator and vis are then phased out in low elements, both are then depleted from the fighting, both are strong in their determination and will.

Orchestrator: YOUR STILL ACTUALLY HERE.....
..like a virus or was it

Vis then stands up and rises his blade and forces his soul to recharge from the ether edit, his rage, his emotions, all flowing,.....he then resorts to the other ability construct

Vis: HUFF HUFF IN this one strike, I'll finish it, ITS FINISHED

The Orchestrator then forces himself to guard and thus handle the massive blade blast from Vis, a blast coming from the emotions of aura, soul, spirits,caisa, and the ether coming through him.

Suddenly, the azure king's sleeping body then moves on its own and lifts its arm and phases his ghost around the orchestrator

Orchestrator: WHAAT HOW

Augen Ghost : VIS finish it, use the other ability, the one you know.....the astral soul reset, use your soul as the catalyst

Vis then looks at the situation and thus he uses his soul and thus places his soul bladed strike to a 1000x multiplier.

The orchestrator thus tries to guard and is then overconsumed, and the orchestrator is then taken down.

Vis: Huff Huff.....damn im out

Vis then dropped as he took the opposition out.

The team then comes in only to realize that Vis is about to lose his body connection to his soul

Malik: VIS Hold on were here!

Aneria: Vis oh no

Vis: tch,.....it freaken hurts

Everyone Looks as the orchestrator tries to get up, however the orchestrator is then disabled from his own abilities and use.

Orchestrator: Damn its impossible the king mustve,

Vis after getting healed to some extent, then gets up and faces the orchestrator.

Vis: now your disabeled, and my own abilities are now reset.....you deserved this coming

Vis then gets on the orchestrator's space and takes his control back,

Vis: Huff, it keeps hurting. Now bring her back and my family back, you RAT

Orchestrator: How can I when you took all of my abilities

Vis: Oh no.... we dont have to do that ill get you what you need, player.

Vis then adds an ability to transfer to the Orchestrator by the blade

Vis: your call

The orchestrator refuses to listen but waits and says this

Orchestrator: Alright, you got me by all 4 corners of the globe, but to get them all back , would be possible, youll need a strong soul o f a maiden to bring back your family from that part of the afterlife, or you choose to return her soul back to her body using your skills you can, why would I have an ability that a beyond god being would do.

Vis: Because your the one that messed all of it up

Orchestrator: You have all the control now, you have to think, because I sure wouldn't want to freaken do it, lol

The orchestrator then monologues: You don't have that much of a choice to do this, my powers are limited now, and in this plane you can access that part unless you try it

Vis: My Soul is in a highly engaged state; even if I tried to go to that plane to get them back, it would be pointless. Orchestrator tells it to me

Vis then points the blade to the orchestra, and the orchestrator smiles, then gets more enriched

Orchestrator: They all smiled because they saw you as a blind dog, never as someone as human

Vis: what

Orchestrator: They pitied through kind actions actions to define your basic and low levels, they just saw you as a kid, someone that they cant respect, your nothing to them

Malik: DUDE DONT LISTEN TO HIM HES NOT RIGHT

Vis: Its no wonder you were the orchestrator because you project everything of your bad stuff to a person, you manipulate the person's truths and ideals and say its against a philosophy. You argue in that way, because you couldnt care less of who right or reason. You saw everything as subjects but not humans at all.

Orchestrator: Just like you, so then you kill me know, all of your possabilities will be negated, and without me the world will be controlled by the afterlife kings, cough cough im almost out of time now..... the afterlife kings will make your life a enternal miserable joke of a mess in that hell-like form, so do you want to wake up?

Now Choose, its your family, or its her , you now have to choose now, augens soul , nor my soul will be able to be used as we are too old even lucy her self.

