[OBJ]

The dark shadows of Tenebris corrupt the villages and towns of the aeon leaving a ruined wasteland leaving only a few survivors some of which are running from the tenebris wraiths.

Through the Abscura forest comes through 2 young middle realm boys both named Vis and Adonis both being chased for something unknown and unique within their ether.

Vis: I cant keep up I'm almost out of breath. I cant keep up.....

Adonis: come on keep going or they are going to catch us.

Suddenly a rock blocks sadly vis away from his own brother Adonis.

Vis : Bro I cant get out!?!?!?

Tenebris wraiths : get them!?!?!? said with such an harsh voice.

Narrator: Adonis seeing this tries to get vis out from the rock collision but to no avail adonis fails.

Adonis : "Im sorry....." crying in despair while running

Vis: "why....." "feeling doomed once he is trapped.

Adonis leaves and runs saving him self

Adonis then successfully gets away from the obscura forest .

Vis Stuck in the blockage is ko'ed and captured . by the tenebris wraiths

Tenebris: ohhhh yeah we finally got him.

Suddenly out from the woods comes out an azure knight.

Tenebris wraiths: who's this? coming with a condescending voice.

Azure mercenary : that ours to take you degenerate .

The azure knight then confronts the tenebris wraiths with full control over the situation almost as he cant counter and know the opponents abilities.

through coordinated swings and swipes the azure knight cuts the tenebris's into nothings as if the knight had no empathy.

All of a sudden the tenebris pops out some poison from his mouth emitting a dark aura around it 2 times the damage.

The azure mercenary then activate one of the swords 1spells : Wolf Sword , the summon activates and then the wolf sword is enabled through the azure knight's hilt.

Azure mercenary: now azure blade wolves come at this tenebris attack now.

The azure blade wolves then pounce at the tenebris.

The wolves then attacks the tenebris only dealing minimal damage.

Through the swipes and swings the azure knight was able to capture vis from the tenebris destruction.

The azure mercenary then uses a sword spell to conceal the tenebris from destroying the boy from destruction.

Azure mercenary?????: I now cast sword wolf now enable me with your azure prowess. Now I shall used the command aura wolves to denigrate using the disabler wolf fangs.

The azure mercenary then cast a wolf fang spell on the tenebris by using the azure aura wolf to instant degrade the body of the tenebris.

Azure Mercenary ?????: be gone you fiend.

After the fight has been completed, the azure knight holds the vis or the sample into a portable carriage and activates a realm spell to transfer the young boy to the azure kings realm the realm of the azure realm .

The azure knight name is called the legendary Vextor the lone mercenary .

The azure mercenary then uses a transport spell to another realm only rare beings can interact with .

And thus he goes into the unknown realm that only a few can go into a secret realm.

Vis: Uugh where am I

Narrator: Vis suddenly realizes that he is trapped in a cell and a azure knight checking the rooms .

and then an warden comes in to test the boy telling that ” you should be lucky that you are not dead..

Narrator: Vis realizing this tries to get out from his chains and then realizes that he is trapped from the outer world.

Vis what kinds of chains are these I cant see them, the feelings vis feels starts to engage in fear and anger tries to rebel.

Vis : “You did this to me” filled with rage tries to hit the warden, just when vis tries to use his anguish, the warden pushes vis away and desyncs him .

Warden then says: don’t test me, impudent one.

One day later the boy vis is woken up by 2 azure knights that he doesn't recognize

The azure knight then tells the vis this, "it's time". The azure knights then use a chain spell to control the movements of vis and guide him into the hall of azure truth of judgement.

Vis then pushed to the center stage is now judged for of which the boy vis will be given something.

Azure knight: Sire we have a rare specimen of which we feel you would like to examine.

Vis somewhat aware of what was happening does not say anything.

Azure king replies : ahh so the young boy is being rebellious with his actions.

The azure king then uses a hidden spell to read the boy's mind,
Azure king: hmm..... ahhhh i see.

Suddenly the azure king activates a stigma tattoo on too the young boy.

Vis: Argh ahh what you do?!?!?!?

The Azure king: well considering how you are very predictable in some cases possibly dumb to some extent.

I have given a special gift if you can achieve a certain task. That task if your willing to do will cost you something.

Then I might have a reason to take away that symbol away from your soul indeed.

Now take this impudent boy back to where he belongs in the chambers.

Narrator: The boy vis is then placed back into the chambers

Vis: damn what am I supposed to do now.

Narrator: Then vis realizes that his own cuffs have become more strict on his body he collects all the scenarios in his head to escape from the place however he soon realizes that those options could lead to something bad.

Vis: what should I do to get out,

All of a sudden Vis's sigil shines bright . Vis not realizing this sees this strange light and tries to understand it.

Vis: what did he do to me this blue king definitely did something .

Vis then looks at all around his surroundings and sees a mirror, he tries to walk .

ALL of a sudden he starts to walk in the opposite direction.

Vis :What is happening to me.....

Narrator :the young boy vis is now adapting to the realms he is placed in and now realizes that he isnt in a ordinary place.

Narrator: what this realm does is all in reverse he cant do the average strategies .He now realizes the hopelessness of being trapped until the time comes.

Narrator: Many other chambers he sees are filled with prisoners that have been staying in chaos not knowing why they deserved to be in this predicament hence making their restrictions stronger. Many cry not knowing the reason.

This gives vis the fear and anxiety and tries to hold his sanity in.

Narrator: But at least the sigil shines bright within gives a warm light not ordinary the inner kai.

and with the the boy slumber deep within his psyche.

Narrator: as VIs goes to sleep he goes through the psyche realm where many of his memories pop up and different souls intertwined Shadow: You are nothing with out me as am I the shadow will snake through you.

Vis: what.... what is this.....

Narrator: As vis tries to wander in the psyche he tries to run away from the shadow .

All of a sudden the shadow disappears and comes in a special force.

?????: well hello there young master of this world you have made, it seems you are weak.

Vis: I dont even know what you are but whatever it is you dont scare me

?????: yet you were scared of that shadow of which almost consumed you.

Vis: Fine , but who are you???

?????: i am your persona and in this realm you are the controller and currently you are weak because your letting your darkness or your shadow control you.

Vis: is that why the sigil activated, was it because of my shadow.

Persona: yes it is and I as Luna have witnessed your parts of your shadow control you to no avail.

Only you yourself is to blame for the mess.

Vis: This pisses me off so much.

Persona: Of course it would, but that old man the azure king did give you something priceless., and that is the sigil itself.

Vis:

Persona: That's for you to decide how to combat that shadows of yours. Now my time is almost up your time shall rise for you to decide .

Narrator: The boy awakens from his slumber waking back to the chambers once more.

Vis: man what was that..... dream

Narrator: Days after that long sleep , As the vis wakes up within the chambers of the azure he soon realizes the spiritual cuffs are weakening.

Vis: these things used to be much stricter than before, Vis monologues to himself.

Suddenly a little girl the same age as vis comes in and accidentally meets the boy vis within the chambers .

The young girl gives a distasteful look but gives vis his first meal.

Vis realizing this hunger he has scrambles the food like wolf eating it like a madman.

Girl: Disgraceful

Vis: so what I'm hungry haven't eaten anything at all .

Girl: Humph

Narrator: the girl walks away in a vanishing swiftly movement

Vis: weird

Narrator: Vis then starts to see how his spell cuffs are weakening.

Vis: wait.....

Narrator: Vis then starts to focus into the spell cuff embodied into him . And tries to focus though his mind and closes his eyes. The sigil sudden activates part of the boys aura system allowing him to visualize the spell cuffs.

And in return he focuses his sigil prowess that was given to him to negate the spell cuffs.

All of a sudden the spell cuffs gets restricted even more from vis mishap.

Vis: Dang it.

Vis : But at least there's a weakness to this maddening cuff. I just got to learn how to control this weird sigil .

Narrator : Vis Monologues to him self how he will escape this strange realm he is placed in.

But first Vis must learn how to meditate and focus on destroying these strong spiritual cuffs.

And just maybe he will succeed .

All of a sudden the sigil begins to flow through the energy system within vis and thus awakens a little part of the Alternative Aura within. The azure aura is now at 1 percent and can now enable part of the cuffs to weaken once more.

But will he be able to escape this labyrinth of a maze using his wits to out class the realms rules to get out.

Narrator : After multiple tries of uncuffing the spell cuffs. The boy is finally able to release himself from his restrictive cuffs that have embedded him for days. Now his fury has now been replenished and now the boy vis will find a way. to escape this advanced Azure realm filled with different mazes and movement restrictions built from a unique point.

Vis: I finally did it, now time for my escape.

Narrator: the boy vis now then starts getting used to the weird rules of the realm by walking backwards he moves forwards and by moving forwards he moves back.

Vis: argh argh what kind of shit is this.

Narrator: After hours of getting used to the movement in the realm he then tries to unlock the chambers .

Out he goes into the main jail courtyard where now he has to sneak into every corner in order to evade the azure wardens from capturing him.

Vis: Inner monologue , okay my options are to either confront the wardens because they are blocking the exit point and I don't have much time before they know im out.

but how do I do that.

Narrator: the boy vis then sees a armor and knife resembling one of the azure knights but in order to get it he will have to run fast to get it . VIs knowing these conditions hatches out a plan to get the armor and knife

Vis: alright I think I know what I can do. inner monologue

Narrator: vis seeing the wall bricks then tries to meditate through the rocks and in doing so activates one of the sigils benefits.

Vis: alright

Narrator: Vis then realizes this then tries to use aura resonance to fill the bricks with vibrations on the opposite side getting the warden's attention away from the vis.

Vis then takes the chance to unlock the armor using his sigil and transforms the aura for himself and cloaks himself with the same energy wavelengths as nothingness.

Once vis gets his item back he is able to get away from the jail courtyard unscathed.

Vis: Finally

Narrator: All of a sudden, the warden breaks out through the chambers enraged seeing that His personal azure armor has been taken.

Vis: knowing his time is almost up tries to use his aura to conceal himself in the ground.

The warden then calls out vis: You are now done I want you dead , come out you sneaky shit.

Narrator: The Boy then prepares for combat and then combines his aura with his sigil to combat the warden's aura.

And thus the battle between the warden vs Vis commences.

Narrator : Vis starts out with his premeditated attack on the warden by sneaking up on him concealing his aura and rushing towards him with the azure knight knife. Vis jumps and stabs the warden in the back but to avail.

Warden: gotcha bitch!?!?

Narrator: The warden then takes the vis hand and throws him into the air and tries to restrict him once again using a stronger version of the spell cuffs.

Vis now using pure wits and instinct then uses the knife with his sigil to create a boomerang knife while in the air.

Vis uses the knife to hit one of the tress with enough aura force to cut down a hallow dusk tree.

the tree hence falls down on to the warden back

Once Vis creates the distraction he syncs the knife right back to his hand and runs towards the exit.

Warden: ill get you for this you little ingrate.

Vis: yes I am finally out of the zone,

Narrator: Vis tells himself to keep moving or else he is dead, the sigil then activate and allows him to run alot faster compensating with his energy intake.

All of a sudden he is stopped by many azure knights with weapons stronger and longer than he is.

Azure knight: you have gone far enough , now come with us or else you will face the consequences.

Vis: and if I say no

Azure knight: then his highness is correct you are an impudent sample.

Narrator: The azure knight then facades right next to vis knocking the boy down in one tap.

Azure knight : If only he knew about our true intentions sigh...

Narrator: the azure knight carried the young boy back to the azure kings palace.

The azure knight suddenly feels a weird sensation and knows a terrible event will happen.

Narrator: VIs wakes ups with out the azure armor nor the knife in the midst of a judge and is in the process of being held in another cell or possible other restrictions for the destruction the boy vis has done. Judge: from the actions that you have done, you will have to pay for what you have done in some capacity .

Vis: ...

Narrator: Vis himself is still in a loose state and then says this VIs: I don't deserve any of this and I will rage to the end of the earth to get out you hear me!!!?!

Judge: stubborn, look at what you have done look into your self and maybe you will figure it out.

Narrator: all of a sudden the little girl who is named Aura is with he azure judge says this to the king

Aura: I saw him do many things not even an average azure knight cant do yet in this vanity kill him now and all of that potential will rot.

Azure king : and why so, maybe I did give him the sigil yet he did all of this damage.

Aura If you restrict even more for your testing's he will rise with a rage like no other like the rest of the test you have done, he is the one. Papa

The azure king right next to the judge then stops the judge from sentencing him.

Azure king : let him be

Judge: But your highness: look at the unspeakable damage he has done to this whole area.

Azure king : you dare defy my judgement judge?!

Judge : no sire I apologize for my mishap

The azure king then restricts the movement of the judge holding the judge accountable for his actions.

The azure king looks at the young boy and swiftly circles the boy .

Azure King:.....

