Chapter 1

During the 3 years of training , Vis senryu , Malik Rai , Anias , and Aura then are requested an audience with the Azure king and hence a Test is done

AzureKing: Alright within this time , I will bring my guards and skilled users with a collaboration, Just in case anything happens our Other avenues with others Realm Like Clans can commence.

ALex; Right now You and Aura, are not within the skill window to outclass or overcome , So ill be one of the teachers in the collaboration.

Vis: So I actually have to catch up tch

Aura: so typical.....

Alex: Nothing comes easy especially in this situation we are all in, Me and Malik Rai will guide in the session, Anias will report the progress on the situation

Vis: Like he's justified to actually record me , what does he know.

Anias: Sad you dont even know the ranks in the system ,..... oh well better play your A game Boi Vis.

Vis: tch

Alex: alright within the week , well be visited from some snow clan allegiance to the azure verse, There youll meet and train with upcoming skilled combatants, the azureking made the call to seek

Vis: Whatever happens im going to force through , And I dont care if im at a low leveled state, Ill elevate it

Anias: Better Catch your words , oh I hope you don't miss the mark.

1 week later the Azure King with the azure magicians then emit a High Leved Realm Port there the Snow Clan Magi Combatants Join the Verse , one in particular has a Distinct Blade that is embedded towards him hence this catches Vis eyes.

Sogo: Is this really the Area, man this kingdom be wanting some desperate attention to bring us in

Sogo then walks and sees and feels a Unique flow of Aura vibes coming from vis, and Feels to Over dominate him.

Sogo: so is this the guy that rivaled and chipped the azure king

Vis: so what

Sogo: oh not salutations or hello man who taught you your manners my guy

Vis : im not your guy get out of my space.

Sogo: ppfft man im just joking , man your lost pathetic

Both Vis and Sogo then emit Conflicting Aura flow,

Vis: Says the guys levels as close as mine check your self.

Sogo the monologues

Sogo: this guys acting man he cant even take a joke

Aura then comes into the field.

You both are just.....sigh

Suddenly the 1st teacher then comes into the Azure training center.

The teacher Sido and start to make the assessment more constrained to the field at hand making the levels of skill to an elevated level to an extent.

Sogo: Yo Vis are ya still here are ya dazed like no direction

Vis: Hes about to elevate the field since we were able to handle his aura push like stance,

Sogo: pffft than what ya got can you prove it.

Vis then holds the practice blade in hilt form and waits

Sogo annoyed by the presence then shoves vis away and swings his own blade of destruction with acted ease.

Sogo: Alright teach then lets beam it up, ill assess this my own way.

Sido expecting the Reckless to attack then puts all of his aura flow into his hand , Sogo BLade then hits the hand but the hand can control the weight, Making Sogo hand feeling uneasy.

Sogo: Tch damn thought I had this, damn I cant move this feeling.

Sido: I limited my Aura on my body and accolated into this point of my hand allowing the attack to come blunt from your emotions. I essentially over fielded the aura and overcame your reckless aura control, sigh

Sogo: tch then why am I still feeling this uneasiness

Vis then gets back up and does a youth like instinct like aura step to keep his tracks or sound from happening, Vis then comes from behind and tries to attack touching the proctor , Sido already aware then simply dodges the attempt by flowing his aura in evasion, The Proctor then enables Aura Force

Sido: Aura Force enabled

A Aura like field is then placed in control of Sido, Vis then having to react then blocks most of the attacks , Sido then Flows the aura restrict on a limited level towards Vis. VIs knowing this then tries to use multiple aura styled fangs, Sido: Well Vis looks like your one of those combatants that can touch at this rate , most of many wouldn't've have chipped and lose function of their movement, and here you are still here.

Vis: you left a spot open so you couldn't've read this situation to an extent.

Vis still holding the blade in a phase like stance almost as if the attack wasnt compete

Sido:.....

Vis: Aura Fang Reach!!!

Sido is then chipped from the spot that was touched

Sido:.....so you were netting your aura flow at that exact moment and oo it stings indeed.

Sogo: tch how did this wanna be emo kid caught that situation , pfft i could so do that thou.

Sido:.....alright looks like ive assessed you both pretty clearly . ALright sessions over.

During the Break, As Vis then reads some manuscripts in the field , sogo then puts an oomph to vis ,

Vis: what do you want

Sogo: nah nothing but guessing from what happened anias might be right you really are desperate almost like a chasing dog.

Vis: whoever told you that needs to get that checked , sad

Sogo:.....tch!

Sogo then takes Vis shirt and puts him up., Vis knowingly then reacts and deflects .

Vis: If you really wanted to brawl it out , then why need all of that attention,

In the Field almost everyone then look at both vis and Sogo.

Sogo:.....tch so what I like the attention

Vis then leaves indifferent from the situation and walks as some guards then try and assess the situation.

Scene

A Day Later both Sogo and Vis are then given a final assessment to an current level in play.

Sido: Alright for this assessment we will be giving a definite concept on this test that being

Sogo: being what another catching the rabbit crazy situation, what else we collect artifacts or what of it.

Sido then throws 2 azure like amulets to both Sogo and Vis both of the combatants then catch it in a confused state. Sido then passes the other amulet to her.

Sido : as for this assessment there will be another combatant guiding you both into the test field .

Vis: wait

Aura then comes from the behind and holds the amulet with confidence rare to see.

Aura: I was hired to be part of this assessment as I have skilled and done this test before, Hope you boys dont get in my way.

Sogo: lol whats your excuse girl , you look like a girl with some guys on the shoulders, bet you got alot of Aura then emits a specter bullet and scratches sogos face by a miss.

Aura: You boys will never learn , sigh

Sogo: okay okay im just being stupid i kinda lied ,

Aura looking at Vis in a hidden way then says,

Aura: This task is gonna be something so I hope you wont disappoint.

Vis: Guess theres more to this task than what it is.

Vis then looking at the Horizon and the Amulet then emitting a flow of Aura then changes .

Vis: Theres something distinct over there in the horizon im guessing.

Sido: You Task Lies in Activation of those amulets deep in the azure verse there is something to confront. Find the Light in the Verse for hence your abilities will be tested to its highest extent.

Sogo: gotcha

Aura: Of course

Vis: Sure

Sido: ill be aiding you 3 on a proctor level of skill to an extent. meaning there will be intense unpredictable situations and to see what opens from this team.

Vis looking at his tools and aura flowing then says this.

Vis: I guess times clicking so we need to quicken up.

Sogo: Dont you ever shut up, man talk about emo the wrong way

Aura: Sigh.....

Sogo: Just dont get in my way its the A games turns.

Vis: Whatever.....

Sido : We will start the assessment mission in one day prep up before the time ends.

During the nighttime , the Azure knights are then given guard duties to moniter other intruders and other problems,

Both Alex , Sido , and Anias are all in the Area given a hidden request of the Azure King.

Alex: it's your call , if you trust sido on this assessment test, then I wont intrude

Anias: pfft never think twice about giving defiant teens their assessment thinking they can do it when it lacks.

Sido: Augen my liege I'm currently prepping the mission at hand , so what are things we need to take account off if you so wish my lord.

Anias : ya think he doesn't know Sido man talk about basic.

Augen Azure king: silence

Anias: tch.

The Azure King then gives a mission note like card to Sido ,
The magician proctor sido then catches it.

Sido: alright I'll keep this in mind.

In the azure quarters

Vis then practices what Alex guided on the Azure Abilities Sogo acting then interferes

Sogo: pffft taking that time to learn easy skill ,man look at me I handles things check it.

Sogo holding a long massive blade , Vis not attentive to it then says,

Vis: A blade like that kinda shows your addictive moods.

Sogo : man no wonder no one wants to be friends your full of it maybe loosen up and

Vis: not in the mood

Vis channeling the Azure Aura then emits a variation of the Azure fang

Sogo: alright wannabe merc what else

Vis:

Vis then controls the Aura Blade and holds the Blade for a moment the blade emits Square like boxes,... however it doesn't last.

Sogo:.....pffft that's it.

Vis walks off indifferent from the talk

All of a sudden vis then moves ones of the aura manifestation to another equipment and for a second moves it.

Vis: alright I figured out this now I gotta catch up.

Narrator: A Combative stand off then starts to be reached as both sogo and vis are in a conversed argument .

Sogo: chipping of the azure king is so freaken basic like a nerd based boy . Bet all you do is mumble in your corner thinking like a pathetic dog

Vis then slowly says in a calm relation

Vis: says the guy barking to its aimless chase

Sogo: Alright Edge boy ,

Sogo then challenges vis by ordering a session of blades from the proctor anias

Sogo: yo proctor can ya give up a reassessment, I honestly dont think this guy can see his low thinking ping pong ways. Man rip him.

Proctor Anias: Oh we got some gambit boys filing up their credits alright lets session it up.

Vis: Tch man again ,

Both Vis and Sogo then stance up with practice blade like forms in called attention.

Both Vis and Sogo shuffle the attacks and sways the attacks forms, moments later both vis and sogo are in a stand still and a funny outlook at that.

Sogo: Man you don't even have valid credit dude a freaken fraud

Vis: you might want to ask your mind that, especially the lame aim.

Vis then shoves off sogos angst.

Vis :Sad to see you dont have any liability for the spams you do, and now whos the lame bar .

Sogo realizing the call out then says

Sogo: tch man what do you know,

Vis: way to easy from what i can tell , easy reads from an open book of the abc's.

Sogo: The what..... oh me nah I was never that shallow, pfft your the exact same.

Vis: chasing something in a endless dream, cant even wake up oof that must've hurt.

Sogo: ANd now he does poetry in a fight like this nah that cringe dude!.

Both vis and sogo then feel the high angst wanting to fight to see who's is who they are, suddenly both alex and proctor anias then close the assessment

Anias: looks like you both already wasted your tokens of credit to gain the accolated points, Sigh all of those so called points of karma lost.

Vis: what

Sogo: tch nah i still kept them I mean its just a scrimmage ,

Anias: one guy blind as a man of no eyes , the other aimless as a guideless map, man im looking at some clowns at this point

Vis then throws the blade back at anias, anias in a calm stance then takes it knowing the message behind it.

Vis: Whatever , like im the one who should care about points that be lacking.

Sogo: man leaving so soon princess thought you needed more of that cafe talk you wanted

Vis then leaves knowing the stupidity of what just happened in the asked reassessment.

Later in the day, aura then speaks to Alex about what just happened ,

Aura: I cant believe I have to deal with these 2 jokes of a mess, and on top of that they literally trashed out the place, sigh

Alex: Same my princess, it can be always like that when dealing with angst up boys of some sort.

Aura then recalls VIs

Aura: He doesn't deserve it Vis,

Alex:

Scene

The night before the prepped misson, Sogo and some of the snow clan combatants talk about the Vis of a man.

Sogo: This guy man where did his boost up come from ,

Snowclan 1: dont know, nah maybe hes cheesing it like he doesn't even have it hes a fake. Bet he jacked himself up and thinks hes the chad.

Sogo: yeah I could tell, bet he be spamming those karma points on the low lacks bruh.

Snow Clan: its just a one time thing thou, he could never do that ever again, no amp in space,

Sogo: wait maybe....., hes the typical guy that thinks hes the most just, nah

Snow clan: whatever he cooks its probably gonna be gross like broccolli

Sogo: he cant even read thou, sad to see he cant submit those straight ace moves to the lame report boi.

Sogo: bet he cant remember his basic alphabets bet he read so slow even helen keller can see it.

Snowclan: ohhh now your talking, bet that blade your handling got that force of angst.

Sogo: He gonna run out of time when i take the pass away from him.

Snow Clan: aww hes gonna cry about what he lost ...

Sogo: lol its always that girl, always sigh

Both Sogo and the Other Snow clan Member then confront Vis

Vis: Again,....

Sogo: Oh yeah its round 2 , tell me this , what's a bad mess so dramatic like a bad festival.

Vis:.....

Sogo then draws a blade and forces the aura of snow in the area

Sogo: A fiasco

Vis then stances up as no one else is watching.

Sogo: lets see who can last longer

Vis: Whatever a blind guy does,

vis then un-sheathes the blade in higher aura stances

Vis: hope he doesn't trip on the most easy like training wheels rip

Vis and Sogo then challenge it up in the next round

Sogo: man i just dont get you, ... it just freaken irritates me

Vis slowly guards and senses a tension different from before.

Sogo: we all went through it, losing things and times we would've wanted to keep, and yet we get trapped with no will of our own, I hate it.

Sogo blade then rages in the form of snow the being then enhances the blade and forces the aura field to condense its own amplitude like force

Sogo: What makes you have that kind of elitist nature, you think your the only one that has been though it. Tch

Vis: Then whats fair to you, we all have our own ways of doing things,

Vis and Sogo then lash specific blade like scratches on each other, then the tensity then calms to a intense form.

Sogo: You really think your special like everythings goes all around you, tch

Vis:..... dude there's better ways to do simple therapy than this just let it go

Both sogo and vis see their marks from their own blades and skin then stop

Sogo: says the guy's going to barneys world and dancing like a barbie girl.....lol man its so stupid man im stupid for even causing this....

Vis: You good ,

Both vis and sogo then look at the night time area and almost woke up the guards

Sogo then says this as a now known rival

Sogo: let's see who can conquer the curses we got, then maybe we can challenge when we become ultimate dude.

Vis: who said we were friends, maybe you gotta stop barking like a dog ,

Sogo: lol and im seeing a princess only reading her diary, lol were both weak. Lol you dont want me to take Aura away right , I might snatch her and be the better man

Vis: what i dont.....

Sogo: dude, you're in denial already?

Vis: She's her own person; whatever she does, she can choose. What am I to change her....

Her own skills and what she justifies, she's good on her own im not that good.

Sogo then monolouges

Sogo: is this guy really that oblivious that girl aura and the other girls saw what he did, they kept watching him, i freaken hated how cool his skills were , when im only just like this, vis so freaken calm and collected and yet what justifies what he does , sigh he has it all. And this girl aura, i definetly could tell that she acts like she hates him and i might be right about it, tch but at the same time she cared enough to force him to skill up. Man even I wouldve wanted that. Im jealous

Sogo then talks after thinking:

Sogo : this was not worth doing lol, go ask yourself about why you got those skills and on top of that why you think your chosen or whatever, pathetic

Both vis and sogo then shove each other off and return to their places.

Scene

The day then starts and the mission is then briefed for commenced time.

Vis: alright so it starts

Sogo: bet I can rank this up to the highest level.

Aura: you both look so whiney just stop

Sido: Alright Alright Team were doing a exploration assessment to see I you know how to elevate the aura fields to an extent.

Sogo: pfft like we don't know already, I'm gonna style and ace this like a big man.

Vis: this guy.....

Aura: Sigh such obnoxious behavior

The Proctor Sido then uses the amulet to give a limited access port to the azure plains , the azure amulet then emits and forces a gate to be open.

Sido: Lets Begin.

The Team then gets astral ported into the azure plains where some verse like monsters are messing around , The Azure King then enables a watch on the team as sido handles the session as a proctor.

Sogo: so this is what the other part of the area looks man its so pitch black,

Vis: The Area is infested with azure like monsters that can only be controlled under skilled use.

Sogo: reading from a textbook all you got man ya got not street smarts. Let me show it

Sogo then activates the Blade of Devastation and Controls the flow of Snow.

Sogo: Been Adapting the aura flow to this ,

Vis and Aura then see something that wasnt common from the previous test to an extent.

Sogo: Rised Flow Release,

Sogo then feels the facade release to a level at hand and boost something in particular.

Vis: thats it?

Aura: huh?

Sogo then walks towards a beast using that limited attack form he then aura fangs the monster in an instant the monster is desinigrated.

Vis:.....that was

Sido: Sogo , the controller of the devastator, anyone who held that blade wouldn't've have survived,

Vis: you serious then how did he

Sido: Magicite like Blade are rare to come by and in some situations can be lethal to the user, what sogo done has left him with a pact with the being resonating with that blade.

Aura: so the previous sucessor

Sido: so it seems.

Sogo then walk in a confident like mood knowing how he controlled it.

Sogo: Looks like i attacked like a champ what your excuse Emo BOy,

Vis: Says the guy attached to a object ,

Sogo: Alright i see ya, lets see how you do against those monsters over there.

Sido: dont get to carried away you 3 arent at a skill level to explore the field , during this ill be guiding on how to confront specific situations in monster denigration.

Sogo: thought my skill was the best.

Aura: to stubborn to see yourself sigh whatever.

Vis: Teach , Alex taught me something about this a while back, Guessing it has to come from seeing patterns.

Sido: A keen eye you have , by watching your opponent or an force you can read the elements to start planning, Vis: thats why your aura is so hidden no one could read where you were .

Sido: in this session ill be testing you on how to control your aura flow and control, Sogo defiantly did a short version of this .

Sogo: so we have to limit our aura flow so we can be hidden to an extent.

Vis: Guessing we have to stay in the hidden and attack to let the aura flow into these amulets?

Sido: correct

Sogo: how did you.....?

Vis: Guess we gotta get started , we dont have all the time.

Sido then lets the team roam into the azure plain, hance the proctors test of hidden flow commences.

The team then goes into the area at hand and an eerie silences then feels the area something then comes into the arena and scene,

Sido:..... here it comes

Narrator: a sudden flow of azure beings then overcloud the area at hand, the team is then confronted in a fashion of tact's,

Sogo: what the..... nah we cant take them what is this teach!?!?!?!?!?

Aura: sigh

Vis: So thats why the azure king placed us in this field in play, our skills

Sogo: yeah anyone with a brain could know what this is dude.

Aura: will you both shut it

Aura then emits specter blades in place to put the azure monsters at bay stalling time,

Aura: my abilities cant last too long so you both need to get your act together or.....

Vis then starts to enhance the blade flow of the azure hilt ,

Vis: Gotta quicken this up,

Sogo: bet , take them

Vis then enhances the blade hilt and stands at a area in the focus state the blade then reacts

Vis: gotta gauge myself up alright

Sogo:!!!!

Aura:!!!!

Vis then jumps from the auras barricade and emits and aura of azure to defend from the monsters attacks.

Vis: alright gotta use the strat that alex taught

The azure like monsters then start emitting azure like attacks of aura, VIs using that young like instinct then uses one of alex skills, an aura like dodge,

Sogo: this boi knows that how the

Sido: Ah so he did listen ,so whats Vis is doing is an aura like facade, hes dodging yet at the same time, enhancing his movement and durability,

Sogo: Alright he got something

Sido: if he had attacked 1st without thinking , then his durability wouldve been destroyed hence a bad situation, the aura dodge uses his own innate flow of aura and will need to recharge when his prowess gets tired.

Vis then walks and visions the azure monsters attacks , he then uses one of the trap abilities he got to enhance the blade reach Vis then monologues

Vis: just gotta go from the side to side, i got some time , just cant waste it.

Narrator: The azure monsters then enrage in a controlled manner and thus a attack then commences.

The Session Like Duel is thus intensified as Vis uses a variant of techniques to overcome the situation,

Vis: Rising Strike of Azure

The blade then flows of blue like flames

Vis: Restrict

The monster within the azure plains then emit a form of chaos and thus a new phase of battle has been redone

Vis then charges the cubes of azure and uses the area to space out the azure beings

Proctor Sido: Keen Eye,

Vis then slowly reverses the command of his action and phases from the behind,

Vis: Now i gotta pierce this up ,

In a mere moment of seconds, vis then traps and then forms the ability to capsule the damage and foes at hand.

Sogo: tch alr maybe ive been using my rose tinted glasses, maybe im not seeing it,

Aura: he actually.....

