VOL 2

Vis walk to the entrance to the colosseum trials there he sees, the compact bazaar shop and sees the work of arts and equipment there. There he sees the previous scarf that was shown with an unusual style. Then it emits a strange aura very luring to the eye.

Vis: strange

Vis then looks past if as if not acknowledging it to some extent.

Vis then approaches the trial master.

Trial Master: so it seems a newcomer has approached the scene what brings you to our vicinity.

Vis: What brings me to this vicinity ,
Well just to train that's all .

Trial master: ah a vague answer coming from a smart man or so it seems.

The trial master then sends a signal to the other trial rogues,

The rogues get the signal and approach the boy.

Rogues : if you got what it takes to enter this trial then prove to us you have the skills to put do us.

Hence the exhibition commences,

Vis is then confronted by the 1st rogue knowing nothing about the stance vis watches his movements.

Vis: if I get close then he can box me out and I'm done for I have to wait it out.

Narrator: Both combatant wait each other out learning their pregame attributes,

Narrator: Vis uses a preemptive style to see what could happen. He does a scrap attack to change the style or the stance of the opponent.

The opponent then does the soul dash to confuse the opponent.

Narrator: Vis then starts to have flashbacks to the scenarios Alex taught him.

Narrator: 3 years 6 months ago

Alex alright that's enough for today man your getting better by the inch my guy.

Vis: pfft I could do better than that ,

Narrator: via holding the aura cube with his hand adapting his own aura to the cube to stabilize a new tech.

All of a sudden the aura cube emits his own style allowing him to emit a Transparent cube like structure to activate .

Vis: lame

Alex: not bad that is a feat of itself transparency of that kind of cube is hard to master.

Vis: your just saying that just to hype me up on this strat. It doesn't even have any affect.

Alex: accept it does look closely.

Vis: wait this aura it traps!

Alex: correct it traps attacks just like mine like I said a hard feat of it self.

Vis: but like you said your sword style traps using circular aura waves. But what does mine do.

Alex: let's test it out.

Alex then hold a soul based summon where he opens up a soul based beam.

Then he directs it to vis.

Now try and use your aura cube on this now you should be capable of something .

Vis: fine try me I can take it.

Narrator: hence the soul beam is directed towards vis.

Vis holding the cube then sees the aura cube net the soul beam emitting a aura blue like light stronger than before.

Narrator: present time

Vis: so if I can't see him then let my aura guide my inner vision.

Narrator: vis then uses his sword as a tool to sense the soul after images emotes by the dash.

Vis: alright I can see now,

Narrator: Vis instinctively grabs his sword again and swipes on the correct timeframe to negate the soul pressure of the opponent's.

Rogue 1: typical you knew this whole time didn't you.

Vis: maybe maybe not.

Rogue 1: you aim is near perfect when it came to the soul negation.

Vis:

Trial Master: looks like you pass you have both the mentality and technique to surpass my rogues.

I'll let you be and allow you access "master"

Narrator: The trial master being sarcastic still gives access to the trials via door.

vis is then given access to the path to access multiple trials. There he sees a board where he sees multiple missions . Vis with his own choices intuitively chooses a simple task .

"Kill the f ranked monsters within 1 minute."

Narrator: Vis seeing the bulletin board activates asks the trial master on the prerequisites

Vis: I'm guessing this event happens commonly for newcomers

Trials master: or old veterans sigh naïveté as always.

Vis: really..... never mind

Trials masters: the prerequisite is enough experience in combat and skill in the sense of the mystic.

Vis: so I have to achieve something else in particular?

Trials master: mystic meaning mastering the complex use of aura and soul forms of attacks .

Vis:.....wait then if I'm guessing correctly this means that.

Trial master: focusing on soul based pressure you must focus. Your not ready at this capacity however your aura prowess has enabled you some capacity to magic. But it won't last unless you go back to your roots.

Vis: dang I thought it would've been a lot easier.
Tch

Vis: then walks in a pissed off calm mood.

Vis walks thinking to himself about the situation.

Vis: what did he mean by the roots, what does he mean by this.

????: maybe roots by all means , is your origins how you react in a basic state.

Vis:!!!! Wait what!

Vis: vis then looks around to see the figure as before cloaked up only this time the person uncloaks himself.

Vis: you're so your here why tell me this about origins . I don't even know your motives.

Narrator: vis then emits a very strong aura to combat the figures pressure, The figure then gives him a pendant overflowing with rare energy unstable.

????: I'm only doing this to tell you to join us we have a desired outcome we would like to accomplish. I shall give this pendant only if you wish to get stronger.

Vis: by the views of your corrupted styles why would I.

Narrator: The Mercenary Vis then attacks the figure using aura projectile swords and traps the figure. The figure then uses a hidden spell towards Vis forehead. Angered he loses control of the aura swords pressure.

????: feisty well my jobs done I now know what your capable of now. My master awaits .

????: the figure then leaves without a trace.

Vis: dang wait what happened to my.....

Narrator: Vis now realizing he may be in deep trouble that now his powers have weakened.

Narrator: Meanwhile at the mysterious figure resting place,

????: ah this is refreshing the boy has gotten a lot stronger

the figure then emits a strong aura hence telling vis that itself is watching him like a hawk.

All of a sudden, the clocked figure is approached by a familiar person.

????2: is he ready

????: possibly I just gave him something to look forward to that's all.

So let see what happens to his potential.

????2: I see you have him that treatment the point where you forced him too....

????: I would like to analyze how he unlocks the potential given in any case.

????2: perfect I'm itching to see how he extends his possibilities.

Narrator: And thus both cloacked figure then approach the gates to a location familiar to vis childhood location.

During the interval of time withing vis discovery of lack of aura within his sigil, Alex then wakes up by someones aid by which is a familiar .

Alex : Ah so it would seem i've been saved by which should I thank you with.

Narrator: Alex eyes still blurry then sees a figure he never wanted to see.

Alex : shit.....

Narrator: alex then evades back seeing the situation being folded up to some extent and tries to circle trap the persons aura. The Person in opposition then cancels using a special fabric enabling a spiritual like pressure combine with souls . The fabric enhances the opposing force and time stops the attack..

Alex.....no.... what do you want ... Umbra

?????: well well you saw through my facade indeed you did. And aww you didnt want to approach.

ALex:.....

Narrator: Alex then takes a long stance trying his best to keep guard with his will intact. Umbra with her outstandish yet slender additude then overcomes alex.

Umbra: dont you remeber all the good times we had all of those times you had to do it. And ohh of course why the king wanted too

ALex looking down trying not to looking at her eyes to be tormented.

Alex: Damn i dont I jsut dont want too. argh

Alex then runs and retreats from the situation at hand

Alex then fails to run and is captured by umbra the witch of okia

Umbra: You were no match at all pathetic , oh well i will use you to my fruition.

At the azure-kings kingdom,

Azure king: hmmm it seems I sense my young prodigy at a cost now.

Narrator: Suddenly Anias comes into the azure kings kingdom by knocking

The azure king then activates the door unlocked,

Azure king : make it quick

Anias: my apologies my humble king , I have brought some news.

Azureking :

Anias: it would seem that Alex your most strongest knight now is captured

By a force I can't even fathom .

Azure king: I see so my strongest piece has now been taken. What shall I do.

Anias: however there are good news to this,

Anias: during the time of Alex training with Vis , from the intel I've uncovered , it seems that vis was able to acquire a bit of thunder aura within his grasp. It's isn't perfect but it's close to being in the highest plane.

Azure king: well it seems that my prodigy has advanced .

Anias: yes my liege

Azure king : now go away from my presence.

Narrator: during the azure king and anias meeting. Aura then sneaks out from the castle to seek a magic tool only she and. The azure king knows .

Aura: my father thinks that I'm nothing but for show, I know my limits and I can break them. Aura then uses the box the solar spirit was embedded in Aura: I'm going to do it now I'm strong.

Narrator: Aura then uses a telekinesis item to decipher where vis is, she realizes that vis is in the colosseum,

Aura realizing this then runs to rai. hiding her foot steps

Rai: well sup Aura how you doing princess.

Aura: don't call me that. Anyways i know where vis is and I need your help.

Rai: oh you got a plan ?

Aura: pfft typical of course I do.

But I need your help

Aura then gives the solar box that was uncovered from the via bedroom.

Rai: this thing..... wait let me see it.

Rai then inspects the solar box, and sees a hidden tag,

Rai:..... Now I understand why the Azure king had this box yet you give it for that reason.

Aura: that's why I need your Aura skills to give the remaining tool to him.

Rai: but by me doing this I'll have to defect In order to do this.

Aura : that's why I'm going with you on this mission and I'll take the blame for this. Im gonna break out. Plus there's something I wanna know about him.

Narrator: Both Rai and Aura agree on that notion that they will help vis on that condition.

Narrator: Meanwhile back at the colosseum trial sector . Vis then sees the location of the event shown in the ticket he has,

Vis: if I'm going to do this then I'm gonna need help but from where...

Narrator: via looks around and then sees a fight happening but not a ordinary fight. It is in fact a mini event where mercenaries test out their strategies. Vis then budes in trying to engage in the watch of the scene.

Vis then sees an opponent with a strange aura and his digit starts to resonate.

Vis: what is this digit trying to tell me....

Vis knowing the circumstances joins in to the fight.

Merc1: who's the new guy

Merc2: seems ordinary nothing much surprising

Vis hearing this then remembers what his mentor taught him

????: oh a new challenger has approached.

The opponent has a head band embedded with symbols and starts to resonate his blade using a strange spiritual like pressure the blade then emits both a calm energy with rage inputted.

Narrator: Vis with his aura pressure limited can only do minimal damage. But knowing this he does many strays.

Vis monologues

Vis:if I can evade his attack then I'm in a advantage. But by attacking I won't have enough aura power to fight him.

Narrator: Vis knowing he has only one thunder use of an attack await the opponents turn of a strategy. And one use of a aura trap.

The opponents uses different varied swipes to just see what he is capable of.

Within those swipes he emits a mini soul beam to missile aim vis

Vis knowing this know to use only one of his aura cube traps to trap the soul aim beam. Vis then adapts and traps the soul beam. Vis successful then is stalemated by the opponents blade .

Vis knowing this adapts the soul beam and deflect the beam right back at the opponent doing some damage.

Both Vis and the opponent then step back and take a stance both knowing the other outcomes.

Merc1: well well I was wrong.

Merc2: looks like he isn't as typical as he seems.

Both Vis and the opponent both tired out then stop

The opponent then puts a truce on the fight.

Vis: why did you stop.....

????: just realized that I've been fighting someone who is handicapped which I'm surprised you caught me off guard . That amount of tech you just did is just low key nasty.

????: anyways the names Kai I'm one the co-founders of the trial masters colosseum stage.

Vis:.....vis's the name

Kai: oh come on that's all your gonna say man loosen up a bit . You just got my respects.

Vis: maybe I'm not sure I should trust you.

Narrator: Kai knowing that vis is looking at his headband in a peculiar then says.

Kai: some say that making friends isn't based on the talking or action . It's based on the intention of what he is aiming for.

Vis: you sure talk a lot

Other mercenaries then start to watch the stand off.

Merc4: shits gonna start happening I can't wait to see this.

Merc3: shh look

Vis then uses his aura blade in a fashion where he is loose knowing the outcome

Kai: just saying that if you want we can stop this battle .

Narrator: Vis then uses his blade and forms a thunder beam curved like a crescent moon. Vis about to attack to get the head band then stops .

Vis: go on.

Kai: we're both aiming for something similar.

Kai then uncovers his left arm

Vis:!!! What in the

Kai in full uncovers his left arm filled with curses and scars given by malicious forces unlike anything before.

Kai: from your play style you plan your strategies since you been limited by curses .

Vis: dang and I thought my curses were worse.

Kai : as a cofounder of the trial master sector, I've seen battles that costed people lively hoods . Some of these people that you will see are varied in these powers .

Vis: I can tell my aura prowess weakened by some kind of. Witch or I don't know.