Narrator: The azure king says nothing at all but analyzes the boy once more

Vis: the boy feeling the immense pressure tries to hold on to his sanity by controlling the sigil in his head. with the aura he has accumulated and inner self he is able to combat the azure kings strong aura for just seconds.

Azure king: It seems you have achieved the impossible , only a few terra beings can activate the azure sigil and yet you only did it within a matter of weeks.

Narrators: the azure knight surprised and jealous throws a special lance towards the boy to test his evasion and speed.

the boy vis then uses instincts to combat the lance and uses the grip to deflect the attack. Azure knight: Hmph this boy

Azure king : grrrr

Azure king : Anias how dare how do that specific action.

Azure KNight Anias:.....

Azure king I will deal with you later.

Narrator: The azure king then puts his attention into the young boy and tells him:

I own you now little boy , You have a prowess that is unlike any one and now you have passed my test.

Azure king: All of these events that Have happened were meant as a test to see if you were capable of overcoming and by that you have shown the will of the azure within you.

Vis:.....

Azure king : it is fine , even if you did escape you wouldn't be able to go far back to your realm.

And also I've already planed the access points to multiple traps and you succeeded to the right one. SO in the end you lose impudent boy

Vis: Tsk

Azure King: so give up you have lost from the very beginning .

Vis: after all of this I thought.....fine I lose damn.

Vis then accepts defeat and hands his young'un life and allegiance to the azure king.

Narrator: Several hours later in the azure kings chambers.

This young boy will soon transcend me and the others I just know it.

Narrator: the azure king looking at his deceased son who was knight himself. And thus sees the potential the young boy has.

However as the azure king sleeps, the shadows and tenebris flow through the realm fo the azure.

Vis wakes up not in a chamber but more like a bedroom, the boy tries to walk and suddenly he can walks normally again.

Vis: finally i can walk again..... geeez

Vis goes and walk amongst the doors and tries to see what's going and suddenly he sees a military amount of soldiers and knights .

Vis comes out from the door and every single azure knight, soldier , magician looks at the young boy

Azure knight: its him,

Azure solider: tch oh yeah its him why did the king chose this whimp i could out pace this guy .

Azure knight 2: man ya'll are a bunch of slackers just looks at him.

Azure solider: at least he got the looks and eyes too.

Azure magician : I sense immense rage and aura from this boy he is very special.

Vis: hello there my name is vis nice to meet you.

Azure knight Anias: you expect us all to say hi man just look at you you don't even have what it takes to get good.

Vis: but I do.

Azure magician: quiet he's' about to burst.

Azure Knight: I doubt this boy will its just a one time thing.

All of a sudden the young vis uses and aura punch to activate a critical disabler movement.

Azure soldier: nice try but that ain't gonna work young man.

Both VIs and the azure soldier Anias does a little skirmish the player vis then Azure knight looking at that little skirmish stops the fight its and tells the young kid something.

Azure knight 2: Yoo Anias stop keep your temper in check.

Azure Soldier Anias: tch fine.

The Azure knight 2 named Alex then crouches down on to the strong boy.

Alex: Oh child Vis No wonder he chose you, its your instincts and those reflexes i have not seen in ages, the only one I knew who could do it was him.

Alex I will train you instructed by the azure king to become or even stronger then the predestined knight.

Vis: really .

Alex yes really.

Both Alex and Vis then walk to the Training room where they talk 1st about tactics.

Alex alright lets begin.

Alex then shows his own sword technique with a sword with chains on the hilt yet the sword has no complete blade.

Alex: right now my sword doesn't show any kind of aura nor a complete blade.

Vis: I don't think that could be used thou?

Alex: I like how you question that.... however.

Narrator ;Then Alex the knight then controls his aura into the sword and manifest it into a wieldable 4 circle sword.

Alex: Alas here it is , now how I use this technique is by trapping, but in order to do so you need to have 3 components, Vis: which is???????

Alex the physical so your body, mental your personality , and spiritual, your inner kai.

Vis: ohhh

Alex: And from what I've seen from you, your fast so a speed body build is there and you could do multiple attacks lacking damage and possible critical's if you land your attack correctly if needed. Both your arms and legs can do quick action which means your mental state is calm . And the fact that the azure king gave you a sigil which is a aura catalyst your spiritual kai is Aura based.

Vis: wait how did you know all of this?????????

Alex : because i'm sorta the same as you only my body changed to a defense build.

Now lets begin the skirmish.

Narrator: Alex hands out a hilt with out a blade.

Alex now I cant you to control your aura with this hilt I want to see what your capable of.

Vis: uhhhhhh

Alex: its alright we can take as long as you want. Im here to see this through to see why the azure king chose you.

Vis.....

Vis then holds the hilt and closes his eyes

Vis then monolouges:

Focus Focus.....inner Aura

All of a sudden the hilt vibrates and activates multiple cubes all aligned floating.

Vis: I....i ... actually did it what is this.

Alex that my friend is your aura sword, ill show you mine.

Alex then uses the sword on a bunch of rocks. the rocks then floats trapped within the circle parameters.

Alex: my technique is counter based so these circles can only be used when the opponent attacks me. However my sword can also re emit the circles back to me when needed.

Your style is similar to mine but you need to learn how to control the sword aura.

Now lets begin.

Narrator: both players start training in the room and Alex show vis many techniques he can use many of which start out with using each plane as a blade of its self.

Alex you are very lucky to have this kind of power its might be to most rare one of all.

All of a sudden the castle s sirens activate and the both combatant stop.

Alex: Now?! alright VIs stay here your not ready.

VIs: But I learned so much let me help.

Alex: No the battle field is to much for a kid.

Alex then emits a restriction spell onto the young to vis putting him to sleep and puts him into the bed.

Alex: so it begins .

Narrator: Hence the upcoming battle between the Tenebris and wraiths begins.

Alex and Anias and the rest of the troops come to the rendezvous point as they intercept the tenebris's and wraiths.

Alex: Alright what's the status Anias.

Anias: Thought you knew boss man sighhhh....

Alex: Just answer my question its not that hard dude.

Anias: sigh alright there are multiple wraiths all over the vincities the homes, towns, and even the gate way.

Alex : crap they did it on such notice.

Azure magician: it seems they are not attacking yet .

Anias: If someones stupid enough they would go in right ahead with out thinking.

ALex: somethings not right.

Azure magician: Im getting the same vibes too,

Narrator: Azure knight Alex then realizes what is going on and starts to tell.

its coming from the air.....! RUN FOR IT.

All of a sudden a Grade S Wraith come out from the sky and causes a poison air attack towards the azure troop. and Comes down like a physical shadow

Anias : shit what is this thing!?!?!?

Alex: A tenebris a shadow not from our realm something so dark we can not comprehend, every one prepare we shall defeat this beast.

All the troops commence their attack on to the tenebris.

The magician starts his spells and activates a spell to slow the tenebris pace.

Alex :nice one alright my turn.

Alex then uses his azure circle sword to capture and slice the tenebris. But to no avail it doesn't work correctly and counters his azure sword.

Alex: Argh what is this.

The azure swords starts to vibrate in a negative side.

Alex then is forced to take out the tenebris from his grasp.

Alex:damn what is this thing I can't capture it .

The troops overly fearing start too run knowing they are to weak.

Alex fall back

Hours later

Alex gasping for air then tells the troops back at the castle to buy time.

Anias: you dumbass we almost had him !

Alex: I know but something felt off.

Anias of course every freakin monster is like that a tenebris is no different.

Narrator: Anias then grabs Alex top shirt and grabs him.

Anias: You piece of shit now every one of us is gonna be court martial by the azure king for not following orders.

Alex : I'll take responsibility but for now we can't take more damage.

Anias: tch fine

Minutes after the drama. Vis wakes up in his bed seeing Alex .

Alex: hey there doing good.

Vis: I'm doing good why did you do that to me

Alex

Alex: you mean the spell I had to do it for your safety .

Vis:hmph I wanted to help I really really want to.

Narrator :Alex laughing then tells vis

Alex: maybe another time after you get stronger than me.

Vis: really !!!!

Alex :yes

Narrator: vis then sees the recent blows from his arm.

Vis: ummm what happened?

Alex getting flashbacks then tells the young boy

Alex : it's nothing

Narrator: Days later

Both vis and Alex train their abilities to see what potential can be made.

Vis learning quickly is able to adapt the azure sword it his will

Alex: Perfect your getting there I'm thinking you are at the 1st percent of your power.

Vis: what does that mean?

Alex: it means that your power has just awakened and needs more times to evolve.

Mine for example I can adapt my technique for long durations and trap multiple opponents and attack.

Narrator: after Alex explains his attacks they finish their training regiment.

Alex : well next in my schedule is the judgement by the king sigh.....

As the azure knight Alex comes to the judge chambers he sees the little girl. The azure king s girls hold a special object none has seen before.

While VIs is training in the Training Center by himself, the azure princess puts a very special box inside the Vis's room, Aura: I hope the box can be solved by him.

Aura then leaves the rooms with no trace in sight.

VIs comes into the room and sees a strange box

Vis: huh what's this...

VIs looks at the box and starts to see strange makings around it in general.

the box then emits a strange aura around itself.

VIs: strange that i'm seeing this aura.

Narrator : VIs then activate the hilt to activate the sword properties within.

Vis: alright let me see if I can crack this

VIs then activates the sword and hits one of the boxes edged with his own sword cube.

Parts of the box activates a stronger light but dims right after.

Vis: What kind of box is this man .

During VIs solving of the puzzle Alex the azure knight is placed in the judging chambers for his actions. and alex himself await the azurekings orders to be either court martialled or taken from his rank.

Judge : from your action we have determined that we will give you a second chance only because there are some strong grade S tenebris in the areas . But if you fail this it will be placed on your permanent record for life and you will be exiled or banished from this promise and the azure king. that is the azure kings final order . Fail this and your done for.

Azure king:

Azure knight Alex : Understood I will finish the mission.

Azure king: is that a fact?

Alex: Yes sire

After the meeting ALex is then confronted by Aiias while alex was takinga break in the lunch roon.

Anias: ohh looks like someone is a little pissy today.

Alex.....

Anias: anyways i heard that some troops are gonna do some strange stuff to counter the tenebris's.

Alex: how so.

Anias: man I thought you knew sigh.... they trying to use the top secret summon forged from other azure spirits to combat the monster's.

Alex: You mean the summon we got from that realm.

Anias: pffft of course that aura of a beast is a rare type a rank SS monster If we can achieve summoning that behemoth< we can be unstoppable.

Alex :seems to far fetched to me , that summon requires the highest of the ranked magicians.

ANias: I know right so what were gonna do is that were going to ask the other members if they know specific magicians who know the other realms properties and pay them to do the works for us.

Alex: Hey man you do you im out I got alot out of my plate.

Anias, tch fine have it your way.

ANias gives a strong and nasty look to ALEX when leaving.

ALEX: sigh man what a day this is turing out to be.

Meanwhile Alex comes back to the Chambers, and sees VIS with a box trying to open it up.

Alex : yo , what ya got there young man, he then suddenly sees the legendary box of summoning.

Vis: uhhhhhhhhh

Alex: explain this!

Vis: I just sorta found it in my room I swear i didn't do anything to get it it was just there when I came back.

Alex:.....then who placed it there.

Aura the azure princess look far away and runs to the azure king.

Aura: papa I actually gave the box is that okay,

Azure king: Sigh i knew you would

Aura he reminds of my big brother I miss him

Azure king I miss him too.....

Azure king then brings tears seeing his only son at a glance trying to understand why that event happened.

Alex takes the box and tell vis too stop tampering with the box

Alex: alright enough tampering with the box, I will try and put this back where it belongs.

Vis: aww man and I thought that box was for me.

Narrator: all of a sudden the box starts to open up with a bright light and finally opens up after trials and test to open it.

?????: yeahhhhhh im finally freee so whatcha guys doing and tbh ima go legitness mode.

Alex: Oh no.....

Vis: whoaaaaaaaaaaaaa.....

Alex: no wonder the king wanted this summon away from the premises,

Vis: uhhh why hes so freaken awesome

Alex: Its Spirit based a counter to our azure aura selves we just cant take the vibes from this spirit.

?????????: awwwwwww really that isnt fair I just got out I can even dank heal see im healing things right. Plus Im gonna placed inside this box by the realms rules Pleasse.

Vis: see why cant we keep it we already got the summon activated soooooooooo.

Alex: Out of all the nonsense i had to deal with the Tenebris, the judging and Anias bullshit there's this sighhhhh....

Alex exhausted from all of this nonsense tell vis.

ALex: oh well well im gonna prepare for battle . Just dont care anymore im out. Man im gonna get reprehended for this

Narrator :Moments later:

Anias: wait what!

Alex yep and im being serious about all of this

Anias: ohhhhhhhh your in deep shit my friend. Deeeep Shit

Alex: what kind fo luck do I have sight anyways whats the status .

Anias: deeeep shit oh yeah ill give some context, the specials summons almost done.