Vis then froms the azure blades and desinigrates the azure foes, one survives and tries to damage the combatant Vis in a knowing nature of this then flowly aura steps to emit aura steps to trick the foe at hand, The last foe in a damaged state then chases , In one fell swoop vis then guards the attack and walks reversed from the foe and back attacks in a emission like state.

Vis: Looks like its finessed

Sogo: dang man you took my spotlight, pfft and now im that guy for being this.

Hence the fight then comes to a close

Proctor Sido: A well session this has been in the fighting playset.

Scene

During the calm document hours in work, one of the snow maidens from the snow clan trips , both Vis and Sogo catch her and her items and keep her standing. One of the snow guards then shoves both vis and Sogo off the snow maiden and punches vis:

Sogo: The heck he doesnt deserve that we were trying to help, you know this already as part of your

The snow maiden, being very intentional on her fall then ask the snow guards to hold their angst and hands.

Snow Maiden: I never would've thought you would help me like this, so quick

The snow maiden then looks in delight at Sogo and makes him feel the cool air, but in hindsight, she gives the most specific looks of a liking so strong to Vis.

The snow maiden comes to vis and asks him something particular

Snow Maiden: You wouldn't need my attention, would you, or gasp even my name,

Vis in shock and tries to make an excuse for his own manner.

Vis: Ill say mine first, Vis is the name

The snow maiden then shows herself within the dress and shows her face, her face skin rich as chocolate yet her form alluring as crystal to the touch.

Snow Maiden: Aneria

Aneria then comes closer to vis and talks to get his attention.
Aneria then monologues

Aneria: So hes the one that can control his sigil, sigh and yet he looks so alluring , always in an alert form yet his angst is so,

Sogo annoyed by the situation, and knowing Aneria as a close friend says

Sogo: Really Aneria , man this girl never learns,

While the situation is happening, Aura sees Vis get close to Aneria, and yet Vis does nothing to get close almost as if unaware of what she does

Aura: Cant believe VIs is getting that attention, hmph, like does he even know what he acting, I can do so much better than what that whatever snow diva wants. Sigh, Its likes she's checking him out like a parrot, sigh

Aura feels the jealousy coming from herself,

Aneria feeling crafty then goes around vis and gets aura up in the eletric angst mood

Aura: tch shes such a whiner , im so much better than her ,

Aneria then gets close to vis and suddenly drops saying

Aneria: ow im hurt Vis how could you,

Vis in a even more confused feel then relates

Vis: wait what?????

The guards come and see whats going on

Vis in a confused and reaction mood then tries to bring aneria

back to her balance

Aneria knowing what he did then says

Aneria: oh never mind , I mis stepped aww why thank you vis for your wonderous gesture

Aneria trying to make aura really jealous then kisses vis on the cheek making aura flare up in high volume Aura then monologues

Aura: How dare she , sniff shes didn't deserve that

Aneria: then walks her own way swaying and shows herself to get vis and sogos attention

Vis then seems to be in a feel like questionnaire mood

Vis: what the heck is she trying to play out how the ??????

During the night time: Aneria and the other ice maidens then gossip about vis and aura

Ice maiden 1: oh I couldn't believe vis is that stupid

Aneria: hes so predictable like a baby cow , sigh i wanna just hug him , leash him, and make him do what I want. I wanna make him my pet

Ice maiden 1: gasp I never would have thought , never mind just joking, i feel like he's the type of guy acting like some alien higher being, yet he's so angsted up , like why do you like that about him . Like ew why are we even talking about him

Aneria: sigh... there's someone that im wanting to destroy like shes such a loser .

Ice maiden 1: oh yeah her , that chubby princess aura or whatever nerdy and has such an annoying voice

Aneria: Hmm ohh now i really want vis now , I just want to mess it up

In the male azure and snow quarters both vis and sogo chat like vibed teammates in the mess hall

Vis: your kidding me is she really like that like how stupid is she to play a game like that.

Sogo: welcome to my world like that girl aneria messes like a true artist, and on top of that she acts like the queen. Lol there's even time i tried to talk and she shorts stop me from talking and makes me crazy dude like the dafaq bro. Hers questions be like making me repeat my self like she used it against me. like how??????

Vis: you mean gaslighting dude?

Sogo: whatever , ill tone it down, sign ow like im trying to care for her but she freaken denounces what I talk and says im abnormal for being this guy its ridiculous.

Vis: I just cant keep stop remembering it.

This girl is a whole different take on art

Sogo: dude she someone you shouldn't get close to .

IN the female quarters of the azure kingdom

Aneria: alright ladies tomorrow ill ask the king and our snow baby daddy on a special surprise

Snow maiden 1 : ooooo

Scene

In the Aneria Azure chamber, she reminisces about her childhood, where she sees her harsh memories of being forgotten, feeling left behind, her dad loving the other maidens yet not giving his child in the Snow Clan enough time. She starts to remember the rage of being unheard and feels the justifications of wanting attention, the snow clan's leader himself had so many responsibilities that her daughter Aniera was left to do what she wanted, but given no love in that attention.

Aneria: its not fair i wanted him to acknowledge what I loved or wanted, sniff

The next day commences, and the news spreads that one of the students in the Azure and Snow Academy had started spreading false information on the events at hand. The specific event of a combat nature in particular, was leaked, and thus all the students are forced to go to an emergency meeting to determine who actually leaked the information. The moderators then see Vis, Sogo, and Aura as people to be questioned about the matter.

Vis:.....tch

Sogo: This ain't good?

Aura: sigh its always you both for putting me in this mess

Sogo: Why am I the one putting you in this , it makes no sense

Vis: way too tired to do this right now.

Aura: sogo do you even realize how much chaos you be making, cant even take accountability for what you do

Sogo: oh dont give me that crap , im just trying to help

Aura: liar you tried to ask me and vis for more help, especially that test, sigh

Sogo: im just trying to break my own habits thou, you cant actually blame me right???

Aura: Keep yapping, oh break habit haha , no one cares.

Vis: yeah, are you like that dense or what sogo

Sogo: man, everyone is on me now, what did I do???

The team then goes into the Azure meeting room, where Anias, Sido, and Alex assesses what the group was doing during those times,

Scene

Hence an questioning with the students and proctor starts to be engaged

Proctor one then starts to ask who was affiliated with the hijacking of the records,

Proctor: from our current records in the system, It would seem that we have some students storming into the magic records in the system form set, Vis, Sogo, and Aura, your all here in a questioning to see if the rhetoric makes any sense.

Sogo: Here we go again, they always think im the one being stupid to go around and causing stuff,

Aura: Your the one to talk, mr. empty excuses, tch even the messes you do , just uuugh

Vis: Sigh this makes no actual sense , like if I'm recalling it right, where do i fit in this picture

Proctor: precisely the reason why well show who's the ones reporting this in the matter.

Anias then enters the field with the most stupid smirk like he knows what's up from a pure mile away.

Anias: And I thought the bad guy was stupid enough to not make these mistakes , oh well

Narrator : Vis then eyes to eyes anias as they cant seem to stop

Vis: tch, whatever's going on , I'm out

Anias: Aww looks like my books that I've assessed and recorded in my winnie hot junior student shows that you were interacting with a specific girl of some sort. I wouldn't be lying would i master vis

Vis: what?

Aneria: yeah ,

Aneria then comes into the room in the most mooded up form in construct

Sogo: what her!!!! ah nah not this again

Aneria : oh boo hoo here we go in this merry go round

The proctors then asses and get a souls of lying test , there the both vis and sogo and then trusted to see if the lying was either fixated or manipulated to an extent.

Scene

The proctors, the game, and the princess aneria, are all in one room trying to figure out what is going on.

Sogo: you got to be kidding me are we being interrogated just for helping or even talking..... what?!?

proctor: The king of Azure will be monitoring you all in this session, 1st why was your reason for talking to her to be in the 1st priorities

Sogo: man what would I know about this

Vis: sigh just for this.

Proctor: to not answer the question will end in disqualification and the end to the contract for both you and sogo

Vis: tch like i can get out of this, you forgot that that the man in charge , wants me to be baby-sitted.

Proctor Anias: aww hes actually trying to man up , aww come on let me give you a medal for that

Vis then shoots a strong aura shoot to anias and intents to miss

Vis: not doing this

Proctor: Anias what's the records telling about this defiant vis of a boy

Proctor Anias: well If i were to recall, both VIs and Sogo were doing some goofy stupid acts of fights in the nights time, gasp

nobody noticed because I was the one trying to help them out

Vis: what

Sogo: crap oof

Proctor: sigh alright well test the aura capacity for Sogo , Vis and Aura now

Vis then looks at anias questioning the intentions of a guy where's he mentally just like that in form or understanding.

Aneria then monologues

Aneria: alright vis lets see if you know what your actually doing this time hope you don't disappoint me in this.

Scene

Aneria looks very closely to what vis is about to say and do, and gives the most yearning of eyes to the guys as both aura and aneria then confront eyes, Aura then in a hissy fit knows the stupidity of the situation .

Aura: sigh proctor is this all she had to present ,

Aneria: hah you wouldn't know anything since your always doing whatever you want as a pretty pretty princess Wah Wah, I want all of it, puff like a amateur

Aura: I'm soooooo annoyed by her, proctor i need a break can I leave , my father gave me the privilege to leave

Proctor: not unless you appeal to this

Suddenly Aura Emits her force and empahsis her stern order

Aura: Am I clear

Proctor: of course madam

Aura then leaves the room

Aneria: Ill do the same , she wouldn't the be 1st to cry over her feeling, awww

Aneria then leaves the room as well.

Both Sogo and Vis then Look at each other in the most confused way, Sogo in reaction and formed tact tells his confusion in a whisper like intent

Sogo: Yo vis, whatever's going on follow what im doing , I know aneria is falsifying this whole thing , and on top of that she's planning something stupid, just lower the aura capacity

Vis: Like its already known, what is.....

The Proctors then start to asses both vis and sogo,

Meanwhile, Both Aura and Aneria are out of the room to take a breather and are looking at one another with the most distaste ,

Aneria: aww you dont even have the most prestige of clothing's aww what happened to your taste of design, And i thought I was poor for being dressed like this.

Aura: hmmmph not taking that, who would do such a stupid play to make all of us get stuck in this mess.

Aneria: gasp i wouldnt possibly be me, I mean I just said what was coming through my heart I mean my snow clan may have cold skin but deep within we have a soul to yearn for warmth we aren't truly deceptive as that.

Aura: sigh, the more you talk like that , the more you reek your stench

Aneria then gets agitated as she knows that shes cleans her self and dresses ,

Aneria: ahhh am I hearing a mentally weird person talking to me ,

Aura and Aneria then start to get into a struggle , like 2 cats fighting

Scene

Both Aneria and Aura then come to a calm stillness realizing what would be the point to talking like this to begin with.

Aura: humph not worth my time

Aneria: HAH you proved me right Bye !!

Both walk back into the proctors room and see both vis and sogo in the most goofed postures

Sogo: OW this hurts what the

Vis: Is this it ,

The proctors then enhance their aura techniques and check the lying quality in the voices aura flowing in the forces.

Both Aneria and Aura then return to the quatres , both in angst yet indifferent moods from each other.

The proctors then finish the checking of the boys and does the similar test to the girls, Once the test is confirmed they then finalize the results

Proctors : It would seem this was a false alarm, no need to access anymore, however

The proctors then give a azure like ticket pass to both vis and sogo

Proctors: you both are given a request from both the Snow clans Mage Queen and the Azure King with an audience to celebrate the 3 month progress on the Students and to Present a Dance for those interested .

Sogo: yo really aww yeah I actually didnt break my chances this time

Vis: heh that old man kinda got me guessing alot on this, lol for him to have actual empathy

Vis then looks at aura and aneria, he then gives the calm yet strong eyes of that calm confidence

Vis: Guess im not in the ways to say thanks, yet guess what ive done is actually getting started

Sogo: Now you get it dude, that what im telling , how to loosen up, lol they know how you look, yet your so rigid, pffft right girls. How can anyone respect you for that its so freaken stuck up.

Aura ignores sogo for the stupidity hes caused and says

Aura: dont talk to me ,

Aura then looks at vis and his confidence flowing through from the last battle training, she sways her looks and eyes

Aura: well you got alot to learn vis, you may have those abilities and skills, yet how smart can you be when you dont even realize what you lack. Just a simple tip, when you realize it, youll let it hit.

Vis hearing this makes him feel it that feeling that makes him subtle humbled.

Vis: Then I guess that's alright, A smart guy wouldnt need to explain or presume

Vis then emits the azure aura blade with the emission force like stance

Vis: Their actions or the phase is what counts, because words are just words, Its what we do that emits that power especially the act.

Both Aneria and Aura then feel the flow from vis starting stage of resolution. Aura blushes again

Aura: Sigh... this is annoying , Vis why are you this annoying I cant stand you yet humph

Aura then rushes out of the Room with high emotions flourished all around.

Proctors : are you all done with your young like shenanigans,.... sigh

Vis: You tell me

Sogo: heh

Scene

Moments after the Proctors assessment, the instructor, proctors , the Ice mage queen , and Azure king then asses what has happened.

Anias: My liege you would've already put them in suspension for the mis behaving , so why not put them in the testing chambers to punish them,

Azure King: There wouldn't be any need , ah the queen of the mages of snow , you have the floor , please tell me what we can offer for this dance

Snow Mage Queen: My daughter aneria is someone I've always loved to my hearts content, why not we allow a ball like selection of dances for our so "beloved" students to dance into, you surely have that reason would you my king.

Azure King: only time will tell.

The academic training then passes, and the combatants then increase in skill and form to some extent. And soon after the field missions are finished , the time of the dance and ball is then commenced those with the ticket are given a special seat to the dance hall and special accessories

Aura, Aneria, Vis, and Sogo are all prepped up with their most clean vest and sophisticated clothing for the manner at hand. Vis checking his sleeves and handling his clothes then is checked by the guards, Sogo being goofy with his style of cloths gets a intentional laugh from the others knowing that sogo just wants to mess around. Aura dressed up to be most stylish to her own ways , and aneria looking to be the most lavish in contrast to aura style.

Vis then sees Aura in her most stylish style something that took him in surprise

Aura: lol I definitely have the looks, and this boy looks like..... sigh never mind

Aura in the swaying way then tries to shows her confidence and gives the eyes for the dance

Vis knowing this then relates.

Vis: gotta get my eyes checked for looking,

Sogo then pops in and hangs with vis being stupid and goofy, messing around like there's no end of the charades in sight

Sogo: bro Aura gets the hots for you, you need to get that chance and do it shes so worth it .

Vis: dude the balls just started and the music is not even good to even dance too.

Sogo: of course I freaken know that,

Aneria looking then sees her competition and sees Vis she then does her magic.

Scene

Aura then hangs outside the ballroom in the balcony and reminisces her beloved past in those times in life. Vis then kinda feeling that party wasn't meant for his taste comes to the exact same area , how hes feeling is everything happening feeling really off from what is about to happen, Both feel the tension of the kingdoms , Aura feeling her responsibility for her strength as heir, and Vis knowing he has to adapt fast in the whole area in the situations from the academics.

Vis: guess this wasnt my taste or feel to hang here,

Aura then looks and cant believe vis is here at the same time.

Aura: for someone like you to be here not wanting the party, you sooo like to act out, sigh

Vis: I mean you said it not me, It kinda just gets to a point where's its the exact same thing over and over again.

Aura: Oh like you would know, the parties ive gone too are way better than this, they even have crafted items and accessories to give around

Vis: pfft you dont have to rub it in , lucky

Aura then feels VIs and sees hes feeling down on something
Aura: your sorta down this time, sigh do i have to do therapy for you

Vis: Like how its just a dance hall, just don't worry about it, pfft ive danced.....

Aura: sigh am I really something you want to ignore... am I correct

Vis: you tell me

Aura then gets close to vis and gets on his space and messes with his hair

Aura: oh ha ha like you would know , mr.downer whatever, It rare for me to even take you seriously, thinking your good alone ..

The Dance then starts to happen to the rythem to the beat.

Aura: I need a partner and everyone here especially Anias are just whatever, I need someone that can play along

Vis: really, ... you know I suck at this

Aura: Its better to put your worries elsewhere, plus I might be able to try, Stop being so lame

Both Vis and Aura then go into the dance hall.

Scene:

Both Vis and Aura are then given the spotlight in the ballroom, Aura then brings vis to its stature wanting him to play along, Vis the whispers

Vis: you know how this is gonna end , you know im bad at this, ...man

Aura: Liar, I know how you move especially in the battle field, when you walk and fight its like a dance of blades being shown , just let me lead with you.

Aura then forces VIs to start dancing her way and Vis without him knowing it then uses his style of movement from his own dances of blades

Vis:..... how did you

Aura: shhh the ice mage and azure king are looking at us, there's a reason im trying to dance with you.

Vis:.....then what is it

Aura then gets closer to Vis and get close to his ear and neck

Aura: Both of them are trying to calculate the students reports and account for what is going on, Your not in good shape , im afraid what might happen might make you a pupp....

Vis then stops her from over flowing her emotions and anxiety in emotions, she then looks at vis

Vis: tch i know that , the azure king is planning something and the rest, alex and the other know it as well, Im not aiming to fail at this.

Vis then takes control over the dance and flows his style within mix of his combat style

Aura then leads with him and both are in sync,

Aura:.....he was going to

Vis: just let me sway with you.

Sogo looking at the dances feels the calm yet attentive nature of the area at hand,

Sogo: And I thought he didnt have this confidence, looks like im needing alot to catch up, well aneria whats up you seem

Sogo then looks at aneria and suddenly feels her feels of envy something that only sogo would know.

Aneria:..... shes only using him as an emotional tool, she doesnt see him as his ownself, but as someone to do pillow talk.... its not fair

Sogo feeling her jealous nature then relates with how he felt when vis talked to aura

Sogo: I mean we got our own ways of dealing or having those wants, aneria I know you so well, why didnt you move.....

Aneria: stop reminding me about this

Sogo: We both just gotta have fun in the crowd these times
dont last you know that bubble gum

Aneria then storms down and gives a certain look to Vis, The song changes the music mixers in the ball room then enhance the dance room. Vis seeing whats going on then stop just as the song stops as well

Aura: hey where you going

Vis: something seemed off , gotta hydrate

Aura: dont leave me hanging

Vis feeling conflicted from the events , he sees the snow mage queen and could tell there's an alarming feel when seeing aneria.
He then goes where anerias at .

scene

Vis then goes around , knowing something is up with Aneria, he senses that the Ice mage of a queen , is checking on him for some particular reasonings.

Aneria: sniff...

Vis knowing this then tries to ask her like any guy would and say .

Vis: you alright, you seemed feeling kinda worried on something

Aneria: you wouldn't even care about it

Vis then realizes what the ice mage was intending to do from a distinct point

Aneria: you definitely think your nothing to worry about,
....sniff every time i go to a ball or even a dance, I'm always left alone, they always pair me with stupid goof balls that couldn't even do anything's like losers.

Aneria then walks in a way where she wanted her reasoning to be heard

Vis then monologues

VIs: the queen must've seen this before , how's she's so anxious and tired or being left out..... why would she...

Vis then passes some water for her to get her back up in shape.

VIs: to be honest parties arent really meant for me either, kinda be to over the top., But I guess here where we are its eased out.

Vis then helps her with the anxiety,

Vis: just tell me whats hurting you

Aneria: my dad hes just.....

Vis:.....

In the dance quarters both the Ice mage queen and the Azure king in their dress attire are then talking to each other about the matters at hand. The azure king then is changed with a different masked armor to an extent.

Snow Mage Queen: What a lovely ideal state we are in my King from the azure times of form

Azure King: you sure to be in a mood of all moods, ... those alliances thou

The Snow mage Queen knowing the King is playing her game then aims to lure with a feeling of understanding

Snow mage Queen: OH my loved King of Azure, surely you knew what happened in those times, would you?