Vis then thinks for a bit and realizes that he can only choose one, he thinks wanting all of them back his original past the times in the old town, playing ball, farming, eating out, the school, or he keeps what he was cherishing this whole time without him even realizing it. for that moment, he matures, he looks at the nighttime sky with red clouds and a moon pure and rich he then feels the tears and quenches his fist in a blade.

Vis: TCH, so I gotta choose

Vis then goes to auras area of which she is internally sleeping, and thus he uses his only technique left from the fight a hidden ability he kept along side the ether edit ability a branch to the ether edit, for hence it is the same ability in the tree.

Vis: Ill now return the soul to her body back,
Ether Soul Transfer release.

Vis uses an ether and soul ability to return the aura's soul to her own body.

Her soul is then returned to the body, and thus she wakes from an eternal sleep of some sort.

Vis: Please Wake up Aura, please.....

And thus, Aura is then woken up from her slumber

in that phased-like state.

In a bygone time in the reset of the souls and auras like time, when the villains and heroes, or even the antagonistic heroes, all reside, they sit in the chambers of waking, and thus they sit at the round table of beyond good and evil.

The wooden god of all herbal and transient flows of terra's will, a being only wanting to be in neutral terms in that reality

The japer being of beyond light and dark, a being that resides in the highest light and close to a spiritual backdoor to manipulations, a powerful being beyond the gods, yet resides in this table to finish a score.

The snow goddess or the snow queen, a mage of all cold powers that reside in the most frigid and powerful forms amongst all.

The goddess of all hearts and red vanity, the love goddess, a goddess that resides with love, yet controls the love in such a way that she manipulates all the yearnings of men and controls them for her love of power

The crimson king: or a soul like monk of cycled souls and form of spirits that is as old as the tale itself, a being that is then forced and thus lets his own hate be used as a tool set to compensate for the chaos that was not meant to be a aura and control of flowsets, a liege of power that was cursed upon him for his own mistakes of being the hero he is then placed into the lowest depths for trying to be the righteous in his own ideology and his own expectations making him turn a wall to a mess that was caused for wanting yet not truly loving himself or those around for that his own fear is what caused his own form to be the king of azure, His own power is beyond all, for hence he sees his past the before past of futures he was once in. His only reason now to do any of this is to prove his point and find the proper use of his abilities to reach the level many were yearning for this whole time, for that is prophecy.

The Azure King: a magicite of a rule, the being of

And The ???? Being the one that waits yet orchestrates all the power to be placed in the right moments, and the right time, a being so hidden that one wouldn't notice it at all.

They then start their usual meeting to plan something that would have been called???

???God: We all have settled into these kid-like chairs for a momentous occasion in the fields. My four sons, of all abilities, will be woken up after this prediction, so speak, or you'll lose your turn.

The wooden god: all ears

Goddess of hearts: ooo this better be juicy, giggle

Azureking: Go ahead

????: Well, we'll be giving these new characters new things to be challenged at in the form of the sets, indeed.

Crimson King: So we gotta make them guess every single time, hah, they will never see it

Azureking: Making them make through their feelings and distress them with their own emotions?

???: a little too oblivious on the count of that. If only a cow could navigate through their own cattle and grass, even if the grass tastes like their own mental ways.

Godess of hearts: Gasp, never would've thought you had those devlish ideals, though.

Suddenly, a new god then emerges at the round table. A goddess of caisa and a sage of ether, then come into the fray.

Goddess of caisa: let me go into the fray, and before we start, we need to clean some of these predicaments before it goes along.

???: We 1st start recording information on all of our pawns and research subjects that will exist. And we imply distinct actions to bait them into their acts, to see if they know their reason and fulfilment.

Ether God: I'll be waiting for the right moment to assess all of these predicaments, and oh my will it be enticing, questions among any or many indeed.

???? God: So, then I'll ask a simple question: Does that person or character need to be so well known to have all those powers or reasons to be justified?

CrimsonKing: A question like that is wack, but genius, you want them to overthink and make anger out of nothing to imply that.

Azure King: There's more.