Alex: And I thought I was the dumbass you know how stupid extra summoning an azure beast is. Like I said before it takes multiple magicians to get even seconds of summoning time for that beast.

Anias: Well its almost complete by me and the brochachos come one man its out little secret and we will out class all of the tenebris.

Alex skeptical about this questions anias about this but plays along

Alex: The fact your giving me that look means something maybe it could work.

Anias: Ohh yeah now your talking ,
Suddenly the Sirens actiavtes .

Alex its time,

Anias: Yoo is vis ready

ALex: you expect a kid to help us ina fight against these hgrade S monsters.

Anias: you expect us to win this with these fearful knight some of them just ran away man comeone think .

Alex: hmph fine .

Narrator: ALex then comes to the VIs ' room,

Alex: Plans changed your now ready for face some of these monsters.

Vis: wait what really I thought I was a liability.

ALex: we dont have much of a choice now.

Vis: really oh yeah im physched like holy crap man.

Alex: that my guy, you really are changing, good .

Now remember what you learned you may be the extra trump card we need use all of your assets in order to stop all of these monsters.

Narrator: both Vis and Alex go to the same rendezvous point were they go up against the though same grade S Tenebris. All of a sudden the hilt of Vis sword starts to rumble and shows a strange symbol similar to the sigil unlike anything before.

Narrator: As vis runs with he rest of the remaining troops within the castle ruins somewhat far away from the azure castle, many of which are fearing where all for the wraith and tenebris are. Vis sigil actives once more and Alex sees this to his surprise.

Alex: ahh i see so your sigil is working again right on time.

Vis: yeah I cant really explain why the azure king gave me this its almost like its not really a curse even though it tires me out thou hmmm.

Alex: there's is a reason why the Azure king chose you and im already seeing it im almost a bit jealous , that reason is special but .

Vis: Oh ummm But im not sure if im actually willing to fight these monsters. like I want the action but I just realized how weak I am. Dang it.

Alex: no worries this is your 1st battle, and for your case you already have a decent amount of techniques. Just follow my orders carefully. Plus there are people like me to help guide you in this

Vis: yes sir

Narrator: Minutes later they all meet at the previous rendezvous point.

Anias: took you long enough and you brought the kid lol.

Alex : he's ready i've trained enough times to see his capabilities as long as im here he's the trump card. Anyways what's the status on the tenebris's

Anias: same only this time they brought more backups because we you messed up so yeah you dingus. The op summon isnt finished yet but whats finished

Alex: sigh alright that's some bad news however, we got the kid .

Vis: what do you mean ima kid im strong and I got power i'm freakin invincible.

Alex: now hold your horses young knight, your still in my command and if you refuse the orders then you will go back to the chambers.

Vis: man you keep saying that I want action you know that teach.

Alex: You'll get some soon enough just follow my orders.

Vis: alright

As the troops separate into multiple groups of 10 Alex the group 1 leader then sees a crap ton of rank f monsters.

Alex: so those are the reinforcements, no that cant be those are to weak.

Vis: pffft I can take those on their aura isn't even that strong.

Alex : precisely why in context this is a trap , learn from this.

narrator: Alex then brings in his azure sword which has healed up from the mishap, and uses the circle swords powers to instant denigrate the f ranked monsters.

Suddenly a S rank trap spell was activated using the shadows presence.

Vis: whoa

Alex: that like I said is a trap anyone would have seen with enough foresight.

Vis: Im guessing these more monster coming this way, narrator: As both Vis and Alex, hide under one of the castle ruins, they see a mysterious figure cloaked in red and there resides the S ranked Assassin Ater, awaiting the report.

Alex: shh be quiet somethings coming.

Ater: Hmmmm, It seems the trap was a complete failure. A test I should have known to use corretly Narrator: then the Blade Swords men Ater, analyses the area, almost as if he has complete control of the situation and stature.

Ater: ahh I see this is very peculiar,

Narrator: Suddenly Ater swipes the targets hiding places into two or so what it seems

Alex then uses a quick teleport spell only can be used twice to a different location on another rock.

Ater: hmmm... must be my imagination...

Narrator: then Ater leaves with out a trace.....

Alex : Shit that was way to close,

Narrator: Alex closing the boys eyes VIs overly fearing realzies how out classed he is.

Vis: holy moly that was

Alex: An S ranked Assassian some one with insight and foresight too strong to comprehend now I understand why they were doing this .

Suddenly an Azure knight pops up from the rendezvous point very damaged.

Azure knight wounded: our forces our.....

Then the azure knight plops down holding a message.

narrator: Alex then holds the message much to his dismay sees a chilling message.

The message says, Bring us all of your items, swords shields, summons, and even Aura or face the wrath of the Crimson king Rubeus within A maximum date of 3 years by then you all should be able to give the items from this ransom. Meet us at the predestined point the colosseum and 1v1 matches will be required.

Alex: shit not Rubeus not him were screwed

Vis: Rubeus???? that doesn't sound good.....

Alex: A king way stronger than any of us and even stronger than the azure king himself. Someone with so many assassians its to much to bear. He is part of the kingdom's soo strong it even out classes our own.

Both Vis and Alex go back to the rendezvous point where they meet up with Anias and the others.

Alex: You guys got the news were f'ed

Anias:.....

Soilder one: we cant take them on thats too over my league man I cant take this man sob.

Anias: Damn what should we do.

Alex: We gotta train now, quick and sharp , for those who are weak and still want to join come with us , for those who want to save their own then leave. This will be a battle only the strongest can survive.

Narrator: vis then seeing more than 1 /3 of the forces leave wounded .

Vis: I saw his face..... that face reminds me of Alex: shadows I know there are more forces beyond our control and now we know now we got to train.

Hours later back at the azure castle, the Azure king , Anias, Alex , and several other members come in to see what they can do to counteract the crimson forces of assassins'.

Anias: crap we lost troops because of this were at 40 percent capacity of knight soldiers and magicians. We got to use the azure summons that we prepared to counter the crimson forces.

Alex: That wont work yet because its not stable yet that summon is to experimental.

Anias: And a 1v1 he's expecting all of us to be there and fight anyways where is he is supposed to be here.

Other members question where he is too.

Anias: Man don't tell me he's sleeping again shit during a time like this.

Narrator: Out form the corners of one of the rooms, A sleepy azure mercenary comes out to greet named Rai . He walked relaxed with the booze hes gotten.

Rai: yooooo what's up my brochacho's, man all of that booze was fantastic.

Anias: Man rai late as usually were you sleeping for like days man.

Rai: oh come one with our own squad we drink all day man there's no point being so serious fight all the time.

Alex: he's right we all should take back sometime and relax life is life plus we got 3 years we can boost our morale in time.

Rai: ohh there's a young man in the presence , and his aura is strong filled with youth.

Vis:

Rai: ahh not much of a talker i see.

Alex: give him time he's getting used to al of us.

Vis: You guys think I got what it takes to take them on I know im weak , but at least I got the mark of the azure let me help . I could even activate my mentors other hilt.

Rai: Ohh the young man thinks he can take them on , you sure will in these coming years.

Anias: why are all of you so optimistic this is war we cant out class these crimson assassains, Narrator : Every one except Anias, looks at VIs and every ones hope increases.

Azure king: we shall succeed this young boy will now be my successor just like my son once tried too. We will not give the ransom we shall fight.

Anias: I just got some good news it seem we got some new allies. ANd the fact that they were giving us a warning was a bad idea were gonna overcome this big time.

Narrator: Everyone rejoices as they see the young boy vis to become the true knight to succeed hence the arduous training regiment starts .

Above the castle highest point the Crimson red assassin Ater watches the meeting un schathed and hidden by hiding his aura watching, He monolouges this,

Ater: It seems I have an opponent that I can oppose i will tell that to the crimson king himself. That young boy I hope he doesn't meet the same fate as the rest. SO I can see his potential.

Narrator: The next 3 years the boy shall become a mighty knight but will he be able to out class the Ater and the crimson kings assassins'.

Narrator: As the young boy vis walks to the training chambers he sees Aura for the 2nd time, Both of them with a fuss saying.

Vis: hey there,

Aura: oh its you.....

Vis: yeah its me so what

Aura: humph acting arrogant as usual makes me sick inside.

Vis: Im not as dumb as you think, i've seen this strategy back at my home town . were you trying to get me into trouble!

Aura: Maybe..... maybe not that my own choice because i'm better than you too.

Tension between Aura and VIs intensify .

Narrator: aura twiddle her fingers.

Vis: this girl.....

Aura : fine then I wont help you your nothing to me hmph!!!??!!?

Aura storming to her own room. Tells herself this.

Aura: I just wanted to help that's all

Aura then looks at her picture of them, the Azure king , herself, and , cry's a little when she sees her brother in the picture,

Aura: he reminds so much of him I wish he was here.

Anias seeing this then tries to talk to Aura with a decit like no other.

Anias: Oh aura it seems you are feeling helpless come on let me talk to you just tell all of your struggles.

Aura: no get away from me your creepy.

Anias: oh please i'm not that creepy, im jsut tryign to help you plus that vis guy isnt even that good at all. hes jsut a young boy , comeone you need a man like me.

Aura then locks her door and tries to sleep.

Anias: man talk about cranky well eventfully ill get what i want from this in the end.

Narrator: 1 year later

Vis is now able to control the azure sword for at least a minute controlling it with enough aura energy to be synced.

As Vis and Alex train, Alex lectures Vis on how to hardness the power of the azure sword other abilities using a modifier rock.

Alex: there are a many form of which the azure sword can be used, since you are aura based we can test out a new combination of tech.

Vis: ohhhh

Alex : you seem excited man makes me wonder how you have changed never mind that. Let's begin.

Narrator: Alex then emits a strange aura from his hand and tries to hold an entire object

Alex: I'll show you how I test every object with aura narrator: alex then holds a rock in his aura based hand and the rock levitated .

Alex: this my friend is how you float an aura object and in order to do this you have to focus very hard with your calm build emotions. I want to see if you can do this simple task.

Vis: alright I'll try my best.

Vis then tries to hold the rock but nothing happens

Vis: hnnngh man why isn't it working

Vis feeling helpless tries again only with more focus power .

Vis: hnngh man why isn't it working i did a similar thing with the sword hilt and it worked for seconds.

Narrator: Vis then gives the rock back to Alex

Alex then lectures the young boy about the rock

Alex: Well you see I've made the rock more hard for aura users to use this rock is meant to test what type of build you have so the rock may not seem it's changing but it is in hindsight.

Alex I'll show you how my aura can manipulate the rock .

Narrator: Alex then activated the rocks other properties and moves the rock towards vis again but with more control.

Alex : I know that when trying to control the rock it may seem hard at 1st but it takes time just put your inner focus and keep tab on the development. Now let's try again.

As Vis and Alex train the rock movement training, Anias, Rai , and Aura watch the young boy talking to themselves .

Rai: Man I just knew Vis this young man of 15 and yet he's already training like us man . And it's only been one year.

Anias: you know what at 1st I thought of this kids as pretentious but as time went on I'm starting to see change. Im kinda glad Aura: hes grown so much the last time i've talked to him he used to be so rash , now hes growing to a grand knight. Its feels strange almost wholesome seeing him like this.

Anias:..... okay the girls acting weird.

Aura: what did you say.

Anias: gulp nothing?????

Both Anias and Aura picker for a bit while rai laughs for a bit.

Narrator: Rai then joins the training with Vis and Alex.

Alex: oh hey what's up Rai

Rai: nothing much fam just chillin how's Vis doing,

Alex: he's doing pretty well doing his training step by step.

Narrator: Rai then hold his own azure modifier cube with swift ease.

Rai: you mean this thing lol its the most basic tool for analysis the cube might be too easy for vis if he's quick enough.

Alex: heh Ifs he's quick enough he says, just watch and see.

Rai: alright ill keep your word lets see what happens.

Narrator: All of a sudden Vis starts to make the modifier azure rock float for the 1st time.

Vis: Whoa gasp i actually did it. YES!!!!!!!!!!

Alex: alright calm down there more to be taught in this lesson here let me guide you on this.

Narrator: As Alex Lectures on how the modifier rock was just a test , they go into more depth on how the azure works, and hence the Training truly begins.

Alex then gives vis some time to practice the sword handling on his own.

Alex: Alright lets get started with these sparing tools.

Narrator: Alex then brings up 2 azure hilts from the training chambers

Alex: these hilts are special since they invoke only on style of the knight itself. Which means you have to figure out how to dodge my attacks while manifesting a physicals aura on that hilt its self.

Vis: this is gonna be hard isn't it I can already tell.

Alex: hey man I thought you wanted to get stronger at this plus we only got 2 years to prepare for this event. let do this.

Vis: gulp alrightie

Narrator: Alex then run towards vis using his signature move the trap sword swing.

Alex: alright here goes, Trap sword attack,

Alex then uses the special aura attack on to the player VIs.