Kai: then let's make a alliance when the time comes we can resume this battle when both me and you are at its peak. Agreed?

Vis:

Vis and Kai then shake now the opponent Kai now joins vis party .

All of a sudden , the trial master walk damaged by something peculiar.

Both Vis and Kai then walk to the location where the hidden event is being held at to get the scarf with many symbols.

Vis: dang man what a line this is

Kai: pfft I've seen worse for this item in fact so many people try to obtain this item but fail at the last round because of some mysterious circumstances . It actually kind of dumb to be honest I could honestly win that in no time.

Vis: says the guy who trying to get the exact same thing bro .

Kai: sigh

Both vis and Kai enter the bazar hidden door which leads into the under ground stadium filled with all combatants of all tiers itching to get S tier item of all types.

Vis: man talk about lively

Kai: yep this is where it all begins.

Other mercenaries then see Kai and vis for the 1st time and are shook by their presences .

Mercenaries 1: it's them holy man it's them

Mercenaries 2 : the boss himself why In the world is he here.

Mercenaries3: and that new guy how he played was just.....

Vis and Kai knowingly heading this then try their best to emit a calm yet technical energy. One of the mercenaries gives a mean stare, but the vis and Kai ignore with knowing the scenarios.

Kai: alright we're here at the gate. Vis prep alright.

Vis: gotcha.

Vis prepares for the trials of fights he'll have to succeed on.

Kai: alright 2 coop tickets please

Ticket vendor: well well we have the man himself Kai, here you go I'll do it because your VIP along with your friend.

Kai: cool alright let's go Vis.

Vis: Coop wait that means

Kai: yeah this time I'm gonna help you because were friends

Vis: thanks.

Both vis and Kai then enter the compact underground stadium , there the announcer then announces the next coop fight.

Announcer: Here we have the 1st combatants entitled as both Vis and Kai

Vis: alright sounds pretty tight what's out opponents thou.

Kai: you'll see oh you will see.

The battle begins and vis then sees a new monster unlike he has ever seen.

Vis: what !

Kai: see what did I tell ya.

Vis: strange alright I got this.

Kai: sick bro let's begin.

Vis then uses aura steps to calculate the monsters guessing game.

Vis: okay you just surprised me Kai.

Kai: alright you got the strat now let's beat this thing.

Both vis and Kai then steal time and stall to see the situation from happening.

The monster then blows soul flames trying to change the soul field to its advantage.

Vis: crap I'm feeling it

Kai: same here just control it , stall .

Vis: sure.....

Vis then emits a aura like pressure and identifies the weakness.

Vis then goes full frontal and adapts against the monster

Vis then uses the aura fang with controls direction
Vis then makes a ring around the monster

Vis: perfect no I can change how he reacts now.

Hence the field is emitted to close off the soul flames being emitted.

Kai: yooo that's pretty neat now it's my turn I'm gonna go full soul mode.

Kai then emits soul beams from his dagger and does a technical technique .

The monster then gets weakened since the souls beams have went through the being and negates the souls pressure.

Kai: do it bro.

Vis: gotcha .

Vis then goes full frontal and denigrate the monster

Hence round one is finished

Vis: man that just made my brain go numb from that analysis.

Kai: lol of course

The second stage commences .

Within the gateway of the crimson realm, Ater the mercenary for hire in the crimson realm trains in his own Missionary base in the training quarters.

Ater: come in young man

Adonis enters the Ater's zone and tries to talk to Ater in a technical way.

Adonis: Just saw how you practiced It seems so advanced,

Ater: keen eye you have there but it isn't as advanced as it seems my good lad.

Both of them then give space knowing that they are fully aware of the situation at hand.

Ater: its something about that person you have thought about.

Adonis:.....yeah

Ater: no worries i've already head about his progression heck in fact he may be even on a better playing field than me this time. His Azure skills like no other ,

Adonis:.....to be honest, i came to confront a question.

Ater: and that is.

Adonis: How would we as a group of immense pressure be able to recruit him?

Ater: that's a good question, I've already doubled down and confronted him giving him some answers and a mark.

Adonis:!!!!

Narrator: Adonis shocked and fearing this would happen then calms down hearing this news of causation.

Ater: its was nice that you were able to compute a plan on your own knowing what i would say. But no worries Im trying to test that man to the fullest extent. If hes able to he should be able to manifest something .

Adonis:..... wait a prowess like then that means.

Ater: that's right your friend or how should i say it , competitor is turning into a technical .

Adonis: meaning that if he requires this power he should be able to adapt and even,

Ater: control a spiritual prowess, no worries both the crimson king and me as his mercenary have other plans we already know that the azure king is a greedy fool wanting more power.

Adonis: strange.....

Ater: now keep this a secret only me the crimson king ,and you know about this this will be classified. Right now I'm planning something to create a possibility.

Adonis: thanks but you don't have to say anymore about it.

Back the hidden underground Arena, the second event begins.

Kai: alright it's about to begin

Vis : I could tell dog I'm getting the hang of it .

Kai: then your gonna see more bro. This second event is going to be a banger .

Suddenly an unknown monster come from the arenas corridors.

There, a being of shadow ranked beyond comprehension enters the playing field.

Vis:what in the

Kai: lol see fam things are just getting started bro.
thus a battle of many begins

5years later:

vis obtains the scarf of inner souls after many trials both vis and kai train for countless months and thus Vis meets his old mentor Alex after he has been stricken with a curse . Eventually vis then acquires some soul techniques that allow him to unrestricts his aura prowess sadly he had to account how much he lacked for his aura prowess ,after being restricted in aura prowess.

Vis after all of this training then encounters multiple teammates including old ones of some sort.

And thus his confrontation then starts from the one that gave him the prowess to begin with.

Azure king: well it so seems you have come should I tell you a tale to explain what is about to happen.

Vis: from what I've seen I came for one thing

Azureking: well before you go on a tangent let me tell you this, why does causation exist to its purest form and how are we in concept existing answer me that and I won't have to tell this tale.

Vis:.....

Azureking: I thought so not even I know the true purpose of causation. But I do know why I'm about to tell this story.

Vis: that is....

Azure king : to tell why I've done any of this to begin with.

Vis:..... then this connects to existence doesn't it pops.

Azure king : very true .

Narrator: hence the azure king then tells his own point of the story and why even he exist

Azureking I was once a young man of blue light caerleum of some sort . Traveled with the Blue light mercenaries and kings themselves but what happened didn't happened because of my mistakes it happened because of that pure concept of change.

Vis: your.....no....can't be.

Azure king : I'm about to tell you the part that matters. The indicum kingdom of purple light had no grudge at us and has the purest intent from the very start. However the indicum kingdom has a an agreement of which my mercenary group didn't see coming. My own boss knew and guided me away from the catastrophe. Even to this day I'm still in loss of why this happened.

Vis:then you were wait I heard about this , back in a old archaic tale my beloved ones told me that there was once a king that was the strongest if not the strongest knight and couldn't fix the system in the darker planes.

Azureking: you forgot one thing who was the one who created the Azure power itself. Certainly not me of some sort.

Vis:..... rhetorical it's both you created the prowess while..... no

Azureking that's right my higher-end of my self the one with all the processes gave me those answer to create this realm on my own.

Narrator :Vis then unsheates his blade of Azure

Vis: I should have known , so there's a reason why you gave me this power.....

Azureking: well done well done you have figured it out a very smart man I've guided .

Vis: only cycle lords knows this concept an old wise mage once told me about this and this scares me .

Azure king : well enough of the story at hand if you beat me in this duel and not act like that kind of person i might give all of this up. But if I win you must join me in this conquest of never ending answers and yes both put processes will be in sync.

Vis: you really expect me to give my body or even my vessel to you pfft bullshit I won't.

Vis charges his blade of azure tonics maximum and dashes towards the king and thus the duel begins

The duel begins and vis then engages with conversed tactics . The azure king foresees this and catches the blade knowing the foresight is at hand.

Azure king: now let's shuffle our tactics you man or should I say successor of blue light .

Vis: damn gotta switch it up

Azure king : you gonna have to outplay me if you wanna get what you want man of Azure.

Narrator: vis then jumps up in the air and charges his blade at a counter based wave of souls.

Vis: ya know what I'm tired of being your puppet king I'll beat you and get what I need this time I'm gonna outclass..

Azureking : typical typical little man let's see what you have in store .

I'll start at my 50 percent gauge . Now don't disappoint me man of Azure.

Narrator: the azure king emits both a physical and intangent aura so strong it over compensates the whole kingdom .

Vis knowing this defends by emitting a shield aura prowess. Vis now handling the pressure then moves slowly towards the king. Slowly charging the blade he puts temporary aura beams as traps using manifested soul energy to control the beams placement.

The azure king knowing this says this.

AZURE king: and I was right , typical your trying to trap me with those beams keep trying little man.

Narrator: vis knowing what's going on then throws his aura dagger towards the king with a hidden. Secret.

Azure king : and now your playing a monkeys game like last time you got no skill what so ever to out class.

Narrator: The azureking then manifests the auras daggers true potential. Vis then monologues Vis: (alight I tricked him, now let's see what's he's gonna do.

Vis then charges and releases a beam to confuse the king.

Azure king then goes on the offensive and pressures Vis with a flurry of aura pillars.

Vis then activates a soul trap towards the king.

Azureking:!!!!

Vis: check

Azureking: I can't move you really are something to behold. Alright you win I give up.

Vis: the trap I used I learned from. That old mage it can only be used to counter azure or darker being that manifest immense pressure. The dagger was just a ploy to put the soul trap on you.

As you can tell I just outclassed like the boss.

Azureking: well well creative indeed you sure have a lot of skill to do it. I am faintly in glee that I know that what I've given you is bliss.

Narrator: all of a sudden the man Vis feels a light feel almost as if he's been freed.

Azureking there I've unlocked that potential you man of Azure.

Vis: what is this feeling

Azureking: your reward for over going my expectations.

Vis:..... who are you really I'm not even sure I should question that. Ya know what scratch that I just won.

Narrator: the man vis feels as if he can channel the prowess of Azure and transforms in a mystical light known as.

Azureking: The light of the moon the azure moon-light that you have now obtained by my guidance.

Vis: this mark its.

Azureking: your true potential, I can finally be in rest.

The azure king then lays on the ground and rests.

All of sudden Vis hears a explosion coming from the castle courtyard.

Vis: now this damn , looks like I gotta quicken my skill now. Thanks pops .

Azureking you have that prowess now go and find your answers.

Anias: all according of plan .

Narrator: Anias then performs a summon beyond any ranked a tier of its own the madman summons an animal spirit of the gods.

Anias: perfect all is well I shall perform this mission on the behalf of my purpose.

Narrator: Vis then runs out of the azurekings chambers and out of the zone and confronts the man of betrayal anias.

Anias: well well the dipshit is here well well come at me young man

Vis: why why do this this wasn't.....

Anias: maybe if you understood why I'm doing this you can comply to what I'm about to do.

Narrator: the young man vis unsheates his torn blade of Azure.

Anias: well let's see if you can do it before it's too late the summon will commence and I'll change my own mind of calling you a dipshit.

Narrator: both opponents clash their blades and oppose the status quote.

Clashes were made different blade were used and different principle of tech was used to control the system.

10 minutes later.

Anias: huff

Vis: huff damn

Anias: now you see you really thought you could out pace me get better and now you failed.

Vis.....why

Anias: because I got my own reasons for being who I am.

Vis:..... no I won't give up after seeing all of this and seeing the true potential of this world I have now know that your degradation reasoning

Narrator: the boy suddenly emits light like no other and manifestes a lavender light like no other his own prowess is now created the alternate light of

Caisa

Anias: oh my I did not expect this..... shit now I gotta quicken the summon.

Vis: not this time I not going to allow you to get to that point.

Narrator: all of sudden Aura comes from behind and damages the opponent anias.

Anias:.....you how dare you defy me.

Both opponents increase their tactics and gauge, both at ease in the winds of the flames of the burned kingdom of azure.