The Snow mage Queen gets close to the King , flowing her hands to him , The King feels it but doesnt let the sway happen to some extent. The queen in some form then relates the past in such a likeable tale, she puts her hands into the azure kings shoulders and then dances, The king acts in refusal through his words but lets it happen for the reasoning

Snow mage Queen: all of those times back in our youth we used to play in the academy in the higher status of education, I just want all of it back those times ive missed from you , AUGEN

She then holds his back and wants to flow all of her emotions to make Augen feel what she feels. Her own power , her own compensation for the times she loved and yet she wanted more.

Azure King: sigh you know its been washed as waves from the crystals of time.

The ball then commences

Scene:

Aneria doesn't want to express her emotions in a way where she would regret but there was always a thing she always chased even as a kid.

Vis and Aneria talk for a moments time and then

Aneria: I was always hated for even wanting to have this dream like thing as a kid,

Vis:.....It wouldn't be as bad to know what it is,.....

Aneria then shows her teddy bear she always wanted to fix and never had anyone to allow her to fix it, Vis then remembers his own past as a kid having a baby dinosaur plushie.

Aneria: Sigh we dont have the time, just send me your magic number here

Vis:..... How about try and make it premium and limit me when you need help,

Vis then shows his own worries and reasons for his own eyes, he feels what he wants justified, feels the tension of the academics and chosen successor , Aneria feels that and sees she not the only one suffering

Vis knowing the time he has , then goes back to the dance

scene.

Vis: just ask me when you get the chance, ill limit myself

Vis then goes back into the party scene

As both the azure king and snow mage queen dance, they then reminisce in their own past of what they did for the fun of it.

in the young azure kings time with her

Young Snow Mage Queen: would I want to mist you up oooo
this is tricky

Azure King Young: Never would've thought you would so
"win" against me in this ow now im powerless

Young Snow Mage Queen: sigh you don't have any strength in you I know you sooo do , tch predicting like that.

The young snow mage then flows her feelings to vis, as she tries to control the azure king.

AzureKing: lol you know me so well on this,

Both the Azure King have a playful fight, which leads to the Snow Mage winning

SnowMage: gasp I never would've thought I would win something so quick. whoa

Azureking: How am I supposed to know how quick your aim would be . Man I cant believe im feeling this goofed humiliations.

SnowMage: Oh like I'm going to take it and believe it too simple.

Azure King- I kinda gotta go some where present time: Vis goes back to Aura and dances in the scene in play of the aesthetic of pearl-like force.

Months after the party, many of the students and combatants are then given special events to take, both aura and vis are given a specific test to develop in the emotional form.

Alex: You both seem to have a aura and soul form in force , with whats happening , I would glad to recommend you both to a “conversation”

Vis feeling not in the mood feels that off setting feels to it

Vis: The heck why just us , shes already highly skilled than me at some things , pfft am I actually better than this inflate of a girl.

Aura: What would you know about me , Im trying to be someone who has a reason and I want that reason of to be heard, You never knew anything reading in the most basic way your freaken stupid. Always trying to skill up when you lack reasons , What did you see in yourself, always trying to think like your emotions are just that important. I had to handle it all I hate it , I HATE IT THAT YOU TOOK IT AWAY FROM ME. I dont want anyone that couldnt realize it even from the start. Sniff..... I Cry every time remembering how he lost every time I wanted him back,

ALex: alright just settle

Vis: What..... thats.....

Stupid tch Then why ask me to join in, I shouldn't be any importance to you, I wasn't that cool enough to even understand. YOU KNOW THAT Aura , tch you didnt even mention why you even wanted to start this . Then why ask someone whos like me to begin with. Am I just dead weight to you..... I was trying to help

Aura: SHUT UP, who am I to you , am I just a person to be protected or AM I someone who can do it herself whats wrong trying to get strength for myself I wanted to

Aura then remembers, Endo and that reason to have Dreams and a purpose, Suddenly she realizes her love for possibility , her love for imaginative takes for funny times

Aura: I just just get out

Vis:..... im always weak, I hated just having no reason at all, SO YEAH YOUR RIGHT, what other choice did i have..... Alright ill leave , she really just thinks im....., you do whatever

Alex: Sigh i didn't want to start this but it happened.

Vis then takes a break outside and changes the perspective

VIS: Crazy.....

Vis then goes out in the room, to the study break hall.

Vis: why was I born like this , what's the point to this.

Vis then sees himself and looks at what he did to aura to some ideal form

Vis:.....tch like she knew me, Man why was I like that to her , she just

Vis then feels an sensations he was fearing from the start

Vis:.....Its power, do I really want that power.....

Vis then feels guilty for just acting real, she knew that he had something that she felt she justified, vis then remembers what was said

Vis: She doesn't need my rambling, gotta say sorry

Vis after 10 minutes or so , goes back and tells her,

Vis: fine let go of all of your emotions , im fine with the insults , because to be honest I kinda deserved it.

Aura: Stubborn, Basic, Emotionally withdrawn, annoying, embarrassing with how you talk, and just stupid, THERE you happy on that, Weak and acting like your the hotshot, who can stand that.

Vis: Well, you take Stage Aura, say whatever makes me agitated, Alex. You want this to go on? You want us to have the emotions tested.

Alex monologues,

Alex: he actually might have a chance to grow, Never would've thought

As the student and combatants train within their skill level, they gain the force of one would call the children of the storms. In that session Vis and Aura condense their skills and elevate what they could do to that extent. Sogo and Aneria then develop Blade skills at exceptional pacing's to some extent.

Both Vis and Aura are eventually grouped together, to do some study session on the combative magic forms in aura and soul capacity.

Aura not feeling the mood to handle vis , reluctantly tries to teach .

Aura: Sigh I cant believe i have to repeat this part of the lesson I thought you knew this about ability skills and what not.

Vis already knowing the abilities, then lets her teach knowing how she feels ,

Vis: maybe I kinda need a refresher, Your always right

Aura: trying to prove me right and please me , humph I dont need your excuses for pity

Vis: Im being dead serious, Im trying alright

Vis knowing he bullshitted the answer because he already knew most of the principles of aura control from his previous sessions

Aura: Such a Loser , you always trying to please me like your trying to be a servant, then yeah your soo right , Its annoying to meet guys like you in such a high horse agitation.

Vis then stops for a bit and catches a break,

Vis: gotta get the book for this give me a mintue

Vis then thinks in his own mind to help out aura knowing how dumb he really was in his ways.

Vis:.....

Vis then comes back to the study session and proves her right

Vis: Alright you got me , I was trying to make you happy

Aura: i knew it , you knew all of this from the start, why am I even talking to you in the 1st place,

Both start bickering and then Aura then pinches Vis his body feeling the pain and her own emotions flowing making Vis feel her resentment for losing someone dear.

Vis:.....

Aura:....I want him back and yet im forced to train you like a dog its.....

Vis: Just never mind lets just focus on this

After the weeks have passed , another session of blade test is then commenced to show the progress on the students aura capacities.

Both Aura and Vis then are asked to do the exhibition and combat themselves in the field.

Both are still in the blade stance, building their strength and developing their adaptive strikes in motion.

Both are silent, and both are in sync

They strike in difference from each other, both having their own distinct reasons .

Suddenly both Vis and Aura are tied and tired from the fight at hand.

Aura: why don't you just give it up

Vis: why ask when the fun is getting started, thought you knew already.

Both then flow their own emotions into the blades they both bestow, each in a dancing-like manner and form, almost like a ballroom-like flow and stay.

Moments after both stop and the proctor Alex then sees that both Aura and Vis are at an exceptional level in the combats spheres.

Alex: you both are now in a exceptional level in skill , im glad to see both of you in good shape.

Aura: Gladly

Vis: For Sure

The 1st year then closes as a new semester starts in the projects.

Then the second year starts as all the combatants get up in the skills and academics in their own styles.

Aura, Sogo, Aneria, Vis, and Malik are all in the same class, and so much so that the shenanigans then start.

Malik: wassup gang man im amped up to flame up my skills,

Aura: Hey

Sogo: Sup Bro

Vis: been a while

Aneria: Hi

As the 2nd year starts, so does the advanced teaching and emotional communication

Aneria and Malik are teamed up to do some item control manifestations to develop the team style

Sogo, Vis, and Aura are teaming up to improve their dysfunctional teamwork.

Both teams are then challenged by the proctors item reporting at hand.

In the second year term, the class of the 2nd years then start the proctor sido, then assess and test the competence of students.

In this class, we will be starting mandatory homework for the ability manifestations; in that implication, you all will be teamed up. Are you all ready for the battles and questions to be engaged?

Vis: what

The proctor Sido then flung the note-taking device to vis, vis, knowing that he was being asked to say a question in this way.

Vis: Alr I got a question, what would be the difference between aura control and aura emission?

Proctor Sido: That is a bit too direct, but doable. Try again on the gambling machine roulette

Vis realizes that and sees he has a limited number of questions

Sogo: dude, don't waste the shot

Aura: Sigh

vis then thinks of a thought-out set of questions to ask the proctor

Vis: 1st, how does the teammate emotionally help the lead?

2nd Does someone's personality boost the energy of the team or complicate the environment?

3rd: What's the difference between aura emotions and aura-like personalities?

Proctor: Ah, that's better, he's actually used his limited brain cells to think this

Sogo: pffft bro he actually said that to you

Aura: Read him like a book,

Vis: nah im just getting started. Let's get the answers, teach
Proctor Sido: Defiant as always, alright, turn to pages 120 and 330 to know the concepts.

Everyone is annoyed, then reluctantly turns to the pages. Everyone reads, and suddenly, vis gets the answers he needs.

Proctor Sido: Any questions?

Scene

After the class session is over, the item manifestation class is held for the teams to develop their emotions into weapons and blades that flow.

Malik: Rip, I gotta do this exercise again, rip

Sogo: Nah, we are the same twin, doing the same skill, bro. We are the chads of the Mount Alphas, pfft, vis wouldn't even know what im even talking about

Vis: You're talking the same way, dude. Is that all you gotta say? I don't even know why I chose to team up like this, Ligma Sigma, what a trick that is,

Sogo: Boy, this guy tends to get up on me, y'all want us to throw hands, im ready, bruh.

Aura: Sigh, just like last year, same lame talks.

Vis: She's right

Sogo: Never mind, bro. Thought you could take a joke for a bit.

Vis: Was manipulation ever an easy thing to do, rip

Suddenly, the class starts, and the students are then placed into groups with distinct weapons of choice

Proctor Sido: in this session, we will be doing blade manifestations where you, as the students, will engage in a system of aura control to enable the tool's force.

Sogo: Like, we're making our very own blades aww yeee that be peak as a high mountain of finesse.

Aura: Sogo, you're ruining it. Sigh, doing this is not for the faint of heart

Malik: Bruh, this is what I was expecting, how do I do this again

Everyone then looks at Vis as he's already doing the blade manifestation with him, even realizing it

Sogo: Tch he's already doing it pffft, we didn't even start this, man cheater boi.

Proctor Sido: Alright, everyone, we start the skill test now.

Everyone then holds their tools and allows their abilities to form.

Proctor Sido: Now we use our own emotions and will to see what forms from the blade itself

Aura then looks at Vis, knowing she can feel Vis's own feelings and how he's handling it. Her own Memories then pop up as well.

Aura feels that what she's done to help him get better was a combination of how unfair it felt for someone who's not in her caliber.

Vis then holds the blade from what he was given in a taught form; he uses all of his emotions, and thus, he handles the blade

Sogo then uses his own blade compensation in control and follows, wanting to be better than the guy.

Sogo: lol im at that level to bruh, im peaking my arsenal.

Aura, amongst anyone, then controls her own blades in manifestation and outclasses both sogo and vis with her own distinct flare and emotions of high respect,

Vis: whoa

Sogo Man, I im jealous. How does she reach that skilled range? She's already on the high score list. Man, I im a L's Man, bruh.

Malik: Nice, she got it

Aneria, feeling how incompetent she is, then says to Vis in a close call,

Aneria: Hey, Bet that's all she got, she's just that basic or whatever,

Vis: you, amongst anyone telling me this, should kinda read yourself

Aneria: She doesn't even deserve it, her allegiance, her skill, I can do so much, why like her, when.....

Aneria then tries to hold hands with vis. All of a sudden, the next part of the practice assessment begins.

The proctor then puts the team into a girls vs boys team, where there are all the girls and boys, then tests each other in aura capacity and a funny test to see who's gonna lose their calm flow in state.

Sogo: Aight, hope I don't have to bail this guy out

Vis: Who asked you

Malik: Bro, chill, we in the team like finesse session, bet we force on like chads from the mount force of tours.

Sogo: You really talk out of it, do ya bruh

Malik: Lol, Just watch how the test is gonna get started.

The girl team then shows their own calm flow in aura in that synced-up controlled form, then negates sogo for his lack of knowing what he did.

Aura: sigh

Malik: Pffft, Sogo you good thought you had this

Sogo: tch, it's just a fluke, im getting better at it

Vis then slowly forms the aura in a competent form, aura knowing this, then lets vis be. She smartly plays with vis even though it is annoying to put him in that spotlight

Vis:.....

Malik: Well, looks like this Bruh be trying to surf and not get the sharks baiting on him

Vis: dude, im trying to see

Sogo: "Man of No Eyes" just saying

Aneria then controls her own aura control form and makes Sogo take another L

Vis: 2 times in a row, where have I heard that before?

Aneria: Hah, the boys' team got losses, we girls win, yay we slay these losers hah

Everyone looks at Sogo for looking stupid and letting the losses be made

Moments after the test is finished, and ends with the girl team winning the 1st assessment of a round

After the class, everyone then takes a break from the class at hand. Everyone then makes fun of Sogo for how goofy and stupid his losses were.

Aneria: So you know who's the one that made the guy's team lame, poor goofy sogo

Malik: Yeah, and Sogo got his butt beat like a dog

Sogo: pfft, come on, Aura's way of doing that aura, whatever skill, was way too easy to read

Malik: Bro, just take the L., you were reading jack crap on that

Vis: Yeah, dude, just take the L like a normal person does

Sogo: Who said you needed to talk? All you did was stay freaken still like board paper or some crap like that. We're gonna shut up, bruh.

Aura: sigh, well, what a good way to read a guy that's too calm?

Malik: Vis you wanna talk it

Vis: lol why

Malik: They're asking for it thou, like you're the only guy that did this aura control thing good,

Aura: Aw, well, he's just a guy, a basic random guy, a guy that wouldn't know how to read at all, Stupid, baby vis

Sogo: oooohhh she said it, ooff

Vis: And just this guy actually didn't take the Ls like how Sogo tries so hard oof. The girls definitely used every single blind spot in general.

Sogo: Pfft, shut up, it always goes back to me, rip. And nah, never had any blind spots to color over.

Aura: Says the guy watching the wrong corner, sigh, even a monkey knows how to look, and his Helen Keller eyes are blinding him.

Malik: OOO, she's roasting you like beef in a gourmet restaurant in Italy.

Vis: yeah

In the calm school break session in the academic times, aneria waits and queues to talk to vis about what he's been doing, banter with those ways.

Vis: Are you just that girl to use those words around me like that

Aneria: No I think you're the one using my words against me, like you literally said from your mouth

Vis: Wait I didn't want to start that, why would i start those things? I helped you when you asked Aneria: Oh, how is that helping? It's just such a small action to do. No, you're thinking I im the bad person for wanting normal things like a girl should. Oh, you're so good.

Vis feels irritated, then knows how she uses those things

Vis: First, I asked to help you, and you didn't want the help. Now, you're saying I didn't help you when you didn't want the help to begin with. Wait, what?

Aneria: I don't want you mansplaining like you know me

Vis feels the confusion and the misinterpretation of who he is, how she feel to say things about the person that never happened to begin with.

Aneria: Your just a guy that has no soul or emotions for anyone your just sorry in that lacking state , help what did I say help?

Vis: we were just talking about it, you just

Aneria: Oh you did help, you helped make yourself look sorry and bad,

Vis: no..... why would you say that, 1st I helped you on the test, second, I tried to do you favors to help the situation with Sogo, and even bought food for you, wasn't all of that good to you

Aneria:.....you never know what a girl wants.

Aneria: You always say you're the one wanting to help me out, when you're excusing your selfish attitudes on your calculative expectations of the actions. That's soooo manipulative

Vis: That was never me at all, im just trying to care for the situation, what kind of girl would try and think im trying to abuse

Aneria: here we go again, you always say that, you always like and love to abuse me, ohh ,your also angry too, Gasp, you even aggressed me just now

Vis: Why would I have any reason to aggress against anyone?

Vis feels enraged by this, then realizes there's no point to this.

Vis: No wonder you're always alone. Did your mom know any of this?

Aneria: And now you want to bring her in, you're sooo desperate, you define so many reasons to keep yourself safe.

Vis is enraged, then slowly pauses

Vis: Was this really who I was?

Vis then moves on

Vis:.....

Scene

They then converse again for another banter of some sort in various ways.

Scene

Both Malik and Vis then talk for a bit afterwards

Malik: fought?

Vis: Why ask?

Malik: From what I've been seeing, you both have that spark or whatever chemistry that's kinda intense

Vis: Wait, you've been eavesdropping

Malik: Everyone knows what's been happening. Every class you had with Aneria was too fixated, like she really wants it.

Vis: And im falling for it, like what did I do

Malik: Girls be like that, they may do the opposite, but it's always that alluring intention they phase to.

Vis: pfft like you know me, know it all.

Aura then comes into the area and engages in a conversation.

Aura: So what am I hearing again? Wouldn't be me, im presuming

Malik: nah, princess, it ain't you, just don't worry about it

Aura: Vis, who were you talking to again? can't believe you wanted so many things, lame player

Vis: Wasn't asking for it, was kind of tired of it though.

Aura: Sigh, boring, well, bye, you boys do whatever later

Aura leaves, knowing her own emotions are intense and all over the place.

Malik: Man vis I just don't know how any of this is vibing, some be tweaking

Vis: yeah

Malik: Remember what the procoter said about the emotional feels when in combat, did ya catch that thou

Vis: was kinda hard to follow but alr, he probably knew things that I wouldnt know,

Malik: tch, bruh, he was talking about harmony and how communication can be in the form of discord sometimes, man. I thought you knew that.

Vis:..... alright, and im so on, quote “Am I just damaged”, and why does this go back to my question.

Malik then ruffles Vis’s hair to loosen up his tension

Vis: What’s that for, bruh

Malik: It’s meant to help you loosen up. There are so many expecting you to get at it, spark up, shoot for the stars,

Malik then asks him to look at the stars,

Malik: Look at it, do you wanna be someone that can emphasise their will to the stars or be lacking and rut themselves to the dirt and ground? Dude, you gotta have those possibilities, I know it.

Vis: wait like him, nah

Malik: lol, and you’re definitely making the proctor seem correct about your sorry lame excuses, dude.

Malik then sees Aura waiting on the balcony of the Azure Kingdom’s highest stairs.

Malik: She’s kinda waiting for you to get the memo, didn’t you see

Vis:..... but why me,

Malik: Lol nah if only the man of hidden strengths could shoot and loosen up, it kinda would be a sorry take, if he doesn’t get it on time

Vis: Man Malik, you definitely be trying to make me do it, tch man, im hopeless if I don’t

Malik: Nice,

Vis then goes to the balcony, where he talks to Aura and shows his own strength, drawing on many stars over the 3 years.

In the calm night hours, Malik, Vis, and Sogo train with stances and practice sets of scrimmages together.