Vis frantically trying to manifest an aura panics and rolls multiple times to dodge the attacks.

Vis: come on please work this time,

Narrator: vis then panicking then realizes he use his sigil once more, and monologues

Vis: yes finally its working now I can attack

Narrator: VIs then uses the aura force within the azure sigil and controls the hilt of the sword while defending Alex 's attacks.

Alex: excellent your getting there now your using all of your tools . Now show me what you go now.

Narrator: suddenly Vis sigil activates and allows the boy to control the azure cube sword that is manifesting.

Vis: right here's goes!, Now I can activate the sword at some potential

Narrator: both vis and the sword resonate a strange aura and then vis attacks. And the cube within the sword flow through the area where alex is going to attack.

Alex: ohhh close one if I had been attacked by that I would have been scathed ohhhh. Smart move Vis your getting good.

Narrator: After hours of each players attacking each other with the azure powers manifested stop for a moment in time.

Alex: alright that far enough for now. Good job now your able to manifest your azure sword with ease compared to last time you weren't able to do so. Congrats Vis: I could have done alot better than last time this happened. Im gonna try and get better at this.

Alex: man I remember last time you used to be so timid when I met you i even had to force you to talk lol.

Both vis and Alex laugh for a bit.

All of a sudden , Rai comes in and tries to train Vis his own techniques.

Rai: yooo what's going on guys been hearing alot of clashes seems pretty tight .

Vis: Oh hey Mr.Rai i'm doing great learned so much from training with alex.

Rai: nice ... nice , well me and Alex are gonna hang for a bit anyways good work.

Vis: Thanks .

Narrator: Vis then gives a great smile implying that he feels contempt with all the events he had to go through.

Vis: im grateful that the azure king gave me im starting why he was trying to test me.

Meanwhile at the courtyard of the azure king's place,

Anias: Is he there yet

Alex: intellect wise he isn't there yet, but his combat though he's getting there.

when the time comes he will outclass all for us because he came from the terra realm.

Anias: Rarity pfft more like something else. There aren't that much terra realm beings in that realm ever since the tenebris wreaked havoc back all of those years ago.

Alex: yeah he might be the only rare few that we might see the ones who can adapt and use multiple realm abilities. Only terra based beings can control multiple elements.

Anias: Damn it sucks we can't do that I mean I'm freaken jealous of that kid . Wait you don't mean.

Rai: Magic and the elements fam.

Anias : !!!!

Narrator: Anias then sees this as a shocking revelation.

Anias: but that was just a myth I know that any being who has that magic is impossible to meet unless like a force way stronger than the beings of higher kingdoms.

Alex: which is why terra beings have that potential, they have the will of peace within them. And so that young man vis.

Rai: he might actually be the one and the fact that his mark is glowing more brightly means something. else is goign through the young boys vis body.

ALEX: He has the potential lets just see when he can become. He might the predestined Azure user that can acess a 4 planes of abilities.

Anias: oh come on that stills jsut a freakin myth the physical, mental spiritual, and magic crap what's there to it man.

Alex : the potential of the world itself, Rai and Anias lets make a pact. We will guide this young boy to be the strongest

Narrator: Anias then joins however he gives a look a craftines look almsot as if hes planning for something with out integrity, Anias then monologues

Evil Anias: they really expect me to join their pact for this kids please why would I wanna do that , I got my own aspirations and dreams, maybe I could use Vis as a tool to control the azure summon that I've been working on. Ohh demonic I am I shall be hmmmmm ohh ohhh ohh.

Anias then walkout giving Alex yet again a condescending look to begin with and walks .

Alex not taking his looks to seriously then talks to Rai,

Alex: if the pact is broken then I myself will sacrifice myself for the young boy if anything happens this boy is our priority .

Rai: no worries, I got your back.

Both Rai and Alex then gives both of them selves the fist pump for respect implying their brotherly bonds as knights. hence the training continues only this time the stakes are higher as the time draws near for Vis 1st training to be completed .

3 month later the young vis gets a dream he hasn't gotten in a long time and meets his stronger version of the persona luna.

Vis: im here again man this places feels different.....
The persona then follows the young man vis telling him.
Persona: its been a while since you've been here.
The boy then sees the shadow a lot powerful than before,
All of a sudden the shadow comes forth and tries to spiritually use an souls attack unknown to the human eye.

Luna: no worries im here you the embodiment of my soul .
the shadow then falls back but gives a remark telling using its own tounge

Lune: now leave, VIs you doing well.

Vis: this place its a memory of my home town back then,.....
Vis then remembers the event of what happened, and quenches his hands,

Vis: Im gonna get payback for what the tenebris did and maybe ill get to find my brother,

Vis then makes a goal to meet his brother and tries to analyze his attributes.

Shadow: you are weak without your instincts, you are nothing without me.

Vis: shut up you not me I am myself ill find out why these events happened to me to begin with ill find a way..

The shadow then tries to attack adn all of a sudden vis then wakes up

Vis: what kind of dream was that?

Meanwhile in the distant realm of Albus a realm only the azure king knows, there lies Vextor the lone mercenary training to his hearts content waiting for the right time

Vextor : look like its almost time for me to comeback from my training in this realm,

Vextor then pets his azure aura wolves and trains each one of them and trains himself by attacking the dummies he made with the aura wolves.

The azure king then pops up from a realm portal and embraces the lone mercenary.

Azureking: vextor master of the aura wolves how have you progressed.

The old mercenary then trains a little more by attacking the training dummies he has created.

Vextor : ahh I've gotten a bit better but just a little im ready your sire.

Vextor then looks at his emblem within his two kids,

Vextor: ill have to keep my identity hidden for awhile until the time comes,

Azure king I understand I'm also using a hidden cloak to hide myself . Right now a lot of events happen that are going to change the realms themselves.

The mercenary then puts the emblem back into his pocket and allows his mind to focus on the dummies .

Within strikes and attacks he is able to slice the dummies into multiple parts with ease.

Vextor: now what can I do too combat the combatants or even the Crimson king himself hmm.

Azure king: Do as you wish I believe that our secret plan will work.

Hence both the azure king and the Vextor the lone mercenary leave without a trace closing the realm.

Narrator: 3 years later, only 30 percent of the troops are left since many have left because of how treacherous the grudge between the azure and crimson king is. Only the strongest of the strongest troops are left to challenge the Crimson king.

Alex has gotten decently strong on his attacks and strategies, Alex is now able to detect opponent far away from the premise and do strategies such as trapping and controlling opponents movements using the azure circles made.

Rai has become much more agile with his attacks allowing different styles of Arial aura combat to be used.

Anias well he became much more intellectual too much in fact that it overwhelms.

And VIs, now the grown age of 18 has now conquered the azure sigil is now able to control the azure sword with ease. He also learned a new technique with his azure sword he can create the cubes planes into mini swords and destabilize the opponent. The surge of power flowing through the boys head is now flowing through the body now allowing him to run with a speed and technical build.

Alex then gives the vis the version of the azure armor that he used against the warden.

This is yours now

Vis: gasp really holy crap thanks!!!!

Narrator:Vis filled with glee also feels shocked because it's the same one from the warden.

Vis: oh no that armor is..... is the warden chill with me?

Alex: tbh I actually had to take it away from him since he is a lazy man indeed.

I still remember him trying to agro me and that was stupid.

Narrator:

Hours later

They all meet up at he rendezvous point where the coliseum is built from eons ago now rebuilt for realm hub where multiple players and realm knights meet up.

Alex: are we all ready !

Anias: you don't have to ask me twice heh

Narrator: Rai drinking some booze then tells the others.

Rai: Oh yeah hiccup im so foretaken by this tremendous amount of hype im gonna enjoy this.

Anias: drunk as usually, oh well lets see what happens i got that special stlye of mine i can use.

Narrator: Anias looking at his sword and Alex with such ease of evil then switches his eyes to a façade. Vis pop us to the group and sees all the others and says, Vis: Man i cant believe this is happening , the battle is really starting.

Alex: careful were entering the coliseum where many other realm hubs are .

and some of them aren't kind beings at all So keep an eye, especially for our enemy.

The Troops then enter the colosseum realm where many other realms interconnect the middle point.

From one of the crevasse's is a hidden assassin lurking in the desert about to pounce onto the strongest azure knights. Alex then senses something is wrong and uses the trap sword on the ground right on time. The assassin dodges the attack and changes stances, the group notices this and prepare for battle. The assassin then gives a menacing look telling the assassin that they will get what they want for the crimson king himself. Both the group and the assassin take a glance both parties ready to attack but call it off. The assassin then leaves the premise in fast movement.

Alex: missed damn, looks like the crimson king is testing something.

Vis: what did he say

Alex: He said, well be back for that the crimson king awaits our coming . It's almost as if they are trying to bait us.

Rai: what cryptic message from a high ranked assassin . And lol that assassin doesn't even compare to us .

Alex: their alliance to the crimson lord is very strong so they will follow every order which in contract to our group is indefinite.

Narrator: looks at the remaining soldiers and gives a worried look.

Alex :sigh..... well there's no point dealing with this message.

Anias: thought you were the expert on this

Alex: never mind

The party then leaves the premise and walk into the Bazaar for equipment and items

Rai: yooooo look at all of this holy crap we can be unstoppable.

Alex : alright group commence to buy the items

Narrator: Minutes later

The group could not afford any of the items just potions and healing ointments

Vis: man how come all of those items were expensive man come on.

Alex: agreed never knew why that was the case. It wasn't like this years before.

Anias: man was just about to buy that awesome sword lol.

Rai: And those agile shoes I really need it dang bro. If only we could make money to get those items.

Vis: I think I have an idea we got time so let me explain.

Vis explain his plan for a mini contest were multiple people from other realms come in and take on the challenger with soul or aura slaps , if the person handles the aura , soul slaps pretty well , they get the betting money.

Alex: lol a slapping contest man you are creative vis and well that's gonna take some time thou imagine it how will we be able to grow an audience.

Vis: I think all of us are capable enough like most. All we need to do is to get some of us to play along with the slapping contest and make money out of it .

Rai: Sounds like an fantastic idea I'm in how about you Anias.

Anias: easy

Alex: Sigh fine let's doing this.

Narrator: Moments later the whole group plan a contest and the players act out the slaps seeing like they are weak to make the money.

Eventually more low ranked combatants come in to play the mini contest to see who would be able to slap the hardest. Many of the combatant fail as most of them are hit not too hard but decently hard enough to leave .

Vis being one of the contestant uses an aura technique where his slaps hit subtly hard .

Then a unusually combatant pops up. Cloaked in dense indigo and a mask filled with aura like prowess.

Vis: oh and who you be fellow combatant.

The mysterious warrior then says:

????:I'm just A simple mercenary I'm just here to see and play this game.

Narrator:Both vis and the mysterious player come forth and suddenly their auras begin to sync and the slapping begins. Both players Aura slap each other and both give similar damage . Vis then seeing this then moves back from for a sec. Vis then monologues this.

Vis: who is this guy , we both slapped yet the damage was the exact same what is this

Alex then pops up and talks to vis:

Alex: what's the hold up,

Vis: I don't know somethings up with him I just don't know yet what it is. And yet it feel's familiar.

Both Vis and Alex look at the mysterious figure and in return they stop the contest.

Alex : alright it seems that this slapping contest is a draw. Both combatants are out.

Narrator:Vis then sees the mysterious figure and sees a strange aura flowing from his mask, something very similar to the azure armors aura .

Vis: strange what if

????: I see now

???? then leaves the scene and goes with out a trace hiding his identity once more.

Narrator: Vis thinking is then stopped by the Rai with a pat on the back.

Well that's enough money to buy us enough weapons.

Vis realizing this then focuses on the money they have achieved.

Alex: good work Vis very creative of you to help us.

Vis: it's no big deal.

Vis then looks at the colosseum and the height.

Amazed by the spectacle. Then monologues ,

Vis: I wonder if I'm gonna encounter that figure again. Hmmm.

As the group commence their weapon upgrade.

The mysterious figure then transports to to the colosseum chambers to see his commander, and tells.

????: Alright I've gathered enough intel on the knights.

The commander looking at his book of contestants then says Colosseum Commander: and that would be ?

?????: the knight seems to have from decent to tremendous amount of levels it seems that they were able to level up from the last time in the records. That being said theres one specific player that is young but has alot of potential a new type perhaps Colosseum commander: very good , your are very intelligent for using the records to analyze the data I've given you.

????: that young man he's strong and familiar.

Colosseum commander:

Both the Colosseum commander and the ????? meditate until the battles begin.

Hours later, the groups then diverge into different directions to combat many of the crimson forces. Alex and Anias then commence their attacks on the 1st floor of the colosseum chambers, Anias uses his sword to do a aura boomerang swing. While the Anias is attacking one of the assassins', Alex then traps each of the assassins using his trap sword that disables the movements of each assassin for jsut minutes. While both of them move the other azure knights then do the same and try and capture all of the assassins' by using their aura sword techniques.