Anias: Typical you would do this at your awakening sigh so typical so annoying to handle.

Aura suddenly then pops up into the battle field and then attacks anias from behind,

Anias: Lol and the female dog is here,

Aura: shut it.

Aura then sides with vis and becomes a 2v1 battle

Vis then harnesses the new prowess built up with him it is known as Caisa prowess a sidus based light given from the heavens and condensed from the azure kings plansa to begin with.

Aura: HUH? how the how did you

Vis: tbh i don't care lets beat him.

Aura: yep,

Anias: tch you too aura, sigh wheres the azure king.

Vis: Doesn't mean anything to you traitor ill beat you up,

Anias: same as always from the 1st time , just get better .

Anias then preemptive attacks through a aura mist speed.

Vis: shit,

vis then grabs aura and dodges the barrage of sword attacks from anias.

Anias: Soul Impair!!!!!!!!!!

Vis: not gonna happen this time, Aura stay back

Aura: right

Vis: alright, Souls of wolves Facade release,

Anias:.....this is

Vis: Facade release,

Vis: azure blade all of a sudden emits a strange aura and prowess like no other filled with caisa , and azure aura fillign the whole air with metaphysical prowess.

Anias: so the old man did teach something useful man looks like I'm going to have to use this now.

Narrator: Vis and aura step back fearing of what's to come,

Anias: oh crimson flames of the shadows let me summon a beastly so strong it will purge the azures beings away from this earth.

Vis: Aura start prepping , we gotta handles this now.

Aura: already on it .

Narrator: Anias then summons a Crimson beast unlike any other filled with such crimson and corrupted energy.

Vis:..... alright looks like my recharge stance is complete now i can solo this if i have too.

Aura: let me help,

Vis: when i give the order to do so stand back from now but when he comes and preemptive us go around and attack him from the behind only then we can counter him.

Aura: your just like him so strong now and willed , like endo

Vis: endo.... nevermind.

Narrator: Anias then pre-emptive the situation and attacks the 2 people.

Vis: alright gotta manifest this power this time, activate caisa

Vis aura of the swords turns lavender light and protects vis from anias attack with his dragon claws.

Anias: tch as expected, your old ding dong has now taught that lame technique. What else a magic dog pops up .

Vis monologues.

“just gonna ignore him for now.”

Vis then holds the blade to the ground and tilts the blade to the earth and remembers a skill Alex taught him.

3 years ago:

Alex: at some point, once your power evolves you should be able to manifest other attributes .

Vis: wait so you mean that its possible to even learn...

Alex: other beings tech why of course, here ill show you.

Present time:

Narrator: vis then hold the blade in a way where his own aura flows through like time at the cage only this time, it changes.

Vis: Caisa Portal

A barrage of caisa light blades pop up from the portal, Anias then seeing this then ignores and moves away from the portal.

Anias: Ha so freaken typical. You really think I'm that dumb looks like your old man didn't teach you enough to account for what happened.

Anias then moves away from the portal realizing that its moving

Anias: you really think that s gonna work ha just look at me ,

Vis: looks whos the typical one,

Anias:.....shit

ANias then realizes the the portal wasn't only a portals of interjection light, it was also being used as a net to trap.

Vis: Looks whos the typical one, when you tried to run away from the attack , the portal made a trail its energy wavelengths then manifested more prowess's and moves like a flowing nets waiting to net you up.

Anias:.....hmpf well played, but i got other plans ahead of schedule,

Anias then summons the summon to start wreaking havoc on the azure town and civilians,

Vis:.....what! shit

Anias: alright quote quote tactician, if your so smart you should have taken account for my beasts mobility and command, now if you chase that thing you will have to unrestrict me from the inside out from your lame tech, or let the monster that i have summoned to wreak havoc on the lands of azure you hold dear so much,

Vis now relaizing he jus tgot out palyed the monolouge this.

Vis: Damn , hes right if i actually don't stop the portal net then i wont be able too..... wait

Vis then stops the portal and talks to anias.

Aura: vis what are you doing??????

Vis: something's not right,

Vis looks at the dragons and it figure, then seeing that realizes how hes been out played from the start.

Vis: anias..... you knew.

Anias realized he just got caught by tactics then sees vis truth through the eyes.

Vis: tch my eye why is it,

Vis eyes then matures to became an caisa eye an eye that knows all in comprehension.

Anias then claps and so does the azure king that was though to be killed.

Vis:.....my eye why does it feel.

ANias: well Caelceum i did the job , now i want to see what this special summon is capable of.

Aura:!!!! wait vis!

Vis: shit what's going on with me my body its feeling so strange.

Vis eye and swords manifest such strange caisa energy unlike any other,

AZURE king: Ahhh well well looks like ive created my perfect prototype.

Vis: tch, i thought it.

Aura then realizing the situation vis is in then uses a special teleport on vis.

Vis: aura what !

Aura: im sorry

Vis then gets teleported away from the castle.

Aura then sees the azure king and anias both extremely mad and condescending with rage,

Anias: you, alright i wanna know how you will repay this time.

Scene

within the azure teleportation the you man vis goes' through a dream like state there he sees the being that has manifested from his struggles and strengths. there he sees his own reflection and how he sees what's he held back.

Vis: This again,

???: indeed

Vis: !!!! this vibe

???: and hence i am manifested

Vis: thought It was you , your that being that i have to overcome from that struggle like state iwas in.

???: why of course, by you going through all of that chaos you now manifest an ideal a perception that can help change what you want to perceive.

Vis: was gonna pummel you for a sec but , the fact that you were able to speak is just.

Vis then quickens up and goes on strong like stance. But then gives up and gives an eye of fear

???: Now you know, Im here for a very specific reason and if anyone has tried to tell you , then fate will bring you to a realization.

Vis: the azure king.....

???: slow but understandable, now the reason is gonna be very weary of fear itself

Vis:.....no

???: you're body isn't really in full control over you're self indeed that sigil given was a marker for the azure king to manifest its own identity and vows to you in that weakened state .

Vis: is that even possible ??? then how did i

???: Its will resides within you VIs the man of Caissa,

Vis:..... I think I know , but me realizing this means everything that I've had done was ???: meant for something, If you were trying to doubt don't be .

The mysterious force then manifests a silhouette that makes VIs eyes open in realization.

Vis: Its you..... the one that rose me up

Why of course, I go by the name Caissa,

Vis: you're here because....

Caissa: because its probably time for you to acknowledge something about you're past the things you kept hiding this whole

Narrator: VIs then starts to cry and kneel down for onces the young man finally feels the feeling of defeat. ENraged the sigil resonates with both light and extreme force of Azure force.

VIs: sniff why why does this keep happening all the time the chaos why....

Caissa: that you have to do for you're self I can lead you to those doors but only you can open it you're self.

Vis aura then starts to confit with itself to a point where the young man Vis Becomes manic with chaotic bursts A rage so chaotic he is not in full control over himself.

Vis: why ...why.....why! WHY.....WHY....WHY...
..WHYYYYYYY!

Caixa: you have to handle it if what goes beyond this state , Im sorry but thats all i have to say for now.

Narrator: the Mage of Caixa then vanishes , and leaves Vis in a chaotic state.

Scene:.....

Azure King: It seems now that the man of Light Vis has now reached the expected point of change didn't it my daughter.

Aura:.....

Azure King: makes sense how you're so invested with this young man filled with yearning for him

Aura: STOP Father!, I hate that you did it to him, I hate it that you cursed him, Just let him be And now this! you are a maddening piece of Crap.

Narrator: the Azure king then Manifested the azure power to stop her movement.

AZURE king: well then who is in this house and who is in charge of the Azure realm my so young daughter. And indeed I who has created this vicinity knows that the prophecy will come true in due time.

Aura: I believe in him that he will be taken out for you shitty curse and survive, you have to understand.

AZURE King: let see if you're mothers attitude that you have makes you so sure?

Narrator: During the colosseum trials there Kai and his gang then feels a unwelcomed vibe of Azure like energy flowing through

Kai: that aint good, hope vis is doing well, sight well gang we gotta head out now looks the man baby azure is throwing a tantrum .

The gang agrees and then moves on to the next destination.

All around the Verses of realms the worlds feel an immense negative auras of controlled chaos all around ,

Many return to homes realizing that an event is about to happen that my cause something unfathomable. Others prepare knowing that the strongest force of aura will dominate.

Crimson King: my brother you so do wish to dominate like the desperate animal you are .

Narrator: as the Crimson king Sees what the world has become in due nature. Adonis then comes to the crimson kings aid<

Adonis: Vis.....

CrimsonKing: ah so you do see and feel do you.

Adonis: Yes my sire but from whats happening theres going to be a power struggle in the works and for my own sake i have to prepare

Crimson King: we all should in comparison , and tbh depending on how it plays out we will see.

Ater: I also heard that the other forces from the colosseum trials , are doing a union just in case the azure king does anything stupid enough to warrent a break in territory.

Adonis: wait really oh shit

Crimson King: Indeed as you 2 are my valued assets to my team both spiritually ranked elites in so many cases.

Adonis: yeah talk about all of that tactics training man that got my minds going all over the place

Ater: humph was easy for a time thou.

Suddenly the skies of crimson then flows in direction showing an omen in nature.

Adonis: that vibe its.....

Crimson King: something beyond our control.....

The verses of realms then start to change in definition.

====Scene

Vis: Arrrgh AHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHH

HHH !

Narrator: Vis Screams in pain and his whole state embodied with a strong shadow that encapsulates the mans body. the curse of his self emerges wthin shadows that is lured through the light of the azure sigil.

Vis then sees a familiar silhouette from the time in the temple.

Vis: huff huff damn

Inner Shadow: we meet again once before and now in this sad state. Oh how delighted I am to approach you in this situation.

Vis: I thought I destroyed you so how come ... unless Inner shadow: ahh a keen perception you have made, im here to tell you a message, that what you are about to see from all of that denial.

Vis:.....

Inner Shadows: all of those buried up memories that you tried to hide all of it, it will be my pleasure to show it.

Vis: Damn it my body..... What do you want I don't understand , why does this keep happening.

Inner shadow: I as your worst will show case what you have not seen or repressed. to my delight

The Inner shadow and manifests into a aura like state with a light similar but intense in pressure.

Vis: hnnng!!!!!!

Inner Shadow: And so it begins , whatever you see in this will be mental torture and possible something you will have to face.

Vis then sees a bright light and wakes up outside the azure kings realm and territory , VIs then feels more pain coming through his soul and his body now has more flows of shadows rising through the sigil of Caisa manifested.

Inner Shadow: now let see if you can handle a test of spiritual chains .

Vis: What is going on I don't understand.....

Inner Shadow: Lets begin the mental torture of truth.

Narrator: the Young man of Caisa Vis now transforms.

Scene:

In the azure kings chambers, Vextor , Alex, and the azure king then talk in a intense match of manipulations amongst anything else. Alex is chained up in a painful manner for no doing what was expected of what the king wanted in some form and manner.

Alex: I always knew you as the man and the protectors in the outer skirts of those realms, so why do it to all of us that one pinnacle manifestation that brought us that strength and yet cursed us to you're doing. What a bunch of Bullshit.

Vextor: from what I recall, you as a mercenary wanted to train those and had no power, why would you do it the first place i kinda seemed like you had no goal in the first place to do it. the king himself saw that and brought you to you point , Vis is no different so why try rebel ALex.

Azure King: Sometimes life can burden many even to the brink of destruction and some change from those events to some extent.

ALex: Vis, why do all of that chaos to him, and why bring us to this point, Ive done so much as a loyal subject and a old friend you should know by now.

Narrator: Alex then looks towards the chaos being manifested in the outskirts of what has happened. And then looks at his own chains,

Alex: just like last time, what am I missing , what was the point.....

Alex then gives and eye of determination and yet stern like stance,

Azure King : maybe some lore could help , all I'm doing is waiting for my other plan to come into fruition.

You're pain that is being manifested is my own tendencies and what we perceives of what we are and who are are deep inside our selves.