Sogo: damn, I keep missing, crap boi Vis, I just wanna slam this on ya bruh

Vis: just flowed walks, I guess

Malik: You both sure get sparked up whenever you fight it

All 3 then duel each other and start gambling their soul and aura credits,

Anias and the Azure King watch as they do it

The next morning, the class commences, and a new student from the Azure Kingdom province is introduced.

Proctor: We have a guest in our hands and would love to present, so please welcome Lucy

Everyone applauds the matter and sees how she represents herself.

Lucy: It's such a pleasure to meet you, lovely people

Sogo then says

Sogo: nah, in an edge-out place like this, nah, we're good

Aura: Shut it, she wasn't referring to you only,

Proctor SIdo: She will introduce one of the key concepts in this magic session.

Lucy: which is to be exact, the level and connection between one's own emotional gauge and aura capacity to its details and form.

Vis then reacts to the calling and says

Vis: the will and reason from what chaos there is, the element of justification of pain never wanted.

Lucy, getting a vibe from vis and his strong element, is allured by how he talks,

Lucy: Well, well, Proctor, may I have a seat as a student in this class? I want to follow what I do.

Lucy then sits down right next to Vis, knowing there's something kinda special about this.

Vis then settles his set of questions for the proctor to hear.

Vis: What makes one aura formulation special to the user?

Second, what makes someone's personality mysterious to the user at hand, which makes the aura control work on different levels?

Proctor SIdo: You're trying to guess the persona form within each person's aura correlation, not bad for making those questions.

Sogo: Freaken four eyes

Aura: huh

The class ends, and a session in the break room then starts to unravel in that form.

Some of the classmates then start to laugh a little, like seeing some crazy guy doing things he should be doing with a dull guy.

Sogo: What's up with everyone, and im doing nothing at all.

Vis then realizes the girls were gossiping about the matter and made a false, misinformed report, bringing in the guards and proctors to the scene.

Anias: Aww, you both just messed up big time. Now it's time for the event, bois

Both proctors then force Sogo and Vis into a two v six brawl, only they were tricked into using

Sogo: crap, what happened to my

Vis: Is this a fluke? What am I in this mess for?

Both players look at their practice tools and see either a mess or a clown's tools.

Anias: Come on, you know you wanna fight with these, it's all you know. Would you come on let it burn

Vis knows the trick, then trashes the thing.

Vis: What a false play this is, alright im gonna use my pass to talk to the academic people about this slander.

Vis leaves, making Sogo look stupid, so Sogo follows. Aura, realizing what's happening, then moves along with them.

Aura then monologues: "This soon? So my dad has already planned it, sigh."

Vis then walks in with strength and opens the proctors' halls to see who's been messing up the area.

Vis: The azure king has a lot of clowns for this to be the case, Anias.

Anias: OH, so you did figure it out, pffft, it is so worth nothing for you to come yet have nothing to present, twink.

Vis: so freaken invalid, you're taking a kid like me seriously, that's like a freaken man child that is in daycare.

Both Vis and Anias then draw blades.

Anias: SO freaken crazy like a dog of mindless bone chases, nah, crazy inept, vis ill have to hug you like you want it ooo.

Vis: SHUT UP

The proctors and other teachers warn the other about what is about to happen.

Sogo: What the

Anias then uses an ultimatum to make vis feel it.

Anias: lose that chance with her, or lose everything you conquered, lol

Anias, the proctor, and Vis then fight with blades in a sophisticated manner.

Anias: Come here, little girl, princess. Let me have this drink with you, princess. I must dance with you.

Vis is not phased, then deflects his blades with constant control; his blade and his blade clash in a fury of chaotic-like finesse.

Vis: When I win this, I'll clear my status up.

Anias: The king allows this to happen, so what would your justification imply, big doneky big man of swagness?

Vis then punctures Anias and stalls him

Vis: wonder what's going on with the records this king is making. pathetic

All the proctors then canceled the match, as this is against the rules of the Azure academic process.

The higher proctors placed Vis and Anias on temporary suspension for their actions in different rooms for a day or so.

Both Vis and Anias are then placed in separate rooms close to each other so the azure guards and proctors can monitor them during that phase.

Anias: This man is a guy with a drive that even the dumb monkeys would've moved along from

Vis, hearing what Anias is saying, doesn't interfere; however, more tricks begin to manifest. Vis in the correlation then does something for the 1st time, a change that forces him to do it.

Vis: What is he trying to.....

Anias then speaks out things only a crash of the outs would do.

Anias: So who's the 1st to actually do it, my man, the oh sad some vis?

Vis then lets his emotions in a controlled form and forces himself to play along.

Vis: Then what would a guy actually want if the love was just an act?

Anias: Oh come on, Vis, you know me more than anyone else, you think you have such an extreme reason to be who you are,

that confidence when you're so freaken basic, but I mean it's true, then you're right so much about me. SO then what makes what you do legit?

Vis then ignores, but realizes he's up to something

Anias: Then let me ask this simple question that even a wise donkey could understand from a pre k stance

Vis: What are you

Anias: Would the person already be at their fullest peak, even though there's no responsible act of skill to see?

Anias: Is the person truly awake when all of your acts are trying to be less blind and asleep, yet it is?

Is a simple girl your reason to be the truest in that high caliber, or are you just using it as a crutch from desperation, or a lack of books?

Anias: So then, are you trying to think that your reason is to be a true hero of all, or are you just an aimless chaser of a single thing intact? So, so do indeed have priorities, right?

Vis: Im not wanting this

Anias: Your family, your clan, maybe your doggie you cherish so much, all taken away because you wanted to be chosen, you wanted to be number one, hence you are the one. All aLone

Vis: Shut up, I don't

Anias: You really wanted them to be gone, just like how you ran away. Does a strong guy run away, man? I presume the strongest tend to stay. You let them die, just like a soulless man with no road to go.

Vis: You're something

Anias: Are you my teacher? Oh, nice, you definitely need to teach me more about this animal, like one word saying that has "high" value likewise. LOL, yeet, I learned so much from this, and I thought my talk was so "good" compared to this.

Vis feels enraged and then punches the wall in a controlled form, waiting for the proctors to open the doors.

Anias: Man, this guy is so fat, bruh, just alot for anyone to eat lol

Vis: tch

Anias: Like an abuser and a terrorist using and tainting the light, gasp ,is he that guy

Meanwhile, Sogo, AURA, and Aneria then talk about how stupid the suspension was.

Sogo: Boy, what is going on with this academy alliance and ethics? Bruh, im thinking way too hard about this.

Aura: My dad is at it again. Every time he moderates the kingdom's system, someone messes up the records. It's so aggravating to handle this.

Aneria: I wonder what my mother was trying to do ?

Sogo: What kind of question is that?

vis then comes back into the break room, ignoring what just happened from that situation

Vis: waste

Sogo: Yo Vis, what's up, and dude, you're like hot red or something, eating those red hot Cheetos, bro.

Aura: sigh wheres your manners vis

Vis is looking tired of it and questioning the crazy takes of a man like Anias.

Vis: How did he the records or what was this shit

Sogo: Yo so I heard that you were trying to stand up and challenge Anias like that bruh.

Vis: It's so stupid. How is he talking? Is he even mentally there or what? Saying shit that was like me reading me like what?

Aura: A guy like you would have already known this already, especially how intentional Anias is, sigh, are you dense?

Sogo: wait dont tell me pfft did he toy with your words, nah, that can't be it, is i,t bro

Vis: dude shut up i dont

The whole team, Malik, Aneria, Lucy, Aura, and Sogo, then look at him with all kinds of reactions, and Sogo being the most spot on one.

Sogo: I can't actually believe it, you let him use you by you talking in reaction to your mind like that, this is comedy, and I thought my auto-pilot mode was crazy.

Aneria: Lol, vis you okay

Lucy : Just came in and wow already it's happening, I won't talk anymore sigh

Aura, looking at vis and just pities

Aura: whatever

Vis then slumps down and just lies, like he wasn't into it, when he's just pissed off as an angry ox boy.

Vis: I freaken hate it, tch never mind

In the nighttime academic hours, Vis then looks in the mirror to see his mark changed. Just for a moment, the curse turned into a blade in a millisecond of blinking; he sees a version of himself, something that conflicts with him.

Vis: What's going on with my

Malik: Yo, Vis, what's the hold up? The scrimmage is starting, and we have some new challengers to go up against Vis: same just give me a sec.

The girls then start going around the guys' practice arena with the snow clans, an aerial division in the play session.

There a calm yet kind Knight of Air, then comes into the fray. His name is recalled to be Divu

Divu: Ayy, what's the hold up, Sogo? I thought we needed to enhance the stage so that everyone could watch

Sogo: pfft, you don't have to ask me twice, right, Vis?

Vis sees the girls are watching the scene at hand, then lays his 2 cents

Vis: Let's just do this.

Sogo: lol alr then take the lead, that's my twin over there hes
the one I've been bros with hes gonna act out a battle session play,

The girls and the azureking and snow queens crowds of watchers see what the combatants are doing in the field.

Lucy:, uuuu whos the handsome armored knight with that golden hair, aura.....uwu

Aneria: sigh so lucky for a man to have such taste

Aura: will you both stop that , I dont know what your talking about — — —

Aura then sees Vis dance with the blades and combats the Divu
Sky Knight,

Vis: Huff , That all you got

Divu: dead straight, your definetly thinking about her

Vis: what

Divu: Sogo told me all about it, how Aura was secretly writing
“stuff” about you, secretly thinking about you, didn't he tell

Vis then looks at Sogo and then sees him hanging with aneria
since he got the memo on time

Divu: So, like, try and make it fun enough for me so that we don't look like jokes in that sense, bruh. They're taking clown photos, bruh

Vis: getting a lot of less things to say, fine

Meanwhile, Sogo then hangs with both the snow guard guys group and with the ladies there, he sorta messes around with them.

Sogo: You know, Aneria, whenever it comes to who I wanna hang, im always gonna be making people you hate, also my enemies, because some just can't get the memo.

Aneria: Uuu, really, Sogo, tell me, tell me why you suck at talking to girls, it's so obvious.

Sogo: sigh, because I im a dunce and a brainless idiot who speaks with 2 brain cells, like a meow catto.

Aneria: Thank you, Sogo, for listening. I hope you can fix your mansplaining.

Sogo: pfft like you would know how I talk thou.

Aura, all of a sudden, with anemia and Lucy, then are amazed by both the snow sky knights air dancing, and Vis ' calm but excellent dancing in the blade form.

Divu: Whoa, whoa, brochacho, you don't want the girls to think you swing the other way .

Vis: This is freaken lame, how long are you gonna keep this up?

Divu: until the king says the saying.....

Aura: whoa hows is he

Suddenly, the king then shows his hand and changes his form to a masked yet white office outfit in design

Azure king: Please be at ease, everyone. We have a momentous occasion: the royal guard will be announced here.

Divu: And there he goes, perfect timing

Sogo: yooo what! at this nighttime of the day

Malik: The boss actually committed to the cooking

Vis: what

Azure King: Malik , Vis , Sogo , and Divu , come to the center, The four then come into the spotlight and are given aura rings of the royal guards' tempered form.

Snow Queen: and my beloved maidens of moon and azure come into the fray

Aura: gasp us too!

All of them are then presented with their marks of heirs

Azure King: I would like to congratulate you on all your skilled development in this kingdom, as I have been pleased with the growth of so many. See my Azure Royal Guardsmen come forth into the area

Vis: me?

Vis then comes into the area, and then he talks in front of the crowd of everyone

Azure King: You have passed many tests, some of which I have planned. You may hate me for doing it, but because of these sessions, you have developed your Azure skills and your ability to foresee. I would have to apologize; however, Anias is the one who needs to hand you something.

Anias: Yo Yo vis, it should've been a lot easier for you to get the notion, so let me hand it to ya

Vis: Is this what you call a prank? Don't make me laugh!

Azure King: Now, calm yourself. There is a test I have to give you to qualify you for the elite guardsmen's class. This class can only be acquired if you can challenge the proctor.

Sogo: pfft, so it was all premeditated, dude, that's scary,

Aura: Vis

The azure king then presents a set of reasons

Azure King: Have you ever wondered why I chose you, Aura, and Anias to be in the same premise?

Vis: Alright, I already got it, you don't have to repeat this song, King

Vis then comes into the Stage and combats the well statured anias,

Anias: This time, I won't hold back, Auras watching. If I win, then she's gonna be looking away at how good you circus up this act, could be a win if you wanted to step it up, I'll take pictures just in case

Vis then starts to clash against Anias

In moments time, vis sense how off anias is almost as if it was a intentional loss

Vis then stops and passes the blade to the proctors

Vis: Alright, I get it know

Aura doesn't believe how Vis was able to figure it out. She presumed Vis was just too dense and mindless to see until now.

Azure King: Ah, so he did listen, that was the alternative test to give you both the rear guard and royal guard classes to your stature.

Aura, Aneria, Lucy, Sogo, and Malik are in shock and can't believe he could do it.

Sogo: pfffft, that's impossible, how did he know the whole thing was a planned, recorded test to train him, he didn't even know what was happening.

Aura: I don't believe it. He stopped because

Vis then looks at the azure king and knells to him

Vis: My liege, I am honored to be given 2 classes for what I've done, from the intentional actions to the planned suspensions and scrimmages, by Anias.

Anias: Tch, he's so smart for not reading me like a book with only answers an alien would do, bruh. Alright

Azure King: I would have to applaud you for handling the guidance that was needed.

The Azure King then assigns other classes to the teammates based on what they have done.

Azureking: Malik and Sogo will be given the Arial Defensive Force, as you both have demonstrated distinct, skilled air combat with efficient pacing and timing.

Sogo: YOOO dude even if we get the advanced ranks, so hah that's gonna prove those lames wrong bruh

Malik: Same Twin, just calm your steps down. I wasn't expecting another rank like this, but it's good.

Azureking: And now we can continue the festivities, go on, we can continue the theatrics.

Moments after the theater plays are then presented, the whole group hangs out for a bit in the mess hall, vis being in the most calm yet sense-like state, making everyone in disbelief

Sogo: Dude, how did you actually know

Aura: It was right about time he figured it out

Aneria: oooo he better show it

Lucy: sigh

Malik: so whats the word up, what's the update

Vis then looks at everyone and says, as he doesn't even have to try it.

Vis: You guys were kinda predictable when it came to hanging with me, Anias kinda made the whole scenario, and I was just watching.

Aura: That definitely makes you creepy

Malik: nah, wait, hold up, when did you actually notice this whole shift happening

Vis: At the very moment the 1st suspension happened, Anias being too intentional with the fights, and even his goofy acts, for him to allow me to fight a proctor at that level does not make sense, bruh, crazy

Malik: Alright, so you sensed out the lie

Aneria: It's more like a prank, but in this case its more like a test

Vis then holds one of the proctor's artifacts in the shape of a coin

Sogo: Hey thats one of the proctors

Vis: It's their item that allows them to profile or navigate the person at hand. What's funny is that they actually handed a slip with the paper.

Malik: kinda like a

Aura: Moniter Card,

Lucy: Okay, bae, so im not the only one who knows this

Everyone then starts hearing an aura story about this.

Aura: Kay, there was this guy who was just doing whatever

Aneria: oooo and then

Aura then tells her about hanging out with Endo and Anias

Anias: man, endo you freaken said it hah, different modes, pfft, and im a door with no knob

Endo: what's what

Anias: tch ,. You beat around the bush, or just take, like, you're blind, huh?

Endo: Just trying to get to know it thats all

Anias: Hmph, not buyin that

Aura then comes into the fray and hangs with the group

Aura: Boring

Anias: Alright, endo, you definitely push it, and bet you try to push your own opinions on others.

Endo: Just trying to understand, what else is there, thought you knew.

Anias then encodes endo words with a token,

Anias: I'll take ya word for it, let's celebrate this pfft.

Anias: You always like to be misunderstood, and beating around the bush is a defiantly your motto, pfft

Endo: Its whatever

Anias then further records the words

Anias: a trick in confirmation wouldn't be a thing that anything pfft

Anias then gives the most spooky eyes on eyes

Aura: I dont know what I have to deal with this

Anias: stupidity was always the game? oh

Sogo: pfft I don't believe this, are we all being recorded for our actions, including skillsets and actions, that's way too predictable, it's crazy!

Aura: That's what they say on the student handbooks, but what happened today was an entirely different case. Vis, are you seeing yourself?

Vis then looks and says

Vis: Then I guess it's a like situation for a hawk to combat the dog

Aura: sigh

Malik: You always cook some cryptics, dude, lol

Vis: it's whatever, ...funny

Aneria: lol

Vis then looks at the coin to see more of it, and suddenly he sees an azure foresight without him realizing it.

Lucy: Ah, now I see, ooo vis you definitely gotta be careful with what you have.

More conversations then start to happen.

Lucy and Aneria then leave to take a break from the group, and, out of the blue, an intentionally prepared, spooky anias waits.

Lucy: oh there you are, sigh, what else is there for us to do now?

Aneria: He's definitely predictable, Boo Boo Anias,

Anias: I know, right, like I could do it so much better than vis and his cool act, like a little kid playing pretend, heh, no wonder his block of a head is from the boonies. Lets just forget about him, waste

Aneria: he always always going to come and hang he thinks hes that smart hes always there its annoying

Lucy: mentally inept some would say

Anias: hah you see , he always right yeah , he'll neverknow it, bet if he hears this at this moment hes gonna burn up and simp and chase, also bet he'll realzie it and ill have to take care of him like a good boy unlike this twink.

* * *

Vis knowing hears all of what was said behind the other alley while he was getting a water break from the event.

Vis then monologues

Vis: its so stupid, them just saying whatever and them saying it yet they didnt notice where they were. I knew it and they just keep proving me right,

Vis then feels alone but just for a bit he understands that feeling of a piece of mind

Vis: But I guess they are right, but what's the point of being right when people, even I guess, are just stupid.

Vis then looks at the token he stole and realizes how stupid and humbling this is.

Vis: I see they never learn, and glad ive learn something that they already know , but thats just it ,

Vis then throws the token coin away, knowing doing an desperate action is just pure chasing

Vis: Did they ever see themselves, heh maybe were all just the same. Guess I just mosey off and learn rather than chase like what they just did

As Vis monologues his old mentor Alex sees him and saw what he did

Alex: doing what you did might land you in some chaos, or even a write up,

Vis in shock then is relived

Vis: Thanks teach, thought it was someone else

Alex: its been sometime since ive taught you and guessing how you were overseeing, you gained something that more valuable then what they have said

Vis: yeah,

Alex: the piece of mind, challenges anyone, and guessing how lax you are, youve seen and moved past it.

Suddenly Aura and Sogo come into the area, seeing Vis almost changed

Aura: Hey! Vis the rest of us waiting for you to come join us

Sogo: Bro, they're telling stupid stories about the rest of the cadets, and boy, they're spicing it up, dude, you don't want to miss it. LOOSEN UP BRUH

Vis: lol fine just let me get my stuff

Alex: alr have a good one

Alex then walk off knowing what he taught in the session has been passed on to him, he sees Anias with the most dark goofy smile

Alex: I see ya Anias no wonder the girls be following you

Anias: Hah That is a high offense , and nah im not even trying, go ask yourself

Alex: ah those kids thou.

Anias: Heh Vis, hes almost becoming like me , nah that madness is like the flipped coin,

Alex: It seems off but im getting to see the other form

Anias:.....

Alex: The chaos is getting worse; the condition of this kingdom is going to

Anias: The eye of the blank nature of anima

Both of them look at the area at hand and see the area in a past time.