Meanwhile, Both vis and Rai run while the attack is being transpired and both of them jumper over the colosseum bricks and towers with ease from their own training in the azure kigndom. Rai then activates his aura jump that enable him to do some creative jumps such as jumping long durations, Vis trying to to keep up uses his azure sigil to compensate for the jumps thus allowing him to jump like gliding.

Rai: nice your keeping up lets get to that Hq and do some damage.

Vis: this is gonna be hard isnt it ,

Rai: Well imagine this you got all of your skillsets that you have built from scratch and emboied yourself with the azure armor why not use those powers for total peace.

Vis: your right why dont I use it, alright I got it .

All of a sudden the mystirous aura colored cloacked figure attackc svis, Rai: shit Vis!!!!!!!

Vis: Hnngh

Both vis and The Cloaked figure both attack each other in a mid air sword fight.

Both combatant are now in a stance but both of them don't attack with mindless thinking. They slowly walk to each other and stop vis then says,

Vis: it's you again , just who are you my blows that I've done are not simple to do yet you were able to do similar damage.

?????:..... your sigil

Vis: what how did you know about!

?????: never mind I'm here to stop you from entering this Palace.

Vis then attacks the mysterious figure using the sigil prowess using quick movement to change the sword stance he is using .

The mysterious figure then activates a sword spell canceling the quick movement of the sword vis is using.

Vis: damn why isn't it working.

?????: typical you were using a prowess typical for your age.

Narrator: Vis then try's again trying to outwit the mysterious figure by switching his stance once more by using his head and wait this time.

The mysterious player then attack non stop using a coordinated amount of attacks using his soul sword to control the feeling of the soul of vis . The attack then transforms into a barrage of soul tigers trapping vis, Vis trapped then focuses his sword to a cube build using his technical build from his training. One of the soul tiger then attacks Vis , vis then dodges and uses one of the cubes to capture the soul tiger disintegrated it.

????: ahh so your that type of player fine have it your way.

Moment later Rai enters the Palace of the Colosseum where he hides to see no one there

Rai: wait ohh that ain't good .

Narrator: Rai realizing this was really was a trap then tries to run to see the what's going on and sees many of the azure forces in destruction.

Rai: Oh no they are going after the azure king dang it why am I trapped I gotta tell the others.

Meanwhile, Alex and Anias then successfully capture the Crimson Assassin's .

Alex: now tell us what does the crimson king want this time we .

The crimson Assassins then say nothing but ,

Crimson king never ,

Anias then whips his sword and points it into the assassin's and the assassin's then say this

Crimson Assassin's , your king will be checkmated.

Alex: what oh no the azure king!

Narrator:

Everyone stops and realize they have been outclassed.

Meanwhile, both The lone mercenary Vextor and The Azure king prepare to fight the crimson king and his forces. The Azureking then enforced everyone to leave the castle parameter before it is too late. Vextor then summons his extra aura wolves to the scene and the azure king hold his strongest weapon the Sword of the Azure , Anubis.

Vextor: well old friend they were planning way ahead weren't they hmm.

Azure king: An epic battle this will be indeed I have my strongest will to appreciate this duel.

Moments later the castle is now quiet filled with an empty noise and suddenly the main hall door opens ,

The crimson king , Ater , and Taurus then approach the Azureking.

Crimson king: shall we begin old friend or should we make a pact it's your choice my old friend.

Azure king : I knew you would do this , so what do you want

Crimson king a little ticked off then says this

Hmmmmm I would like for you to make an alligence with us no harm on that would it?

Azureking and Vextor then confront the crimson king ,Ater , and Taurus .

Vextor:

Narrator: The players Vextor and the other 2 s tier assassins Ater and Tarsus. Stare at each other.

Ater: very interesting indeed if we were to fight it would end pretty strange would it Vextor.

Narrator: The crimson king then tells the Azure king,

Crimson king, times clicking

The Azure king and Vextor then start moving with their weapons and start their stance.

Crimson king : I see ahhh oh well so be it ,

Both kings showcase their immense Aura and Clash only with their senses themselves.

Thus the battle between kings begin with an epic scene of majestic prowess .

As Vextor and the Azure king himself both commence the double duels between the kings chambers and transmit different auras like prowess to counter each other to see who is stronger, The crimson king kneeling a lot stronger transmits a aura like presence like no other filled with rage and horror that counteracts with the grace and feel of the crimson kings actions.

Vextor then summons his azure aura wolves to attack Ater and with the wolves movement he runs with grace attacking. He then attacks Ater with such grace that Ater then counters with a single swipe, chips of the rooms decor and swinging the sword with crimson soul beams.

Vextor then commands the wolves to circle Ater .

Ater then comes forth with a strong soul beam unlike any other disabling the wolves movement for just a bit . Then Ater rushes to Vextor pushing him to the brink of swords clashing.

Ater then say with a feel of sorrow,

Ater: I feel for those who do know pain, and from what I'm feeling you are a very old soul .

Vextor: shut it

As both Ater and Vextor fight like there's no end to the chaos, Vextor then uses a Azure spell to separate the opponents called Aura Push.

Both combatants then change stances and stop.

Both the Azureking and Crimsonking still pushing the aura closely see what the combatant are doing.

Meanwhile, both Vis and the mysterious figure both fall into the colosseum ruins where they stop and talk,

????: there's a reason why I stopped you this time .

Vis: why should I talk to the likes of you your the enemy you literally invaded our territory.

????: That invasion was meant for something else we were ordered to do so.

Both Vis and ???? then clash once more and then all of sudden they stop and move away from each other. Vis then replies with,

Vis: the exact same aura and damage what are you this doesn't make any sense .

????: I know you have so many questions.

Vis then attacks using the aura sword and boomerangs the sword towards ?????. Chipping off the mask.

Vis:!!!!!! What!!!!

Vis then sees the mask almost worn off then thinks for a second.....

Vis: no

????: so you finally figured it out, glad your in still good shape.

Vis: Adonis!?!?!

Adonis: yep it's me man finally I can take out my facade of a man I am.

Vis: then that time before were you trying to test me who do you work for bro I got so many questions.

Vis then punches Adonis in the face.

Vis: that's for leaving me behind man.

Adonis giving a understanding looks tells vis

Adonis : yep I deserve that.

Both Vis and Adonis both fist pump and start chatting.

Adonis: man I gotta a lot explaining to do now ohhh boy this is gonna take awhile. But I'll give a brief summary, Narrator: After the summary, Adonis then explains his back story of how he became an orphan to the terra farmer and how the farmer taught him soul attacks to use . And how he is currently a mercenary with the prowess.

Vis: whoa your kidding me you actually learned how to use the soul form from that terra farmer Sophia dang man that's pretty op.

Adonis: pffft soul form builds are way to simple I wish I had the creativity like you man like how .

Eventually vis, then feels the sorrow when Adonis talked about how he left his home and searched for answers.

Vis: so you fought your old man just to get out or in most cases be strong enough for the real world.

Adonis: Yeah.....Anyways I don't have a lot of time but until then I'll play along I'll meet you at the battlefield. Remember I won't kill you because your my brother. But you have to play along who know what could happen to us if they knew so keep it hidden.

Vis: alright bro no worries .

Back at the azure kings castle,

Both Vextor and Ater are both tired out and in a strange coincidence the azureking stops and then says.

I've had enough of this , and does a very strong attack with his azure sword but fails.

Crimson king : oh come on you can do better than that you used to be the greatest of all the knights even I was jealous of you back then.

Azure King : shut your trap.

Both the azure king and crimson king both stop using aura and soul force and start attacking .

The azure king then tells Vextor to use his only 1 teleport away from this vincy to the location of the remaining forces. Vextor agrees exhausted and teleports away. The azure king all alone then 1v3 in a duel .

Vextor then teleports to the location where vis is thinking from his aura senses,

Suddenly he sees both Vis and Rai both scathed a little bit.

Rai: wait is that you Vextor holy crap ,

Narrator:

Rai realizes Vextor isn't in good shape then tells vis to get some ointment from the pouch to help heal up Vextor.

Vis : of course

Vis then gets some ointments and bandages to help heal up Vextor, minutes later , Vextor wakes up.

Vextor: finally I'm awake , cough cough.

Vextor then gets up and tries to see who's there, and sees both Vis and Rai .

Rai: boy I'm glad to see you man and tbh I'm freaken dumb it turns out.

Vextor: yeah the palace was a trap both me and the azure king knew this would happen.

Rai: wait you mean this was all a ploy to begin with.

Vextor : yes your old king is about to over summon the special Azure summon that might start a massive blast.

Rai: damn we can't let the azure king die like this what should we do.

Vextor: right now I'm in no shape to attack multiple times however I can give my wolf sword to Vis.

Vis: the sword of the wolves that's op

Narrator: Vextor then gives the sword to vis entrusting it to Vis, with his weakened hand from the hard fight.

Vis then in return gives the solar sword to the azure mercenary.

Vextor : I know you can stop this catastrophe from happening. You are the child of the designed future.

Rai: I'll take care of him bro now you gotta go use my last teleport your the only chance we got the others are to far away.

Vis looks at all of the thing he has and thus holds the sword to his he'd almost saluting.

Vis:..... it's my turn

Narrator: The wolf and solar sword then resonate a bright aura resonating with the young man, the young boy vis is now at 20 percent of his power enabled . And thus the young boy uses Rai's last teleport to the Azure kings palace where his potential will be tested.

Narrator: As Vis teleports to the Azure kings palace, he holds his sword in a thrusting motion and and he plops into the air he almost hits the s ranked assassin Ater, then the sword surges a transformative aura on to the ground.

Ater then dodges unscathed from the thrust attack done by vis,

Ater: Ahh a new challenger appears ohh how delightful this is indeed ohhh.

Vis: damn I missed

Both Vis and The Azure king then stand together trying to create a mini plan.

Azure king: Cough you actually came this time , right on time

Vis: no worries king I know your almost out of energy let me help you on this.

Vis then gives the azure wolf sword to the king , the azure king astonished by the sword that he has seeing then has hope.

Azure king : alright follow my command carefully for every attack they do they slither around messing with our own swipes in order to counter this you have to attack from behind each and everyone of them and I wont be easy. When you do that ill produce an spell to summon the azure summons that I've kept secret from all of you.

Vis: alright understood,

Narrator; as both vis and The Azure King Start to control their stances against he strong crimson kings aura. The crimson King himself begins his attack and chants:

Crimson King: Red Aura of the souls of the crimson let the flames be brought and shall destroy these impudent beings.

Suddenly a strong Aura out of from the voice of the crimson king then syncs into fire balls.

Vis then runs away from the fire balls and swing using his trap sword to counter or trap the fireballs . Vis successfully does and uses the wolf sword to summon one of the wolves on instinct .

The wolves then attacks and bites the crimson king on the leg but only does minimum damage. As the crimson king spells out the Fireball summons, the azure king then summons one of the strongest azure wolves to exist . Vis then rush's towards Ater in a strong stances pushing back Ater little by little, Ater unscathed by this then rushes towards the wall and does a jumping strick using multiple soul beam . VIs, seeing this then defend using the azure trap sword once more to trap the soul beam. All of a sudden Ater comes behind the Vis.

Vis:!!!!!!

Vis then Moves away from Ater shocked by this then uses the wolf sword and puts long distance away from the player.

Vis: this guy damn I got no time to deal with this the azure king needs me .

Narrator: Vis Realizing this then focuses the trapped soul beam and moves the box to the aim of Ater, Vis: fine lets see what happens.

Vis then focus's with this azure sigil and all of a sudden the soul beam in the trapped Cube becomes an aura beam.

Ater: ohh I see your gonna do it I see very good let me see it your true potential is let me see it fine knight of the azure.

VIs: Aura sword activate !!!!!

Suddenly the aura sword releases and Voooom the aura beam from the cube and does direct damage. The other part of the Cubs then form little swords to attack Ater from the complete charge up.

Ater shocked and damaged by the attack then realizes hes out of soul power.

Ater: well played well played.....

Narrator: While both Vis and Ater duel, Both King do massive damage to each other, the azure king with his ultimate summon then attacks the crimson king riding it to damage the crimson king.

The crimson king knowing this then Makes a fireball smoke screen from one of the crimson kings limited arsenal.

The Azureking king blinded by the smokescreen then activates the azure wolf restriction and command the Wolf to Search for the Crimson king.

Azureking: The almighty azure wolf get him.

The Crimson king slightly tired from the battle then sees Ater damaged from his attack.

Crimsonking: Ahhh so it seems I dont have a lot of spells anymore well checkmated Azureking, I over estimated you and yet you were sly as a wolf.

Narrator: The Crimson king then carries Ater and lead Tarsus from the premise and says.

Crimson king: We are not done yet until It returns , our fate intertwined to the ends of the earth Old friend. I'll succeed with my mission eventually.

Narrator: The Crimsonking ,Ater, and Tartus use their teleport spell to go out from the realm.