Alex: I cant change you and I cant stop you
Azure king:.....!

Alex: that a saying I used to say a long time ago back when you used to be much more different. I've known you for so long as a strong friend but you as a king were always on you're own way not thinking of others but calculating for you're self. It was all planned,

Azure King: humph so you'd o remember never though you being changed up like this would spill you out these kinds of things.

Vextor: To be honest, Alex wasn't at fault here , during that time , alex saw growth within VIs in a way that kind of resembles someone like you, I would know because my face resembles times of connections to which I will not say.

The Azure king then slowly un tightens the spritrial chains that stuck alex.

Azure king: In my own eyes I've seen VIs as my own of some sort and saw many of you loyal to my cause.

Alex: so why the betrayal I know you could have destroyed me though soul transfusion and a higher rate in percentage , any one of us knows what this is , WHY the lax state.

Anias: its because we all have plans of what we want to accomplish don't we though what we really want from our own desires. And like you said Alex I cant change you and I cant stop you Vextor:.....

Anias: its not too long before they catch up you know what i mean.

Alex:..... of course you would do this old friend, Sido

Azure king Sido: Looks like we are all up to scale, like wise some of these elements are beyond our control .

Narrator: Flash back 60 years ago, in the developing stages of the azure kings development of a systematic kingdom and oligarchy, the azure king in this this era is known as the Azure Boss manages his own band of azure and manifest dominance over many foes , Many fall from the Band of the Azure Moon, one of not the strongest memeber was ALex, the technical on the other hand is Vextor, a man known to believe to be awares a what the moon gazes.

Both the sido the azure boss, and Alex talk in equal footing.

Vextor: tactical as always Sido,

Alex: you could say that again

Aura, restricted in her bed room then looks into the sky seeing many things changing all around.

Aura: My strength is coming back to me, those times before all of this happened.....

Aura looking at the Moon then sees a vison like ideal within her eyes, seeing this, the young woman of Azure then Sees something once known but fuzzy from memory her intellect then adapts to what she sees.

IN the Deep Planes of Azure the Man of Now Caisa light now spiritually ported in the plane now is confronted with many Foes beyond the planes of azure there he confronts something inside of him that he forgot from the start.

Vis: Crap, why cant I move , why is my body so Slow....

Narrator: the monsters then walk around not trying to attack but instead wait for someone to come into as command of some sort.

Vis:!!!!

???: Ah how fate has placed you in these situations indeed has forced you to foresee.

The figure then manifests from the cloak as the Ater the Elite in the Crimson Kingdom

Ater: You're kinds in a struggle it seems and these monsters wouldn't give a easier option for you're escape, its seems you're willing to break ones path to be you own self, its to bad that ideal itself is so easily mocked.

Vis: tch like you know me from the start, I got my own things to fix and being honest, I couldnt care about that king of some sort.

Ater: hmph the fact you're talking like that was so typical , those lies are the things that are gonna get you.

Narrator: ater then throws the sword like boomerang with crimson like technique to vis pointing and yet not close enough to damage but manipulative enough to force.

Ater:Killed

Vis:.....

Vis mark of caisa then manifests with the azure curse conflicting with more chaotic energy of both auras.

Vis then chaotically enraged then goes into a chaotic conflicted state Vis tries to control the curse given and restricts himself .

Ater: Would've have been common for me to kill but we have other reasons to Confront our current situation. And for your curse, its probably wise to come, the King of Crimson want a audience with you of some sort.

Vis:Tch.... every single time fine,

Both Ater then uses a specific Spell like teleport specific to go under the radar of the azure kings vicinity.

At the Darkened Azure kings Kingdom,

AZURE king: I should have known Alex

Alex: what.....

Azure King: theres a reason you are still alive within my curse, but in some manner

Narrator the azure king then gives a time curse on alex....

Alex: damn

AZURE king: this curse if anything will put you on track for hence I want you to retrieve my young man vis .

Alex: you never change even in those situation you wanted to control many things but it all started from an ambition and lost, Vis even if given that rare curse , i have taught him something that might save him.

AZURE king:!!!! no i shoud've have known

Alex: that's right If he does it right from what I've trained him, then maybe you might break your ignorant stubbornness. You're gonna start seeing what hes truly capable of and allow your hard head to stop .

AZURE king: alright lets see what he is capable of , despite that upper variant of his aura, ill see what he can do.

Narrator: Alex then monologues to himself

Alex: (Alright VIs Where ever you are Play it smart)

Scene

Narrator: Vis in a un controllable state , starts seeing hallucinations of past memories he long repressed from his own mind , trying to control that maddening chaos he sees someone in the blue someone he wouldn't have thought he would meet.

Vis: why, why WHY WHY WHY what did I do!?!?!?!?

????: maybe look inside yourselves and see what truth resides,

Vis: I tried being kind back then and why did I get screwed over, was all of this jsut a mistake the overcoming of my problems and ideals , and this shit curse what was it.

????: you may have to think more and act less stubborn and maybe you might see it and see what was in hindsight.

Vis:.....this pain what's going on..... it seeps so hard

????: you're sensitivity in one way is what helped you see.

Narrator: Vis then clears his eyes and once again sees the one who clicked the start of his aura, the wise sage of souls ,

Vis: its you..... why am I feeling

Sage of souls: from that time forwards the time you were trapped in an endless restriction, and almost swallowed up by the curse given, I've meet many who have destroyed themselves and lost , but many haven't tried to listen and learn, Deep inside you chose to learn and understand you in hindsight have the will to give up .

Vis: then almost all of this was,

Sage of souls : in some form or manner the reality of plans not truly done by me but through an understanding of what lies.

Vis: Its kinda no wonder everything i went through seemed off, the teachers the azure knights and everything ive seen. It seemed like the King himself is prepping something to happen.

Sage of souls: you're now seeing it, do you still have the agonizing hatred for him or through this pain you're now changing.

Vis: The Azure King knew this whole time, even the prowess i got, he led me and helped me , even then I saved him because i knew the cost .

Sage of Souls: many who have conflicted you and the family that you lost all reside within memories and you soul of a heart.

Vis maddening chaos then changes it then manifests from the blade of azure and floats as its own identity.

that identity known as the other form the other side of the curse and yet.

Vis: what are you???..... no you are.....

????: you're finally figuring it out, young man vis and skilled traveler of verses, for how naïve you are you were queen to be fearless.

Vis: ... Azure king what?.....

Sage of Souls: and hence you're not alone ,

Vis: sense of confusion then dissipates and his aura transformed back to a Caisa Like state.

Vis: i really am confronting this now, what did I deny it.

Sage of souls: His Face the AZURE King almost as serene and close as yours . I hope you get what is going on.

Vis: It was so preplanned everyone's actions even the confrontations, everything was a lie. And now I understand why Alex did it.

Sage of souls:.....

Vis: If the Azure king is that strong and immense with the prowess i cant defeat him, ... this is the sword flowing with the azure curse then manifests to a specter like state.

Azure Specter of Souls: the Truth being shown in some form or manner. You can already tell i have some soul like elements from the azure king.

Vis: now I know what to do, If he gave me this his other implication was to Vis then remembers what Alex told him and the specific strategy from that time.

During the Azure Restricted Training ,

Alex then shows something very specific to what only very specific user can do.

Alex here catch,

Vis: this again? I thought we didnt have to do this.

Alex: well look and see it maybe not what It seems.

Scene

Narrator: During the years of Skill Training with VIs

Alex training VIs during the Sessions then give him an item.

Vis: this again, ya know Alex you keep giving me items that even now i don't know what to do.

ALex: back then I used to give this to skilled users
.....thou

Vis: they had to face it.

Alex: in this realm death is something of a mystery
, it probably the reason why only me and some other know what it is.

Vis..... it kinda looks like.

Alex: just keep it, you'll need it when the time comes this item is probably the only thing i had left, now .

Narrator: Vis feeling it then realizes something he read about this a long time ago.

Vis:.....sure Teach ill keep it to your will. Whatever this has manifested it might save me .

Alex: Correct, now try and use it with you're skills you learned,

Narrator: Vis given Emblem then resonates with vis aura, then manifested a aura boost.

Alex : Perfect your learning how to control your wave lengths , that emblem is infused with controlled aura level , using that will help you in the most chaotic times.

Vis: like how thou im kinda at a blank here.

Alex the emblem is more or like a tool to protect you're self its more like a charm

Narrator: vis then starts to see the emblems symbols and then starts to do hold it firmly

Vis:..... Let me try something

Alex: go on ahead was wondering what you could do with it.

Alex then walks away from vis to give space.

Vis:

Vis then feels a slight spark but only sees the light for a second.

Alex then monologues in a blessed way.

Alex: he might actually be able to do it..... 3 years and hes just like him endo,..... no he might forge the perception of forged light.

Vis then looks at his hand

Vis: only that much practice and this how?? that flash of light.

Alex: its normal, the charm emblem is something it give to test the output of the persons type. You're always learning and im glad you can see it.

Narrator: Present time

Azureking Sido: I should've kept a better eye on you both, sigh....

Alex: even if time stops or changes as long as he adapts he can fulfill what will he has.

AzureKing Sido: fine , lets see what time has offered, but at the end , he belongs to whom has given the strength.

Alex: then the Emblem of Perception will show what he's capable of.

Azure king sido:.....

Scene:

Narrator: The man of Azure VIs now at his limit, faints in a comatose state, there both the specter mage and Vis manifested Other side then talk to one another .

Specter mage: He is entering the stage again

Other side: and this time it will give him a better understanding of himself and everything around him

VIs then goes through the same feeling in a dream like state , and looks back , there he uncovers the repressed past.

Vis: What is this.....

????: you should've known already, what you kept hiding and the repressed chaos.

Vis:..... that voice are you.....

????: A guiding mother perhaps or what you see is what you think is perceived,

Vis:..... mother..... i cant remember.... arrghhh!!!

????: moderate that beast inside, there's more to uncover, you have to look back and see what's around you.

Narrator: Vis in the dream like state then sees a childhood memories a time when things were simpler, there he sees the once azure king , and memories of loved ones.

Vis:.....mother, father..... did i just say that.

Vis aura transforms into a beyond like aura prowess beyond comprehension there he remembers it all.

Vis then sees himself in a time where he used to know peace. in some form form a royal kingdom of light.

Both the young azure king in this time known as the mercenary of time, Sido.

Sido: Ive heard that the compositions of time are changing , and you're sons are indefinetly gifted.

Vis Father:

Vis:..... why why am I seeing this,

????: because you have to accept and see for your self you're other side.

Vis then sees a memory of what became of his parents from his own lack of understanding vis then starts seeing his own family members swallowed up by the maddening chaos of wraiths manifested from Vis.....

Vis: noo..... why

Vis: I didnt mean it did I

????: It wasnt your fault you may say, but you're will to explore cause that action to happen that curiosity brought something in you and thus you were called the cause of it.

Vis:.....everytime why does this keep happening, everyone i knew gone and betrayed me, i kept everything in shit.

????: then lets see this event for what it is.

Vis then sees his father and the azureking side whisper something

Azureking: when the time comes you're son will eventually see what power he has, so when the times of wraiths comes your sons will change. The one of sun and the other of moon. but from the son of moon i recall his fate ill be sure it will be something indeed.

Vis Father: so when the times comes , i have to let him go,..... strength.

Azureking: for who I am and what I am, i test those who cant see for themselves, in this situation ill guide you son for that his name should be called, Vis

Vis: he gave me this name

????: precisely this name was given because he knew the potential many moons ago

Narrator: Vis then sees the figure appear as Vis:..... Dad.....

Vis Father: been awhile,

Vis then starts to cry from holding it all in.

Vis Father: its fine, i know how it feels.

Vis: Dad whats going on.

Vis Father: you're about to grow , But this growth its gonna come in increments.

Vis Aura then starts to calm down...

Vis :..... Thanks but I guess I dont have alot of time.

Vis Father: of course the kings is going to bring you to his vicinity and whatever he was planning, you you're self will know how to interpret what he wants.