Anias: Vis is gonna see what im really aiming at, just like old times

In the night time as the others do their academic processes on the aura and soul control, Aura starts to remember the amount of strength both endo and vis have, how deep inside she doesnt want to revisit a pain of losing again. she writes everything she recalls and starts to put her soul out into the memories she beloves in time. She then recalls a time she was so rash to vis and combated with him, how the other cadets were bullying her, and right when she was about to get hit with a badly aimed blow, Vis then takes the hit

Vis: I cant believe this! Aura DODGE NOW!

Aura: but if I do you'll!!

Vis in instinct then takes the blow from the combative exhibition, knowing he's badly damaged

Aura: STUPID why did you do it,

Vis: huff huff, why are you like this, aggh

Vis then falls as the accident happened him bloodied from it

Aura remembers him falling and the memories of putting so much of a fault to him

Aura remembers Vis and seeing so much of endo in him then cries

Aura: sniff, i never wanted him to punish himself like this, why couldnt he learn at all.....

Aura then remembers what Vis said to Anias and the rest of the cadets

Vis: whatever happens , ill protect what I choose to protect

Anias: HAH you trying to white knight this, YOUR SUCH A FREAKEN SIMP, freaken based , man do I have to record you on your deliquency

Vis: Shut UP you all were trying to accuse her for doing slander on those topics, who gives you that right HUH!

Anias thinks for a bit and crafts something up

Anias: you have all the riches do ya pal, your so rich of thinking patterns that makes deranged peeps get better.

Anias then punches Vis not to hard but hard enough,

Vis: TCH

Anias: sigh

Anias then acts out how vis defends those things he loves,

Anias: lol " ohhh im the big mister macho thunder chicken, I must save the princess boo hoo" predictable

Vis then stares dead straight at Anias for breaking rules that make no sense.

Aura: Why would you dare do this! sniff

Aura then remembers what happened and what she said, and then has a resolution

Aura: Vis..... I want to become the strongest heir to this kingdom. Just you wait, I'll be as strong as you, I promise.

* * *

The girls then go on a sports visit, hang out, and play some volleyball

Aura then worries about the important event she has to attend

Aura: I can't believe the ceremony for me is about to happen so soon

Aneria: Hey, boo boo, we gotta check out the shop now.

Lucy: gasp, they have the exclusive charms we can't get anywhere else; it's so limited from that booth.

Aura: kay

Aura then prepares for the Azure Kings ceremony for the time, all the while realizing those burdens and feeling what she needs to foresee; checking her voice book, she remembers the prayer and chant she needs to do to help advance her stature.

Aura: I can handle this, I know I can

Lucy then hangs an aura to cheer her up

Lucy: Oh come on, bae, you're never the downer when we're doing the arts,

Aura: I know, right? I'm just feeling sad over what has happened

Lucy: The guys just never get the message when we're around them, so just don't worry about them.

Aura: But I mean, am I really in denial? How is vis so

Lucy, knowing that shes holding her emotions back from the lack of security

Lucy: Hun, you definitely don't have walls like that. I know when someone's blocking away a lot of things

Aura: I definitely do not, I can understand anyone by a mile away, im not.....

Aura then looks at her emblem, which she bought with endo back then, remembering how goofy he was, yet at the same time, he intentionally bought it in disguise to help her. She reminisces about her time playing in the ballroom,

Endo: man, aura, you definitely made me a good joke pfft man I suck at this though

Aura: Hah im winning and you just got more defensive, hah hah

Endo looks at Aura and sweeps her footing and tricks her into falling, then suddenly he reacts and holds her from falling,

Endo: Then how do you explain this, though?

Aura: You Dumb JERK THAT'S MEAN HMMPH

Endo: Okay, okay i know that

Both AUra and ENdo take time to relax and see the stars brighten up for the 1st time

Endo: The gods up in the sky are definitely doing the festivities, but we can ride up there and reach as no one else would

Aura: Oh

Endo: bet there's those that just want something to keep forever, lol, that's kinda annoying, especially a guy doing it though

Aura: like how you say it?

Endo: nah i mean, when someone tries to keep a lover forever, it breaks the magic, ya know what I mean

Aura: You're so crazy for telling me this, Endo. We're not even married at all

Endo: pfft its just a joke, just take it easy

Aura: lame

Endo : Ah, man, now I've done it im defeated for being such a joke, Joker or whatever. I might have to be taught by someone that defiently knows. im likewise the most stupid like a care bear eating the rainbows from the stairway to heaven,

Aura: giggle

Endo looks at the style she has and plays around with her style as well.

Endo: You got some rosey like gloves from Saint Everest

Aura: Thanks, but no

During the academic blade session, Aura is tested to see if she can pass the Aura Adapt test given by the proctors themselves. Suddenly, the combatant Anias is then presented. Aura, obviously annoyed, then tries to outclass Anias; however, Anias, knowing how predictable he is, then plays a nasty trick.

Both Aura and Anias then spar, and Anias then intentionally downplays his abilities by Aura restricting himself with a trick

Aura: Huff, Its over

Anias: Oh yes its indeed the end of the 1st act

Aura: Uggh

Aura, not wanting to deal with this any further, then outplays Anias, or so it seems, into a capsule aura form to deal the damage towards him. Suddenly, Anias, in a crafty way, then aura rebounds Auras' attacks with his aura restriction, enabling the attack to have a temporary restriction alongside a captivating feel. Endo, seeing this, starts to worry if Aura can get out of it in time.

Endo; DUDE WHY, She wasn't ready for this strat. Anyone who knows in the academy knows how broken the ability is. She doesn't have enough air

Anias: pffft hah Obviously, she knew, I mean, she had all the reasons and support to understand something so stupid, lol, come on, Aura, isn't that right? She has so many guys helping her out, not to mention free periods to do some goof papers on psychological behaviors lol

Endo then Aura Unlocks the Aura Rebound and gives Aura some air and water to help her

Anias: It's definitely a test, so we all should account for our even use of abilities.

Endo: That's so screwed up, that's only meant for combat at the highest degree, you can only use that when the opposition is there in the state.

Aura then gets air and returns from the depletion

Aura: YOU'RE SO ANNOYING, Anias. You're the reason everyone dislikes you.

Endo then stands and gets close to Anias space

Endo: Use that other form again, and I'll "even" it out. We clear, "boss."

Anias: pffft, alright, alright, I'll do as you wish, pretty, pretty king, just let me go out like we always do.

Both endo and anias shove each other off, endo giving the disrespect, and anias giving the most okay sign, having the most stupid smirk.

Present time

Lucy and Aura then go to the shopping hall and see with their glamour a star-like necklace that suits Aura perfectly, a cross-like beauty

Lucy: GASP, they have that specific necklace; it's too rare to come by nowadays. And its a rare collectible a discount too! The light star necklace

Aura then looks at the star-like necklace lights in an even bright angle of perception, the stars line in a direction perpendicular, like the code of -like flow, the star's even shape shows the help of older times, pure guidance, emotions, and feels her soul within it ,

Aura: it feels so true.

Aura then holds the necklace and sees the light from angels themselves, and the peace flows through her hands.

Aura: Mother.....

Lucy: Aww, you're so cute wearing like that. We definitely need to take bff pics boo boo

Aura: I do?

During the girls' shopping spree, Vis and Malik then start buying equipment for the ceremony being held at the ballroom as the Azureking gives a current mission at hand in the outskirts of the kingdom field,

Malik: Pfft, dude, all of this is so mid to even touch, dude. Hah, they expect us to use these lame paddles to protect them during the ceremony.

Vis: Can't tell if any of this is legit, though. Im gonna look up some stuff.

As Malik and Vis get their technical equipment, Sogo does something else in a other type of way and meets up with Anias in the contractors' hall. A spooky thing, perhaps, could follow

Anias: Ah, I have a man of many dreams pop up here. How can I assist you

Sogo: Nah, nothing much, just wanted to know how to deal with this certain person at hand

Anias: We definitely have some opposition to take care of, but alr send me your portfolio

Sogo then sends the info he got about Vis and the rest of the cadets. Anias is very pleased about how Sogo's stupid act was the best trick in the books to get what is needed

Anias: We both got some annoyances that we want to outclass, and there's that alluring goal we all want. I wouldn't have to say anything more, I guess

Sogo:.....

The Ice queen comes into the fray to send the info documents about the cadets and overhears them say some peculiar things, she puts the papers yet hides herself to see the juicy gossip

Anias: As a proctor, all I want to do is help people and learn about all kinds of things, oh, you know that so well

Sogo: which is kinda why I need your help on something

Anias: So it's him, thou

Sogo: Aneria, she could , you know, do some stuff for us if it wasn't obvious enough

Anias: LOL hah hah if only Aura was able to hear this , she would be crying by now, pfft it's already too well known, alright Sogo, I'll ask the other proctors what we can do to "brighten up" the work at hand.

Sogo: Yeah

Anias: Man, and I thought "he" wouldn't be any freakier than any of us, oh no...

Sogo: pfft yeah

Anias: How about this, I'll erase all of your debts in karma points from the previous academic sessions and will boost your support and needs. If you can play with "him", because once it happens, it will be a magical "spectacle" indeed, so how about it? Deal?

Sogo: okay

Both Anias and Sogo then shake hands, Sogo knowing that he has to play this act to get what he wants. And Anias likes how everything is coming to a head of sets of events like sessions. Sogo, feeling conflicted, knows he has to do this because the snow clan also needs a specific item for the mission at hand.

Moments after the shopping, Vis and Aura chose to meet up and talk about what's been happening. Aura, with her reasons, wants a specific change

Aura: If you don't want to change, then bye, you never learn actual manners by doing that

Vis: How would you know when I can change? I'm trying my hardest to keep up with everything that's been going on.

Aura: Well, what's gonna happen when you keep acting like you know it all, or even being intrusive? Who can respect that? Proctors could get you expelled and make you temporarily ineligible to work.

Vis: Alright, yeah, it's an eyesore to keep doing this with you. You sure like to put me like that Aura: You're losing my interest. Sigh, I'll have to leave.

Vis then plays along,

Vis: The passage explains how to chant the message; you just need someone to listen and enhance your reach in will.

Aura: im listening, go and say it

Vis: So use me like anyone that has a legion to you, you are the queen,

Aura:..... I'll allow this.

Vis: to be with a king of many powers, would be no place for someone so basic like me, a basic blade meister, to be in consideration.

Aura: Well, no, you, as my meister and knight of blades, should understand how much of a privilege it is to be in this kingdom, especially when I im taking you as you are.

Vis: Yes, i do understand that

Aura: But to be at your pathetic level of skill, why would I take it at heart? This is no place for a commoner to explain.

Vis then thinks for a bit about how to handle aura's, reasoning about him to some extent. He then says what he needs to say.

Vis: But in your image, I wanted to be nothing more than a simple tool for you to use, for your wants mean way more than a meister of my caliber to that detail. Im just a simple commoner with the blades .

Aura: As I am right about this.

Aura then remembers a talk she had about how vis was hanging out with a certain girl to an extent.

Aura: I've heard a very simple young man try to double hang with certain girls to an extent, a dog with 2 ways. He thinks he's free, yet he's trying to dig himself in a fairy tale. In reality, he's a blind, hopeless romantic wanting more than what he realizes.

Vis, hearing this, then sees she might know something in a fearful way. Vis then says and plays along.

Vis: Then that person all he wanted was to help, or even if he's trying to play those games, he can't go so far, especially when he forgot his own self-worth.

Aura: Go on

Vis: Unless he's afraid of a certain scenario that can happen, If hes trying to help when both of those girls have distastes for each other then, support might be in need.

Aura: sigh like oil and fire, it spreads

Vis then gives her a reason to help her, knowing she knew it.

Vis: Why not train a person like me and help the dog turn right back into a man of your own take?

Aura:.....

Over the next few weeks to months, vis and aura train, with aura instructing vis in sophiciation through her guidance. Aura uses her strict form to mature vis ego in arrogance, yet phases vis back to his much calmer self in the form.

Vis: OK im trying, I get it now,

Aura: ugh, you weren't even straight up when walking wheres your aura formset

Vis: Coming from a princess like you, I should be running a mile just for this

Aura: Just Focus

Vis then listens and Aura then fixes vis stature by changing his etiquette and understanding,

Aura: you know thats not how you eat or use a cloth like that

Vis: Then I'm just an old school cowboy

Aura: Even cowboys have better manners when eating with someone like that; they wear napkins and just don't do as wild as how you eat. You just don't care at all!

Aura then guides the angle of his stature and helps him eat like a simple gentleman

Vis is in an annoyed mood and tries to shift his posture to be more laid back, even though he's bored out of his own world.

Vis: Come on do we gotta keep doing this again

Aura: Hmmph im leaving, lame as always, ill do it again

Vis then gets up and just what she wants

Aura: Mr. Vis, am I clear

Vis: um yes mi lady.....

Aura: Alright, let's go back and do this again

Vis: Yeah

Vis clear posture change then enhances vis blade and sophistication, he then is able to access a different level of flow states.

In the upcoming month, the king prepares for the ceremony for Aura to use her prayers to enhance the kingdom, alongside allowing her to acquire the skill of protection. There, he hands a mission letter to all the proctors and gives Vis, Sogo, Divu, and Malik the slip and tickets needed to join this expedition into the azure and snow horizon.

Vis and the rest of the guys then talk about it, even though no one wants to meet up at a time like this, Malik, knowing this, then tells the group the reason for the summon and requests

Sogo: tch man at this lame hour, dude, I'm too sleepy to talk it

Divu: Dude, just focus. We asked ourselves to meet up you asked for it

Malik: The bosses we got wanted us to meet up to assess our circumstances

Sogo: dude, you're using words like that, isnt you? I've seen you much more vibed than this

Malik: Focus , yo Vis

Vis then comes into the area, phased and changed in stature, his motion of form is then laid out in a sophisticated way, the confidence leveled in a crazy way.

Vis: Yeah, I heard the call, you're guessing im the ace in the hole.

Sogo: Ace in the hole, what's that guy talking about, he's just crazy.....

Malik: You got the 2 classes, vis

Divu: Which is the Alternative Rear Guard, and Royal Advancement guard

Everyone looks at Divu, knowing he said something details not known to the group

Malik: lol so the proctors gave you the beta test for the events expedition to the snow plane of azure

Sogo: Nah how come me or Vis didn't get it

Divu: The Royal Advancement Guard is just a term meant for combatants with skills to advance the field, so in this case hes the knight in a play of chess, However since hes able to use the Azure King's rare privlilged Alternative Rear Guard Class, that will allow him to stay on the rear if he chooses to do so and guard on the side. A Rook would be the alternative formset if the guy chooses to do so.

Vis: Depends on the situation of the expedition,.....

Malik: Aura told you didnt she ,.....

Vis: her

* * *

Vis remembers what Aura told her through her feelings, how much fear she had, and the anxiety of doing this prayer; she doesn't know what's going on. Yet he himself felt the amount of importance in how she feels , Vis then remembers how she gave him a special role just incase anything happens with a amulet only those she trust can do.

Vis: You good?

Aura: What kind of an answer was that, don't you see im trying to pray the chant

Vis seeing her struggle then lets her pray on her own, Aura then carefully lets her emotions flow through her voice of prayer, suddenly the player like aura then sparks her and make aura much more stressed out, Vis knowing this then holds when she falling.

Vis: Im telling you that overpushing yourself could be a waste come on

Aura: huff huff, you always like to say anything to help me, is that all you know, cough

Vis then gets some water to help her our knowing that the chant can be to strong for a girl to handle.

Vis: your getting sick from this, the chant cant be done to many times, you told me that

Aura: sniff, I just dont understand how the other girls are able to do it so well yet I cant, am I just

Vis : Then I guess a guy like me wouldn't be a burden if im able to help you gain an strength in this.

Aura then feels the protection force flow through for just a minute, thus the field is then formed into a temporary field of power

Vis: Im glad you got this done, sorry for being kinda intrusive or over your head

Aura: I dont believe it, Vis how did you.....

Vis: Just take a break, you dont have to say thanks,

Aura then hugs Vis for a moment he feels so much struggle coming through her soul

Aura: I dont know how ill be able to do this in the ceremony, im trying my hardest

Vis then lets her say

Vis: Just take your time,

Aura then passes in her room an amulet her dad gave her.

Aura: This amulet was the reason i wanted to be strong. Yet im so lacking in level when it came to expressing my will. Everytime I look at the forest and skies of azure night , and just want to see my dreams yet those dreams lead right back here.

Vis: yeah.....

Aura: I wanted a purpose, so would anyone know peace within protection?

Vis: I don't know, asking me would be telling a puppy to read a book

Aura: So peace isn't in your admiration, vis?

Vis then looks at her and comes close, but aware of the space between them.

Vis: When I was young, I always thought that what I was justified by my family made no sense, but in reality, it was just me making the excuse; it wasn't their fault, and it wasn't them for wanting peace. I just took the peace for granted

Vis then remembers all of those times he tried to protect, yet was so weak.

Vis: Protection was one of the reasons that made me want to power to the skies

Aura then sees Vis reasoning,

Aura: But without that, then what are you left with

Vis then thinks and feels what she said, he senses it and says

Vis: A cause that wants me to find truth.

In the guys hangout for the prepped mission.

Vis: Guys you already know what this is, it would be kinda dumb to explain something that even you dudes would have gotten already, lets move on

Sogo: Nah we need to know dude, pfft we be friends right right

Malik: alr , lead you boss it up like you need it because right now whatever happened to you she mustve made you better like refined like liquid gold.

Vis: The role im gonna use would be the latter, since you guys should have the abilities in that fire like confidence.

Sogo: thats any of us dude, you wouldnt know how!

Malik: Just relax, the proctors asked me to lead this time with you guys, Aneria and Lucy are in their own team alongside Aura being the maiden in need of protection.

Vis then looks at the area, realizing how funny the tables were placed, vis seeing with his vision knows something off for hence he says,

Vis: It's always good to keep an eye open when the other is closed,

Malik:...yeah, we'll keep ourselves looking at the right things.

Vis and Malik give the queue and acknowledge that the targets might be the ones protecting or a worse situation in control.

Divu: lol so it gets started I guess, glad to hang or whatever, just remember that any of us is accountable for messing it up, so it's good to you know gauge yourself

Sogo: Tch man, you always like this

Vis: Yeah, Just in case, we need to check ourselves before doing this

Divu: Wouldn't have agreed any other way

The team then plans out the teamwork and play stance needed to guard the expedition from the outside beings that can inflict, Divu getting a notion that what he got from the proctors was off, knowing this, he plays along.

Malik: Alr Sessions Over

While the team then prepares the practice grounds for the protection ceremony, Malik and Divu then join Anias and Aura in a planned session, Malik knowing Anias starts to get the message that the proctors are aiming for something .

Anias: Yo, took you long enough, fam

Malik: it was nothing

Aura: sigh, what am I here for

Anias then hands his planned protection map to see how the combatants can train in form, he knowing himself then give a statement on how vis will go into a challenge needed for him to “perserver”

Anias: My lady Aura what would you think of this planned exhibition for vis, Since he has the required abilities to access the aura blades, he should have the right notion to do this, Should be a good excersive for him to adapt too

Aura is trying to understand what the statements say, and within it, she presumes it’s all normal to some extent, or so it seems. She then thinks knowing Anias could do some funny things if she doesn’t sign it, she then does not touch the pen

Anias internally laughs and gives a slow smile, then asks the team, Malik, Aura, and Divu, to agree on how Vis will be tested. In hindsight, Anias forgot to show the rest of the contract that both Aura and Malik signed without even realizing it. Divu knowing Anias half truths , then says something in nature

Suddenly, Anias then hands Aura another letter from the king and Snow Queen about the expedition at hand, Aura in a recollection flow of understanding, then reads the letter and is shocked that Vis will be required to do the exercise despite her not agreeing with this recent update on the contract

Anias: so you think now you have options, Aura? Your father definitely said it's for Vis own good

Divu: I wouldn't be much of a user on this if my priorities were for my clan, I don't have the right or skill to allow this to happen.