Vis shocked by this revelation that the opponent actually withdrawn from this battle says, Vis: wait we did it , holy shit we actually did it! YOooooo I won yeah .

Azure king: hmmmmm there's more to found in this predicament. Were not done yet.

The azure king then negates the summon and awaits for the groups return.

Moments later the whole group is finally back together and most of the azure knights are still here in line and order of the king himself. The Azure knight then instruct everyone who was hiding in the other town to comeback for hence they have won the fight.

The azure king then promotes a promotion for the young boy Vis from a novice to one of the ranks of the knights .

Vis rejoices with ease and now feels the intense joy of succeeding in a fight .

Many rejoice and many drank, and Vis looks at the sky filled with a dense blue night sky filled with an I dance of energy inside it fills him with hope.

Vis then walks and sees Aura ,

Aura then give a pout to vis trying to prove superior.

Aura: Hmph you've gotten stronger however you have many ways to go so I'm still better than you on that hmph.

Vis: yeah your probably right

Aura then looks at vis as a whole for how much he changed is astronomical to many degrees.

Aura: but you gotten a little bit better.... i suppose

Vis: why thank you madam I'm grateful for your admiration.

Aura blushes and runs off.

Vis then looks at the stars and then he sees something very mysterious and then sees the starts aura with brightness like no other.

Vis: thanks bro.

Adonis up in the air floating then sees Vis.

Adonis: Looks like my bro won this time but sadly I'm gonna have to go back to the colosseum head quarters . Man I wish I could have been there as a better brother. But at least were both safe.

And thus Adonis and Vis forges their own paths one with the azureking while the other with the crimson lord himself.

Adonis: I'll have to face my brother off once more if I'm able too keep this facade up.

As the whole group of sure knight rejoice Anias then leaves the vicinity and tells them, Anias: I'll be going somewhere for a bit nice talking to you all.

Anias then walks to a corridor and walks to the garden alone where he sends a message to a mysterious figure, in the other realm,

Anias well well if it isn't you , and no worries I'm currently hiding our auras with a hide spell for 10 minutes

Ater: indeed , how long has it been since I'm been here like this .

Anias : pretty long indeed , the last time you were here you were banished from this place.

And man that sucks but I got a plan hatched up.

Anias then pops up a hidden summon emblem that he is currently making.

This summon I was waiting to use against the azureking once the forces were weak enough or lack of numbers to attack with. But If I were to do it , I would be executed for doing so plus I'm not that type of a smart guy to do it yet .

Ater: oh please I already know since we used to be friends back then. But I'll help out but you need to be in our allegiance . Then maybe I'll use the summon on the Azure king.

Anias : why of course I was about to betray the king anyways there's forces are lacking so much .

Ater then it's a deal , the crimson king would be delighted to see you.

Both Ater and Anias then leave the garden in hidden walks undetected from the azure kings palace.

Narrator: Anis then grins with a evil face knowing his plan is coming to completion.

Months later, all of the azure knights including vis all line up for the azure kings next order.

Azure King: our next mission for our whole kingdom is now rebuild our Kingdom and then we will confront the Crimson king himself for doing the damage he has done.

Every Azure Knight: Yes Sir!!!

Azure King then turns and looks at the young knight vis.

Azure king : As for our young successor Vis, he shall train with alex and further evolve the skillset of this young man.

Alex: Understood, your highness, would you mind if I were to being him with me and travel to a specific location .

Azure king: And that would be what kind of destination

Alex: A location I only know of where he can the art of stealth and aura transformation. Its a location where on old friend Vextor of mine knows. It is a realm in terra that is known for soul abilities.

Azure King: I will allow this to happen on one condition, that this young boy will be safe in your grasp and that he accomplishes the task at hand.

Alex : Understood I shall vow to put him in my care for the time being.

Azure king: I have a gift for Vis since he is the only one to hold the prowess to Adapt with his sigil now.

Vis: thank you so much my liege you are the most kindest.

As both Vis and Alex go off on to their place where they then summon a strong realm spell to transport themselves into the terra realm. There Vis then looks at the castle in awe and missing those times he has had .

Alex: you ready for this Vis,

Vis: yeah i'm definitely ready for this im ready to get stronger to protect the king because im grateful for what he has done for me.

Vis: you know at 1st I really hated why the king wanted to control me but it was meant for my own good. Its almost as if he gave the sigil as a mark a acceptance.

Alex: now your finally getting it , that was the kings ultimate wish for you to be his ultimate tool which is mean but also to become a sucessor to his passed away son.

Vis:!!!!!! I didn't know about that wow .

And thus both Vis and Alex enter the terra realm and on to the training they begin.

Both Vis and Alex enter the Terra Realm where they see the obscura forest reminding Vis what happened in this area.

Vis: Man this place gives me memories , Just all of those events and even my brother. I just wish some of these event hadn't happened.

Vis looking at his armor then realizes how much he has grown.

Vis: glad Im at this stage now as a person and as a knight i shall become better version of myself .

Alex: well said , anyways lets go find the location that has the potential for you.

As they go into the Obscura forest they encounter a lonesome terra warrior, The warrior then try's to test both vis and Alex with a strength test of aura. Alex over comes the jungle warrior aura and the warrior then allows the combatants to enter the temple.

As they enter the temple Vis then begins to feel sleepy. Vis: sigil then activate a strange aura once more only this time it makes Vis go to a sleep like state.

Alex: Vis!

Vis then plops down to the floor sleeping with a strange state unable to wake up.

Alex: man this isn't good unless

Alex then thinks of a probable solution and searches for a town in the terra realm. Hours go by and Alex finally meets a Shaman walking and asks for his help., The shamen analyses the boys current state and says this .

Terra Shaman: this young boy is going through a strong transformation it looks like his sigil is almsot at 100 percent and is about to evolve.

Alex: then why is he in this current state oh might shaman .

Terra shaman: hmmm it would seem a strange entity has taken this youthful young man and needs someone to travel to his conscious. If he doesn't get that shadow out then, he shall perish.

Alex: Which means the temple is the best choice that temple allows people like me to meditate and focus my power.

Terra Shaman: I remember many who have tried to Cure shadows like this before but this shadows is something I've haven't seen before in my life. Hmmmmm

Alex: damn im guessing this shadow is from something else?

Terra shaman:..... no its coming from the boy itself hmm I will help out only for this time because this shadow if left uncheck will wreak havoc onto this young boy and other around him.

As Alex carries Vis on his back with the Terra shaman, Other events play at the Crimson kings Palace.

Crimson king : ahh i see , very good very good it seem more and more combatants are joining our plan .

Narrator: Ater then teleports to the location to see the Crimson King, giving some certain intel .

Ater: I have some very good new that might intrigue you my liege .

Crimson king : Ohhhhhhhhhh enlighten me young man Ater you must give me this news . Im so excited.

Ater: it would seem one of the azure king knight seems to want to betray his king but at what cost nobody know indeed, and he holds a very specific item indeed a special summon that he has put up in secret in the works.

Crimson king: Ahh Ahh I see that is very intriguing to hear a once loyal knight turned rouge ohhhh very malicious of him to do ohhhh. bring him into the squads he will be a valuable assets to my assassin . Oh and of course let him use that summon to It shall be very compelling to see.

Ater: Also it seems that I as a Assassin have compiled up the young s mans data, from your battle with Vis. It seems that he's getting there as a knight and he's about to awaken something truly remarkable that might test our own capabilities.

Crimson King: ohhhhhh this makes me so excited like a little puppy awww just thinking about it makes me wanna dance with glee.

Ater: this also means we can attack using our other moves that we dont use , that is what makes me intrigued by this young boy indeed.

Crimson king; I would be delighted to fight him again at a state where my excitmetn is at it max ohhhhhhhhhh.

meanwhile back at the terra realm, Alex ,Vis and the terra farmer then reach the temple . There alex puts the sleeping boy into a meditative pose and the shaman then focus is aura into the young boy . Alex then joins and they all go into a synced up state that enables them to go into vis consciences.

Deep in Vis Psyche dream there lies the restricted vis chained up about to be corrupted by the black aura surrounding him.

Thus the challenge of getting vis out of those mental chains starts.

Vis trapped within the mental chain then sees a strange light that resembles Luna the persona of Vis. Only this time Luna leads vis meta spiritual body into the gates of his inner mind

Vis: this is my self?

?????: been a long time only fellow.

Vis: no it can't be holy.....

That's right I am you the shadow that embodies every dark prowess you have.

Everything that you have done all came with a price and that is your consequence.

Shadow: you have over used your time and I shall infect .

Or in most cases you true instincts.

Vis sigil then shines brighter than any light in the sky itself.

Vis: What's going on, I can't comprehend this.....

Shadow: oh so that sigil is what kept me from taking over you in the 1st place well well the king sure does have a lot of tricks....
tch.

Vis: I don't know why I'm here but I do know one fact , I'm here to confront you.

Shadow: well well how will you do that.

Vis: I shall wait because I know I'm not that strong enough to take you head on so I will keep my stance here .

Shadow : ahh I see well I as your instincts will stay too I am you by the way just in a way where your negativity resides.

Vis:.....

Meanwhile, both Alex and the shaman are successful with the opening of vis conscious which then enables a hidden realm deep within vis, sigil.

Alex: alright shaman stay here , I'm gonna dive into his psyche to encounter this . Please keep the defense while I'm inside his psyche.

Shaman Before you go take this,

Narrator the shaman then gives a special item that enables the user to do a one time purification on an opponent.

Shaman this young man is going through a confrontation so you'll need to use this very carefully.

Alex then jumps into the realm vortex of vis psyche and thus he is sent into a strange maze of vis's memories.

Alex then sees every event that happened including the events before the attack of the tenebris.

He sees something very strange indeed ,

He's sees vis father and mother and then sees something strange happening . He sees Vis father transformed into a tenebris by his own will and infects the young boy vis thus abusing vis's mental psyche to the point of no return .

Vis then scared then tries to get away from the scene with his mom but the mother runs away .

Vis then realizes what has transpired and breaks and starts to cry like a helpless child.

The boy vis left in the floor then keeps getting infected and poisoned by his dad shadow appearance.

Alex:.....vis no wonder your change is astronomical. I now know your resolve you had a goal that was waiting to hatch.

Alex then focuses his aura sense to find Vis and suddenly he sees vis just standing there in the void.

Alex: vis your really there man come on talk to me .

Vis or the Shadow Vis then attacks Alex using only his bare hand only this time the hands have changed to show blackness.

Alex : shit....I'm too late.

Dark Vis: it's been sooooo long since I've been in this state ahhh ahhhh. Yesssss I shall complete this form then I shall control.

Alex: I gotta purify Him now he isn't in a controlled state more or less.

Alex then uses his stance to change his circle sword movement in hand.

Alex holding the purification emblem in to his sword like a magnet . he then uses the circles sword abilities to put planes of existence into the realm field.

All of a sudden the dark vis uses his dark aura to make long dark arms to capture Alex ,

Alex then uses the circle swords trapping ability to trap parts of dark vis , aura arms to be stalled.

Alex then runs with his weapon with the purification emblem and puts more traps on the realm field however he now has one circle spell he can use now.

Alex: alright now to put play him..... I'm gonna save you Vis I promise.

Narrator: Alex then takes the purification item and leaves his sword with the spell intact . Vis arms then attack the sword following its aura sense and gets countered .

Dark Vis : then triples the amount of dark aura around the Vis's realm . Almost breaking the traps Alex made within 10 seconds.

Narrator: Alex then uses the purification emblem and rein towards Dark Vis while the opponent is using the dark aura.

Alex : condone work please work.

Dark Vis then Attacks Alex's arm with dark aura and poisons parts of Alex armor.

Alex: damn it. vis can you hear me I know your still there awaken.

All of a sudden the purification spell allows vis to semi awaken.

Alex: yes it's working now I gotta force Vis to fully awake his sigil.

Within Vis's mind Vis then sees a strange light,

Shadow : no noo nooooooooooooo

Vis: that's my queue to leave now.

Vis then focuses onto the energy using his almost completed sigil prowess flowing into the light given by the purification spell.

All of a sudden the young boy Vis reawakens from the shadows control and his aura reverts back to its original state.

Vis: am I really back whew I thought I was a goner back then

Alex: man your dark side is a beast to handle no wonder the azure king had his eyes on people like you.

As both Vis and Alex returns from their meditation realm cycle , the young mans vis sigil transforms into a Azure aura mask.

Vis: what in the!!!!!!

Alex: finally you have awakened it the mask of truth the mask of strife.

Vis: I did when did I.....

Alex during your sleep....

Thus Vis and Alex rejoice for a little realizing that vis now has acquired a new power like no other has ever seen.

As the crimson king does his daily routine back at his castle, he remakes with Ater and Tartus on the plan its self.