Vis: so I have to go, ... and my mentor now i know .

Vis Father: you got this , now traverse

Vis: right

Outside the Dream Coma

Specter Mage: Hes ready,

Azure Soul: well played

Narrator: the mystic soul of azure then flows back into Vis and resonates the flow of energy within.

Vis: the flow of aura then activates and rises vis from the coma

Vis: im back now I know what that king wants now....

Scene.

Ater then appears again to vis

Ater: ohh looks like you got your self back , I cant stop you but from the last time we met your strength was at its infancy.

Vis then looks at Ater and points his blade ,

Vis: why should I believe in what you say what intent you got planning

Ater: same as yours , retribution or payment from what enemies we both have.

Vis: is the crimson king that dumb to let you loose like this..... wait.

Vis then looks at himself and feels the Caisa flow of wavelengths traverse.

Ater: Looks like times clicking, if you're smart enough , going back to the vicinity will be unpredictable, if anything they are waiting.

Vis:.....so Aura must've known.....

Ater: i cant stop you but you're choices are limited as of now,

Vis:..... damn,

Ater: I know its tempting to beat up a being that gave you a curse yet strength not you're own, A being like that planning , we both know what this is.

Vis:.....

Vis then thinks for a moments on all of these implications and looks back at his emblem charm ALEX Gave him,

Vis:..... you're right i cant beat him hes beyond that kind of power, almost all of the knight of azure had no freedom even to what led ALEX to what he did. Damn,

Vis then looks at his sigil given of a mark and feels the pain of many moons then and now.

Vis ego then turns in a different way unlike before,

Vis: I just so want to hrrg.....shit

Narrator: Ater then sees vis willingness to change

Ater: You're doing something as of now that might actually save you're self, I know how much you want you're life back and get some peace, But right now you gotta grow.

Suddenly more Controlled azure knights in command then start walking from a far distance.

Ater: You gotta chose now or they are gonna get you.

Vis in a limited like resolve then agrees,

Vis: fine ill go.

Ater: alright i got a spell that can hide our aura but by doing this we are also highly at risk of damage, so by doing this your gonna have to be precise and dont get caught.

Vis :right , ill follow vis and ater then use the souls of negate spell there the bodies of the characters turn souls based and are hidden in sight,.

Scene

Narrator: all around the verses of life and existence, the anguish of the azure king becomes much more apparent, and thus the king of crimson then lashes with equal strength of the soul

Crimson King: my ignorant brother who has sought to much power and greed so shallow indeed.

And yet I've helped him build what he used and commanded, for what is .

the crimson king talking to himself then sees the elements of what conflictions are being made.

Crimson Assassin then opens the kings door to tell news.

Crimson Assassin from what ive heard from the intel, we have gotten vis agreement

Crimson King: !!! ... oh how delightful it seems the man of Caisa is seeing some form of truth.

Adonis and other Mercs then enter the field of the king.

Adonis: Sire ive heard the news , is this really happening

Crimson king in positive reluctance says:

If it is then we now have a trump card , how the man of caisa was able to change from the last time i fought that scoundrel is indeed rare.

Crimson King then asks a question to Adonis:

Crimson King: Tell Me , from how i saw the looks of you and the man VIs, so familiar in look..... a brother perhaps Adonis: pfft i wouldn't think so, I mean would I know im not that smart.

Crimson King: hmm.....

the crimson king then tells a riddle to test the young man adonis

Crimsoning: tell me once more what is one that looks in the mirror yet its qualities have no resemblance

Adonis:..... I guess the reflection

Crimson King:..... Just as I thought, you know him of some sort..

Adonis: wait how did I?

Crimson King: you both use the same talk patterns form what ive encountered from him, so young and basic.

The crimson king then throws a necklace to Adonis,

Crimson King: which is why I would like for you to assassinate the one who took her using this necklace.

Adonis looks at the neckace in confusion

Adonis: by this?

CrimsonKing: from how that event happened with you're brother, I already know you have a prowess that can search others.

Adonis: ohh, this necklace thou.....

CrimsonKing: it came from my loved one , and sadly someone took her life away from me

Adonis:.....Gotcha Sire

CrimsonKing: ALright then commence the search in quick time, then advance.

The Crimson King then looks at the sky of crimson in resonance with clouds of lush orange Crimsonking:..... Sido.....

Crimson King: I thought so , so it seems there are some blood related correlations with my own subordinate Adonis and the Man of Caisa Vis.

In the verses of Azure , the kingdom of Azure goes through strict manifestation and rule construction.

Aura: why is my father doing this Mother

As Aura Pleas to who she resonate in the planes with what is going on and starts to feel the anxiety of unpredictably of her own father.

At that moment Aura then sees what going on and does something almost as similar to how vis changed his fate.

Aura: I have to get out of here, but if I do mother, my father will do things even that i cant save him from.

Aura conflicted then deciphers the aura restriction the AZURE king placed on all rooms. There she carefully unlocks the spell placed on her room

Aura: My father really takes me for granted , I'm almost as tact as him.

Narrator: there Aura then goes to Rai's chambers and unlocks him as well.

Malik Rai: how in the verses did you do that.

Aura: my father might have taught me things hes now regretting.

Rai: man girl you're just like a ninja pooping up like that.

Both Rai and Aura run quickly to escape the king-doms vicinity.

Rai: What was the king thinking after doing all of this, like does he even have a sense or just lost

Aura: I wish I knew my father as of now but now hes aiming for things even i have to leave.....

Suddenly a Array of Azure soldiers Cursed controlled block the vicinity

Azure Knights: you gotta stops us the kings lost it.

And in thin air the Azure King floats into the scene.

Anisa then walks into the area in a cocky like form.

Aura:.....damn we were close.....

AZURE King: well well what do we have here my daughter disobeying once more and my humble knight Rai. what do you have to say for you're selves

Rai: All i can say is that ,

Rai then tries to use Aura Wind to Flow the Air with aura controlled by Rai

AZURE king: and yet fatherless you don't have the intellect to see.

Rai: why don't you say that to the rest of you're calverly that was given the mark.

Rai more determined then uses some of the aura marks given.

Anias: and there he goes , like a monkey with no reason

Flash Back: During Vis 3-4 year training,

Alex: Rai come here

Both Rai and Alex then exchange words and tells Rai .

Alex: I have something locked up that is hidden both in aura and soul form

Rai:.....pfft telling me this now , Like what about the others .

Alex: your the probably the only one I know that understand adaptation at a high mark

Rai: heh

Alex: the Aura Scripts are something that can be used by users who know aura wind skills, I obtained these scripts during a old time with an exhibition.

Rai then looks at the Scripts and smirks

Rai: you sure know me way too well..... man small world isn't it.

Alex indeed.

Present time:

Rai then activates the scripts of Aura Wind and seeps the auras away from the area,

Azureking : sigh.....what

The Azureking then Emits a Aura of Azure field spherical in essence where no one can get out

Rai: you really had to do that damn.

Scene

Both Ater and Vis both team up and travel away from the azure-king vicinity in limited time and out of sight vision from others.

Ater : this is going to get interesting, how you were willing to stop you're self ego to put you in a death like situation.

Vis: Like I had any other choice, even so the azure-king still has traces in my body with the curse of azure. anywhere i go he'll always see what im doing.

Ater: wise insight, but look

As both Ater and VIs Speed in Soul Steps, VIs sees something that makes him in shock

Vis:!!!!!!! that mark, wait that doesn't make.....

Ater: To give more context, do you see any resemblance to those kings

Vis: Wasn't sure thou, why would you show me this

Ater: to tell you that Both Kings of Crimson and Azure are kings of High Magicite. and hence are blood related

Vis:

Vis then starts to remember what he saw in the dream of verses

Back in Vis dream comatose

Vis: he was there why is that man there dad why!!!!?!?

Vis Father: that is only some parts of what I've seen and there's more laying dormant inside of you.

Vis:....tch this curse

Vis father: theres something the Azure-King told me that could help you

Vis:.....you mean

Vis father : you as a son ive raised was prophesied to show and forge a path unlike any being has ever seen, many will fear and many will join for when that being has the knowledge to control fate it self. For Hence in order for that young boy to forge he must know pain to know why it forces growth learning and change.

Vis: the king said that,.....am I

Vis Father:..... here.

Vis father then puts a magic mark into Vis hand.

Vis father: this mark that im giving will stabilize what the azure king has given. I cant tell you more on this curse only you're self can see what to do,

Vis:.....

Vis Father: Looks like my time is limited that mark should limit what the king is doing to you for a moment.

Present time:

Vis: there's so much I just don't know and that curse i have , preplanned they take me a fool.

Ater: then you're not alone

Vis: you all say that.....

Both ater and vis then see the rendezvous point where no enemies are in the forest.

Ater: perfect we can activate the spell now....

Vis: Aura.....

Ater: For even how cold the azure king is , he is also not a fool for his daughter, whatever happens he knows the rulesets.

Vis then remembers everything and times Aura helped and guided,

Vis:alright im ready,

Ater: perfect

Narrator: the Crimson Portal Opens:

Scene:

Both Ater and VIs go through the crimson teleport into the system there, within moments they are at the Crimson Palace Center area

Vis:!!!!!! this place didn't expect it to look so bright

Ater: many things to see my good man, the king of crimson is waiting for your appearance, I already told the king about your arrival so that way no harm can be dealt.

Vis: After what happened you're forces must be in a pissed off mood to see me.

Ater: its been some time my sir, some things change.

Out of the Crimson Mercs Center Adonis then sees VIs.

Adonis: OH SHIT ! VIS!?

Vis: what.. thought it was you brother holy moly.

Both Adonis and VIs then Fist pump like brothers in strength of the stars.

Vis: never thought I would see you here in this vicinity, man you weren't kidding when you actually join in this kingdom.

Adonis: same to you bro, man and dang you're like a power house now !

Both vis and Adonis then get serious on what is really going on.

Adonis: I know why you defected, and its serious isn't it.

Vis: yeah kinda need to meet up with your Big Boss over at the vicinity. And actually get some context over this bullshit I've seen.

Adonis: yeah from what I've heard , the Azure King you worked on had some motives that even I am getting vibes from.

Vis: I'm not even sure what's going on with both of the kings at this point .

Adonis: speaking of which, when you're at this Realm of Crimson , some things are gonna change

Vis: already feeling it and tbh i thought this placed wouldn't look like a beach painting

Adonis: pfffffft oh no not that painting from before

Both VIs and Adonis start to laugh and for the first time vis attitude brightens in a rare moment.

Adonis: Anyways thanks man for just surviving there man.

Vis: sure man.

Adonis: for being a brother man.....

Vis: same

Vis Smiles a little and then walks with Ater to the Crimson Kings Vicinity.

Ater: the crimson king was sorta impressed that you pulled up strategies like trapping soul attacks from afar, Now he has something for you he wants you to see.

Vis: from all of what I've seen hope hes giving something of worth or even something to take this pain out.

Both Vis and Ater then Enter the Crimson Palace center and see the crimson assassins

Vis: man they really did change they even don't have those robes anymore.

Ater: well we still do , we just had to make a few changes on our tactics.

Vis: Its funny because the Crimson Kings Tactics was so planned out, Even the Trap too ,

Ater: well you're about to find out ,

Both Ater and VIs then enter the Crimson Kings Chambers.

Scene:

Both Ater and Vis both enter the Crimson Kings Vicinity, there both Ater and Vis see the Crimson King

Crimson King: So the Man of Caisa has now shown is presence to me ,

Vis:.....

Crimson King: I know from you're conflictions that your in a mess not you're own I can tell by your face.

The crimson king then walks out of his Area of chambers and stands in front of Vis in such a dominant way filled with controlled technical Flow of both the Aura and Soul

Vis in this spot not phased by the pain then flow his controlled aura , filling the area with intense vibe of dominance.

CrimsonKing: ahh so you're flow of Aura is at that level, you werent wasting your time. I see..... and your not fearing either

Vis then monologues

Vis: this feeling i felt , is this confidence...