Anias: I forgot one thing, Vis if he fails this specific request from you and Malik, then he will be taken off from the grid and "instructed," would that be a viable thing ?

Divu, knowing this, remembers Sogo and Vis during the years in the academic years. How both Vis and Sogo were just being them selves with their own mind and humility, that kind of innocence he envied but then realizes what he had to go through with his problems with chaotic families, Sogo hanging with Divu they both remember the chaotic times. Divu realizing how skeptical the situation is with Anias and his supposed contract, then puts the contract on hold by saying Divu: Let me take a walk and let me see what options I have. I am running a few minutes late; my previous meeting is running over.

Anias: Ah, okay, I get ya, just go, you don't have to give me a reason, we're family, remember that, lol,

Anias then looks at him and monologues a distinct plan

Anias: "He's so freaken oblivious, he thinks no one was talking about him this reject of a snow air snowboard missy snowman from the holidays, oh well, I'll have to give him the book, basically to make him 'read' s like a mentally lacked boy, sigh. Sigh VIS will defeintly be an obstacle in this reject of a team. So bootleg based from a jungle like boonies.

Divu looks at Anias in a way that both are aware of what's happening

Divu then thinks outside the area and room, and then monologues

Divu: This whatever guy Anias, is too predictable im not gonna fall for that, I already know it, he's definitely talking about what I've done to other cadets as well, ... what to do

Divu then remembers that he can talk to Vis and give him a "tip" on something

Divu then remembers what Malik gave in the meeting, how sly he handed the note, and with it was a proctor's coin.

Divu then goes to a specific room where no one is showing and checks himself and the area, He decodes the message from the coin of a hidden message from Anias and the Proctors. There, he gets the recording from Malik

Divu: the king does he

In the recording

Anais: Alright proctors, we will be doing some controlled monitoring on Vis and his boyfriend, Aura on how they should be acting. We will put Vis into a room where he will look at each of his actions and every time he learns something, we will make him fight one of you proctors until he's tired or in need of a daycare. Then we'll definitely have to take pictures of "him" so that way it won't look so much like a "joke" I mean, right guys, he sooooo definitely not a joke right Sogo,

And in the expedition, he'll have to pass a certain test to handle his supposed skills in those classes

Sogo then comes into the area at hand and says

Sogo: hah hah yeah, He's definitely not a so sure "loser" so we better give him as many trials as possible, he should be able to handle it dude lol I mean those retries definitely aren't a "loss" to worry about so we can give him a lot, lol

Anias: Ah, ANeria your here too, aren't you

ANeria: yes

Anias: your defiently a good type, though, better than a guy like Aura lol

Both ANeria and Anias then talk with the rest of the proctors in an presumed educated meeting,

Anias: You're hurt, aren't you wanted Vis to just be with you; it's truly so valid for you to like him like that. He would so truly care for you if that man aura wasn't there in the 1st place.

ANeria: No.... hes so lame, I dont even think hes that cool, his body, voice, how he works out in the gym its so Lame

Anias: lol I mean your right thou, hes just a gym rat trying to skill up like runnign in a rat wheel in the rat race. But come on deep inside you want him, he definelty got the strong type.

ANeria:.....

Anias: Strong People tend to have much more leverage, looks, and power that can't be explained in words; he definitely has logic like any of us would do. He fits the picture, don't you think?

ANeria: How he is, how he walks, I just...

Anias then tells the other proctors to hand him a bracelet

Anias: He's very "cool", he has all of that skill, why don't you use him? I mean, you can hang with him like a true princess rather than a guy with such an annoying girly attitude like the princess to have. You have something that is much more valuable

Anias then gave a bracelet, but with a promise

Anias: By allowing him to wear this bracelet, he will surely become more attuned to who you are. Maybe it might save a relationship that hasn't started. Or if you wish, use the bracelet you have and try to wear it then make yourself as good "looking" as it is.

Aneria: And if I choose not to use it?

Anias: Then all possibilities are lost, you wouldn't want to be a loser, right? Why not be with someone as strong as Vis? Why not make him belong to something of what you wish to have?

Aneria then thinks she feels what she wants; she gets close enough to touch it by a mere touch, so close, almost like a sewing needle, in that intensity, she surely would be tempted to touch it.

The proctors then agree, knowing his nature, and some turn very malevolent just from Anias' dark aura in that state, smiles that are so crazy that words can't describe the motion in play

Anias: If he fails, then I guess im right, losers pay the bills...
.sigh

Anias then leads Aneria to the touching of that bracelet

The coin then stops the recording as it is finished to some extent.

Divu:.....this can't be real..... Malik, were you trying to see this from the other side?

Vis, Sogo, Aneria, Malik, Lucy, and Aura then meet to ensure the preparations are in place for the trip.

Aura: were all here now, I can't believe it's so few days away

Lucy: Bff were all here to support you

Aneria: You go, girl, I know you're gonna win this

The girls then look at the guys for being weird, or so it is

Aneria: anything you got to say, GUY sogo

Sogo": Nah, you girls got the understanding already were just here to

Malik: What's he actually trying to say That we'll be needed to help and be of great use to you girls on this expedition, lol, if it wasn't already known enough.

Malik shoves Sogo, knowing that the dude always plays games at the wrong time

Sogo: Dude, sorry, I thought we could relax for a bit or mess around.

Both Aneria and Aura look at Vis, how he's changed in form, his aura better controlled and formed by how Aura allowed herself to train him.

Aura monologues

Aura: AM I really seeing him like this? He changed so well and actually listened to me; he knew what I wanted. Maybe he isn't so stubborn like a mule at all.

Lucy then comes into the fray and says what she has to do as the leader in the inner protection of the expedition

Lucy: I'll be the one monitoring everyone's skills from the other side. This means our circle has to be fully defended or assisted at all costs when it comes to it.

Malik then gets what Lucy tossed to him in a respectful form.

Malik: this means for my team, ill be the ones advanceing the guard to handle the other adversaries outside the area in some capacity. VIs will be the one allowing 2 access classes to switch into, since the king know he can read the area to a distinct flow and source.

Vis: Whatever happens, Ill know the cost when it comes into doing this sacrifice.

Sogo: man rip thought this could be an easy cake to do, come on Vis, you know it to well dont you

Malik: You both got a skill that definetly gets cold as ice, So just ya know keep your head high and your noses to yourself, You hear

Sogo: yeah alr

Vis: Likewise

Aura and Vis then look at each other and feel a connction yet its flows differently this time

Lucy: kay girls well put our records in notes so we can assess more of the meeting at hand , I hope the boys get a better understanding of how important this is, if they can ever see any of it to begin with.

After the Meeting is done, Lucy and Malik talk to each other knowing their responabilities for the expedition and their relat-able circumstance,

Malik: Man i still remember those time hanging with them.

Lucy: you got a magic lighter

Malik: alr

Malik gets his magic lighter and hands it to Lucy both vibe in the room outside the team to talk about life

Lucy puffs the smoke for who she is she doesnt seem to look like a smoker but to some surprise she was like that .

Malik: Those kids , how they be so bright and impressionable they have alot of soul

Lucy: Yeah,.....

Malik: Goofed Sogo, and Focused Vis, man they remind me of my bros back home.

Lucy Smokes and is so chill she flows her emotions in the most vibed way.

Lucy: Like how they tend to make problems turn into a clownish act

Malik: pfft thats an understatement, both of them just got that spark that Ive used to have way back then now im just old, i cant spark up like a youngster or have that physicality

Lucy :oh

Lucy looks at Malik how even if he says those things , he still looks buff kinda of what she thought a sleeper type

Lucy: Funny how you joined them into the team as a student yet you had options to be a different type of a proctor.

Malik: Nah, im not that good to be in their proctors level , would rather train with the kiddos or fams ya know

Lucy: sigh stop you downplaying yourself cant fool anyone especially me,

Malik: alr shoot tell me

Lucy: If people were to work their hardest on the simplest task, then where would their respect be when theres nothing to do? How could a person be so powerful when the abilities were stunted by a lack of perception or practice?

Malik:.....

Lucy: dont you hate having all of these responsibilities , I mean I would If i had to handle this

Malik: Nah I see it more like hanging with friends , I tend not to make it so corporate unlike how I hang with anias

Lucy: their records kinda show so much potential, especially Vis, now hes someone with a “good” additude

Lucy then gets close to Malik with her smoking without a care in the world she expresses her feeling with a emotional acted feel,

Lucy: Maybe im not so strong , maybe the fault was with what ive done, Maybe i shouldve, I dont know

Malik: Girl just relax, stop

Lucy then tries to hold maliks arm towards her to make him feel what she wanted to feel

Lucy: Im so glad someone like you could see me , So why not help me or come along , were both powerful so why not you know.....

Malik: but why thou

Lucy looks at Malik with her eyes that are as clear and beautiful as crystal, she looks at Malik and tries to flow her spell to him

Lucy: why not join my cause.....

Malik:.....

Scene

* * *

Both Vis and Sogo then test their skills in a practice match to see how they progress in the match during that point, Aura then spectates how they both fight

Sogo: hah not bad , you blasted a bunch of toys at me bruh, thats a plus

Vis: Aiming like that , is kinda based, the same ole thing

Aura then seeing Vis phases his actions and stances she feels the confidence flowing through vis, clear as a crystal

During that time, the AzureKing and the Snow Queen confirm that the process is almost complete, they both know the expedition will be the “return” needed to commence

After the practice battle with Vis, Sogo then realizes that his time is running out, he has to gain what is needed of what he wants before the time clock strikes.

Sogo: I hate it being a fool like this , they really are right.....
.tch

Sogo then remembers what happened and just want to think in his capacity even when he trying to fulfill the blades wish , he'll need more time yet he's limited. The blade then speaks from an origin form

Sogos Blade: you already know why you did it, you chose this blade because of that desperation , you never did see it or did you know that she really was tempting you, Aura

Sogo: what are you trying to tell me that isnt true I was trying to be friends

Sogos Blade: from my purest blade of forms , I dont judge what is light of the stars or what blackened your ego in deception, you wanted control to play the king yet you were as prideful as a mouse, isn't that sad , this blade that I am came from that need .

Sogo: None of them saw you as a friend; they just saw you as an annoying rat from the slums, Why would they respect you for what actions you did, even if your introspective intentions were clear

Sogo: That doesn't make any sense, I thought i was being friendly with them, or was I

Sogos Blade: Have you ever wondered why Anias always allowed you to enter his office? Some say it's for academic reasons, but he allowed you to enter his domain in the dead of night. Doesn't that surprise you?

Sogo: I really was in need of help, I wasn't in denial IM SURE OF IT

SogosBlade: Yet you still did it you planned with him a malevolent plan all because you want vis life was that true? Does that make you an insufferable man

SogosBLade then passes to his hand

SogoBLade: You doing it during the nighttime can also make you vulnerable to code violations, as he allowed you to access a bad time, you shouldn't access, but you did anyway.

Sogo: Who could blame me? I just wanted to gain strength, like anyone would SogosBlade: And now he's in your grasp, he's toying with you like any of the rest. One wrong mistake from you, and you will be punished for it, or even lose memories from your clan. They do have that practice as the clan has many rules to allow them to control the culture in their form.

Sogo: no.....so its my fault TCH DAMN WHY DIDN'T I SEE IT

Sogo Blade: Your want for that girl drives you mad to do anything for her

Sogo: I would eat a tiger or even destroy anyone, I would do anything for her, so why didn't I

SogoBLade: And that's how he played you, he gave all the options, and you just took it all like a monkey, you didn't realize how monkey-based you were.

Sogo: No nevemind I don't want her, she wasn't what I no STOP I don't want to deal with my SogosBlade: your purest memories, remember you wanted power to protect yet you also wanted to leave your clan and got what you wished for.

Sogo: Stop!

Sogos Blade then calms Sogo yet at the sametime reminds with the binding that he will have to face it,

Sogo then blade gives him the blades alternate form the agro blade of tigers , his want then makes him understand how wrong it was and now he has to face it.

In the proctor's room, Anias then handles all the papers and smirks for a bit, realizing there's a pattern happening that only he knows

Anias: And I thought everyone was calling me crazy for me to do this, and now all of this happened,

Anias looks at the reports and smiles with the most likely stare no one would want to see

Anias: If they are starting at me and saying im crazy and staying away from me just for this, then whatever they say, they wouldn't know their own words or even know how to use, That kind of blindness from them makes people or even themselves crazy because they don't even know the words' meaning or reasoning, it's genius.

Anias then looks and sees Vis reports there, he pinpoints a certain weakness,

Anias: If he's trying to justify himself to be normal at all from the start, then he's a donkey, definitely indeed. wait

Anias then looks at one of his weapons vis used in the training hall and thinks about how to create a curse to activate

Anias: I'll say he's the most normal person to be with, and make him do so many powerful skills while I proctor him, and by touching this blade, I will pass it a blade prebuilt by me handed from the other proctors, and abilities that the curse will activate, and will make him turn crazed due to the condition. I am indeed the most crazed or crazy man to even fulfill this, and yet they are right for calling me this. And hence Vis will be the same as me. ah sigh. However, the situation that im in,

Anias then looks at the amulet the Azure King gave him, knowing this will limit him before he even tries to fulfill this

Anias: But I guess in the end, im nothing more than a pawn to his kingdom, heh, if only some knew that my grasp within the azure king's touch controls the form.

Anias looks at his arm, and for a moment it transforms into a tenebris-like arm, and then it changes back

Anias: All I have to do is be crazy enough to craft up a perfect technique to make myself right both ways, hitting 2 birds with one stone, HAH, he will never see it coming, so I'll need this blade he used in the training, alongside,

Anias looks at the reports and sees Auras' reports and an item she left from the academic hall

Anias: Her Scarf ahh, So I let vis hold the blade given from the proctors in disguise as a gift from Aura, he touches the blade the 1st condition done, then ill force the blade skills to activate making him believe hes in control but by making the abilities high in amplitude he will be sucked into the curse and the blade making him deranged making me right 2 ways .

Anias then looks at the mirror

Anias: And then I'll prove he is normal, and if he turns crazy, then he will prove me ultimately right, bingo. And then I'll prove myself to be a hero by controlling the curse in my will and save Vis from his bad chaos, and then Aura will surely follow

If only he doesn't start attacking the protection of the princess, hope it surely doesn't happen, ahhh

Anias then puts the plan in invisible paper and ink and slowly grins; his plan is almost too good, almost as if he isn't normal or crazy at all.

Anias: Alas, only I would know

For many to see this man, it would be a catastrophe waiting to happen

Anias madness then makes him grin even more, all of that crafting and power turns his face into the most highest level of a wolf, a black wolf perhaps, for many who even dares to see him like that in the state wouldve never looked at him, For hence the man anias is known as the master of deception, a dog and yet a person that will bring others to their doom alongside him as well.

In the boys dorm, Vis in his room then looks at the night time sky and starts to see a omen a red moon in sync with nature itself he sees the moon and tries to hold it in his own hands, He then looks at the mail he recently got and un packs it, He gets a message from Alex about what is about to commence

In the letter

Dear Blade Meister Vis,

Im pleased to congratulate you on your skills as a azure knight now given 2 premium classes, those classes are meant for the experienced in the field but in your case you had and took the time to learn different princples while you were in your room and practice area, As from what ive guided you, There should be an item that will enhance you to use your skills in a specific way, so for you to use this skill, you have to look back into yourself to see it

Overall im glad you have changed while I was off, Remember: dont let others fool you for who you are or what you are, If they try to prove you are crazy for even reaching this. Then they themselves don't really understand what they are understanding or talking, so don't feel so down all the time, you have a reason to reach it like all of us.

However, if they do know their terms or what a level of crazy is, or them knowing it too well, then those people also have problems, maybe having problems that they call crazy might be the most normal to others who see it as a way to improve themselves.

In other words, your problems that they call crazy or deranged may not be so crazy to begin with. To some of us, it might be the most normal thing to feel,

Crazy is just a simple word of a term, so anyone can say it

Even if they are right and you are unintentionally proving them right, that doesn't mean you don't have control; you understand yourself as well as anyone else. All you have to do is just make that word crazy a normalized word.

That's how you stop caring about it. When you grow older, you'll more or less understand what I im saying.

Always note that the levels in a society or norm aren't only one, there are many. So, depending on where you are, that term overall will vary depending on what it is. There's no need to prove them right or yourself right. Just keep your peace.

Regards

Alex

Vis closes the letter and, for a moment, then smiles

Vis: Thanks, Teach

Vis then looks at the Blade he's brought with him, something that wasn't touched from the proctors, yet he wields within his room. He then sees the Charm Aura gave him, he remembers what she said

Aura: Please cherish this charm; it's meant to protect the people who are most dear to them. If you need to use it as an item, then connect it within an item

Vis then looks at the charm and connect it with his blade of azure the blade glows distinctly and forms a transformed blade, the blade now has the charm and its signature distinct in form.

Vis: Aura..... okay Ill remember to keep this blade with me at all times, she really didn't have to do it,

Vis then looks at the charm and realizes its something he liked

Vis: The charm was created with the light of star-like dragons; she wouldn't have done it

Vis then sees she cared enough to give him something he likes

Vis: dang its so clear she knew me like this....

Vis then looks at the blade he got from Alex's letter and sees the kindness that he's forgotten after a while.

Vis: I guess I gotta switch it up or something,.....alr

In Aura's chambers, she prepares her books and gets the right amulet to wear for the ceremony. There, she looks at her photos and feels glad to have those times.

year passes, and the final academic year begins for the strengthened cadets. Each Combatant is then given a snow azure sigil within their clothes, each representing the legion to the snow and azure clan. The expedition stage of the academy then starts.

In the inner circle of protection, Aneria, Lucy, and Aura are all in sync and within the defensive form. In the outer circle, Sogo, Malik, and Divu rest on the outer circle as the backup

And then there's Vis as the one who can use both classes to join on the rear end and within the circle of protection,

Malik: Our area of interest resides within the gate to the snow planes; there should be a mixture of the azure and snow planes in tandem with the plans

Anias: Definitely counting on it, heh

Sogo: Man, this is gonna be a chore to walk like writing a whole essay on this, like it's just that long, dude.

Everyone then looks at Vis and sees he's the type to understand where to stabilize the area,

Vis: This means I got the control needed to advance the party on both sides.

Divu: I'll be gaining the intel from the sections needed to keep the protection active. We can't mess this up.

Divu then looks at Anias with the most hawk-like eyes, knowing that he could get screwed over for a proctor's "miscalculations." He then sees the others and knows which options he can use to communicate the path.

Anias with the most planned look of being blank, then assess

Malik: This should take, according to the level and route, 10 days to complete

Sogo:alr

Vis: Cool

Divu: Nice

* * *

In the girls' protection area and camp, very distinct protections are created to keep the maiden Aura in a calm form and sense needed for her to chant the right prayers for the process.

Lucy: Girl you got this , that was perfect right on point!

Aura: Was that good? I might have to try again, idk how much I need to sing

Lucy then looks around and tells her to keep practicing while she's off

She meets Malik, and both of them check each other as Lucy couldn't help but sway. She sees Malik's tough body so powerful, yet she has so many likes not only on his body, but also on something else

Lucy: Couldnt help yourself?