Crimson king: ahh I seek no other than the reunion of all the kings themselves in a battle like no other. Because I'm reality I should've have been the one as the Ultimo king of azure ultimate successor back then. I always wonder why he didn't chose me . I was stronger than him faster than him smarter than him. Why did he entrust the azure realm to him the crimson king then says the name.

Crimson king : caeruleum my young brother how was it that you had better knowledge than me hmmm.

Narrator : Ater then teleports to the scene

Ater: my liege it would seem that Anias the azure betrayer has sent a message to me

Crimson king: ahh so it's has started I'm would love to hear this.

Ater: he has said that the special summon that he was crafting is now almost complete about 99 percent perfection in his own eyes.

Crimson king : and that summon would be.....

Ater: a chimera of some sort between a dragon and a wolf. It is said to have prowess of the legends foretold .

Crimson king : very good very good I shall put this in my list of good things .

The crimson king : plus with that summon and everything that I have acquired from other villages , I might have a chance to meet the ultimate king himself again.

Vi is now transformed with his aura mask, Alex then realizes the amount of potential the young man has.

Alex: I'm proud to have you as a mentor to your training for all these years you have grown indeed. Now your potential now has increased . Now I can teach you more abilities to come.

Vis still trying to fix the setting of the aura mask imbedded from the sigil the azure king made then says.

Vis: this is a whole new thing , its surreal.

Alex: then there even something more surreal things in this world, that your able to conquer or confront part of you shadow is a feat.

Alex then explains something very peculiar about vis state of a being.

Alex: you coming from the terra realm is a rare thing, You and a few have that potential to encounter it.....

Vis very surprised by Alex gesture then tries to connect the dots and understand.

Vis: you don't mean me as a being or someone with.....

Alex: the terra realms hold many attributes that not even me nor anyone has. its the middle plane where the person born in can accomplish the ultimate stage or perhaps enable the ultimate state.....

Vis so theres 3 of states? I thought there were only 2 states both soul and aura,

Alex: there's exist the stage of the spirit where the being can enable properties beyond our control only the strongest kings know of this strat.

Alex: this is why Im here to train you in this stage of the temple to activate this.

Hence both Alex and Vis learn how to control the new aura mask VIs has now acquired.

After days of non stop training and meditating on to the mask the young man VIs then starts to see his hand filled with immense energy.

Alex: Yes its finally working you getting there.

Vis: whats going on with me I cant control it its hurts.

The shaman then focuses onto Vis with all of his terra aura and soul.

Shaman: ommmmmmmmmm

Vis:

Vis then closes his eyes and tries to manifest his hands into something ultimately a lighting of some sort. He keeps trying to manifest it while it tries to fade .

After multiple tries the magic of lighting then appears for just a second.

Vis:!!!!

Alex:!!!!

They both are shocked by this and then sees their potential. Vis exasuted from the intense training of meditation and swordplay then sleeps.

Alex; You deserve the rest now.

All of a sudden , Vextor teleports to the location very hidden based and Alex then catches the Aura.

Alex: I knew you would be here whats up bro living the dream im guessing.

Vextor: nothing much just traveling as such obtaining items for my next sword and upgrading the unusable solar sword ...that sword has the potential but Alex: but what.....

Vextor: this solar sword of the spirit Solis came from a ultimate realm that even I cant reach yet. The fact that the azure king himself has this box kept for a rainy reason is strange, because this sword is unfinished.

Alex: I could tell from the compartment of kinda looks alike a place for an orb

Vextor: I have a feeling the azure king himself is hiding something I know him for this long and he doesn't hold many secrets to himself. But this is just the icing on the cake, I don't know what he's truly planning after the rebuild.

Alex.....you seem unsure that ain't good.

Vextor: Alex you keep fighting these forces on counter based ways your knight are weak because we aren't on the offensive it's almost as if we're being played like a game.

Alex:

Vextor: Maybe that's why the king gave this boy the sigil....

Alex stop just stop I don't want to hear this why would he.....

Vextor: I know your king might be hiding something a plan of some sort I don't know, but it may have to do with this young man vis. The fact that he could carry a sword so bright that even us as azure knight couldn't is strange.

Alex: I've known the king to a point when I was young he would put me with his best squads, so I'm not sure now. Unless,.... no unless he's trying to experiment.

Vextor: Checkmate you win, there's a reason why I came here, Vextor then give alex the solar sword.

Vextor: I'm just a simple mercenary that travels and you should do the same, I worry that your kingdom will fall on his command, because he is planning for this young knight to become a strong warlord that may end up havocing many kingdoms.

Alex: But why would he do that.

Vextor: Both the crimson king and azure king are both manics for control and they desperately need Terra beings like Vis for their conquest.

Vextor: your King or my old friend has changed, his wrath is still there compensated by his own ego. If I were you you should leave and never comeback.

Vextor then vanishes into thin air to another realm, Alex then looks at Vis and the amount of growth he had as a Knight.

Alex:.....Then what was the point on all of this in general.....

At the Azure king's Castle in the time of midnight there lies the azure king or the brother to the crimson king Caeruleum.

Azure King : So it seems I have came at the right time to see this moon oh how it gives me so much memories.

Narrator: the azure king then looks at the castle and meditates.

Azure king : maybe someday I'll be able to achieve finding the ultimate key to that sword.

Azure king : And now my project is almost complete he will succeed me in a way that I will shall use him for my taking. I shall succeed even if I have to risk my morality.

Meanwhile, outside the azure castle, Anias then meets a mysterious person uncloaked as The Ater once more..

Anias: just as planned you came with the information,

Ater: of course, the crimson king wants you in his vicinity, as of this moment he'll guide you on this mission. He doesn't want any trouble for now he's very analytical.

Anias: perfect the crimson king seems very nice indeed.

Ater: he wants you to hand over the specific special summon you have made for the project .

Anias : why of course why I have it just here.

Anias then gives a very special summon .

Ater: and for assurance I will analyze this piece.

Anias then activated a special spell to fake the special summons powers.

Ater: perfect , it is excellent , you have crafted something purely invincible.

Ater then puts the summon emblem into his bag.

Ater: oh and here my final question, how the young man Vis.

Anias: very tough makes me want to challenge him . He also has multiple elements now from what I've heard.

Ater: ah those vibes well thank you for the intel.

Both Anias and Vis vanish from the premise.

Back at the Obscure temple of meditation, Vis and Alex train and the young man vis then learns hows to create lightning for only seconds at a time.

Alex Then influenced by the aura then. trains his tactics onto the field at hand resonating with the obscure forest itself.

Both Vis and Alex are both at sync with each other learning how to control their inner prowess.

And finally after long time days of constant training the young man Vis has now acquired a new technique that has a duration of 3 seconds known as the thunder fang. Alex then says

Alex: we finally accomplished the goal

Alex then feels a fear that he hasn't felt a unknown predicament ,

Alex..... You have made it this far after all for that.

Vis: I know right , I'm really happy I'm grateful for what the Azure king has given me.

Alex:.....

Alex then thinks of what Vextor was trying to say and his implication for the Azure king himself. He keeps thinking about this in his own mind and then realizes what he has to do.

As both Vis and Alex get out of the obscure forest, and then into a simple desert.

Vis: what is this..... aren't we going back.

Alex..... Vis I know you want to go back but I cant let you.
Vis:!!!!!! wait alex what!

Alex then sheathes his azure circle sword, and then alex then says,

Alex: If you can damage me well enough then ill explain why I am doing this duel.

Vis: WHy..... dont do this Alex your my mentor.....

Alex:..... just do as I say and commence this battle....

Hence both Vis and Alex start their Ultimate duel of truth.

Alex:

Vis:.....fine

Vis then holds the Aura cube sword he has manifested and tries to vow this message.

Vis: I vow to do clean damage enough for you too tell me your true intentions mentor, I now am strong enough to face you.

Vis then starts his stance and tries to negate the opponent's aura Alex is pushing through in the area.

Alex: Godspeed.....

Alex then uses a special attack on to the ground and pulses a lot of circles aura traps to slow down the aura of the young man Vis.

Vis seeing this then uses his aura cube sword as a tool to put the cubs like a platform from the ground traps being placed.

Vis then tries to activate the newly formed aura mask to enhance his abilities. there he stalls time to focus his inner Aura to activate the thunder attribute from pure meditation.

Alex: Not this time

Alex then swing the circles traps from the ground and extends the length of the trapping stance.

Vis monologues

Vis:shit I can't do it if he's gonna do that.....crap...

Vis then uses his last aura cube and jumps into that and does a plunging attack.

Alex dodges and uses the circle sword to evade the attack.

All of a sudden vis then uses the aura cube sword to enable a trap to one of the ground traps Alex made.

Vis : perfect now I gotta run.

Vis then runs around all of the traps jumping though the aura cubes and does another attack.

All of a sudden vis then uses the aura projectiles to makes a distraction to Alex. To force him close to him .

Alex:.....

Vis:.....

Both vis and Alex both clash with both swords at hand, therfore a power stuggle is then made and hence the battle is then comes to a clash of some sort.

Vis, overwhelmed by this then defends the attack with alower sword stance to put the sword hence taking some damage .

ALex: you have improved

ALex gasping for air then unleasehes all of the traps made on the ground., Vis being backed at then uses the cubs as platfomrs once more takingt he other cubes out from the prmise to enable the thunder with hsi hilt. the sword then begins to flare with such reosnance and activea the aura thunder fang from comeponsated last amounfts or aura.

Vis: Mentor this shall be my final strike.

Alex: alrht then show your providence.

Hence Alex then unleashes all of his traps giving vis only one option to run fowrad with the strike.

Vis with his might then actiavtes the aura thunder fangs aura slash.

Alex then accepts defeat and slowly dodges the attack attacking the block semi based.

Moments later the battle has been completed, a combatant scared and damaged then stand up.

Vis is now victorious and has now overcome his reluctant will .

Vis: Mentor you have taught me well enough, now i would like to know why you did this skirmish and force me to do it.

Alex:.....

Alex looks down hiding something that only he and Vextor knows about.

Vis: I know theres more to the story, you wouldnt have used a simple technique like that multiple times unless you were..... trying to test my capabilities thou.

Alex: So you finally figured why i was doing this , alright ill tell you your grown enough now to handle the truth.

After Alex told the truth that Vextor told him in intel format.

Vis then realizes his previous presumption was true but is now aware now.

Vis: so you had to do your job to tell me this before hand and activate my attributes before its too late. You knew that the azure king was trying to find a successor just for control and make his own kingdom under no rule and abandon what he has .

Alex:.....

Alex looking with sorrowful eyes then sees the young man Vis and smiles.

Alex: you finally did it , its your choice to go to the king but whatever you do prepare. He will challenge you with such force to get a soul like yours with this much potential.

And then Alex then plops to the floor from exhaustion.

Vis:..... Ive gotten this far Im not gonna back down.....

Vis then looks at his hilt and sword that Alex has given him and the young man carries his mentor into a tree.

Vis:.....if I dont comeback ill be targeted by the azure forces and become a fugitive .

.....which mean ill have to travel and find my brother.

Vis then remebers what Adonis told him, back then about how he got into the ranks of the crimson king. Vis then monolouges:

Vis: this means Ill have to go back to the realm colosseum and find adonis that was the last location I've seen him.

Vis then uses his aura sense he has acquired from the aura mask and tries to pinpoint the location of the colosseum or in most cases the adonis aura.

Vis then looks at alex one last time placed under the desert tree, vis then uses the opintments to heal alex a little bit.

Vis: take care mentor, ill take you word on this ,

Hence Vis leaves into a different realm and teleports to the realm colosseum.

As Vis becomes the mercenary that he has to become, a feud then happens during a feast in the Azure king's palace.

Azure king: They are taking very long indeed, hmm,

Aura: father you shouldn't worry about him If needed I will train my hardest on my magic from your genetic father.

Azure king: I don't recall you having what it takes to fend for yourself and that kind of magic that you have can only be used under my supervision

Aura: of course not but I do have companions that I can always count on. Plus I need to see him again .

Rai himself then stopped the Azure king, not pleased with this.

Rai: The princess is not really as weak as you think, my liege.

Azure king : you dare defy me on this ill have your head if you inter fear.

Rai:..... plus if Vis and Alex were to leave or go rogue on us, I can catch the with my agility prowess and teleport to their location as fast as possible. I've done this Aura!!!!!!

Azureking: ill deal with you later rai you have done something very deceitful. this is your last warning.

The azureking then emits a very strong aura and uses his aura sword to hover onto rai.

Rai:..... Understood my liege

Aura:....Rai.....

Azure king: Then it is done begone from my premise.

Rai:.....yes my liege.

Hence the feast ends with a bad note implying the king's old age.

Meanwhile, Vis then uses his aura to teleport to the middle point of the colosseum.

Vis: alright i don't know where he is correctly because of the immense people here might as well get some answers.

As Vis travels the colosseum he then asks for guidance for the colosseum headquarters. Eventually he does meet a person who has a secret route to the colosseum but it's based on one condition. There he sees a strange old man who can control the access to a hidden passage.