Crimson king then stops the conffliction aura flow .

Crimson king: its quite a rarity for someone to channel that much resistance , alright it would seem you have passed.

Vis:!!! what

Crimson king then tells Ater to Pass his Necklace to him

Ater: of course,

Ater then takes out the necklace from his pocket the necklace filled with an essence of Emerald Light .

Crimson King: Young Vagabond of Caisa Vis, What I have is a artifact once shown to me many times ago. its principle mysterious yet only a few can decipher this code. What is seen as what is a orb , yet can be used to tell many more than what it seems. The orb filled with many elements yet cant be truly harnessed with pure force nor Calm flow alone. What does that orb have that inside that many others don't have . what makes that orb, synced to the original.

Vis: that cryptic message wait.....

During the Dream Comatose:

Vis father: there's one last thing i have to tell you.

Vis: what would that be

Vis father: whenever someone tells a cryptic message of an orb in vagueness tell this message" then in order the orb to sync to what is, the spiritual element known as ether must be with all."

Vis:.....synced with an rare spirit element ether
.no

Crimsonking: So you knew this whole time, I wouldn't have imagined it that someone like you would have the prowess to know that .

Vis:....the orign of All

The necklace the crimson king holds then activate with strong essence then flows with magicite

Vis: that isnt no ordinary necklace, what is that!?!

Crimson King: something to test, your elements, you are blessed enough to even see this tool at its capacity, or even to step foot on where i am, thus the necklace then transforms.

Scene:

Rai using the Aura wind like skill then flows the aura force out of the field catching the azureking off guard for a moment.

Azureking Sido: insightful your trying to both take me out of the field and suck the aura out, ...

The Azureking then enables one of his other skills

However I have a spell just right to stop this redundant tactic.

Rai: crap he already trying to do it.

Aura knowing the situation then reasons with her father.

Aura: father, im being dead honest, what makes you want this kind of power , the never ending people you curse for you're kingdom and saying its meant to create their own power. Doesnt that make you feel empathy for what they feel .

Azureking Sido: in all verse we exist many are weak alone not knowing how to survive and tbh if no one can survive then the many must be lead. As for who I am I have made a prosperous vicinity of a kingdom and hence everyone has strength

Aura: And yet everyone is controlled by that curse to control what is why!

the Crimson Kings Palace:

Vis: that thing is glowing what is that!

Crimson king: I was waiting for someone like you to see this ever since our last encounter

Vis then remembers more things about what he acquired in learning from soul training and the scarf.

During the Colosseum Trials Vis and Kai goes through the test embedded in the underground trials there thousands then cheer over the experience:

Kai: alright i got your back my guy whatever happens trust me on this

Vis: right behind you my guy, already ready

The Beast of Astrals pops up and resembles one of the beast known as a Tenebris

Vis: wait what!

Kai: We got this you ready for this

Kai then ready's his prowess and controls the soul with elegance

Vis limited knows what to do

Vis: gotcha just do the agro play while I go from behind

Kai: Slick my guy.

THE test begins

Scene

Vis and Kai now in the tact play start the attack against the tenebris beast

After many time with some losses and wins , Both Kai and VIs then learn more about the elements of souls for every time they tried to win the artifact the souls of scarf is placed as the supreme prize.

Kai: hey man its not as easy as it seems even I couldn't figure out how to win against these requirements to win.

Vis: looks like one in charge of the Colosseum must have different ways to give and record the players abilities, so stupid

Kai: well you could say that, but i guess at this point your limit on you prowess kinda needs to be fixed

Vis: pfft was wishing for an easier way to cure

Kai: I know someone who knows about the soul Build.

Vis: Really man ???

Vis giving a look of suspicion to kai knowing kai might be hiding something but lets go of that curiosity

Vis: neverminded , I just need to know what going on with me.

Kai: Then ill Lead, trying to get that scarf is gonna be tough

Both Kai and Vis then encounter a bombastic dude with vibes like the galaxies

Kai: bro man, ludo, what is up my l guy,

LUDO: BOY you always keep saying the usual spice it up ...

Both respect and vibe like brother in vibes

Vis: lol

Ludo: who's this guys seems like a mystery and I've seen many fail,

VIS: hmm

Ludo: however I've heard of a young man filled with skill, came to this colosseum , and survived a coup from a strong opposing force, even a Duel that ended with bonds.

Vis monologs,

Vis: wait how did he.....know what happened...what

Kai: oh yeah I heard from the colosseum Leader , that someone aura so strong survived the attack , Wonder why the attack was so coordinated.

Ludo: the crimson kingdoms reason are layered so from what I see it's all based on respect or not you never know.

Vis:.....

Ludo: anyways Vis my brother in skill what's brings you here.

Vis: oh I'm here for my restricted curse

Ludo: oh..... I see that your awareness is alot higher and unusual from other clients and opponents I've serviced, that's good that means helping you will be a lot easier

Vis: Really,

Ludo: oh yes I know , for your scars show a different kind of strength of many kinds

Kai: so vis, my friend Ludo is one of the skilled masters of hidden prowess something that you may need to fix what ever restricted you.

Vis: finally I got a way out of this stupidity of that curse.

Ludo, what I'm about to do will require some form of understanding the soul control.

Vis: yes

Ludo: originally, in order to fix a curse like this you have to have a mage of souls to fix this. But in this current Era there are other ways to specific to Technical spirit cloths .

Vis then remembers the scarf in the trials,

Vis: like a scarf

Ludo : you're catching on , yes that artifact can be something to fix a curse.

or you can, make a similar maybe flawed item.

Kai: of course

Vis: so I have to stop using my own prowess.

Ludo: precisely and that will get one wiser in skill.

Vis:.....dang.

Ludo : if you train with that reason to be willing to learn, then you may acquire other principles of prowess.

Vis: alright

Ludo: there one thing I need in return.

Vis: what then,

Ludo: to pledge to whatever I'm teaching you to use for understanding , and what ever you see use that skill to protect.

Vis:.....

Ludo: those scars both mental and physical, will take time to heal.

Vis: tch yeah

Ludo: the pledge to don't turn into a monster,

Ludo giving a foreshadowing and worry directed to Vis.

Ludo: whatever you do, there's kind people willing to help, being on you're own will hurt .

Kai: that's deep Ludo, insightful

Ludo: can you promise me that

Vis: yes

Ludo :alright we will begin the skill of forges tomorrow.

Scene:

Ludo's then skills test the you man vis, seeing him in his overall form.

Ludo: you're restriction curse as i can analyze is flowing like blood and veins ,

Vis: like really in my own blood?

Ludo: there's more, this restriction curse in my books also had a different name ,

Kai: wait you imply

Ludo: the concept of the idea is well known and was done many times, but in this case, the name was based on some origin .

Vis feeling uneasy about this then complies:

Vis: so what does this have to do with my curse, it kind of seems farfetched to what you're saying.

Ludo: well vis overall how do you feel.

Vis: guess light , but i cant use my prowess like i can its to limited.

Ludo:.....now i see so that old fool must have known

Vis: know what.....

Ludo: never mind, ill tell you when the process of skill training is complete.

Narrator: the next day rises and both Ludo and Vis then start the process of technical training of verses.

Ludo: alright im going to test your endurance with this simple tact of an item.

Ludo then unsheathes a blade of magicite filled with aura and souls technically controlled

Vis:.....damn

Vis then starts to wield his wielded shuriken with the lack of control .

Vis: crap even this thing i cant used , was so much easier

Ludo: as expected I was aware of how your gauge of Aura is restricted

Vis: like why

Ludo: this curse does a special thing when you try to use any aura of you're own, the curse sucks up all of the aura and prisons the aura itself.

Vis: capsule it a jar

Ludo: yes and it get bigger every single time like a increasing expansion . Its probably the reason why you feel lighter

Vis:.... now you mention it yeah its kind of the reason why i was able to evade the rouges attacks from before.

Kai: humph probably why you could deflect my attacks, maybe what that crimson assassin did to you must have gotten you better,

Vis: like your one to know lol

Vis feeling confidant then feels a flow of aura seeping though,

Ludo: your feeling are allowing you to resonate with your shuriken

Vis: oh crap it is ,

Ludo: now try and throw it.

Narrator: vis then throws the shuriken like the times before only this time the shuriken resonates flow of soul like flames.

Vis:!!!!!! wait was that

Ludo: your catching on my guy, humph no wonder so many tried to antagonize your a natural at this.

Vis: Is this even possible

Ludo: Its a early version of yourself, now switching your emotion in technical array.

Vis then realizes how it happened, my emotions really were mute then kai tried to brighten me up and the attack worked like how?

Ludo: guess , educate me .

Vis: that happened when i was happy, like I thought raged was the component for soul based attacks.

Ludo: Well it is , IN order for the soul to be fully used with an attack someone with a lot of anger and hate has to control the attack, but remember that anger or hate roots from once happiness.

Vis.....no you know other principles, Ludo

Kai: was waiting for you to catch on, Ludo is a specialist on technical prowess and understands how to control you're feelings.

Vis: But that doesn't confirm why I could use the attack like that, its to mysterious.

Ludo: Vis you only know 2 of the principles of magic, the aura built on calmness, the soul built on rage, but there are more to it.

Vis trying to remember what Alex told him then realizes the mystery.

Vis: controlling both sides can change the state of prowess, crap I'm trying to remember..... Spirit.

Ludo: fast learner looks like you already did you're homework, its all based on how you feel. The skill you have will probably change depending on how you soul and aura are connected, so if you're willing , take the next step to control those feelings into magicite like elements.

Vis: sure i got no other choice at all for this.

Kai: you can thank me later, just remember to let go when you feel it.

Vis: yeah

Both Vis and Ludo then start the skill test of soul control and feel.

Scene:...

Narrator: During the night time, with fires in pits , both ludo and kai walk to the colosseum to talk about the matters at hand. Kai in reluctance then shows the updates on what going on in the hitlist of mercenaries there ludo and kai talk to the colosseum vanguards lead.

Kai: here's the records my good liege , the statics show what vis has acquired in mental skill.

Colosseum Lead: this is ah so the man of azure did get cursed, was thinking one of the rogues infesting might have done this.

Ludo: funny because the curse has a weird signature of some sort. Im not even sure what was the location of the curses elements.

Colosseum Lead: the last time I recorded Vis visit, I heard from my intel that his aura was at an high or even alarming rate.

Kai: probably the reason why, you wanted the crimson faction of assassins to do damage control or if im mistaken our faction was there to moderate and record the field , what so special about vis ?

Colosseum Lead: at this point im not sure, but whatever the mans doing that curse was embedded with high magicite, ill go look for records to see if there were incidents like this.

Ludo: you think so?

Kai: the other intel i got , brought me to the conclusion that you the colosseum lead had a take on what to do with the azure mercenaries.

Colosseum Lead: I cant disclose to much but there been some deep talks on what to manage and what roles to give once both kings souls deplete.

Kai: so new leaders i guess,

Colosseum: no, in this age of the verses , one being can change it but it all depends on how that specific individual or some can accomplish, fate funny to see when things change .

Kai:.....heh looks like vis is gonna have a journey ,

scene:

The next few weeks then turn to years of studies and book referencing to learn more about the soul elements . During those times vis goes through different stages of skills .

Vis: huff I thought you said its based on feeling

why is my attack so inaccurate:

Ludo: well looks for yourself on what feeling has gotten to you in this moment.

Vis:.....crap i really am worrying

Ludo: you have to relax your body and have a strong yet calm feel , many technical build users know it, So i hope you can quicken up,

Vis: how am I supposed to even control my feelings like that is that even human or normal!

Ludo: well guess my guy? what did you think happens in a battlefield, You as a mercenary already know.

Vis: damn,

Ludo: Any mercenary that specializes in those aura or soul builds are in full control over themselves for when they mature to survive those drastic battles.

Vis: then how do I activate that???

Ludo: look into your self for that answer, maybe your flaw are what's keeping you from advancing your tech skill.