Malik: Just went around , thought the place was kinda built nice. So Bae whats up

Lucy: Nothing much, just wanted to get some fresh air, I wouldn't think anyone would listen to a "simple" story

Malik: I got time to kill, would you allow a dance if you want

Lucy: Well, your team or dudes so sure need your guidance, let them loose for too long, and one of them might bite the hand that feeds,

Malik: Psychology was kinda a funny forte for some, would it

Lucy:.....go on

Malik: In the book, there's a certain type of idea or ideal that comes in the psyche, pfft me even explaining it might be freaken stupid

Lucy: No.... I know what you're implying,.....
..The blank state of anima

Malik was then shocked; he couldn't believe Lucy knew that distinct detail. Only He, Anias, and Alex knew that psychological concept from the start. Malik then monologues

Malik: How dafaq did she know that, it's so freaken advanced even from the most contextual context

Lucy looks at Malik and monologues

Lucy: I definetly got him by the right angle on the right time, my looks dont seem to show but I love to read with supposed glasses to gain an upper hand, especially reading books, this dunce doesnt even have the balls to say what hes about to say.

Malik looks at Lucy but keeps his cool, knowing how powerful Lucy really is. He thought she was just someone normally skilled

Malik: Yeah, you know more on it

Lucy: In terms of technical research, its a very womanly thing to know, funny how a guy would know what this is

Malik: pfffft I definitely don't know that much about it hah hah

Lucy: From what you said, it's veeeeery emotional and so intuitive, even a psychic gives the lessons for free ooooooooo.

Malik is sweating, then monologues

Malik: Nah this cant be freaken real is she like a witch or something , oh shiz

Lucy: Oh, Malik, you're sweating. Would you want me to get closer and just harmonize with you?

Lucy then hands him another note for him to see

Lucy: The anima and persona obligation draft will be needed to be done by our and your terms if it so seems to work

Malik reads and then sees she's aiming for something else with the clan

Lucy: My soul has no rest for every waking hour I listen to the sounds of stars, and yet the grass of ice cleans my yearnings

Malik: You and the Snow Queen, what are you.....

Lucy: well ill have to leave since you don't get what im saying, maybe another time, or not

Malik: wait what

Lucy: la lee la la lee la

Lucy then goes into the camp, then gives Malik the most powerful stare, her aura so immense at that current point, and her soul so in control makes even the mightiest of men, like Malik Rai, freeze

Malik: Man, this is wack. How did I even talk like that? It's just foolish, nah

Lucy then goes into her quarters and rests there with her notes she writes

Lucy: To make him mine, if he thought I meant him, I meant the man named Anias with armor filled with angst and power, his will, his denial, Ill use what I have for what would they know about me..... But I'll need a man, so any kind,

As Lucy sees the vis outside doing the duty work and team plays, she feels allured by so many men,

Lucy: Vis... sigh... so much, I feel like I have so little time.

The 1st day then starts

Vis is then queued by the other proctors to do the required test before the departure happens for the expedition. There, Anias and a few of the proctors test him on the specific actions hes done on each report there Anias traps his plan in motion

Anias: Do you remember the actions recalled here, where you were engaging with the aura to an extent

Vis: Why do I have to do a confirmation on this

Anias: for the practice and training, like a gift, of course, all well thought out for you

Vis then confirms and is then forced to combat one of the proctors to test his aura temperament

After a couple of strikes, the proctor allows Vis to do a distinct strike and finalize the fight

Anias is pleased by this, then takes notes on him to understand what to do for that specific handling of the"blade."

Vis sensing the amount of blade fighting almost tired him out

then ask the reason in a way to get any answer

Vis: The amount of fighting thou kinda , stressing my bones out, theres more to this?

Anias: Well, well, the reason im doing this test is to see if you can read out the sessions and learn each ability used, as the proctors have used specific abilities that should be easy to counteract, depending on each report I've sent.

Vis: sigh, you don't think this is gonna last long enough where we lose time

Anias: Oh come on vis, you know me than anyone else that we dont actually have that time. Btw, you did pretty well. Here

Anias then passes a key and tell him the location of the blade needed to do the ceremony

Anias: The proctors will hand you a surprise when you open the gate

Vis then completes the exhibition and is sent to the gate to get the item at hand, vis with some hesitation or questioning then opens the gate knowing how unsual kind anias is to some extent. he then sees a peculiar proctor stand there, and suddenly he rememebrs its the warden from the Azure Kingdom. There, the warden held a covered-up blade with the scarf aura that he had back then, with a blade. The Warden was excited to give him the blade, itching to pass it to him

Vis: Cant believe its you

Warden: Why, why hello, meister vis, I've heard the splendid news on what has happened. I was given an opportunity to send this gift to you as a humble departing is about to commence

Vis then looks at how eager the man is, and sees something kinda off about that blade that is being given to him. he then looks around at how funny the gateway was.

Anias, from afar, watching, then lets his eyes glow with a red flare; he seizes that control because he thinks Vis is funny and stupid enough to touch it.

Vis then sees something in the scarf and sees the aura change for just a bit, realizing that the blade might not be good to touch yet..... or so it seems.

Vis:.....Hey, warden, let me hit up Anias

Vis then senses Anias and watches Anias like a Hawk

Anias: then realizes hes been found shocked. He then monologues

Anias: How did he find me.....tch I was hoping my invisible aura would not be seen , i was sadly mistaken..... damn.....oh well its too bad that blade is just a test dummy to see if he actually knew it. He forgot that the real tool will be given to him; likewise, my plan has foreseen

Anias: Oh hey vis thought, I come by to say thank you for having an interest into the gift I was trying to give, But I guess ill have to recheck the blade to see if any malfuntions are present in this device of some sort . Thanks for taking notice, Vis.

Vis then looks and sees Anias form a little too chill to be expecting something

Anias then gets the blade and tries to figure out how good vis was for knowing the blade's curse levels

Anias: It's god damn impossible, how can a freaken kid be able to sense a harmless artifact like this, and even adding a curse like that shouldn't be sense to early.

Anias the keeps thinking everytime the same problem emerges that the curse vis had was the curse that gave the insight.

Anias:.....Aura.....Crazy.....I know what to do now.

Anias then gets the blade and Aura scarf and tries to settle a prayer chant to the blade, and thus he makes the blade in a copied blessed form. He then switches the blades into something in plain sight.

Anias:.....Alr Vis, let's see if you really are a man for handling what im about to pull off.... and now for Sogo.

As Vis returns to the expedition camp, he thinks for a bit and monologues

Vis: This guy tried to overcalculate and tried to scout, I didn't even need to think about where he was....what is this thou. I so knew he would be there, ...

Vis then hangs with the team. He reflects on the info he got and talks about the defense needed to

Malik: The time is about to start. Ready yourselves

Everyone : Confirms and thus the expedition then begins in motion.

The day then starts

The azure plane then goes from darkened blue grass into the silvery, like crystal snows of time. Within the 1st day, many things or events commence as the players now have their goals and reasons to form the field.

Both Vis and Aura think about the times in the academy in the kingdom, remembering the lessons and their other reasons to fulfill the path. Aura remembers her mother and herself as the heir to that reason of blue light power. Vis then remembers that promise he gave

Aura: Do you wish for me to provide or do you see me seek something that is not by words

Vis: What I wish would for me to see you as what you want. I'm not that important you know that, im just a blade for you to hold, use me as you will in your heart.

Aura: You should have everything needed to do this. You wouldn't need my assistance in this

Vis, knowing she is the most important piece to the kingdom, then says

Vis: Yeah, I wouldn't need any assistance, however you yourself will need that time, so I'll follow like anyone would.

Aura:.....okay

Vis: We're cheering on, you're not alone on this.

Vis: I'm gonna promise to be as clean as a whistle whenever the situation goes dark. So use me and enhance your will, my true promise is

Aura: Just don't say anymore,..... focus for me your in my eyes, my pet now bow

Vis: Yeah

Vis and the outer team are then on combat duty during the session, and the leads hand the mission tickets. Vis is given 2 rare elimination opp tickets just in case.

Sogo: Yo Yo, what's the status, Lead

Malik: The combat elimination is.....pfft go read your book for that..... this guys just

Sogo: Dude, really, I don't know

Vis: We're already in the current mission and you didn't even listen to the brief about this..... wasn't it obvious....

Sogo: Alright, have it your way

Both Sogo and Vis mess around

Malik: Alright, just focus. We have to visit some towns in order to enhance the field we are in.

Also Sogo do 20 pushups with your blade in your mouth

Sogo almost laughing then is shook

Sogo: Nah I dont have to, you told me we gotta

Malik: Sigh do it come on

Malik then Makes Sogo do the push ups to train Sogos perserverance or to some extent make him realize it

Sogo : DUDE IM OVER THIS

Malik: alr..... remember to check your mission logs and data...sound advice.....

Divu: Rip

Sogo: OKAY YOU DONT HAVE TO HAMMER IT IN

Vis: chill

Vis looks and sees the amount of work being done flows through his hands in form.

Malik: Also Boss check your tickets , those are the oppositions needed to taken out of the field, They are tenebris level astral beings , You should know already to Handle the playing field when its time.

Vis: I'll pass on the current team play.

Vis and Divu then trade blades in tandem, both giving the queue on what could happen

Malik knowing that queue then lets Vis and Divu enter the Area at hand needed to enhance for the maiden.

Vis: Let's go

Divu: We've got time to phase through this.

Anias and the other Chief Leads then plan out the session in play for the 1st day.

Lucy and her team, with Aneria and Aura, then talk about the psychological levels and magic that form the levels of Aura and Soul Construction.

Lucy: Alright, ladies, we will start, managing the arts of soul flow and aura magic sense in these 3 steps 1st we will chant the prayer with aura as the maiden, 2nd we will enforce the field with pure protection in our grace, and 3 we will immerse her power with our power.

Aneria and Aura then talk for a bit in secret,

Aneria: Hey, Aura, I have a theory that our lead Lucy might be a high magi witch from the outerskirts. She even has the exact accent, girl, you know it.

Aura: Shh, please, we can't do this now when she's instructing us to do the process of the chant

Aneria: Well, she has 3 of the maidens doing a different routine that is not from our own area, and she acts kinda theatrical, like she's in some kind of acted play to some extent.

Aura: quiet

Lucy: The 1st step of the arts of soul and aura control all comes from the person's mind and soul flowing within the emotions, in layman's terms, a woman's intuition, as well as the act of forming states of anima. Now tell me what the form of anima is to a basic sense Aneria?

Aneria: Um.....when were happy or sad

Lucy:sigh return to your corner and read the passage as asked aneria so much of it.

Aura and the rest then play their chants to show the flow of motion.

Meanwhile, Sogo then gets a training ticket as Malik instructs him to learn some mental reasoning.

Malik: Catch it

Sogo: Lol, what's this

Malik: Something that anyone knows, but for your case, ...is a long mile for learning simple manners....

Sogo: Tch lame alright ill finish this training in whatever manner in a couple of weeks....ill prove it

Malik: In a matter of pfft like im gonna tell just go do it, Just send me the results when you figure out whatever you're thinking... There are always even things in life, or whatever your mind thinks.

Malik then monologues

Malik: couple of weeks, hah, for him he wouldn't last long enough to learn anything.

Sogo walks with confidence and stays in the outside corners to practice what the books say.

Sogo: Now, what do the books say

Sogo then reads the book and realizes it's a massive rude awakening about people who are just like him.....

Sogo: How to learn cognitive behavior..... tch he think I can't get the freaken message, what else is there.

Sogo then reads more of the book and sees this note

Malik's note: For your help..... start reading these therapy notes on how to fix your narcissistic attitudes and thinking for yourself

Sogo: Hah, as he knows me from the inside out.....

Sogo then reads the thing he hates the most..... How boys think

Sogo: this..... nah that can't be it

Sogo then reads the book and sees a lot of himself in it, on how idiotic he is sometimes.

Sogo: Heh, me talking about things she likes would make me the lamest player out of all of them. I don't need it

Sogo thinks and realizes like a kid finally realizing his immaturity

The chapter then says.

Your environment, or how you're cared for, from over-pampering care to pure neglect, will make one care for themselves.

Sogo:tch

Vis and Divu then enter the 1st town, where they have the opposition notes implying the tenebris level of being to be neutralized by concealment and handling of the life rather than extermination

Divu: The Mission notes imply that we have to keep them alive so we can calm the town at hand.

Vis: So we try and exterminate them right now, then bad reactions can happen from taking out the tenebris...

Divu: We would cause a catastrophe or a rupture in the town to commence, which would hinder our progress in the current situation.

Vis: So we have to scout out the area to see who's the one tricking the tenebris summons.

Divu, looking at the situation, then tells Vis about a specific situation happening now.

Divu: Just a tip, be aware of people belonging and yourself,

Anias might be offering something that you should keep notes on..... touching something could be ya know..... difficult

Vis: What are you on about.....dude just say it like a human, not some kind of alien dude

Divu: I got word from Malik that Anias might be playing with some pieces, some of which might backfire on some people.....
... there's a coin I got that showed it

Vis : wait

Divu: I can't say much, but keeping your path secured should be your 1st priority, so don't branch out alright?

Vis: ... yeah, I got it... Let's just focus on the mission now.

Vis and Divu, then engage into the town to find and phase out the location of the tenebris in disguise.

They then see the 1st target listed in the mission records.

The target then stays in silence and sparks snakes from the body of the tenebris

Divu: Dude DODGE IT ITS AIMING RIGHT TOWARDS YOU.....

Vis then deflects the snake-like blast using the aura blade deflect technique

Vis: It's gonna home its missile towards us back now

Vis and Divu are in the stance, formed and bladed up.

Vis then takes a quicker step in the process to use what Alex taught him back then to capture the tenebris the Vis: Aura Capsulate the being of the tenebris.....

Vis then weaves through the side of the tenebris, and aura captures the foe with the right strategy.

Divu: Heh nice you actually listened to your proctors on that ability no wonder.....Alr lets return to the camp and validate the progress on this.

The outer team then returns to the camp and relate the info on whats happened

Vis: alright I captured the 1st set of the tenebris outbreak

Sogo really annoyed then yells

Sogo: Who freaken says that dude that's so easy for anyone to say. " oh I finished the homework for the dog to eat" yeah anyone can defeat that in such a based way. If I were you I would blasted the whole town's bad guys to smoke, bro, hah."

Sogo: That's just one opp, lol, where's the rest.... Man, you actually chickened out from the rest of it. There are so many better ways to describe than this nah bet you got the words

Vis: Dude Shut Up, i was about to finish.....

Sogo: man, Vis, I should've done this myself, the mission would've been a lot more fun when I finesse it

Vis: sigh

Sogo: and I would have served up a fantastic cream of the crop love letter about how I eliminated the monster I would've described how I create an artistic craft out of that monster as my canvas painting my blade like a surfed up brush and giving my best dude.....and include a ring for that girl oooooooo bet I show that letter to her and she would definetly take me

Vis: dude, Shut UP, yo Malik

Sogo: Nah, you definitely need to get your Legos and get your Girly Diary to write it... Aww, you need your own child's room to play with the toys... bruh.

Vis: Sogo, what

Sogo: Seeeeee, you just freaken proved that chickening out was just your instinct... hah, that even proves you more as a girl, girl, Barbie world. Only Girls intend to chicken out like they like to protect themselves, come that had to be you. lol

Divu: pfft Man, this sogo boy, take a load of that guy.

Malik: 40 more pushups, Sogo, keep your trap shut alr
Sogo murmurs about how stupid this expedition is in his own eyes or whatever

Sogo: Murray merry stupid doggy crazyy.....mentally wackos whatever.....

Vis then says the report

Vis: from what we got the town seemed kinda off from the other side the folks were kind but the shops were closed when everyone was in joy.....

Malik: Seems scripted from a mile away if I know it.

Sogo does the pushups and monologues

Sogo: Im gonna get it im gonna prove that I deserve it , im gonna be the best that ever was..... vis im eyeing you now.

After the reports have been heard, Malik then gets the notion that the moon won't show currently

Malik: the records on this report show the pattern of the other tenebris might be an issue.....they will come around the night time when the moon doesnt show.....

Sogo: Dafaq are you talking about

Divu:.....tch of course the maidens are at their weakest during the new moon.....

Malik: Vis, guess it's your turn to choose the active points of protection.

Vis then looks at the plan and weak areas that can cause problems and see.

Vis: The maidens' protection won't be the 1st area to go..... It's our defenses they will poison our teams' areas 1st and go after them when there's no opps.....

Malik: Alex taught you pretty well back then, so you could use a strat like that.

Vis: Yeah

Sogo: Tch, whatever, dude

Malik: Sogo wanna try it

Sogo: Okay, okay, I get it, I'll stop barking.

Nighttime, then comes into the fray. Everyone is on the defensive. As Vis goes, he checks up on Aura to see if she's doing okay.

Vis: Aura

Aura: You're here.....im sensing something ominous approaching

Vis then makes an aura-like charm from the fragments of the blade he used

Vis: , The charm I made has some of my aura comprised from the blade use..... it should guard a little just in case

Aura: I never would've thought you knew how to do this...

Vis: shh.....damn it's here

The clock strikes at the dead of midnight, and the candles are then closed the tenebris then sleeps the defenses outside

The monster then appears

Vis then fields the blade in the force of aura to sense the Tenebris force.

Suddenly, the tenebris then strikes but doesn't attack them; the attack then goes behind them. Vis, the reverse, his stance and aura sacrifice part of his form to take the damage.....

Aura: Vis not again!

Vis: Im still at it.....huff huff

Vis then shoves the blades into the ground and does an aura emission to lure the tenebris.

The tenebris then gets to the source and is then baited, vis does the blade style to active the ability.

The tenebris is then aura-disabled from the inside out... a technique only Anias would be perceived to use.

Vis then phases his blade and calms the field again to its normal state....and then sheathes his blade on the back.

Aura: Sigh, always trying to style when even a poser can wear it better.

Vis: whatever

Vis then checks the signature of the tenebris wraith and see more than what he could check to some extent.

The other teams then get themselves back up,

Sogo: man what was that tch dang my head

Malik: everyone still in sync

Sogo: Man this is wack and annoying dude

Vis then returns to the outer protection in the field

Vis: Got the Beast in form

Sogo: like anyone else would've have, dude

Malik: The results

Vis : The results are

Sogo: Let me guess a s-ranked tenebris that uses sleep bait tech to toy with the opponent in shape.

Vis: what

Sogo: Man I knew you were so going to try and explain it like a loser with goofy glasses and a neck like that. You literally had to get your glasses to read something simple.....lol that why they like to agro you, lol

Vis looks at him dead straight because he knows him.

Vis: Says the guy that over explains about stupid crap on who's the best bae, and being hyper-fixated on swords

Sogo: Nah im not.....tch man, what would you know

Vis: It's mansplaining, dude. Anyone would've known that.

Malik: Cool it, bros

Sogo:alr

Vis:sigh

Malik then looks at the area and feels a sudden shift in the environment

Malik: We'll have to depart from this village tomorrow, we have already tilted the area

Vis and Sogo are both aware of and understand what is currently happening.

The Second day then starts.

Divu , Malik, and Anias then rendezvous in a meeting-like session. Malik gives the eye on Anias while Divu checks up on the notes.

Anias: We up here in the mix, bros, what we got assessed

Both Malik and Divu then calmly look and say

Malik: Yeah, we're testing the "chads" at this. We've got them covered

Divu: Always good to keep 2 quarters in the stash, "twin."

Anias: Knowing something is kinda off, then know the plays are leveled

Anias: We'll definitely need to replay using those quarters on the rations, though

Malik: The Order was called to investigate the town. Before we commence on that, we need to get rations from other locations.

Divu: I know a place where we can find it

Anias: Oh

The outer team then engages with vis on the other side of the defenses

The team then sees funny white snakes coming from the area to some extent.

Malik looks at Anias, knowing something feels very off, yet he can't call out Anias for it

Vis seeing the area leads to a false sense of security to some extent and that ideal space.

Divu looks at the Area map and starts to tell what something is being curated.

Divu: There must be some hunting coming along on this

Anias: Lol, you could say that to some extent.