Hidden Door keeper: in order to cross this road you must acquire rare armor artifacts and then forge an armor. By doing so then a riddle will pop up onto each artifact.

Vis: which kind of artifact does it have to be based off on.

Hidden Door keeper: you should know by now the place you're in has all the answers I won't give the answer. I however will give you a hint.

Vis:

Hidden door keeper: Every artifact has a signature sense to it, and the color only visible in the dark that resembles a color of gradience in the moonlight.

Vis: Color only visable in the dark.....that means these artifacts are all around the bazzar , but then how do i see them.

Hidden door keeper thta is all im going to say about this riddle and build.

Vis.....alright thank you for the riddle ill find a way to fiigure this out.

Vis then walks around the Vincity and thinks for a second.

Vis: What if.....

Vis then activate the aura sense again by calming himself and focusing onto the area he is in trying to see if the artifaccts is . But to no luck he couldnt find anything of some sort.

Vis: what did he mean by a color that can only be seen in the dark did he mean by glow in the dark. Then the color of gradience in the moon light.

Vis: man msot colors are visible in the day light but gradience. Hmm

Vis then thinks really hard and suddenly thinks about the gradience what does the word mean.....

So vis then tries to search for more clues to this cryptic message the hidden door keeper has told.

Vis then looks at the amount of gold he has and tries to reason with the amout hell ahve to pay to compensate for the amount of artifacts needed to forge the armor.

All o fa sudden 1st then realizes that he can make money at the colosseum ,

Vis: of course i can jsut fight my way through the f rank forces in a duel all i gotta do is just play my cards carefully. But wait im in the crimson territory they would want to confront or even take me as hostage for ransom.

Vis then realizes this then tries to buy something that can change his apperance from his azure knight armor.

Vis: Im gonna have to change my apperance this time so that way I dont stick out.

Vis then sees the perfect clothing, a Rogue clothing. Vis then buys the rogue cloak and clothing which resmebles a ninja of some sort.

Vis then goes to the colosseum desert by himself and tries to fix his lightng magic he has aquired to his aura cube sword once more.

Suddenly he is greeted by a Vextor,

Vextor: so you took ALex advice and left.

Vis: Yeah heard why you told him this sucks.....

Vextor: well life isnt always going to give good times all the time sometimes life will force things towards you to get better at your self.

Vis: yeah sorta learned that the hard way back then. By the way how did you find me I was hiding my aura pretty well.

Vextor: Just followed your trail

Vis: lol knew it.

As both talk then it turns into night time.

Vextor: so this night time I guess well guess ill have to do this quickly ,

Vextor then gives the solar sword back to vis,

Vis: oh yeah the wolf sword the kings has it now during that battle.

Vextor then looks at his 2 weapons , the technical shuriken, and the solar sword.

Vextor: ah no worries, a mercenary can always change weapons when needed. So..... how is your mastery of the aura skills .

Narrator: Vextor giving an interested look at vis, the young boy Vis then showcases his mask and his lighting aura sword from the azure hilt he holds it.

Vis: Adapted it into my aura mask and could finally do some magic which is strange , I didn't think staying in that temple would activate the inner magic . The aura mask also enables me to attack the opponent with lighting based techniques.

Vextor: indeed not even I can accomplish that feat to practice in that temple or obscura that is.

Your lighting magic I'm guessing, came from your quick mindset and calm and technical process.

Vis:.....I had to leave Alex behind because he knew if I were to go back i will be a massive tool of destruction. That what Alex told me is the Azure king that cold.

Vextor: so Alex told you everything I said. Well I guess my alliance with the azure king will break apart this time.

Vis: Who is the azure king really I just don't know what it is about him.....

Vextor: as his close friend of the king himself I knows many flaw that he has, espacialy his thirst for power that flows though him. And the darkest deeds he has done to accomplish his goal.

Vis:..... well i gotta find my brother and ask him what is going on with these realms.

Vextor: theres more at play now from what you seek might be a feat of itsself.

Vextor then shows the solar sword that was evolved from the spirit.

Solis: Hey there buddy long time no see!

Vis: long time no see indeed!

Vextor: this sword was unsable for 2 factors, it is unfinished hence the sword isnt able to function correctly , and second the chosen wielder is chosen by the one who breaks the spell so this sword was useless on command by me alone, it belongs to you.

Vis then looks i awe that he was given more context about the solar sword.

Vis: I mean I gave it to you for compensation thou.

Vextor: that was kind of you to do. But in this case your the only few who can wield this blade. Its useless to me.

Vis looking at the sword then realizes the compartment that is unfinished .

Vis: Ah i see what you mean. I understnad now thanks

Vextor: not a problem well ill be going now, be safe.

Vextor then vanishes and teleports with out a trace.

Vis: now I got this spirit that I can use now.

Vis looking at the blade then sees sees the spirit inside,

Solis: of course my friend ive been dormant as this sword for this long.

Vis looking at the amount of armor he has then leaves the azure knight armor away.

Narrator: At the tree next to Alex, he sees a pack of clothes Alex was holding in his bag resembling a rogue ninja and wears the cloths to change

Vis: I dont work for this kingdom anymore if the king has darker plans this whole time.

Vis then looking like a rogue ninja then looks up at the colossuem,

Vis: now I can accomplsih this task , with this cloak I will find my possibilities and find my brother.

And thus Vis then goes into the colosseum to find his brother for the other anwsers he has hidden.

in the kingdom of crimson assassins , Adonis awaits the orders of the crimson king,

Crimsonking: What's the status my dearest Adonis

Adonis: it would seem sire that there were some commotions in the azure kingdom after our failed attempt to seize the azure territory.

Crimsonking: gasp please tell me more I'm itching for the details especially that putrid lord of the azure.

Adonis: rumors say that some of the members of the azure vanguard have now defected for unknown reasons , some say it's the vagueness of the azure king himself and other properties of course this would mean many things.

Crimsonking : why of course , this could mean that the azure king could dispose all of his mercenaries as realm based projects to seize and become the tyrant of all realms . This means that if he collects very peculiar subjects like the boy he can use each of them as realm souls to reach the ultimate power that is unnamed.

Narrator: Adonis then thinks to himself "this isn't good if this were to be the case then my brother is both targeted by very evil foes. The balance would be broken and discord would reign"

Adonis:

Crimsonking: ahhah it seems I have a epiphany ! Let's seize the young boy to our selves but we will do it in a way where he will be lured to some extent. I will also deploy the defector alias and my s ranked jewel ater to wreak havoc to this vincinity using my crimson aura.

Narrator:adonis playing smart then tells himself this " I'll have to get close to the crimsonking and learn his ways to counter him in due time" I have to kill this monster from his demonic ways.

Adonis: As your humble subject I would like to make a proposition, Why don't I not as an equal but as an servant join your heist and capture the young boy. I have a feeling by doing this we can adapt the techniques and capture the young man and test his skill set .

Crimsonking : You dare join me in this requiem without further ideas,

Adonis: in fact I do,

Narrator: both the crimson king and Adonis both bestow their Aura presence and wrath begins to subsurface. Adonis then tries to withstand the pain circumventing the aura by switching his own mental system from calm to technical thus creating his aura mixed with soul pressure. The crimson king knowing this then stops his strong and intimidating stance.

Crimson king : go on Adonis: his weakness is his lack of control over his emotions correctly he rages on side of him calm the other hot as fire. If I were to mess with him , I would lure him in using his inner demons, meaning that using the techs and strats i know like most cases vagueness is key. By making him confused I can trap his psyche and then disable his aura system.

Crimsonking: splendid very splendid, alright I will accept this proposition but if you fail me I will use my worst torture to you. So you better not fail me.

Adonis: why of course,

Narrator: Adonis then gives and directs a keen and counter eye to the crimson king around when he leaves and tells himself this “we’ll see about that”

Narrator: Vis now a mercenary now travels through the colosseum realm where he tries to remember the bazar his old mercenary has bestowed back then.

Vis:.....this place brings back memories, man what to do oh yeah since I’m cloaked up I’m in the clear just need to , trick the gatekeeper..... hmm. I might as well do it.

Narrator: Vis walk with momentum to the colosseum gate-keeper there he approaches.

Vis: yo

Gatekeeper: Colosseum Gatekeeper: Ah why if it isnt you the young man himself Vis so You've changed indeed. I shall give a simple test to see what you have improved on.

The gate keeper then activated a spell to test the young man. The gatekeeper analysis the stats.

Gatekeeper: interesting your prowess has increased and you have betrayed something dear to you. You did it to chose your path. You are now a mercenary how impressive.

But 1st you must answer this simple riddle then I shall lead you to the destination.

What has 32 pieces, is analytical through tactics and play with someone's style.

Vis: 32.....tactics.....style ,

Narrator:vis them becomes very observant and looks around and sees a chess board

Vis: 32 pieces, wait chess?

Gatekeeper: correct you pass very quick I'm guessing.

Narrator: The gate keeper guides the young man vis using a magic tech into the board of battles there he vis can choose which battles he can partake on there vis sees a bazaar not similar to the bigger one but more compact and much more specific. Then he sees a dense indigo scarf some what special with different markings and patterns. Vis then brushes it off and starts following the gate keepers path.

All of a sudden, Vis encounters many other mercenaries many of whom are looking at the style of the mercenary himself.

Mercenary 1: who's the new guy

Mercenary 2 : ohh let's test him too see if he has whts he's got.

Narrator: Both of the mercenaries then emit soul beams to the opponent to test vis. All of a sudden the beams fly in speed towards vis.

Vis shook by this instinctively tries use the tech aura cubes to counter the soul beams through swift action and captures the beams through capture.

Vis: well looks like I got some company what's up.

The mercenaries shook by the speed questions and tries to run.

Vis using his skill uses the beams energy and sends its back towards them.

Both mercenaries tries to evade but is captured by the souls beams direction.

Mercenaries 1: shit

Mercenary 2 : we should have known.

Narrator: Vis slowly walks towards the perturbators.

Vis: you thought I'm dumb enough not to see this bull crap.
Typical.

Mercenary2 : hmph who would have thought a kid like you could be so smart.

Mercenary 1 : well you got us, however

Mercenary 2 : we got something under our sleeves.

Narrator suddenly, an unknown assailant, hits Vis in the back.

Vis: damn I should've not let my guard down ooof.....

Mercenary 2: we finally did it, now let's use him ,

Narrator The Colosseum Boss then comes forth from the gates, grounded and tough as iron walking as if he has total control over everyone's minds.

Mercenary 1: shits it him we need this boy for the ranks.

Mercenary 2: calm down the boss is here, I'll make something

Colosseum Boss: who's been messing with my territory indeed I wonder who's been a nasty fool.

Narrator: Both mercenaries both show the hostage they have acquired.

Mercenary 1: boss it seems we have acquired the boy , we have limited his aura and locked him to your wish.

The Colosseum then smacks the Mercenary out of the room,
The mercenary coughs out blood weakened by the boss aura.

Colosseum boss: Typical SmartAss , I'll deal with this situation .

The boss then unscrambles the boy and instead gives a mark special to his own. But to no avail he is not able to accomplish this task correctly.

Colosseum boss: this sense of the mark.....

The boss realizing the boy stature then sees the auras mark glow,

Colosseum boss: I'll let him go, says the boss.

The second mercenary scared to the bone has now become submissive.

Colosseum boss: let him be , and place him somewhere safe.

The second mercenary places the mercenary right next to the resting zone of the colosseum.

Mercenary 2 : lucky

Vis wakes up somewhat replenished and is shocked that his items weren't stolen,

Vis: strange

Vis walks around and realizes that he is in somekind of cell.

Vis: damn.....

Narrator: Vis stuck then sees a figure pop out from the room,
Vis seeing this figure then realizes it was him.

Vis: your're.....

????:if you know already then you would be wise to be silent, I'm here to secure some payment or in most cases your agreement.

Vis: alright tell me.

????: Enter the Colosseum battle trials and then proceed to encounter our opponent his name is called the wraith gang called the outcasts. The outcast are A tier based monsters gangs that have a signature where they steal souls of some sort they don't deal with the weak and re smart enough to plan a developed plan.

????: by doing this you will be doing us a service and your life will be saved. We want their techniques for ourselves and with your aura pressure we can ensure that.

Vis: guessing if I say no you could starve me or torture me in this cell.

????: my my well intellectual well then will you accept?

Vis: fine

Both the mysterious figure and Vis shake hands vaguely tilted almost like enemy and friend like. Vis then takes his hands off implying that he is only doing this for himself. Suddenly the assailant then marks the boy in the hand.

Vis then is teleported by the mysterious assailant to right back to the colosseum.

All of a sudden his hand that he shook enables a message,
"Fail and we will exterminate you and those you know"

Vis looking at this message know he has to deal with this situation.

Vis:..... strange okay now I'm limited to this place .

Narrator hence his mission begins to capture the outcast wraith gang.