Vis:.....tch.....

Ludo: Ill be in the resting area for a break, think about it.

Narrator: Ludo giving the advice he had then implies through his eyes , tiredness yet wisdom to handle it. He then goes to the resting area in the colosseum trials to talk to Kai.

Ludo: hes gonna have to quicken up in growing up in order to master this curse hes given.

Kai: of course , hes quick thou and tactical he know how to outplay people even in intellect , but I guess hes sorta stubborn to not see .

Ludo: its not a bad thing thou stubbornness can save someone ,

Kai: but that can only go so far in the end, we both been through this before.

Ludo: vis isnt the only one , many or us had to change in order to save ourselves what ever that young man wants his anger isnt going to help.

Kai: yeah.... also the records also had some information and intel that the colosseum didnt showcase.

Ludo: there's more?

Kai: its more like an alliance paper contract ,

Ludo giving a eye of confusion then realize what kai was implying

Ludo:ahh....so this is a older record of some sort something only the oldest of scholars know

Kai: I had to look in the older catacombs in the colosseum and this was the only trace left of the documentation, what ever made this had to agree with 2 parties.

Ludo: memories are hard to recover when pride takes over,

Kai: that old quote

Ludo: yeah its something i remembered from a old mentor.

Scene:

At midnight at the center of the colosseum records place, Ludo and Kai return to the resting hostel to join with Vis, However a mysterious event then starts to happen, in the clocks the midnight then starts and the clocks start to emit a green like light of emerald.

Kai: You feel that ludo, and that sound ,

Ludo: its that time again were probably at a bad time to be outside , tch and the clocks are resonating again,

Kai: the Emerald Aura of light its already happening again , hey Ludo you ready ,

Both :Ludo and Kai then in strong stances feels the air change into something beyond sinister.

?????:.....well it seems I'm able to perceive 2 of who I can control, oh the delight i have

Ludo: take the right ill bait this time, what ever happens we got to evade and run,

Kai: I got a Soul Smoke to get us out , and at this time its gonna be hard,

Both Kai and Ludo then emit a green like emerald force allowing them to control those elements.

Kai swing in a fake way towrds the shadows limit reach,

Kai: its alot longer than before , so the verse of shadow.

Ludo: Use the Soul Smoke, ill deal with this.

Kai: gotcha

Kai then uses the soul smoke and retreats leaving Ludo and the beast

Ludo: we've been through this before , so what's the deal.

????: to imply a message.....hmm

Ludo and the Mystery then change in air,

Narrator: As Kai comeback to the hostel there he meets the rest of the hostel people, most of them knowing what's going on.

Kai: Alright do any of you see the items glowing.

Hostel person 1: it all started to glow i don't know what's going on.

Many fearing stay in the safest points.

Kai:..... why now at this time,.....

Scene:

All the clocks in the colosseum hostels start to emit a strong essence that make many fear the presence ,

Kai:..... So you've comeback from the depths of planes below the planes of punishments , why are you here.

The clocks then emit the pressure and form in to a being the people do not want to stare at knowing the beings presence will curse anyone to weak to face it.

????: To relay a message to that young man of azure that his own fate will be chained to the times of fate itself. For hence the king of the flames of blue will plan many things to this man for hence he will see truth in many ways.

Kai: even so

Kai then emits a unsay force against the unknown and old force manifested to stop.

Kai: Being that for who he is he is still a friend, for hence there's that chance of fates broken.

???: As so you know many but are you knowing the other sides, That young man Vis we have watched in the other planes and see this in him. His fate is preplanned or at least he has many he can choose from.

Kai: I would have said that You as a being were manipulating but now I have to listen,

Kai giving an eye beyond strong then control the waves lengths of the area,

???: He who has the intellect from the gods above and curse graced by being beyond all of light, This boy was chosen and yet he does not know himself at all, He holds something extra old something that was not him originally or maybe he as his soul was

Kai: Brought from another time,..... what your intention for implying this

????: if you think this man is indeed a friend of comrade someone you pay admiration to, then be aware for hence the king of azure flame was preparing to prevent an event from happening.

Kai:.....wait....

????: if you want me to leave as of now we can.....

During Ludo's and the Ehter like being of Magicite duels,

Ludos: you beings should not be here especially at this time, the deals of Magicite restricted you from coming back, so why are you able to be here.

???: There's a Youngs man you are harboring that has just mixed the rules of magicite a boy like him has now broken our deal,

Ludo's : tch for what reason that man is young what makes him so special ,

???: from what we have recorded and watch we have seen the being restricted , transformed trained and yet his potential was not from this existences.

Ludo then guards his stance and unsheathes the blade confused by what the ehter being is trying to tell.

Ludo's: Vis is strong and I know his convictions are on that scale, what are you.....

???: The Azure King is in a state of mind something only rare of ether users like your self's know what it is.

Ludo's:.....What do you want from this boy ,

???: We want the boy to reach the skill needed to see this existence from those path lines of existences and modification.

Ludos:.....so the contract or an agreement will be made in order for this to be valid.

???: the boy will be given sometimes and weirds parts of fate will be shown to him .

The ether being then emits a ether signal and aims the signal to the boys location,

Ludo's: you wouldn't!!!!!!!!!!

???: its best if you allow us to commence this modification of fate there another preplanned path will be available along with his original path , so whatever happens we will have the say to see what he becomes.

Scene

Suddenly Vis room then gets eviscerated into a blank box of ether there Kai then stops the being of ether from controlling the modifications.

Kai: dang so I'm left with no other choice ,

Kai then controls his soul within controls the ether he then uses a soul step to enter vis Ether Room.

Vis is then placed in a dream like state only this time his perception is switched to some extent.

Kai then tell everyone to stay calm ,

Kai: No wonder vis has those qualities ,

Narrator: Hence the Stalling begins in the hour of moon

Narrator: outside the colosseum planes

Ludo: so let me guess that man that your wanting has something in store that could break those once principles and cause some form of causality

????: if I were recall, your friend of azure vis relates to the senryu clan a clan very old yet hidden in the books was once part of the original clans of supremacy

Ludo: not surprising since your trying to harass this area for that being

????: if you only knew, oh well

Narrator the hidden beings then throw an artifact to Ludo

Ludo confused by this reaction then quiets down

Ludo: this artifact , alright then well looks like your times up now the moon hour then closes to dawn like time.

????:we will always be watching

Ludo then looks at what was given and feels the urgency to quicken the Azure being Vis Senryu scene

Vis in a locked up state is released as the dawn breaks in the colosseum , there many are questioning why they brought the young man vis into the scene.

Vis: wha what happened,

Kai: your indeed someone in importance, no wonder those astral being where trying to catch you,

Ludo: this man vis i have not expected so many swarming him like moths to a flame, this is something sigh,

Vis: I missed alot didnt I man i felt like i was in somekind of time warp while sleeping.

Kai: tch, at this point in time.... alright my guy Vis we'll start skilling you up in the abilities

Ludo: you'll need it to combat foes beyond what we know , our times limited now

Vis: last night thou

Ludo: just dont worry about it , the circumstance changed we could tell.

Vis: then i gotta catch up and maybe i cant confront this to that extent.

Ludo: lets begin.

In the present time, Vis and the Crimson King channel the flow of the artifact that breaks the principles through out

Vis: Tch first the kings actions and now that artifact,

Crimson King : For every time I've had this necklace the true potential was not accessed and by many have failed even i failed to unlock its use,

The crimson king cloths then resonate with after-images of green emerald like light

Vis: Ater what is this what's going on???

Ater: the test is about to begin, cant you tell, the artifact is choosing its user

Vis: you want me to take this, I'm not a tool,
The crimson king then activates the artifact to a distinct level where it makes a ether like image of vis.

Vis: is that

Vis then unsheathes blades to confront what is being shown

Crimson king : that you see is your ignorance and pride manifested using this tool, are you willing to see what you have become

Vis: why do i look like a younger version of Crimson King: of the AZURE king because you were drunk from using those powers,

Vis:.....then why

Crimson King: you'll have to answer that for your self, if you wanna change then stand to what this manifestation is this artifact only acknowledges as it forms from your other parts of you.

Vis:.....alright crimson king ill take this chance and confront what i am

Vis then charges the caisa unlocked prowess and converts the azure and caisa form in the charged form the after image then mocks and mirrors Vis and thus the artifact reacts in a higher level of aura and soul field,

Then all of a sudden the after image starts to talk:

Other Side Vis: you always keep hiding your self and that unwilling of your pride to be quiet that is your identity for hence your name means the one who knows all.

Vis: why why do I have this and yet its not my own what is going on.

Vis eyes starts to manifest the change and the shadows that emit from his aura flow into the after image

CrimsonKing:: That King that you followed was once my brother for hence i tried to be kind and devastated by the origins of hate.

Vis: So was i played , acted , scripted

Crimson King: I would know because of our own pride we have broken ourselves with us not knowing and many other were lost of what we didnt do or lead

Vis then gives those eyes and shows his will yet lacks the apathy anymore

Vis:.....maybe im just, so be it ill get my path back and what will I have left even if i have to let it out

Crimson King: now you see, you're able to see what is called the flaws of a flawed system, now wielder of the caisa form chose what path you need for whatever happens , you can forge

Vis: : tch

Scene

The After Image of Vis then manifests the same pose but a colder and older form of stature

Other Side Vis: well vis senryu you're on this state and yet you deny so many things,

Vis: tch what makes you the one to listen

Other side vis: typical talks indeed your acting like the rest of the fools, would you like to change that boy.

Vis questioning the situations at hand then sees what the crimson king was emitting

Vis: so i have to confront this now, or is it.

Other side VIs: you're only seeing a vision of what you are repressed from even your stature does indeed confirm that.

Vis:.....

Other side Vis then reaches vis blades and controls the use , slowly the blade is taken away from vis held and then unrestricted:

Vis: Crap my Blade tch

Other Side VIs: oh how predictable your thinking your materials are your personas will you make thinking highly of the justified action you've done thinking your the hero

Vis: Shut it

Otherside VIs : But im right am I no really look around yourself or even look , your already told how it was preplanned

Vis: even so I still have a will , I want my life back, the time , everything, I don't want to burden anyone anymore im sick of it

OtherSide VIs: Your acts can only go so far, so are you even aware of how much time you have left

Vis: Damn.....

CrimsonKing: your shadow image is right If you cant confront this , even me as a king have no other choice, Now think for a second young man of caisa what do you feel.

Vis: I just feel Loss and Disappointment that feeling shit its a feeling that i need to do something justified to fix. But cant its a feeling that I'm cornered with no other option....

Narrator: Suddenly the Mystic Artifact then resonates a pure green yet old flow of waves and then un restricts

Other Side Vis: then the other way to control what you cant is to change, and acknowledge what you failed to see.

Vis then forces himself to remember closely in his childhood and what he lacked as a person,

Vis: I was so Prideful not on boasting my skill or acting to get more like the rest of my friends,..... I was really selfish I kept all of my info and others to myself I didn't want to get hurt so I wanted to be quiet, I must've

Narrator: the Crimson Kings Artifact then unlocks into a ether like blade of physical light and emits and attaches to VIs senryuu , hence the blade amplifies the unlocked form of caisa light

Vis: I must've used my quietness and was prideful of it I was cold, I did it to myself, I was just not friendly why why did I do it

Other Side Vis: Because you had no other choice , your circumstance led to that people looking at you and your brother like monsters yet you did nothing, All of that hate was meant for the wrong reason, Aura was someone you had seen some attachment didn't you see it

Vis: Even then.....

Vis then remissness the time he trained in the azure training chambers and how at times those talks:

* * *

During the 3 years, Aura gives hidden queues and lures Vis into the azure night sky that resonates the azure moon glow and the stars above.

Scene

As both rai and Aura control what The Azureking Chaos is about to do,

Aura begins to remember beautiful memories of Vis and rest of those moments, knowing that the event happening will become un predictable.

During Vis limited time in training,

Aura joins Vis and Alex sparing .