The outer team then enters the area of interest a specific hunting ground to get rations.

Anias then leaves the blades in a specific spot in the bladed form.

Malik, seeing this, knows Anias wouldn't do something that predictable unless Malik: Dude?

Anias: Just putting it like any kind of good ole item.

Suddenly, a Snow Master Like OX comes into the area at hand, in a seemingly attack-like state.

Anias then eyes the one, bringing the beast into the area at hand, to what seems like to be a confrontation

Anias: HAH, found the one messing it up, alr we gotta defeat this mess, Ill take the damage while you guys mess this up from the side , alr team.

Malik and Vis Look at Anias, confused by why Anias would try and help them out in a selfless way.

Vis: TCH, what?

The Outer Team is then engeged in a monster hunting like combat form of a conceptualization.

Anias then in disguise takes the hits from the monster knowing that blast wouldve destroyed him, he acts out a action to present him to be the hero.

Anias: Ayy Vis help me out, bro. The monster is gonna

Malik, knowing what's happening, then looks around to use anything that can deflect the monster

Anias then looks at Malik and, in his facade disguises again with eyes glaring and red glowing

Anias then monologues:

Anias: As long as Malik takes the blade and uses it, he will then get more confident in the strokes, and thus if I see to it, it will be sent to Malik.....heh then vis will be given that curse wont seem so sudden ahhhh all part of the scenario..... I know malik way to well he'll see that the blade isnt so blackened in a curse nor it will affect him. It can only affect the one I choose to curse.

Malik then takes the blade from where Anias was at and swings the aura force away from the winter battle like an ox, the ox is then dissipated and killed off.

Anias: Nice and im good ole still alive from this, ayyy we got the ox meat now, bois.wooooooooooooooooooooo

Divu looks at Anias, knowing how confused he is from the map's layout he realizes that the intel he got about the food location was inferred and curated by Anias and his team.

Malik puts the blade back to the stash as Anias says

Anias: Yo Malik, you can keep the blade, I think it definitely suits your drip, dude, you look cold as ice, bro.

Malik: alr dude

Nighttime happens, and everyone returns from the hunting trip and feasts on the rations gotten from the monster hunting of some sort.

Anias then tries to get some water from a specific location and tells the others to give him some rations later.

Anias then leaves, and surely enough, another person waits for him.

Anias: Lucy Babe, what are you doing here?

Lucy: Nothing much, just wanted to know how boring it was for me to do this.....sigh, you better pay me.....you do this

so casually its annoying

Anias: Oh, come on, bubble gum, it's part of the game.....
..... Malik has the curse embedded in his hand.....and by the way, it can only be sent when the user's attachment changes.....
..Vis will surely take the blade from Malik.

Lucy: Oh, only thing is you need someone to get close to Malik to activate the spell on him.....uuuuuu so it's love them.....uwu

Anias: Lol, you're trying to eye me like some kind of cat....

Lucy: sigh, whatever, you better stop using lame meet-ups like this, I'll need a tool from you as well.....okay boo boo

Anias: ALr princess

Both Anias's and Lucy's eyes then sparkle, enriched with the red glow of their emotions, so in sync.

* * *

Meanwhile, in the nighttime feast, Aura, Aneria, Sogo, Divu, and Vis eat out as they go into the night.

Sogo: man dude this is like some kind of buffet dude , bro im taking all of your for myself.

Aneria: Oh dont take it all for yourself , freaken selfish

Aura then looks at Vis, and he looks up at the stars, his eyes changing at one point, an eye filled with cross-like stars.

Aura: Wow, the sky is so beautiful, with all kinds of colors,.....
.....Vis, I dont believe your eyes

Vis looks at Aura with awe of peace yet a synced up feeling of perseverance.

Vis: Its nothing

Aura: Sigh you always prove me right by doing that ,.....dont you ever want to prove a better reason than that.....

Vis: it's whatever you want to say, why would I gotta care about having a reason I just do it because.....

Vis then falls silent, unsure how to answer this.

Vis: Heh, guess it's just my feeling,.....

Aura: Do you ever grow up

Vis: Never mind, let's eat

Aura knowing somethings off about vis then feels conflicted, sad.....she was expecting him to cheer up Aura remembers what lucy told her

Lucy: You should see it for yourself,.....vis is going through a certain change at that moment.....hes questioning himself and wants to find his identity...even thou he acts like a lame punk.....dnt you want to help him find meaning.....or is it a waste to put time on to someone who doesnt even know themselves

Aura monologues: I guess if I try to talk to him about it, he would just say forget about it,

Aura then relates and says

Aura: You know you can talk about life, I wouldn't mind it

Vis: Lol amongst anyone, you trying to cheer me up, be kinda wack if you know

Aura: OH, quit being so cool and calm, Ive seen you when you act it out, your not so calm and collective when you act out on that basketball game whatever your soooo good at it

Aura looks at vis and shows a distaste and tries to act it.

Vis: lol just for basketball lol why

Aura: Sigh your so slow at it

Vis: ALr you got me.....its what up

Aura: Dont you ever wanna know how to get out of your style. Nevermind

Malik: Man, you both talk like some kind of married couple though.....

Aura: I dont

Vis: can't thou

Both Vis and Aura look at each other and move on.

Hence, the team eats as the rich skies resonate, unlike what was seen.

The days then pass from the 2nd to the 10th day; everyone walks, moves around the locations, and identifies which points need to be checked to enhance the prayer for aura aer. The 10th day starts as

Visit the outer team and the inner team, then commence preparations for the prayer chant.

Malik: Alright, everything should be in place for this to happen.

Anias: All Peices all at the right time, my man Malik, you still got that gift.

Malik shows it not wanting to engage with Anias on this matter

Anias: Alr boss, didn't want you to get into a hissy fit

Divus comes into the area of the preparation and confirms aura aer is about to get enhanced by the other maidens to start the process

Divu: its almost time

In the inner protection circle, aneria, aura aer, and the other maidens then finish the practice sessions, and almost all of them have enhanced their aura the right amount of times.

Lucy: Remember to breathe in and out. This is a meditative practice and will require you to be calm enough to flow the magic.

Aura: Yes that does make sense.

ANeria: You got this.....

* * *

Vis and Sogo then prep up, knowing the timing has to be perfect for the maidens to finish the prayer to enhance the azure and snow kingdom in tandem.

Sogo: Yo dude, what's the hold up.....

Vis: somethings off.....

Sogo: Your just seeing things theres nothing

Vis: no its my hand it has a faint signature of something.....

..was it me getting to close to

Sogo: DUDE JUST FORGET ABOUT IT.....

Both Vis and Sogo realize the field is currently being changed to an extent.....

They then see a flood amount of tenebris like snow monsters ravage in speed unlike what was seen

Malik: Alright, here's the 1st wave coming in,.....

Divu: What the hell, that's infinite, what the shit dude, how can we take all of it

Anias: Check it, bros ill be using the blades like a master of many kinds,.....yeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeee boiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiii

Anias then uses his shadow azure techniques and ravages all the tenebris in a high level..... in one swipe, he grins like a master of no mimics

Malik: We gotta hold this longer, team.....we can keep it up in this force

Everyone fears something else is happening..... and as the events happen... Anias then does a specific thing to the blades he holds,

Including the one Malik and Vis touched.....Anias then controls the limits on the tenebris waves almost as if he rides the waves like a mad surfed-up wolf, chasing it all.

Vis and Sogo then join into the field and counter the next waves of the Tenebris out breaks, suddenly Vis gets a weird sensation coming from his hand as his hand is given a blade sigil as of a mark .

Vis: What the my hand.....

Anias: Ayy, what's up, main character,.....you definitely got this

Vis then feels the hand resonate and then uses his Azure Blade tech to counter the tenebris soul-like flames of attacks

Anias looks and is surprised by how he's controlling it

Anias then monologues:

Anias: Perfect, now all he has to do is to increase his aura output into high max and peak it up, the mark will then make him mad, hence will switch his capacity to the soul form, which is to some extent the incompatible use for him.....oh no, he will surely fail at this

Aura Aer and the maidens then commence the true prayer session, and the next acts are then chanted The field then gets much more intense in flow and motion.

Aura then monologues

Aura: everyone please be safe, I won't fail at this.....

Vis in the defensive then feels his blade mark on his hand starts to accumulate all of his aura prowess into that mark and hand, He feels it and senses a feeling of euphoria, and then starts to feel a slight chaos coming from it.....

Vis:TCH DAMN NOT THIS TCH

Sogo: DUDE WHAT'S GOING ON WERE FREAKN CLOSE DONT MESS IT

Vis: I cant control it what happening

Vis then tries to use the Azure Blade with the aura on the other hand to balance the aura compensation being placed on the other mark.

Malik, seeing this, then tries to get Divu to get help.... However, Divu isn't phased and tries to defend, but instead the number of monsters suddenly gets stronger.

Divu looks at Anias and sees he has to do what he has to do, ANias knowing DIVu is obligated on this specific defensive act all because Divu had to sign the contract Anias gave him.....Because if he hadn't, his family would have been dealt with.

Divu: TCH.....

Malik, confused and enraged, then sees the field almost ravaged, the rest of the outer defense all over, besieged in a system of chaos

Malik: Anias, DIVU, WHAT'S GOING ON

ANias: Im just trying to defend, couldn't you tell im defending like they say

Malik then looks at Divu and how defeated he is.....

Malik looks at Vis and his marked hand and starts to tell what is currently going on

Malik: Yo, Vis, I'll be there soon, just a little longer.....

Malik then dead stares at Anias.

The inner protection circle is then slowly defended by the inner defenses, anias, and divu, who are there to defend.

Malik then takes Vis and his Marked hand and tries to carry him to the inner circle, as the playing field has now been changed.

Malik: Here, take this glove. It should help dissipate the curse that was landed on your hand or whatever. Can you still move

Vis: I Im finished if I don't. Where's the team?SHIT.....

..there gonna take aura

Both Vis and Malik then Aura Dash to the area at hand.....
.....and sogo waits knowing what he has to do.....

Sogo: Anias, you asked for this.....

Suddenly, the Prayer chant is disrupted by the controlled tenebris acts,

Aura: Oh no, why no WHAT HAPPENED.

The Beasts then try to gobble up Aura , and just in time Vis then aura phases and dashes in front of Aura and deflects the blast.

Vis:.....its good I had to be crazy enough to do it

All the monsters then look at Vis and Aura as the blade meister now controls the pain from the blade mark using the specific mystic battle gloves in tandem.

Malik: There's so many of them

Anias then looks around and is not so pleased with the outcome, knowing this, he plans.

Anias Monologues: Sigh, so the sigil will be stalled by a stupid act of a glove,alr malik have it your way.....

Anias then increases the mark's control and forces Vis to engage in an even crazier experience.

Vis:ARRGH dude this hand keeps aching aggh.....

Vis Marked hand then syncs up and uses a Shadow Azure Blade manifestation, Shadow Aura of a blade coming from the hand. Vis seeing this is afraid of what's about to happen.....

He has a mental flashback, remembering what Alex taught him.

Alex: There are gonna be moments where you can't control the aura within you, as it is all emotion and physical at the same time. Depending on your control of the aura gauge within you, you can stall the pain by substituting the pain with aura, like a healing ointment of some sort. So I'll tell this specific lesson

If you try to fight it back, it will get stronger, since the reason to destroy is as strong; hence, the memories of it will make that negative part stronger. The only way to disperse it for a moment is to Vis: See it as nothing it's nothing to me this crazy part of myself that realization.....

Vis then starts to ignore the pain emitted from the marked hand and sees it as nothing but an ant pinch

Anias looks at this and sees how Vis is able to get back up.....not so pleased by this, knowing he amped up Vis ' pain of the mark by 10 times

Anias: How is this possible.....what are you planning, crazy dude?

Vis then uses the Shadow Azure blade and his Azure blade on his other hand and stances up, only this time he dual wields and dual blades the stances and feels the pain, and grinds through it.....

Vis: No pain, No Gain,.....alr im done doing this, LETS END IT

Vis then unleashes himself and forces multiple blade techniques with precise control, and adapts the marked pain as a limiter for him to sense the pain

Vis: As long as I feel this, that means I im still human.....

Vis then dissipates the tenebris in the current location

Everyone is shocked, no one could believe Vis has the ball to handle that much pain in control form, and states

Vis then lands gracefully and sheaths the blades, the marked curse now claimed.

Anias is annoyed, then senses the plan has failed for now...

Anias monologues: shit,..... they're gonna try and trace where the curse came from now.....ahh, what to do now.

Anias then gets crafty and feels the devilish acts flow. He then takes the blade mark and curse in a hidden disguise from the hand and sends an extra curse right back to Malik.

Malik: YO VIS What happened, saw you, and just now that wasn't an ordinary curse, what was that

Aura runs to Vis and tries to heal vis and his wounds

Aura: Stupid, you keep pushing yourself like this, and look what you did

Vis: Tch I know that..... whatever thing that was it boosted my attack at an ridiculous pace.....it scary I almost couldnt control the form of it.....

Malik: Like it had a mind of its own.....

Malik then looks at his own blade and sees a specific sigil almost too close to the sigil of a mark from

Malik: That sigil from your hand is gone now.....who wouldve.....

Anias then leaves the location, knowing that if he's asked, it would be trouble. He then sees Sogo

Anias: Ayy brochacho..... help out a good ole chad of a friend for me on this alr

Sogo:.....You're cooked if they figure this out, dude.....

Anias: Same applies to you and your agreement for your sister's safety, wouldn't want that to be in jeopardy now, would we, twin? You're an accomplice in this matter as well

Sogo:Tch

The Day ends as everyone scrambles to figure out what happened The proctors are then asked to do an ethics test and turn for interrogation on the matter at hand. Malik and Anias are then placed under temporary restrictions for not abiding by the rules in question.

Sogo, Divu, Aneria, Lucy, Aura, and Vis all join to discuss what just happened recently in that matter.

Lucy: This is really crazy about what's actually happening,

Sogo: My brain can't handle this much bull, guys

Aura: Vis, I can't believe you messed up on the protection

Vis: alr, how was it my fault? I didn't even know what happened to my hand in that matter..... it's freaken strange.....I didn't touch anything as black as that.

Aura: Its always your fault for touching everything around you like you know the place.

Vis then looks at his hand and no longer feels it...

Vis: What was that thou

Aura: And there he goes, being mentally focused on stupid crap..... where are your priorities?

* * *

Both Anias and Malik are then detained for further questioning on the matter at hand. The Azureking and the Ice Queen then stand to see what to do for the mismanagement of the teams at hand.

AzureKing: Now Rise

Both Malik and Anias Rise to see what needs to be done, the penalty for not securing the peace for the prayer.

AzureKing: From what has happened, I would like to know,

by these blades

The Azureking then presents evidence of tampering with the blades' aura signatures and brings in a soul truth device to see who's doing the action.

Malik, knowing who he is, truly knows he's not the type to mess around with blades like these AzureKing: These Blades are meant to be used to scout out areas; they are not always meant to be used to enhance or enable those features in a person from the connection of the blade. Only an Aura Blade Alchemist could have done this level to change the blade to resonate strongly with the user. Anias, would you presume to have anything known about this matter?

Anias looks at the blades and tells a distinct truth.....

Anias: There are many aura-like blade alchemists in our kingdoms. I mean, why would I, a blade combat specialist, try to do something as deep and analytical as that? Surely you know my records more than anyone else. Only someone of the highest caliber of intellectual user can do this.

Azureking: so it must be one of the magicians we have that can do the blade alchemy to that extent. Okay, sessions over, you can now return to your quarters.

Malik looks at Anias knowing something was off from the defensive and the context varied.

During the night, Anias meets up with DIvu, knowing that DIvu has done him a distinct favor.

Anias: You are doing your job so well, your blade alchemy was perfect for this... it didn't even have my signature, so yeah, we're in the clear.

Divu: For as long as we put the signature on another blade alchemist, we should be good.

Divu, acting on the saying, knows he hates doing this from the inside and out, and how he has to agree to do things that aren't in his current nature. stuck in a loop of regret and karma.

Divu: Now am I done

Anias: Go along, we're good, okay?

Anias then walks on his own, unaware that he does not realize that Malik was eyeing the conversation as Malik uses an aura hide technique to hide his aura and thus his suspicions were right

Malik: Sigh..... I knew something was off about this from the start.....so that mark where were its origins from.....anias how did he

In the encampment in the area, Vis then starts to see his hand and sees for a second the mark again.....

Vis: It keeps popping again how

The next day happens, and everyone is much more prepared. Vis's hand is then healed by the maidens

Vis: Thanks for the heal

Maiden: It's no big deal. May the light of the stars fill your heart with purity.

Vis then leaves and sees the rest of the team using a different strategy

Malik: So, yeah, guys, this time we deliver a more controlled defense by adapting the aura force and field in constant sync, so this time we'll need no distractions.

Malik then looks and sees Vis right back in shape.

Malik: took you long enough

Vis: It was nothing.

Sogo: You Ready?

Malik: Alright, this time we won't make the same goofed-up mistake again

Vis: Right

The team then enhances the defenses with an aura field, and in time, the princess Aura aer then commences the chant

And sure enough, the chant is now finished, with no hassle, the agreement with the Azure King and the Snow Queen is met .

Everyone cheers as the aura around the azure princess has succeeded in the prayer and now has an ability that is sacred to her, and feels proud knowing she has self-worth worth keeping. Aura Aer, in her clean, azure dress of a queen, looks at Vis with a kind, compassionate gaze, knowing that if it hadn't been for them, she wouldn't have succeeded. She looks at Vis and feels that those times were fun,.....She saw how focused Vis was, yet he also endured; she will remember.

The team then says their goodbyes as the agreement 3 years ago says that once the cadets are given the right training and meet the requirements, both the kingdom and parties will leave by their own terms in that construct.

Everyone says their goodbye and hugs one another

Aneria: Im gonna miss you, hun

Lucy: Same Aura, you go girl, now you're definitely the queen, give us a message or two, btw girl.

Aura: Thanks.....that was definetly was a ride

As both kingdoms leave for their own ways, both vis and Sogo eye each other, knowing that what just happened is only a start

Sogo: Yo Vis, when I return, I'll be doing better things, jobs of all kinds

Vis: Dude, you can say whatever you want. Bye

Sogo: Nah, this won't be the last time, I'll find a way where rivals always remember that

Vis: Bye

Thus, the 3rd year is now complete,

The original team, Anias, Malik, Alex, Vis, and Aura, all then engage

After 3 years, vis is no longer a novice; he is now at an intermediate skill level. His hair is much cleaner, and his attitude calm and collected... They are now ready to face the king of crimson.

Aura then meets Vis and sees the change she was expecting,

Aura: from all of that and how I taught, do you understand now?

The skill I've taught, and my own prowess what did you remember

Vis then remembers the moments Aura showed and created, her own abilities well designed and respect that is hard for her to give. The Specter Slash, to the Aura Cleansing skills were skills that Vis wouldn't be able to skill to as Vis understand the mountains of realizations to see it.

Vis: your ,m,mskill will always be way more refined and power unlike the stars have seen..... my blade is nothing compared to your blade of a lance skill of the modest.

Vis then shows his blades and his new abilities

Vis: but its thanks to what you helped me with, training me and seeing my lack of ways. Im able to skill these blades all according to your will.

Aura: And?

Vis: To help serve those and align my abilities to its highest extent.....thank you my heiress.....

Vis then blades up his hands and phases one of the blade abilities

Aura Sees and approves his change of is once ignorant ways.

Aura: so much to learn isn't it, but ill give a pass for now.

Vis now in the focused formed guided state understands the limits to who he is yet that doesn't stop him from learning of the stars beyond.

Vis: yeah