Aura: hmph, what that all you got ,

Vis: huff huff why did you want to join,

Aura: tch you're like the rest no brains just mindless attacking like where the tact.

Vis: what do you know! You just a princess , what makes you have that justification

Aura then unleashes her Aura prowess Infused with controlled levels of range a specter spear close to vis neck

VIS: what

Aura: you think I haven't been through my own pains I've been through more , you'll never learn, ignorant...

Aura irritation then shown through

Her face

Vis though that conflicting state says this.

Vis: Then I'll reach it , that reason of will ill learn, then maybe you wont have to barrage me with emotion.....

Aura: hope your stubborn head gets the point.

Aura then trains using specter Aura skills keeping Vis on the edge of awareness,

Vis monologs

Vis: I can't keep up she's this good ! I have to keep it up I can't stop,

I hate it why am I placed like this why am I so weak!!

Vis rage condensed the Aura increases In the hilt of Azure, technic in soul and Aura

Aura then monologs

Aura: why are my feelings like this

What makes him so special,

Aura then sees endo in how vis plays like Vis instincts were similar to endos.

Aura: Sniff

Vis attack then rise and forms the Aura Cube like attack.

Vis: huff ..Aura

Aura: leave me alone , freaken outcast....

Aura stops and walks out

VIS: why did my attack

Alex moderating the spar talks to Vis in a understanding way.

Alex: let her be, her skill makes her proud yet sensitive, give her time.

Vis: there's so much I just don't know .

Alex I'll tell you later when we get the chance.

Scene

Aura then goes to her chambers in calm rage but in hind sight allured

Aura: sniff why was he taken away from me why did have to happen, tch, I want all of this to go away , i just want him back.

Narrator: Aura in a mood of sadness, then looks around and looks towards her books and memories.

Meanwhile at the Azure Training Garden.

Vis: I just dont understand especially her , ive seen emotional just not like.

Alex: She like that more so , shes strong and has prowess's even im afraid to see, but her heart is frail, its the reason why she has so much pride with her skills .

Vis: yeah even I cant get to her level ,

Alex: just like endo, no wonder.....

Vis whos that thou?

Alex: ill tell you later , in short he's was once part of our ranks , and more in skill,

Vis: guess im really out of my league

Alex looks at the vis skill in the aura blade and is pleased to see the development

Alex: alright let me check in and train you while aura resting,

In the azure night sky Aura awaits Vis from the queues and a conversation begins

Aura: well took you long enough

Vis: was kinda trying to get myself up hows the days milady

Aura: typical thats all you say,

Vis: well oops my bad for being a guy or whatever , so why the call thou

Aura: was just seeing how you need alot of fixing, that the reason most cant relate

Vis: pfft sure like what am i supposed to do when I dont know them

Aura then gives an eye in a cat like way

Aura: well if you're dense you wont probably see it,

Narrator: aura suddenly being quiet then looks down almost as if wanting some kind of conversing

Vis seeing what is seen knows and becomes less dense

Vis: you kinda hurt do you, i could tell , ive been through it before

Aura: no comment ,

Vis: That strength thou its kind of deep, guess I could never get to your stature Aura, Maybe your right im just a person of no aim thou, I tried but even for a moment im just.....

Aura: hmph what makes you so sure , maybe you just don't see it any man is ignorant

Vis: then a person like me is just nothing , Guess im just as cold as they say. Damn

Aura: Low Esteem uuugh.....

Vis then caught off guard then relates

Vis : But I guess now , im not as dumb as it seems, guess my skills thou can confirm

Aura: So close yet so far sigh

Vis: Hey how about this Aura, when I reach a point where im able to determine or become what is, I wouldn't mind being with you.

Aura knowing the typical reaction then says,

Aura: oh here we go, all you say yet what makes you have the stature your a commoner a terra being , or whatever.

Vis: At least your dad actually took me seriously thou, i kinda had to try

Vis now no longer talking in a vague path then says,

Vis: Ill become the strongest or even a mercenary that can outclass anyone someone unstoppable and the refusal to be weak. Because If i cant help myself how can i be along with you. I hate being a guy that cant give cover for even you

Aura then feels the chemistry and blushes

Aura: huh how did you ...

Vis: I know im flawed like even how I acted , I just need to know if im able to be in the level to be more and not a burden.

Aura rushes and leaves the area in a blushed mood

Scene:

Through the next 3 years as VIs learns many skills and learns, so does Aura, Both conflicting yet almost the same to some extent. Another converse then happens

Vis: Man those days be really going along i guess , man times flies .

Aura: You really did change, you're not that much of a commoner as I thought

Vis: Pfft I wish , Learning all of the Aura tech brought me a different perspective even thou your dad kinda gave me this Curse,

Aura looking at Vis scars then relates

Aura: Just looking at that scar, its almost beautiful a dragon like flow simple yet complex

Vis: At 1st i thought having this curse was my bane of all, but now thinking about it, It actually saved me multiple times, especially that encounter, I might be a blessing in disguise

Vis starting to feel the worry then relates in understanding

Aura: Its the reason why your willing to help, despite the circumstance

Vis: Just wishing can only go so far , Thats why i wouldn't've mind knowing what the azureking want from all of this .

Aura: you really do resemble him Endo

Vis: I guess, everyone one here says that , I wonder thou

Aura: aww oh you, you know i actually thought you wouldnt change

Aura then gives eyes towards vis and feelings of what is what it is.

Vis: Like I would know, what was the reason, sometimes it hurts

Aura: I could tell your loss its there

Vis: I dont know where to go to , or even if my parents are still alive

Aura: then at least your not alone

Aura then gives and hold something dear to vis something in combination that might save him

Aura: its my amulet, i only give these to those i trust ,

Vis: you would ?

Aura: because despite the things happening, i want to be as strong as an hier.

Vis then looks up in the sky and looks almost star gazing in the realms of the outer.

Vis: thanks

Scene

Narrator :Auras in the high chambers of azure she rests , There she holds many amulets of a loved one she lost , in that time her memories form into dreams and constructs she sees.

Aura memories then forms into the areas where she used to be free and happy in a time long forgotten, Aura realizing that her own range in skills came from losing her loved one, not having time to handle that emotion she wasn't able to cope with it right, she became protective of herself , loss and lonely , she felt she wanted to be a-lot stronger and felt her loss in so many levels. She realized that her anger came from her own dads stuck up manner always doing it for the area of a kingdom yet saw her daughter as someone to keep protected. She never thought of her self as the highest but someone simple from the start. how she felt the lack of love, and her own parental figures so stuck in their own goals .

Many men and students of the azure knights where liking to aura of that extent, Aura never budes to care and moved on , One of those azure knights, one filled with justifications hatred of his own existence and wanting a reason to have something, bad past, the one anias always had a different intent and a funny one at that. Anias tries to take auras hand at one point trying to propose to her, she refused, when anias tried yet didnt get the message, Endo came in and swayed the hand thus told this,

ENDO: my guy thought you got your priorities already finished,

Anias: says the guy that couldn't care less, tch getting the girl for yourself.

Aura: feeling in awe then realized that Endo didnt take the hand , instead he relayed a message,

Endo: Dont worry, If you need your time, ill gladly do what you tell me .

Aura feeling that then sways and moves along.

Aura: thanks

Aura: I cant get over him, why i just want this over with, I cant take it, sniff

Narrator: Aura in the dreams then sees her original loved one and how he helped her gain many skills in the most fairy tale like sense. For how funny it was , the man was confident yet relaxed his flow almost as if he was fulfilled.

Then Aura in a damaged feel, then sees her memories with Vis, hating him , afraid every time she sees vis and then sees Endo from those damaged memories, Justifying why VIs took all of those abilities away from ENDO, Aura hates vis because of how average she thought vis was. However

Aura:..... he isnt

Aura then sees her love mother in a far ago memory telling aura a message.

Auras Mother: All Surprises comes in all shapes and forms and some of those surprises come in many unexpected packages of some sort.

Aura looking into her self then sees her own pride in her, how she expected so many things how she thought of her self as an elitist, when her true class was just like the rest. Humbled by what vis has done in the time of 3 years. She then sees vis and endo the same and at one point like her father, confident, relaxed, seekers, and fearless of any outcome, from losing her loved one, she wanted to compensate for all of that by skilling her skills higher than everyone else,

Suddenly in those memories she then sees how different in the alternative strength Vis had a strength that made her irritated yet allured , she then realizes how weak she really was for justifying everything she saw to an extent in nature.

Aura wakes up in tears, she then feels the connections flowing in time itself.

Both Aura and Endo talk in a time before the current time with vis, a time where Aura was truly in loving bliss with Endo at heart.

Aura loves that feeling to be with him and messing with him to make him feel goofed or angsty

Aura: So i guess it's not a man if you keep eating your food like a girly maid.

Endo: tch im way better than a maid, im the macho sumo maid, all clothes and nets included, I clean my places and adapt my style with food and do girl goof like kpop songs

Aura starts to laugh an hysterically amount

Aura: oh you your way over it.

Endo: Wait what was it again? Oh nah, I wouldn't have heard it from a pretty glittter like slay queen cat right, or am I the bird that flys like a space jet to outer space?

Aura: your so crazy I freaken knew it,

Endo: nah im just using my gameboy rawr hands to shuffle up my big boi cards. As in its crazy rawr

Aura then gets mad for not being taken serious

Aura: oh is that right , is this true endo

Endo: wait im just being stupid oops my bad

Aura then impressed then moves along

Both Aura and Endo talk for hours and hours knowing how fun it is to just mess around, Endo knowing that hes just a goofed guy with some cool skills sees Aura for who she is and doesnt want to change her , Endo sees her value the way she sees his value,

Endo : I guess sometimes im just kinda stupid, sure I tend to anime my blades and defend like a force to be told ,

Aura: ohhhh sure like im going to buy that, sigh

Endo: definitely deserved

Aura: Every time im with you , I just wish for it to never end,

Endo: Then I guess in order for that to be in serene form, a man of skill in knight has to protect that time for those things to never end.

Aura: funny how you yap all the time, giggle its so cute it makes me want to.....

Both endo and aura then mess around and both look at each other with the simplest clarity and understanding

In the present time, Aura hurts and feels what shes lost with the only thing she kept from those times with endo, The ring that only she wanted to keep and yet that memory of that ring, torments her love for many. She looks into the moon and wishes for the reason to be justified.

Aura: Endo why.....

The exploration challenge then commences as the younger, powerful king starts the territory concept into the field.

Aura: wow the horizon is so vast its so beautiful like a moon plane of so many glows of light

Endo: You speak like a true heir of a poet, and i thought i was the one cooking things up.

Aura: Oh ha ha, your teasing me is just whatever, giggle

Endo: you know, amongst anyone you could've chosen to hang, lol you chose me thou,

Endo then starts to play with auras seat and makes some goofy fun on the arts

Aura: Stop, oh please, amongst like anyone, you're probably the most goofy and stupid, pffft

Endo: Aww, dang it, man. Now I need my goofed-up hat and sail the seven seas like a man of many aims, like a space boy in Punkville.

Aura: are you actually that dumb thou

Aura knows endo hidden intentions and reasons, then sees more into endo

Endo: varies on how crazy the realms and flows to time is , hey Aura what's a ladder's second father

Aura: i don't know

Endo: A step ladder, alright, my jokes are kind of lame thou, but let me show my other cards in shape. What do you call a pony with a sore throat

Aura : Aww, what?

Endo: A little hoarse

Aura: pffft that's so cheesy, like are you really that cliché ,

Endo: well im based and basic that what I always am in my heart

Aura: ,Sigh no theres more to you than that, I could tell

Endo: nada nah not a thing in my self or mind , whatch a talking about

Aura: oh pfft please you really cant fool me, from how you play your words, to even your goofy attack in bosses, Anyone with a brain can figure it out

Endo : Maybe in another time when we engage in the next event lol , thanks

Aura:sigh

The azure king then brings in all the combatives and knights into the field

Azure King: The enhancement of this field in the realm can now commence.
